COMMERCIAL CLUB

Much Good Done By This Organization in One Year.

Board of Directors Elected Last Night at the Meeting.

The Commercial club met at the city hall last night in regular session and Chairman W. F. Fenton presided.

After the usual preliminaries, a communication from the Western Waterways Association was read, asking that delegates be appointed to the annual meeting at Memphis on the 14th inst. Messrs. Chas. Wells, Ed. Farley and Campbell Fleming were chosen.

The following were elected directors for the ensuing year: Messrs. W. F.
Fenton, E. Farley, George C. Wallace,
Charles Wells, John D. Bluff, Joseph
L. Friedman, J. Andy Hower, L. S.
Hubert, A. S. Clarke, R. H. H.
Thompson, F. L. Scott, and Mayor Long.

The board of directors will meet next week and elect officers, and appoint committees.

Secretary Latus was instructed to call on members and collect the dues for the first six months.

Chairman Fenton reported work on the steamboat tool works building in Mechanicsburg was progressing rapidly.
This concern was located through the efforts of the Commercial club.

The club is in a prosperous condition, and is increasing every day. It has been of great advantage to the city,
and has located a number of industries, with a prospect of locating more in the future. Nearly every mercantile establishment in the city is a member and every one ought to be. It has done more for the uplifting of the city in one year than was ever done before in three times that long.

NARROW ESCAPE

Stationman Ingram Fell From a Second Story Window.

Three Ribs Were Broken and Left Ankle Dislocated
By the Fall.

Stationman Walter Ingram, of Central station, met with a serious accident this morning about 3 o'clock, the result of a dream. He was on the platform, and the other stationmen in the second story of the building.

About 3 o'clock this morning he saw a vision of a woman, and fell out the second story window on the north side of the house, into the yard of Mr.
Far, striking on his left side on the hard brick walk thirty feet below.

He was found in unconscious condition and carried upstairs.

Three of the ribs on the left side,
over his heart, were found to be broken, and two bones in the left ankle were dislocated.

Mr. Ingram afterwards learned that the vision he saw was an imaginary one, and it was a dream. He escape with a narrow one, and it is a wonder the fall did not kill him instantly. He will probably be laid up for a few weeks at least.

Dr. Griffith dressed the injury and this morning Mr. Ingram was resting well at Central station.

TAYLOR LEADS

In Spite of Claims to Contrary the Figures are for the Republicans

OFFICIAL COUNT PROGRESSING

Some Bascully Is Feared and Talk of Bloodshed is Heard, But

RIGHT WILL NO DOUBT PREVAIL

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 10.—The Post in its most editorial declares Taylor certainly elected governor by 3,000.
It says also the legislature is Democratic, but without doubt anti-Taylor and anti-Union.

Barlow county, official gives Taylor
1,087 plurality.
Official vote of Marshall 368 for Cook. Livingston official gives 430 for Cook.

Western Union Bulletin.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 12.—Soon —With complete returns from 94 counties and nearly complete returns from 23 counties, making 117 out of the 119, Taylor's vote stands 166,100 and Cook's vote 164,728. The two counties unreported in 1897 gave a Republican plurality of 1130, which would give Taylor a lead of 2517 votes. The unreported counties are Leslie and Martin. Both sides still claiming the vote with a voice. An official count will be necessary to decide.

Scissors-Men's Bulletin.

FRANKFORT, Nov. 10.—The Kentucky election situation is still a puzzle. It seems to be a close race right down to the last county returns. This morning the complete returns from ninety-seven of the one hundred and nineteen counties gave Taylor a margin over Cook of fifteen votes. All interest is centered in the result of the canvass of the county boards today. The Republicans are watching for whole state totals and declare doubtful will result if Crooked work is detected.

MOVING AHEAD

Americans Advancing in Spite of Continued Rains.

The Filipinos are Routed Where ever Met and Always With Losses.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.

The 3d regiment was received from Gen. Otis
today.

"MANILA," Nov. 10.—Gen. Lawton expressed some difficulty in his results on movement on account of the continued unprecedented rains. The advance was at San Jose yesterday, at Barrangue today, and a strong force was put through on the Alibangue route.

"Young captured yesterday considerable additional ammunition and property in transit. He is meeting with opposition, but his advance is not being retarded.

"With five officers, two privates of his regiment, and one of the soldiers, a hundred insurgents in the mountains west of Manila, and depended on them, killing and wounding others, capturing six and also sixty horses.

"The railroad from Angeles to Manila has been destroyed.
"Gen. McArthur will take up the advance to Manila tomorrow.
"Gen. Wheaton reports twenty-eight Spanish prisoners secured. Wheaton says everything is favorable to carrying out successfully his instructions and that the cooperation of the navy is complete."

DETECTIVE TAYLOR.

He Will Have the People Sing
Out of the Yards.

This morning Special Agent Taylor, of the I. C., escorted about 25 colored men and women from the I. C. yards, where they were picking up coal and running the risk every moment of getting killed by a switch engine.

The detective says he will step all such people from leaving the yards if it takes him a month, and he heretofore every one caught in the yards after the first warning. He will also give his attention to those in the habit of jumping on and off trains while they are in motion, and will be out daily in the yards from the Union depot to arrest them.

A LAKE OF BEER.

The beer which is consumed throughout the world in a single year would make a lake six feet deep, three and three-quarters mile long, a mile wide, or 2,319 acres in area. In this vast lake of beer we could easily drown all the English-speaking people, to the number of 120,000,000, and drown the entire world, or we could give a beer bath to every man, woman and child at the same time in the entire continent of America.

PADUCAH VERY DULL.

Election Seems to Have Had Very Depressing Effect.

Paducah is sadder if possible than for many weeks past, and nothing of sufficient importance from a newspaper standpoint to note can be found.
At every corner are men asking each other the election news, and the result of the election appears to be the only thing that the public wants to hear.

The Paducah papers have provided every facility for getting the news, and the reason they have given the public nothing more definite is because there was nothing more definite than they gave. Correspondents at Louisville, Cincinnati and other places send all procurable at those places, and this is what the people here have received, as soon as electricity could bring it here.

MARRY IN LOUISVILLE

Mr. David Van Culin to Wed
Miss Mary Nell, of Louisville.

The wedding to take place on the fifteenth of this month.
—Will Reside Here.

Mr. David Van Culin left last night for Louisville, where on the 15th of November he will marry Miss Mary Nell, of 243 Breckinridge street, that place. The marriage will take place in the forenoon, and the Episcopal ceremony will be used.

The bride-to-be is one of Louisville's most charming and popular young ladies, and is the third daughter of Hon. L. H. Hall, Democratic nominee for commissioner of agriculture.

Mr. Van Culin is a member of the firm Van Culin Brothers, and until recently resided in Lexington, Ky.
He is a young man with many friends and admirers, and it will be with pleasure that they learn he and his bride are to reside in Paducah.
They will leave immediately after the ceremony for their future home here.

Miss Nell is well known in Paducah, having been a guest of Mrs. Henry P. Thompson for three months or more two or three years ago. She was very popular while in Paducah, her marked beauty attracting much attention. Mr. Van Culin and Miss Nell have long been sweethearts. In Paducah as elsewhere they have a host of friends to congratulate them.

WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES.

Flee Company at McArthur's Opera House Monday Night.

"What happened to Jones?" is the attention at the opera house next Monday, Nov. 13. It is a catchy title and one calculated to arouse curiosity.
The lines are said to be unusually bright and witty and the humor flows in a steady stream during the entire progress of the play. Jones is a demon, "singing hymn books in slow towns and selling playing cards in fast ones."
While attending a prize fight the place is raided by the police, and Jones, with his escape with a nasty professor of highbrow, rhymes loudly, who has been induced to attend the fight by his prospective son-in-law, who has decidedly sporty predilections.

GONE TO LUETGART.

Wife Murderer, Who Imitated the Savage Barbar, Hanged.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—August Becker, who murdered his wife and boiled the remains to conceal the crime, was hanged at noon today. The motivation of the deed was to enable him to marry a younger and comelier woman.

WON'T WIN.

Though He Had Reason for Hope
Patrick Will Lose.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 10.—Democratic figures this morning generally coincide that Patrick, Democrat, can hardly overcome Caldwell's plurality for lieutenant governor of Ohio.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

Mrs. Henry Savage this morning saw a warrant against children of Mr. James Elliott, for disorderly conduct. She alleges they threw mud at her and otherwise annoyed her. The case will probably come before the police court tomorrow morning.

FIFER GETS PLACE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president today appointed ex-governor Joseph W. Fifer, of Illinois, a member of the interior-state commerce commission, to succeed Tallman, resigned.

ternoon by a false alarm.

COMMISSIONERS

Board Meets at the County Court House This Morning—
Many Present.

ORGANIZATION MADE AT ONCE

There Is Much Work Before It —Organization Before Noon.

SQUIRE EMERY WILL CONTIST

The county board of election commissioners, Messrs. J. J. Homan, Ed. O.
Leigh and R. O. Caldwell, met in pursuance of law this morning in County Clerk Homan's office to canvass the returns in McArthur county of the last election.

They proceeded to organization without delay, and the minutes of the preceding meeting were read by the secretary, Mr. Ed. O. Leigh, and adopted.

There was quite a crowd about the court house, many of the local politicians sitting about in the county clerk's office to watch proceedings, for the workings of an election board is not something that every one is familiar with.

More than the ordinary interest was manifested on account of a notice of contest served on Squire W. H. Hook, who was elected magistrate in the Fourth district over Justice Charles Emery.

The contest was made on the grounds that fifteen votes in Madison precinct were wrongfully counted because they were improperly stamped, and because men were allowed to vote who did not register. The precinct gave Taylor 78 majority, and the contestant asked that the votes presented to the whole precinct be thrown out.

The commissioners will probably not finish their work until tomorrow. They had barely begun at noon, when they adjourned for dinner.

In the contest of Mr. Emery against W. H. Hook, arguments as to the law were made by the attorneys for the respective sides this morning. Attorneys Wheeler and Taylor speaking for Justice Emery and Attorney W. M.
Reed for Mr. Hook.

The board decided that there was nothing to contest until they made the official count, and the contest then could be made and argued before the board as a board of contest. Until then Justice Emery has nothing to contest, no official count having been made. The matter was deferred until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in Colonel R. O. Caldwell's office.

It is not known how long the canvassing of the 21 precincts will require, but it will no doubt be all this afternoon, and probably longer.

BRITISH WORSTED

In the Transvaal According to the Latest Reports.

One Regiment Declined By the Boers—Ladysmith Still Being Bombarded

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Gen. White's pigeon service is improving. Ladysmith was heard from as late as yesterday. Gen. Buller reports that a message from White Thursday says the bombardment of Ladysmith, by heavy guns at long range, continues. The casualties inflicted are few and the Boer guns do no other harm.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The Figaro says
Gen. Rhodes was captured by the Boers in one of the sorties from Kimberly.

ESTOIR, Natal Nov. 7; Delayed.
—The Boers now have definitely occupied Colenso.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The recent dispatches from General White do not tend to allay the anxiety over his position. It is remarked as significant that while White in nearly every dispatch says the Boer bombardment continues no mention is made of the British artillery fire in reply. For a time much was said about the effectiveness of the naval guns from the cruiser "Powerful."

It is feared either ammunition for these guns have given out or that the siege guns the Boers are reported to have recently brought up have disabled them.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Gen. White in one of his dispatches says: "The Boers sent in today a number of refugees from Transvaal under a flag of truce. A flag truce from Ladysmith met them outside of the picnics. Major Galt, of the royal engineers, was wounded today while sending a message. The entrenchments are daily growing stronger and the supply of provisions is ample."

LONDON, Nov. 10.—An Amsterdam report says a British regiment was almost completely by Free State Boers.
Six hundred British soldiers are said to have been killed or wounded and three hundred horses captured.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

Paducah's Storm Water Sewerage
Seems to Please the People.

Street Inspector Ueberbach is still engaged in gradually substituting pipes under the surface, called "storm water sewerage" for the gutters and wooden coverings. It widens the street and adds to its attractiveness, and prevents the accumulation of filth.

The sewers have been found in many parts of town, and seem to give universal satisfaction.
They have been found adequate to all demands everywhere during the heaviest rains, with the exception of a few places, where even the gutters were insufficient, before the pipes were laid. The city will continue the use of them until the town is supplied.

POLICE COURT

Brief Session This Morning of Judge Sanders' Tribunal

Pete Dowling Gets Himself Into Trouble and the Lockup.

Pete Dowling, the well known baseball pitcher, was a prisoner in the police court this morning. He was charged with drunkenness, but could have been charged with a few other things had not the authorities let him down light.

Last night, after being locked up, some one in the lockup turned over the stove, and set fire to the floor.
The prisoners set up a hue and a cry,
and when the attention of Chief Hoyer was attracted to it, the flames were extinguished with small loss.

Dowling and some of the other prisoners then got hold of a cistern somewhere and attempted to dig out of their prison, but were prevented. This morning he and Arthur Dunn pleaded guilty to a plain drunk and were fined a dollar and costs.

Dowling was pitcher in the Paducah club two years ago, but afterwards in the Louisville league. His contract with the latter has expired, and he is now under no contract to play ball next season, but expects to be. Dowling is a pretty nice fellow and has many friends in Paducah, but he ought to have Drs. Rivers and Stewart work on him.

The case against Richard Caldwell, colored, charged with maliciously assaulting Henry Johnson with a hammer, was continued until Monday, as was the breach of the peace case against Johnson. Johnson's head was very much disfigured in the fray.

Ed Lewis and — Harris, charged with petty larceny by stealing some gloves from a downtown store, were not tried, for they had not been arrested. The case was continued.

WORDS WILL FLOW

When First Tennessee Comes Marching Home Again.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10.—
The committee on the program for the First Tennessee regiment reception has decided on a program to be observed after the parade of troops and civic societies. Bishop Gallor will deliver the opening prayer and the Rev. James I. Vance the benediction.
Governor McMillin will speak on behalf of the state. Mayor Hood, on behalf of the city, and Col. Chaires will respond for the regiment. President McKinley will make an address, and the Hon. Tully Brown will also speak.

MARKED FOR DEATH.

WILMINGTON, O., Nov. 10.—Miss Geo. McMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McMillan, died of consumption. Her father was shot on the streets here by Attorney J. C.
Martin October 9, 1897. Her mother died about a year ago of consumption and this death makes the tenth fatality in the families of the parties immediately connected with the sensational tragedy since the shooting.
She was an only daughter, and about twenty years of age.

IS SOME BETTER.

PATTERSON, N. J., Nov. 10.—Mr.
H. H. Hoyer's physicians said this morning they could see a slight improvement in the vice president's condition.
Mr. Hoyer passed a comfortable night and was resting easily this morning.
He took a breakfast and appeared bright and encouraged.

DEWEY AND BRIDE

In Elegant Quarters in Waldorf-

Over How They Outwitted Their Friends—To Spend Honey
Moon in the Greater.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Admiral Dewey and bride breakfasted together this morning in their handsome apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria.
The room was decorated with chrysanthemums. Over their coffee the newly-wedded pair chatted gaily and laughed merrily as they read the newspaper recounts of their wedding and the manner in which they had outwitted their many friends, who had expected a grand wedding ceremony. A mutual and Mrs. Dewey will remain in New York several days.

A CHILD'S DEATH.

Little Nellie, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baker, 500 North Eighth street, died this morning at 6 o'clock from congestion of the lungs. Her illness was of about forty-eight hours duration.
She went to school as usual yesterday, though she had complained slightly on Wednesday, but in the afternoon was compelled to return home and by night her condition was recognized as serious and a physician summoned.
She sank rapidly from about 7 o'clock last evening, and passed away as the sun rose, fit symbol of the hope that sustains her loving parents in their grief. The funeral will occur Sunday, burial at Mt. Carmel.

CASE CONTINUED.

Lost Paper in the Great Case Causes Trouble.

The case of Mrs. Julia Greif against the Paducah Wool Stock company for $10,000 damages for the death of her husband, who was killed by being crushed in the machinery, came to an abrupt close this morning in the circuit court.

The amended petition in the case was asked for and an investigation revealed the fact that it was lost, and after half the evidence had been heard was continued. The case has now been continued twice, and tried once, a verdict being rendered for $3,600.

MATINEE

At Morton's Opera House Tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

The Peruch-Beldeni company will give a ladies and children's matinee at Morton's opera house tomorrow afternoon. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

WOMEN ARE SO QUEER.

Call a girl a chick and she snickers; call a woman a hen and she howls. Call a young woman a witch and she is pious; call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a girl a kitten and she rather likes it; call a woman a cat and she'll hate you. Women are queer. If you call a man a gay dog it will flatter him. Call him a pup, a hound, or a cur, and he will try to bite the man of your face. He don't mind being called a bull or a bear, and yet he will object to being mentioned as a calf or a cub. Men are queer, too.

THE PERUCH-BELDENI CO.

The Peruch-Beldeni company will present the comedy "A Broken Yoke" at Morton's opera house tonight. A matinee for ladies and children will begin tomorrow afternoon. THE STARS WILL FALL.

Meteorite Showers Expected to Take Place Tuesday Night.

All the eyes of the astronomical world are turned toward the grand event scheduled for next Tuesday night, and the evening of the fall of meteors expected will be of the greatest interest to the people everywhere. If the skies are clear the display can be seen by the people of this section. It will even exceed in extent and grandeur the historic star fall of 1833, when the world was thought to be coming to an end. Astronomers say the sight will surpass anything of the kind ever witnessed by man.

Prof. Wm. A. Harkness, who is in charge of the astronomical department of the national observatory at Washington, D. C., says:

"We are unable to predict the exact hour at which the November meteoric showers will begin. But it is estimated that the showers will reach their maximum brilliancy at 10 o'clock A. M. the morning of November 15."

"Although these meteoric showers revolve around the sun in a definite orbit the orbit of the earth moves forward at the rate of a degree and a half per year, thus throwing the advent of the meteors a few hours later at each succeeding fall. For example, the fall of 1833 occurred on the night of November 13; the fall of 1899 will take place on the evening of the 14th of November, and will probably be of some hours' duration. It will be visible throughout the whole of the North American continent and in Europe and Asia."

These falling "stars" are really meteors. They receive the name of Leonids because they seem to come from the direction of the constellation Leo.

ORIGIN OF THE TERM CADDIE.

Origin of the Term Caddie. Ingenious Explanation of Common Golf Term by Frank Boyd.

To some, at least, of the unnumbered and innumerable host of golfers the question may have occurred at one time or another—Whence came the word "caddie"? Frank Boyd, in his "Monkfish" chapter in the history of "Monkfish," which he contributes to "The Book of Monkfish Golf Links Bazaar," offers an ingenious as well as highly amusing explanation of the term. There was, he says, a Celtic "Keddel" or "Keddel" at Monkfish at one time, till the monks of Arbroath dispossessed the Culdees of their lands and made them their servants. One day it occurred to a monk, while having a game of golf, to call the Keddel a "caddie." He found this contributed greatly to his comfort. "The plan was adopted by the rest of the monks, and henceforth they never went out without being accompanied by their Keddel. Now you know," continues Mr. Boyd, "that in these parts the practice is to cut short words in which the letter 'c' is used. A native, for instance, never says 'Baigruy,' it is always 'Baigrie.' Thus it was natural that in the course of time 'Keddel' should drop out of the 'Keddel,' and it should come to sound like 'caddie,' and to this day this is how the word is pronounced by superstitious Scotch youths. In the strong Forfarshire veinacular it was, however, known as 'caddie.' As a matter of fact, the origin of the term 'caddie' does not appear to have ever been satisfactorily explained. Jamieson, who defines caddie as one who carries a golf bag, and so on, expresses the opinion that the term was originally the same with the French caddie, which, as he remarks, is sometimes used to denote a young person in general. Dr. Murray, in his colossal work, holds the same view, but how the word came to be employed to denote the lad who carries a player's golf club has still to be elucidated.—Literature.

The Courier-Journal of yesterday says, Captain R. W. Wise, superintendent, announces the appointment of Mr. C. E. Hayes as general agent at Louisville, Ky., for the Memphis, New Orleans and Cincinnati Packet company.

It is reported as agent for the Memphis, New Orleans and Cincinnati Packet company, that Mr. Hayes for the New Orleans boats. After the death of Mr. Scott it was decided to have him agent at Louisville, and Mr. Hayes will hereafter have entire charge of the freight and passenger business out of Louisville for both the Memphis and New Orleans packets.

Captain Mark Cole, has been appointed by Mayor Lang as another delegate to the Ways and Means convention at Memphis, which commences next Friday.

Captain Billy Shaw looks like a full fledged thieving naval officer. He returned from Louisville yesterday via rail. He piloted the Uncle Sam from here to Louisville.

A Cairo telegram of Monday says: "The report that the Huntington and St. Louis Traction Company and Barrett & Sons have been absorbed by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company is contradicted by a prominent steamboat man who was in Cincinnati a few days ago."

The J. B. Richardson cement with her accustomed promptness this morning for Cairo.

At the ways and docks here, nearly all the boats and at both places of industry, there is several good contracts in sight.

No packet leaving here until to-morrow for Evansville when the Red Bird will leave here at 10 a. m. for that place.

RAIN MAKING ON THE ALPS.

An Experiment That Failed in Texas Has Been Successful in Austria.

The failure of American rainmakers has been followed by a qualified success in the Austrian Alps. There the problem was not the same as in Texas, for instance, where out of a cloudless sky an attempt was made to extract rain. In this section of the Alps there are always plenty of clouds, but unfortunately for those living here the rain freezes and comes down in the shape of hail, causing great damage. The problem, then, was merely to split the clouds as they formed and before they had time to freeze, causing the proper precipitation of rain instead of hail. Since the experiment of shooting at the clouds with large mortars set up perpendicularly on the mountain has been made and with uniform success. All of the neighboring districts have suffered from the usual hail storms, but in this place, Paltitz, there has been no hail rain. The mortar is fastened firmly to an oak block. The funnel is about six feet high. The lead used is only seven-five grains of powder, and this costs but five cents. As the mortar is fired a long rolling echo follows, and after a few minutes the clouds discharge their moisture in the shape of gentle showers. In this way the crops planted in the valley are helped instead of being broken down by the hail, and the cost is trifling. The success of these experiments has aroused widespread interest, and perhaps the weather sharps will be able to learn how to gather the clouds, since the problem of making them discharge their contents may be considered solved.

THEY TOLD GOOD WORK.

American women are receiving the credit for the very successful management of the bazaar for the Charing Cross hospital, held in London. The total profits were $70,000, of which $10,000 was taken in at the stall managed by Mrs. James H. Brown Potter. It is an open question if any other one bazaar anywhere ever raised such a sum. Mrs. Arthur Paget was one of the principal leaders, and she remarked that the bazaar was doing much toward an "Anglo-American alliance."

The American stall was attended to by Mrs. Choate, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Drayton, Mrs. Drexel, Mrs. Roberts and Miss Choate, who succeeded in realizing an exceedingly creditable sum. The flower booth alone realized $4,000; one of the last buttonhole bouquets was sold by Mrs. Paget for $25. The Prince of Wales sent a gift of $500. At the stall of Mrs. Brown-Potter persons sold exorbitant sums to quench their thirst. A titled gentleman paid $50 for one cocktail.

The problem, then, was merely to split the clouds as they formed and before they had time to freeze, causing the proper precipitation of rain instead of hail.

Since the experiment of shooting at the clouds with large mortars set perpendicularly on the mountain has been made and with uniform success. All of the neighboring districts have suffered from the usual hail storms, but in this place, Feldkirch, there has been nothing but rain. The mortar is fastened firmly to an oak block. The funnel is about six feet high. The load used is only seven-five grains of powder, and this costs but five cents. As the mortar is fired a long rolling echo follows, and after a few minutes the clouds discharge their moisture in the shape of gentle showers. In this way the crops planted in the valley are helped instead of being broken down by the hail, and the cost is trifling.

The success of these experiments has aroused widespread interest, and perhaps the weather sharps will be able to learn how to gather the clouds, since the problem of making them discharge their contents may be considered solved.

THE IVORY SUPPLY.

In view of the rapid disappearance of the herds of elephants which formerly roamed in Africa, and the limited number of those animals remaining in Africa, Dr. R. Lydekker calls attention to the enormous supply of ivory which exists in the frozen tundras of Siberia, and which, he thinks, "will probably suffice for the world's consumption for many years to come."

This ivory consists of tusks of the extinct species of elephant called mammoth. The tusks of these animals were of great size, and are wonderfully abundant at some places in Siberia, where the frost has perfectly preserved them, and in many cases has preserved the flesh of the animals also.

They Did Good Work.

American women are receiving the credit for the very successful management of the bazaar for the Charing Cross hospital, held in London. The total profits were $70,000, of which $40,000 was taken in at the stall managed by Mrs. James Brown Potter. It is an open question if any other one bazaar anywhere ever raised such a sum. Mrs. Arthur Paget was one of the principal leaders, and she remarked that the bazaar was doing much toward an "Anglo-American alliance."

The American stall was attended to by Mrs. Choate, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Hays-Martin, Mrs. Drexel, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Choate, who succeeded in realizing an exceedingly creditable sum. The flower booth alone realized $4,000; one of the last buttonhole bouquets was sold by Mrs. Paget for $25. The Prince of Wales sent a gift of $500.

At the stall of Mrs. Brown-Potter persons paid exorbitant sums to quench their thirst. A titled gentleman paid $50 for one cocktail.

Age of Birds.

It is only possible at present to collect data from the duration of lives of birds in captivity; evidence otherwise must be unreliable, and it is purely a matter of theory as to whether the natural possible life is greater than that under the unnatural conditions of captivity. There are records of a nightingale having lived 25 years, a thrush 17, a blackbird that was still alive at 20, a goldfinch 23, and skylarks of 24 and 20. Ravens, owls and cockatoos are popularly supposed to live to a very great age, and the following record appears to be authentic: Raven, 50; gray parrot, 50 and 40; macaw, 61; eagle, 53, and one still alive at 68. Some aquatic birds appear to live to a ripe old age, for we hear of a heron of 60, goose 80, mute swan 70.

A RATHER QUIET 4TH

A General Holiday Observed With Many Out.

Amusements of Every Description Getting a Share of the Public Attention.

MANY VISITORS ARE HERE

The Fourth, a hot but auspicious day, is being somewhat quietly celebrated today, but everybody appears to be enjoying a holiday, and there are people at every place of amusement in large numbers. The stores nearly all closed at noon, and the banks, postoffice and courts were out of business until Monday.

Large crowds went across the river, many are at the Old Fort Massac celebration near Metropolis while Wallace park is filled with picnickers and sightseers and the old harmony singing is enjoying an immense crowd.

MILITARY BOYS HERE.

A portion of the Murray boys arrived last night, but the remainder of the company will get here this afternoon at 1:30. Mayfield is represented with about thirty-five. The total number of soldiers from the different cities are: Murray 55, Mayfield 35, Clinton 35 and Paducah 60, making a total of 185 soldiers.

The Clinton boys arrived at noon with nearly the full military company. About thirty members are here and a good showing will be made at the sham battle.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVE.

Roommaster J. M. Russell of the Louisville division of the I. C. is in the city today looking after the trains.

The traffic on the road is heavy in the passenger service and the trainmen have all they can attend to. Both accommodation trains were loaded this morning and over a thousand people were brought in on the Hopkinsville and Fulton accommodation trains.

PERFORMANCES AT LA BELLE.

There will be four performances at the Casino, La Belle park, this afternoon and evening and the theater will no doubt be taxed to its utmost at every performance. The Seward shows are drawing large audiences and today will be the banner day.

FACTORIES CLOSED DOWN.

Few, if any, of the factories are running today. The employees are consequently out for a holiday and the railroads are not having much of a rush except in the passenger service, as no freight will be received or shipped today.

CROWDS LARGER THAN USUAL.

The railroad companies and boats are doing an enormous business and more people were brought here on the three morning trains and the several boats than have ever been brought here before for a Fourth of July celebration, it is said.

BASEBALL TODAY.

The baseball game between the Pepsi and Coca Cola will be witnessed by a large crowd, and the sham battle by perhaps as many as the park will hold. The military boys are here in large numbers and will make a splendid display.

RIVER SHOW ARRIVES.

The Swallow & Markle river show arrived last night and today the band paraded the streets and attracted a great deal of attention. The show has been here before and will doubtless get its share of patronage.

K. OF P. GO TO METROPOLIS.

The Uniform Rank No. 19, K. P., went to Metropolis this morning to appear in the exhibition drill. About twenty members of the rank went down and the K. P. lodge here will be well represented.

ASKS $1,000 DAMAGES.

Mr. F. M. Lawrence, the second-hand dealer of 216 court street, today filed suit against Armour & Co. for $1,000 damages, alleging that the defendant did maintain a nuisance in the way of a poultry slaughter house near his place of business and he has been damaged to that extent.

KENTUCKY POSTMEN

State Convention of Letter Carriers in Session Here.

Nine Out-of-Town Delegates Arrive—Business Meeting This Afternoon.

TONIGHT IS THE BANQUET

The State Letter Carriers' convention is being held today in Paducah. This morning the delegates from other cities arrived at 4 o'clock and were met at the depot by the local reception committee.

There are nine out-of-town delegates, as follows: Charles W. Huber and W. E. Farley, Louisville; Henry Rauch and D. E. Berry, Covington; W. M. Newton, Newport; E. R. Simcox, Robert L. Skinner and W. T. S. Carpenter, Lexington; Owen W. Farr, Frankfort. An informal reception was held this morning at the Palmer house, at which refreshments were served to the guests until noon.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock the business session began at Masonic hall and will probably last three hours. It will include the transaction of all business essential to the welfare of the Letter Carriers' association.

The delegates are all gentle, highly respected young men, and it is the first visit of most of them to Paducah. The postmen find it more difficult to get off to attend conventions than perhaps any other members of organizations, and they have so arranged it that the business can be transacted by a few.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

1 o'clock. Invocation—Rev. W. H. Robertson. Welcome address—D. A. Yeiser, Mayor.

Address of Welcome to Our Guests—J. G. Card, president Branch 383. Response—State President Henry Rauch, Newport.

Business Session Program to be Arranged by State President.

Address—Hon. F. M. Fisher, P. M., Paducah.

Address—Hon. W. C. Clark, ex-postmaster, Paducah.

Address—T. B. McGregor, Benton. Subject: "The Substitute Letter Carrier."

EVENING SESSION.

Reception to invited guests at Palmer House parlors 9 to 9:30 p. m.

Banquet 9:30 to 11:30 p. m. Toastmaster—Captain Ed Farley, ex-postmaster, introduced by President Card, Branch 383.

Responses to toasts by the following gentlemen: State President Henry Rauch, Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, ex-congressman, Major J. H. Ashcraft, ex-P. M., Hon. Chas. Reed, Dr. Don Gilbert, Captain J. E. Williamson, R. L. Skinner, state vice president, and F. M. Fisher, postmaster.

NICE PROGRAM

RENDERED AT CLOSING EXERCISES OF HOME OF FRIENDLESS SCHOOL.

Closing exercises of the school at the Home of the Friendless were held Tuesday afternoon. The children under the excellent management of Miss Raper, matron and teacher at the home, acquitted themselves with credit. The school room, which has been endowed by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Friedman, in memory of Mr. Friedman's father, the late Leopold Friedman, is furnished with every appliance for a well regulated school.

Icos and cako were served to the children after the exercises.

RAILROAD BRIDGE ON FIRE.

A telephone message received just before going to press this afternoon states that the Tennessee river bridge of the Illinois Central is on fire and had burned in two. All telegraph wires are expected to go down. As the bridge is iron, the damage will likely not be great. It is supposed sparks from a locomotive set it afire.

Justice R. J. Barber went to Dawson today to spend the 4th.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Bank clearings show a slight decrease from the same week last year. This has been the case, however, in but few weeks this year. The first half of 1903 has closed and the period was the most profitable in the history of local banks. The expansion of their business was remarkable. The loans and discount accounts show an increase of nearly $700,000 in a year and the deposit accounts an increase of over $500,000. The net earnings showed the largest on record, too. As the banks are best indicators of the prosperity of a city these figures give an idea of the growth and great prosperity of Paducah.

Wholesale business for the week showed up a little better. Weather conditions were more favorable for the crops, and a better feeling exists all around.

Retail trade has been good, the majority of the houses reporting a good increase over the same period last year, notwithstanding the backwardness of summer.

THE LODGES

Red Men Take in Two Popular Citizens Last Night.

Elks Honor Past Officer—Other Secret Order News.

The Red men last night held their regular meeting and conferred the adoption degree on Police Captain Henry Bailey and Former Councilman G. R. Davis. The order is now one of the largest and most popular in the city.

The Uniform Rank K. of P. left today for Metropolis, where they will be guests of the rank of that place and assist in the big celebration at Old Fort Massac. The Paducah and Metropolis Sir Knights have established the most cordial of relations and needless to say all will enjoy the day.

A fine past exalted ruler's badge has been presented by the Paducah lodge of Elks to Capt. Wm. Kraus, past exalted ruler. Capt. Kraus was a most popular officer and is very proud of the jewel.

The election of officers of the Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, has been postponed until next Tuesday. The new organization promises to be one of the most popular in the city.

Mr. Robert Noble, the contractor, is entertaining about fifty of his friends over at the lakes today with a barbecue, and a most enjoyable time is being spent.

DEBATE ENDS

Both Sides Satisfied With the Result of it.

Two Ministers Fined in Graves County for a Breach of Peace.

The big religious debate at Sedalia, Graves county, between Revs. Hall and Pique has ended and was heard by a large crowd during the four days it lasted. Both Baptists and Methodists are confident their minister won, and there was nothing to mar the perfect harmony and good feeling which prevailed during the contest. Wild Bill Evans and W. M. Hicks, who had trouble of a wordy nature before the debate began, were tried before Justice Wilson and fined $5 and costs each. The Mayfield Messenger says of them:

"Public sentiment was strongly against them and many have expressed themselves that they should have been fined heavier for their conduct, but this may teach them an important lesson, and that hereafter they must not be so severe in their criticisms of each other."

"The debate was well attended by ministers of the Baptist church, there being over thirty present each day. The Methodist ministers were not there in such large numbers. The debate is over, however, and all is calm and serene."

ALLEGED FORGERY.

SON OF CAPT. TYNER CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSE.

Thomas Tyner, son of Captain James Tyner, of the Buttorff, is wanted here on a charge of forgery. It is claimed that he had Mr. George Goodman, the Second street liquor dealer, cash a check for him several days ago which proved to be a forgery. The check was apparently signed by Tyner & Earhart, of Nashville, and was returned as a forgery.

Captain Tyner stated that his son had forged a number of checks that he, Captain Tyner, had to make good, and he would no longer put up with it, and consequently the boy will be prosecuted if caught.

ONE LITTLE FLASH

Sent Vibrating Around World By Telegraph Today.

Pacific Cable Opened and Postal Circles the World With a Message.

HOW THE FEAT WAS DONE

The course of President Roosevelt's message around the world today was by the Postal Telegraph Co.'s land line from Oyster Bay to San Francisco, thence by the Commercial Pacific cables to Honolulu, to Midway, to Guam and to Manila. From Manila to Hong Kong the message passed by the cable which was lifted and cut by Admiral Dewey in 1898. From Hong Kong it went to Saigo, to Singapore, to Peking, to Madras, to Bombay, to Aden, to Suez, to Alexandria, to Malta, to Gibraltar, to Lisbon and to the Azores. Between Hong Kong and the Azores it had passed by foreign cables. At the Azores it was taken up again by the Commercial cables and sent to Canso, to New York and to Oyster Bay. The time of transmission was at noon today.

A message starting around the world at 5 a. m. today would arrive at Honolulu at 11 p. m. yesterday; at Midway at 10 p. m. yesterday; at Guam at 7 p. m. today, and at Manila at 8 p. m. today. It would pass through India at 8 p. m. today and would return to New York before 6 a. m.

Thus it would have an excursion from today into yesterday and have arrived back at New York within an hour of the time it started. Another message leaving New York at 8 p. m. today would arrive at Guam at 7 a. m. tomorrow, apparently fourteen hours after it started, continuing its journey around the world, it would arrive at Suez at midnight of today and back to New York this morning.

On May 16, 1896, at the National Electrical exposition held in the Grand Central Palace, New York, to demonstrate the promptness of modern telegraphic service a message written by the Hon. Chauncey Depew was sent from New York to Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Vancouver, Winnipeg and Canso to London, thence via Lisbon to Gibraltar, Malta, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Singapore, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Nagasaki and to Tokio and back again to New York, where it was received by Mr. Thos. A. Edison.

FEW ARRESTS

No Police Court Today and Few Happenings of Interest.

Females Flight and Will be Warranted for Trial Monday Morning.

Considerable excitement was created on a park car last night by a drunken man who insisted on cursing in the presence of ladies returning from the park. Motorman Burrows asked him to desist, but he became worse and started to pick up a rock with which to strike the motorman. He was then struck in the face with the switch key and had his nose split open. Subsequently he got possession of an iron rod used to turn switches and started through the car as if to go after the motorman, but was placed on the rear end and the door shut. No warrants were issued and the man's name was not learned.

In accordance with the law of the state, there was no court today, as it was a holiday.

Yesterday afternoon Ernest dorff and John Bulger were arrested in the sum of $150 each for robbing a man of $25 last Saturday at a South Second street saloon.

Hadder Stone, the colored girl who threw a rock through an I. C. window was held to answer in the sum of $50 and Bud Hill for rescuing her from officer.

Bulger and Elmendorf have given the $150 bond required of them and been released.

The police are making it warm for cows caught running at large, and if your cow truns up missing make inquiry at the city hall.

Minnie Grimes and Lillie Wormstead will be tried Monday on a charge of disorderly conduct, for which they were arrested by Officers Nance and Goulioux last night.

The police are investigating a fight that occurred last night between two women at Fifth and Court streets over a man. They had a lively scrap for awhile, but neither was seriously hurt. Warrants will be issued and the case will be aired in police court Monday.

George Brown, colored, was arrested last night on a breach of the peace charge by Officers Moore and Rogers. He will be given a hearing Monday.

SUIT RE-INSTATED

Ohio Concern Asks Judgment Against Calloway.

A suit was today filed in the U. S. court here by the Aultman-Taylor Co., of Ohio, against W. and T. H. Hargrove, of Calloway county, to secure a lien and sale of property to satisfy a balance of $2,086.97 on a judgment secured several years ago.

The petition stated that in 1888 the plaintiff secured a judgment for $2,118.48 with interest and that only $1,365 had been paid on it, leaving at this date a balance, interest and principle, of $2,086.97. It is alleged that the defendants have property and the plaintiffs pray for a lien on same and that the action be redocketed and the prayer granted for lien and sale of property.

FIRST ISSUE

JOURNAL OF LABOR MADE ITS APPEARANCE TODAY.

The Journal of Labor a paper devoted to the interest of local union made its first appearance today, Samuel Simon editor. The intention is to make it a permanent institution.

Central Labor union is to shortly give an excursion in Paducah and the committee on arrangements is now at work preparing for it. The committeemen are: Messrs. Wm. Hoffman, L. Crandell, C. Bundy, P. Smith, Wm. Rawlings, J. Welkert, P. Martin, J. Stokes, M. Danaher, T. Scoopes, W. J. Forrester and Jerome Smith.

Organizer Sam Simon has installed a painters' and decorators' union at Mayfield. George Goddard is president.

COUSINS MARRY.

CAME FROM ILLINOIS BECAUSE THEY COULD NOT MARRY THERE.

Miss Regina Delenne and Mr. Jesse Johnston of Collinsville, Ill., were married at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. Rev. Father H. W. Jansen performed the ceremony.

The couple came here to be married because they are cousins, and it is against the law of the state of Illinois for cousins to wed. They returned home today.

ASKED TO RESIGN

Law and Order League Call on School Trustees.

Two Good Addresses and a Number of Good Talks Heard at the Meeting Last Night.

SEVERAL OFFICERS ELECTED

The Good Government league met last night at the Broadway M. E. church and eleven members were added. In an election of officers Mr. B. H. Scott was elected first vice president and Mr. W. J. Hills second vice president and Mr. W. B. Smith treasurer.

The following clause was added to the by-laws:

Addresses were made by Rev. W. C. Sellers on "The Responsibility of an Officer" and Rev. Thos. J. Newell on "The Responsibility of the Citizen." Talks were made by several others, and before the meeting adjourned the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, Mr. Ben Weille, as shown by the records of the courts, is a persistent violator of the statute laws of Kentucky, and

"Whereas, One Samuel Jackson is also the manager of a band of men who persistently violate the said laws, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the Good Government league of Paducah, Ky., that they resign as members of the school board of the city of Paducah and they are hereby requested to do so."

ALLOWED CLAIMS.

AND DEMOCRATS IN M'CRACKEN WILL SOON RECEIVE MONEY.

The Democratic state executive committee met at Frankfort yesterday and allowed the various claims against the committee for expenses incurred at the primary in May. The total expenses amounted to $19,600, and $16,000 of this was assessed against candidates, leaving $3600 yet to be paid by the nominees.

A committee was before the body relative to the Bush-Cook judicial contest but the committee decided not to hear it at present.

Chairman Young announced his intention to fight the Louisville machine until one of them gets licked.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TO HEAR CONTEST.

COMMITTEEMEN FIND THEY ARE COMPELLED TO SIT IN CASE.

The contest of Attorney L. K. Taylor for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in this district will probably be tried shortly by the judicial committee, composed of Chairman Morrison, of McCracken and Chairman Edwards, of Marshall, after all. It has been discovered that the law makes it compulsory on the committeemen to hear such contests, instead of making it optional with them. Preparations are accordingly being made to take up the matter again, and Mr. Lovett has filed his answer to the allegations contained in Taylor's contest papers.

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All. How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, various etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. Knapp Medical Co., Box 1144 Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from their daily mail show what men think of their generosity.

"Dear Sirs—Please accept my sincere thanks for your gift of recent date. I have given you treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sirs—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sirs—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man to have it.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS.

(St. Louis Chronicle.)

A man was driving a beautiful horse. At the roadside was a watering trough. The animal swerved from the road. Its delicate muzzle was quivering and a short whinny said as plain as a horse can talk, "Master, I am very thirsty; please can I have a drink?"

The answer was a jerk on the reins, a blow with the whip, and the rig disappeared in a cloud of dust.

That was cruelty—unthinking cruelty—and it brings up the whole question of hot weather treatment of animals.

Is your horse given water frequently? Do you give your dog and your cat water as often as they desire it, or do you simply guess they will find all the water they need?

The owner of any animal, large or small, who does not think of these things is not fit to own a dumb brute. Not to provide for the wants of domestic animals and pets is cruelty that causes torture. It is not safe to trust to an animal's finding food or drink.

In a wild state they were able to do this. Domesticated they have learned to rely on man, and in many instances they have met with base betrayal.

Water is as essential as food. In the hot days of July and August it really comes before food.

Kindness to animals is more than kindness; it is justice.

The man who beats a horse can be reached by the law, although too seldom does he meet with his just deserts.

The man who does not beat his horse and who forgets to water him for long periods can seldom be reached by the law, and yet his cruelty is far greater than temporary pain that follows the feet of the lash.

Think about these things. Remember how it feels when your own throat is dry and parched, and look after the needs of your four-footed friends.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Kompe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick and threw up all food; could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

EXPRESS COMPANIES

LIFT RATES.

Chicago, July 4—Announcements of a heavy advance in merchandise rates were sent out today to all the shippers by the express companies. The new schedule went into effect on July 1 by joint agreement and henceforth the shipper of packages weighing less than fifty pounds will have to bear the burden of the increase.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it is the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever-producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Advancement in Norway.

A Swedish company has purchased the Ifjungen Falls at Telemarken, in Norway, in order to apply its power to industrial purposes. This is one of the largest waterfalls in the world, and plans are being drawn up for making use of it. This company tried to obtain some of the falls in Sweden, but that Government retained them for public objects.

WILL BE ARTISTIC

Coming Production of "Faust" Arouses Great Interest.

Will be the Most Complete, Elaborate and Satisfactory Amateur Performance on Record Here.

DETAILS OF ARRANGEMENTS

The greatest interest is being taken in the forthcoming production of "Faust" for the benefit of the Paducah chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, by local talent, assisted by Mr. James A. Young of New York, a young actor of considerable age, who will be seen in the role of Mephisto, and by Miss Lillian Lancaster, Paducah's gifted little actress, who is fast gaining an enviable place in the drama. It will be remembered that Mr. Young and Miss Lancaster were seen here in "Quo Vadis," and were greeted by the largest house that ever crowded the Kentucky. Their friends are anxiously looking forward to this second appearance, and in the beautiful classic "Faust," the greatest of German masterpieces of literature, their talents will have a wider scope.

The play is a very ambitious one, the parts of Mephisto and Marguerite demanding extreme versatility. Mephisto, as is well known, is one of the strongest and most difficult characters of the drama, while the role of Marguerite ranges from the gentle, child-like innocence of the famous garden scene to supreme and tragic emotion of the death scene in the prison.

The beautiful moral of the play is one that will live through all the ages, and is one that touches the heart and soul of every Christian thinker; the eternal battle of the church and the devil, with the church and love of God triumphant.

The entire cast has been carefully selected, and Paducah will be both surprised and proud of the amount of real talent that has developed here. The whole production will be put on with every precision and as much regard to details as if a professional one. Special scenery and electrical effects for the weird Broken scene have been brought from New York and altogether it promises to be a beautiful scenic treat.

The noble cause for which it is produced should assure a packed house, and this, together with the popularity of the members of the company, leaves no room to doubt of its perfect success.

The following is the complete cast: Mephisto—Mr. James A. Young. Faust—Mr. Omar Fowler. Valentine—Mr. Edwin J. Paxton. Wagner, Brandon, Feeche, Siebel, students—Mr. Will Gilbert, Mr. Bert Gilbert, Mr. Arthur Y. Martin, Mr. Robert Caldwell.

Martha—Miss Geraldine Sanders. Elsie—Miss Mary Sykes. Liza—Miss Frances Herndon. Olga—Miss May V. Patterson. Gretchen—Miss May Hayes. Marguerite—Miss Lillian Lancaster.

Peasant girls and village children—Maybelle Heyer, Floyd Swift, Mabel Smith, Dow Gilson, Claire St. John, Katherine Thomas, Della Gilson, Willie Willie, Bessie Grigsby, May Frederick, Emma Greer, Olga East, Mollie Gardner, Rosella Farley, Lena Edwards, Helen Mills.

Demons, witches, evil spirits, etc. Harry Gilbert, musical director.

THE SUN'S PUZZLE PICTURE.

Ling Lung had not expected to celebrate the Fourth. Can you see the two boys who set off the mine?

The Week In Society.

SUMMER WANDERERS.

The warm weather will start the usual summer exodus of Paducah people to summer resorts in the next few weeks. The watering places near this city have all had their openings and will doubtless be liberally patronized by Paducahans during the warm months as they generally are. Dawson, Corleann, Crittenden, Creal and Dixon vie in popularity, and each has many Paducah visitors, during the season.

Many people from this city will go to Michigan, and a few to the mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina. The Morton family of this place, including Misses Mollie, Susie, Adine and Cherie Morton left Tuesday of last week for their summer home in Flat Rock, N. C. They will remain until October. Dr and Mrs. R. A. Hicks are spending the summer in the Tennessee mountains.

SOCIETY AND THE FOURTH.

No special entertainments of a patriotic character have been arranged to celebrate the glorious Fourth, by Paducah society. Several informal picnics are on the program for today, and a large crowd will attend the baseball game this afternoon to be played at Wallace park, between the Coca Colas and the Popwols, for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless.

PRESS CONVENTION TRIP.

Miss Mary Boswell and Miss Anne Boswell and probably others from Paducah will attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press convention in Lexington July 22-23. A trip east which will include Canada has been arranged. Niagara Falls is in the itinerary and the tour will prove a most delightful one.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foster entertained with a dance at Wallace park pavilion Friday evening. As one of the first on door dances of the season, it was much enjoyed. The guests were: Messrs. G. R. Noble, H. W. Hinkle, W. H. McPherson, L. P. Jones, Harris Rankin, Harry McElwee, Peter Poryear, Fred Rudy, James P. Smith, P. H. Stewart, R. G. Terrell, H. E. Thompson, H. L. Bradley, W. F. Miss Elizabeth Wilson entertained a few of her friends with a farewell dance at the residence of her grandmother Joseph Johnson, Tuesday evening. Miss Wilson, her grandmother, her mother, Mrs. Chloe Wilson, and little brother, will leave July 15 for St. Louis to reside. The guests were: Misses Lillian Logue, Leah Johnson, Kate Holliday, Virginia Johnson, Eunice McElhaney, Claire St. John, Floyd Swift, Horace Thurman, May Belle Beyer, Nellie Henneberger, Theresa Willett, Inez Kruger, Messrs. Harry King, Mair Given, Ivo Pettit, Frank McCarney, Louis Carnes, Carol Gliven, Henry Henneberger, Jesse Thurman, Rob Leigh, W. T. McDowell, Duffot, George Holliday, Strother Smith, Will Graham, Edgar Warren, Eugene Richardson, Boone, Bolton.

Mrs. H. S. Wells entertained a few young people informally at lunch Tuesday evening at her home on Court street near Fifth in honor of Miss Florence Hutchinson on Chicago, guest of Mrs. Frank Fulton. The first prize a box of candy was won by Miss Hutchinson. The booby prize, a bottle of shoe polish went to Mr. George DuBois. The guests were: Misses Florence Hutchinson, Chicago; Frances Terrell, Marjorie Scott, Gertrude Scott, Ethel Brooks, Louise Cox, Messrs. John Brooks, George DuBois, Vaughan Scott, David Koger, George Poage, and Douglas Hagby. Light refreshments were served.

The following party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John Hall to Metropolitan Landing for a picnic Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, Mrs. Bessie Allen, Mrs. J. J. Freulich and Misses Bernice Greif, Fannie Clark, Bees Hall, Carrie Ham, Lillie Hubbard, of Hickman. Messrs. George Moore and James Coomes, Ewing Long, Herbert Epps and Edgar Warren.

A surprise dinner party was given to Mr. R. B. Phillips Monday evening by Mrs. Phillips at their home on Jefferson street near Ninth in celebration of his 40th birthday. A dainty menu was served and the table was decorated in sweet peas. The guests were: Messrs. J. A. Rudy, Richard Rudy, George Wallace, Joseph L. Friedman and Will Webb.

A lawn party was given by the

Ramsey Society of the Broadway Methodist church, Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Mildred Davis on Court street, near Seventh. A large crowd was in attendance and a nice sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

The order of the Eastern Star entertained with a social session Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall on North Fourth street. A "peanut walk" formed the diversion for the evening and refreshments were served at Soule's.

Mrs. R. G. Terrell entertained Tuesday morning informally at cards in honor of Mrs. Charles Trueheart of Louisville. The first prize was won by Miss Pollie Ferriman and the guest's prize went to Mrs. Trueheart.

The Presbyterian Sunday schools of the city including that of the First Presbyterian church, Mizpah and Hebrew missions went to Almo on the N., C. and St. L. road Wednesday for a picnic.

The Retail Merchants' association celebrated its first anniversary Wednesday evening with a social session at the K. P. hall. Some bright toasts followed an elaborate banquet.

Miss Sammie Wallace entertained a few friends Tuesday evening at her home on Jackson street.

The Greeting club gave a dance Thursday evening at Wallace park pavilion.

A party of the young people of the city had a picnic on the Benton road today.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Mrs. Mattie L. Wilkerson and Mr. R. C. Benner is announced to take place Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Downes, 220 North Seventh street. Mrs. Wilkerson is a young woman of many charms. Mr. Benner is a representative of the New York Life Insurance company in this city. He came here from Pennsylvania a few years ago, and has become very popular in this city. The couple will reside here.

A surprise wedding was that of Miss Mairie Bradshaw of this city, and Mr. Frank Murray of Pine Bluff, Ark., which took place in Memphis Monday at noon at the Gayoso hotel. The bride left here Monday morning with her brother, Mr. Miller Bradshaw, and was joined there by the groom. The couple remained in Memphis until Wednesday when they went to Pine Bluff, where they will reside.

Mr. William Grigsby, formerly of this city and now of Lexington, and Miss Bessie Thomas of Louisville, were married in Louisville Tuesday at noon. Mr. E. A. Grigsby, of this city, a brother of the groom, attended the wedding.

Miss Pearl Cook of this city, and Mr. Thomas Clifford, of Marion, were married Tuesday morning at the residence of the bride's parents on South Fourth street. The couple will reside in Marion. Miss Fredonia Sible and Mr. Maurice M. Henly of Littleville were married Thursday afternoon. Rev. T. J. Owen performed the ceremony.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Happiness is a paradox, because it may co-exist with trial, sorrow and poverty. It is the gladness of the heart—rising superior to all conditions.—William George Jordan.

THE RUSSIAN AFFAIR.

There will likely not be any serious results from the Russian affair. Owing to the stir which has been raised over the petition prepared by Jewish societies of the United States to be sent to the Russian government, the petition will probably not now be sent, and the incident will end. The Russian massacre was a horrible, inexcusable outrage, but apparently it was a local act, and not a national one, and the government having removed the governor of the province, and evinced a determination to punish all those implicated in the carnage, indicates that it regrets it as much as do the humane people of this country.

But however that may be, this government decided, according to reports, that a petition prepared by certain societies would be sent through official channels to Russia. Owing to the rapidity with which news travels in this enlightened age Russia soon became aware of such intention of the United States and in a diplomatic, tactful manner authorized a statement that the Russian government would not regard kindly such a petition. Thus the Russian government knows just as well as if it had the petition itself that the Jews in the United States disapprove of the massacre of their co-religionists in Russia, sympathize with the unfortunates' families and appeal to the government for protection for other Jews in Russia. The United States knows that Russia would regard the petition as extremely indelicate, if not officious, and inasmuch as all concerned know pretty well about what each thinks the matter can well be dropped without saying or doing anything more. It is not believed the Jewish citizens of the United States would desire that this government run the risk of straining its relations with a powerful nation over a petition which could possibly benefit no one. The conclusion of the United States will probably be something similar to that of a prominent diplomat, who is quoted as saying:

"It would be construed as an interference by this government with the internal affairs of Russia. Such interference cannot be defended either by diplomatic usage or international law. It would establish a precedent that would be embarrassing in all future diplomatic relations. Other governments will find warrant in it for making representations to the United States which this country, with its complex government and the peculiar relations which the general government maintains toward the state governments, cannot answer.

"In case foreigners who have espoused citizenship in this country become the victims of mob violence in any of the states foreign governments will be warranted in calling the attention of this government to such outrages, and with the proposed precedent could even go further and suggest immediate remedies, which the federal government, which has delegated the policing power to states, would be unable to enforce."

and the proper way to celebrate it. At any rate, owing to the hot weather and the desire of our force to get a half holiday, no effusions on the subject of Fourth of July will adorn these columns today. The glorious Fourth comes once a year, and will doubtless be back on time next summer. The most timely admonition is to keep cool and don't fool with the gun that isn't loaded or get in front of one that shoots blank cartridges.

The young men of Maryland have adopted a new method of settling their differences which might be the vogue here in Kentucky if so many firearms were not imported. They fell out at a dance and agreed to meet the next day and fight it out. They met in a field and had 500 interested spectators present to see them pummel each other until one was insensible. The man who got licked was pretty sore at last accounts, but with all that is probably not feeling so bad as a well licked man in Maryland, as he might have felt as a corpse in Kentucky.

The discovery that Gen. Cassin M. Clay, the "sage of Whitehall," is crazy is no discovery at all to many. It has been evident to those who have been reading of his antics for several years past that he was either crazy or just a natural born imbecile. His latest diversion is to send for friends and relatives who live at a distance to come to see him and then not allow them to come near the place after they have traveled many miles at his request.

Good Marksmanship Needed.

In the days of wooden navies and brass cannonades seamanship was everything. The best captain was he who could most skillfully maneuver to bring the enemy within effective range of his guns and put his own ship in a position to rake that of his antagonist. When this had been accomplished the battle turned more on rapidity of fire and weight of metal than on accuracy of aim. Nowadays straight shooting is the sine qua non. To secure the highest possible efficiency in this respect is a matter of much greater moment than to add battleships to our navy that are not needed and which if poorly manned would be of comparatively little service.

CAIRO STILL LEADS

But Yesterday Paducah Won a Game.

Girard's Home Run With Bases Full Did the Work—Henderson's Defeat

HOPTOWN BEATS CLARKSVILLE

Club.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Cairo	26	15	.634
Henderson	22	15	.595
Clarksville	18	18	.529
Jackson	18	17	.514
Paducah	14	20	.412
Hopkinsville	13	25	.342

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Paducah at Jackson, two games.
Clarksville at Hopkinsville.
Henderson at Cairo, two games.

PADUCAH WON A GAME!

Jackson, Tenn., July 4—Girard won the game for Paducah here yesterday afternoon. He held the home club down to five hits and with three men on bases knocked a home run, giving the Indians a lead that the Jackson boys could not tally. Result, 7 to 4. Paducah made four scores in the third, one in the fifth and two in the sixth, while Jackson made one in each the second, third, seventh and ninth. Batteries, Accorsini and Butler.

HOPTOWN WAKES UP.

Hopkinsville, July 4—The defeat of the home team the day before was discounted yesterday by our own victory over the Clarksville boys by a score of 16 to 1. The Hoptown boys bunched their fifteen hits, while Clarksville could do nothing with the five hits credited to her. The batteries were: Hoptown, Morris and Street; Clarksville, Collins, Reid, Rayen and Holmes.

GEE, LOOK AT CAIRO!

Cairo, July 4—Henderson was shut out again yesterday by the Cairo club by a score of 10 to 0. The heavy batting of Wallace, Cairo's left fielder, was a feature. He made two home runs and a three bagger out of four times at bat. Cairo got 8 hits and 1 error and Henderson 1 hit and 3 errors.

EUREKA DOWN IN DEFEAT.

In one of the fastest games of the season Ben Boyd's crack colored club was beaten by the East St. Louis aggregation yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3. The time was one hour and twenty minutes, and it is the first out of nine games that the Paducah club has lost.

A LITTLE DOPE.

President Ben Weille has signed Best, a Memphis league pitcher with a good reputation for strike-outs. Best will arrive today or tomorrow and the battery for tomorrow will be Best and Kelly, the latter, the Vincennes catcher, arriving tonight from his home. This will be of interest to the local baseball fans and the fact that a new battery will appear will be sufficient to draw more than the usual attendance.

Perhaps some time in the season the Paducah club will be permanently arranged so the boys can get used to their positions and not be changed about every day. Other clubs in the league are not having to do it, and there is no reason Paducah should.

President Weille has tried to secure good players, and in proof of the fact this morning rendered a check to the telegraph companies to the amount of $50, total for telegrams last month. This looks like business and Paducah will have a team at any cost.

President Weille has not yet heard from Southoff relative to sending two pitchers, but states that he has three good ones in mind and will pick the best.

Potts will arrive tonight and appear in tomorrow's game. Sawyer has not agreed to come, but President Weille will hold him to his contract.

Girard is the surest thing Paducah has. He is always good for a hit, and his home run yesterday was the feature of the game.

Cairo must be playing mighty good ball or Henderson, the "top-notchers," might rotten ball.

If Edmunds goes one of the surest hitters they have will go.

Tomorrow Jackson comes to Paducah for another game.

Mr. Solon L. Palmer, of Benton, is in the city.

THE TRIUMPHS OF PE-RU-NA INCREASE.

Thousands of Chronic Ailments of Women Cured Every Month—Disguised Internal Catarrh the Enemy of Women—Pe-ru-na the Only Internal System to Catarrh Remedy Yet Devised—Prominent Cases in Illustration.

Nervous Depression.

Summer months are peculiarly the months of nervous diseases, especially nervous prostration and other depressed states of the nervous system. People who are not at all inclined to be nervous or suffer from weak nerves find this time especially trying. Sultry heat and electrical disturbances of the atmosphere are probably the cause of this.

Invalids need to be particularly careful to fortify the nervous system by the use of Peru-na.

Miss Helen Rolof, Kaukauna, Wis., writes: "Several times during the past two years or more my system has been greatly in need of a tonic, and at those times Peru-na has been of great help in building up the system, restoring my appetite and securing restful sleep. I know a great number of women who are using it for the troubles peculiar to the sex, and with the best results."

MISS HELEN ROLOF.

MISS LOUISE HERTSEL.

Miss Louise Hertsel, 1914 Second street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "My health was excellent until about six months ago, when I seemed to have a collapse from overdoing socially, and the doctor ordered an entire change of scene and climate. As this was an absolute impossibility at the time, I had to try and regain my health in another way and was induced by a friend, who gave Peru-na such a good recommendation, to try Peru-na. I cannot tell you the condition of my nerves when I began to use it. The least noise irritated me, and I felt that life was not worth living. But Peru-na soon changed me into a well woman, and now I do not know I have nerves."

—Louise Hertsel.

A newspaper contributor was lately admitted into the extensive suite of offices which constitute the headquarters of Dr. Hartman, who treats catarrh patients by the thousand. Among the busy array of assistant doctors, clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers, Dr. Hartman stopped long enough to say a few words.

"A large number of female patients visit me every year, but the number who are entered on my books as regular patients and are treated by correspondence is very much larger. Hundreds of letters are received and answered free every day. A yet greater number take my catarrh remedy, Peru-na, and are cured, of whom I never hear. Some of this latter class write me years after their cure."

"I never allow a name published except by the written consent of the patient. We make no charge at any

MISS LOUISE HERTSEL.

Miss Jennie Finley, 79 Madrie, N. Street, Memphis, Tenn., a popular young society lady of that place, writes: "Three years ago I had very poor health, and while I was only sick occasionally, I was unable to enjoy life, and lacked vitality and strength. I was an easy subject to cold and influenza. Four bottles of Peru-na changed my entire physical condition. My head stopped aching, my strength returned, and the poison was driven out of my blood till I felt like a new and well woman once more. It is a truly great medicine and well worthy the good things its friends say about it, and it will always have my indorsement."

Over half the women have catarrh in some form or another. And yet, probably not a tenth of the women know that their disease is catarrh. To distinguish catarrh of various organs it has been named very differently.

One woman has dyspepsia, another bronchitis, another Bright's disease, another liver complaint, another consumption, another female complaint. These women would be very much surprised to hear that they are all suffering with chronic catarrh. But it is so, nevertheless.

Each one of these troubles and a great many more are simply catarrh—that is, chronic inflammation of the mucous lining, of which organ is affected. Any internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in another location. This is why Peru-na has become so justly famous in the cure of female diseases. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures remain. Peru-na does not palliate—it cures.

merchant as he lighted his cigar after luncheon. "She was asked the questions usual for one who is opening an account; her name, address,
whether married or single and her father's and mother's name. She got along all right until the clerk asked:
"Mother's maiden name, please."

"I mean your mother's name when
she was a girl," explained the clerk.

WHEN BABY IS COMING USE Mother's Friend

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert as she foresees the joy, ambition, success and the life-long satisfaction coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl or a brave boy face beside her on the pillow as she rests to her expectancy. Mother's Friend applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced by the continued use of this great liniment, MOTHER'S FRIEND. Theatrical Notes.

Mart W. Hanley, who was the manager for Harrigan and Hart when they were at the height of their popularity in New York, and who was the manager and partner of Robert Mantell for the past seven years, has dissolved his partnership with that actor.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell will appear at Wyndham's theater, London, in "The Joy of Living," under the management of Charles Frohman. Martin Harvey, whose new play, "The Exiles," was a failure, has been engaged by Mr. Frohman to support Mrs. Campbell.

Forbes Robertson and Gertrude E. Lott will begin their American tour in Kipling's "The Light That Failed," at Buffalo, N. Y., on September 21. The dramatization which they will see was made by Constance Fletcher, whose nom de plume is George Fleming.

Grace George and her husband, William A. Brady, with their infant son, are in Europe. Owing to certain repairs and improvements that have been ordered by the department of buildings, Miss George will not be able to open at the Madison Square theater in "Pretty Peggy" as early as was at first intended.

True S. James, who has written a domestic play of Colorado entitled "The Garden of the Gods," will be started in that play during the coming season under the management of Mr. Hanley. The scenic effects will be unusually beautiful.

Mr. James was married on June 17 to Miss Grace Turner, of Evansville, Ind., so he will enter upon his career as a star and a benedict at about the same time.

The new play is said to tell a charming story, with humor and heart interest well blended.

PERSONAL.

Miss Kate Hayes, of Dyersburg, Tenn., is the guest of Miss May Hayes.

Mrs. Thomas C. Leech left yesterday to spend the summer in Montreal, Canada, her former home.

Mr. T. J. Flournoy will leave next week for Tennessee to join a party and will leave July 16 for a trip abroad.

Mrs. W. D. Greer and daughters, Mrs. Charles Moeqnot and Miss Myrtle Greer, left this week for Petoskey, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Alben Barkley returned Wednesday from their wedding trip to the Tennessee mountains and are at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Coburn, 414 Washington street.

Misses Robble Loving, Lillie May Winstead, Blanch Hills and Mary Scott left Friday for Paris, Tenn., to attend a house party to be given by Miss Louise Dumas. The young ladies will go from Paris to Hinson Springs to attend another house party.

The contemplated removal of Dr. and Mrs. Warwick M. Cowgill and sons William and Allen, to Lincoln, Nebraska, to reside, will be regretted by their many friends in this city. Mrs. Cowgill is prominent in social, church and club circles and will be greatly missed. Dr. Cowgill will go to Nebraska in a few days and if he is satisfied with the location, his family will soon follow him.

The Nashville Banner of Thursday contains an interesting account of the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp, near Nashville, which Master Vaughan Dabney of this city, joined. The camp is situated on Caney Fork river, on a high bluff, surrounded by beautiful scenery and affords opportunities for bathing, boating and fishing and other diversions which appeal especially to boys. The camp opened Thursday and will last until Saturday July 11.

BEAR TOOK CARE OF HER.

Little Child Carried Off by Animal and Put to Bed.

An extraordinary but apparently well-authenticated story of a bear's freak comes from a Russian village in the district of Odoff. The village lies on the fringe of a forest, whence it is of frequent occurrence for bears to make prowling excursions both by day and night into the adjacent settlements. Some two weeks ago two young girls, aged respectively 6 and 13, were surprised by a huge bear at a short distance from the village. The animal seized and carried off the younger child, while the elder, terror-stricken, fled home and gave the not unusual alarm.

An immediate pursuit was instituted and the search was continued during the evening and the next day, but without result. On the third day, with the assistance of neighboring villagers, a wide cordon was drawn around an extensive tract of the forest, and the searchers closed in. Toward sundown the bear and her booty were discovered in a dense thicket. The child was perfectly unharmed, says the London Mail, and reclining in a deep mossy couch made for her by the bear.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

Eloquent Argument of Mr. Lodge

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held another consideration of the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell of Oregon calling upon the secretary of war for complete information regarding the transport service of the United States was adopted.

THE LEGISLATURE

McCREARY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected McCreary senator again. The Pittsford county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire.

Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHER'S CONTEST

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forsythe of this division of the secret service.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

For young girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, fast and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, protracted periods and painful menses, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleaning. Bradfield's Female Regulator for women is particularly valuable and useful owing to its tonic properties to build up the system, and as a regulator of the menstrual flow. The mild, pleasant and agreeable menstruation permanently relieved and all diseases peculiar to the female system cured by it. Regularizes the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, increases the vitality and blood circulation, and cures all weaknesses and diseases of the female system by removing the cause. It does not cure by force, but by gentle persuasion. Perfect Health for Women is true and will be mailed on receipt of address. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns. Her gunner, however, was the first man killed. The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DEOLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

At press time the case of W. H. Robber against the I. C. railroad, for $20,000 damages, was on trial. The case will not be finished this afternoon.

COUNTY COURT

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets.

G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $230, property on Jefferson street.

C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end.

Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,350, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his livery stable. The safe has been in the county judges' office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

Olas Johnson, a colored barber of Columbus, Ky., and Bessie E. Caldwell of the city were licensed to wed this afternoon. It will be the first marriage of the bride and the second of the groom.

POLICE COURT

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed. El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for presenting a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Dains, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case.

Janie Noas, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

W. O. T. U. MEETING

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 with Mrs. J. D. Smith at Jefferson and Ninth streets.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. The bank was broken into about 2 this morning, and the robbers scooped some of the residents in their escape. A deputy sheriff was notified, and got out in time to fight four of the robbers, ten shots being exchanged. The robbers were routed, and bloodhounds are now on their trail. The four robbers were captured four miles from town. They only secured $1147, it seems, as this was all recovered. They would not talk. The names they gave were probably fictitious.

THE ELKS JUBILEE SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Gradually the Plans Are Becoming Defined for the Week.

The New Public School Session Begins on Feb. 1st.

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CORRESPONDENCE INCREASING DAILY

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let.

The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

CENTRAL UNION

A Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Consider Caulkers Grievance.

Eight of Them Went on a Strike at the Dry Docks.

A meeting of Central Labor Union is called this evening for the purpose, it is understood, of hearing a grievance from eight ship caulkers who have been at work on the Paducah Dry Docks.

It is understood that the men claim their hours of work were cut down from ten to eight because of government work on hand, on which only eight hours' work a day is permitted. This cut them down sixty cents a day, and as it was no fault of theirs, and they want to work full time, they claim they should be paid for the full ten hours, or allowed to work that long and earn it.

Superintendent Young Taylor, however, states that the work he has contracted for on a basis of thirty-five cents an hour. If he pays them $3 a day for eight hours, he will be paying them 37 1/2 cents an hour, instead of 30, and will be losing 7 1/2 cents on every hour they work, which he alleges he cannot stand. His claims are no more to blame for the restriction to eight hours a day when they formerly worked ten, than they, and will not pay for something he hasn't getting. Superintendent Taylor says that if the men do not desire to return to work at the present rate, $2.40 for eight hours, he will get new men.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being.

The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

Send for our special book on Rheumatism, which is free to all who desire it. Write your physicians about your case, and they will cheerfully furnish any information or advice wanted free of cost.

A REAR-END CRASH

The Cannon-Ball Struck a Freight Train Near Kuttawa Today.

Engineer Devinney Slightly Hurt By Jumping to Save Himself—No One Else Hurt.

A CABOOSE AND CAR WERE BURNED

There was a passenger wreck on the Illinois Central at Kuttawa this morning shortly after 2 o'clock, but only one man was injured and he not seriously.

Passenger train No. 104, which arrives in Paducah at 1:20 a. m., struck the rear end of freight train No. 174, third section, both east bound, and one caboose and a freight car were burned and the passenger engine No. 204, damaged badly. The pilot of the engine was knocked off, the front end stove in and the headlight crashed. Engineer McNulty was sent out this morning on the wrecker to bring the disabled engine back to the local shops.

The freight train was composed of 80 cars and was going into a siding at the above named station when the passenger struck it. The fault of the wreck has not yet been settled.

The freight train was in charge of Conductor Burkam and Engineer Skera and the passenger in charge of Conductor Wheeler and Engineer Devinney, the latter being injured about the face in jumping from his engine when he saw the train ahead. It was reported that Mr. Owen Tully, a flagman, of Paducah, was injured but the report was unfounded. Engineer Devinney lives in Louisville but is now in the local hospital.

This is the first collision to occur on the Central City district for some time. The wrecker was sent out at 7:45 this morning, following the early accommodation train. Train No. 109 from Louisville to Memphis, was the only train into Paducah delayed by the accident.

It is understood that the freight train was on the other's time, as for some reason it failed to get off the main line.

Flagman Tully went back to flag the cannon ball, but didn't get far enough. The engineer of the passenger jumped about where the flagman was standing. About eight cars were telescoped, and the fireman, strange to say, remained on the engine and was not hurt.

Flagman Tully lost a gun and a pistol, two suits of clothing and forty dollars in the burning of the caboose.

DR. JOHN BONDS DOES NOT WANT TO BE A MEMBER OF HEALTH BOARD.

Dr. John Bonds did not qualify as a member of the board of health when he was elected in December, and as a result some one will have to be elected in his place. He claims he elected in his place, and does not want it. The board of health seems to be a dead duck. It has not met in months, and it is claimed that there is no president, and no board, as it has never met for reorganization this year, as required by law.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your voice.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at Frankfort is merely another Democratic scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the removal and confirming the court of inquiry, and the scholar work has been devoted to this alone. It has cost the state more than

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and Historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The session lasted but a few minutes, and

consequently no other business was transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they would not get a quorum to vote on the resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified

and much more in keeping with the

true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business to transact.

The lockup keeper question will

come up, and the mayor has signified

his intention of making the appoint-

little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

will come up for discussion, and also

the matter of condemning several buildings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

There is much small pox in the vi-

city of Lovelaceville. The disease

made its first appearance about one week ago. The symptoms of the illness were described to the physicians, who then wrote out the prescriptions. The real nature of the disease was discovered a day or two prevented. There are now five cases near that place. There is little excitement over it.

BANDAGES AND RED TAPE.

During the South African war Rul-

yard Kipling discovered, at Cape

Town, a hospital without bandages,

and in desperate need of them. This,

too, was in a city where bandages

were for sale in many shops.

He told an acquaintance that he was going to meet that want, and the gentleman at once offered to pay for all the bandages that Mr. Kipling

would buy and take to the hospital.

A cart was quickly loaded, and then

the author was informed that under

army rules the hospital authorities

could not receive supplies from a pri-

rate individual.

"Well," said he, "I will dump the packages on the pavement before the door, and tell them to come out and clear up the litter. Perhaps they can get them into the building in that way without tearing any red tape."

WILL BORE FOR OIL

A Company of Eight Organized in

Paducah to Operate in Wyoming.

They Have Purchased 1600 Acres of Government Land to Develop.

TO CAPITALIZE AT $2,500,000

A big oil company, with a capital

stock of $2,500,000 is to be organized

in Paducah within the next few days.

The object of the company is to develop oil and mining lands in the Big

Horn Basin, Wyoming. The money

has been raised for purchasing 1,600

acres of government land, at $1.50

per acre.

The gentlemen interested in the deal and who will cash own an eighth

interest in the 1,600 acres, are:

Clerk W. A. Bishop of the Dick Fowler, Clerk Dick Newhall of the Hopkins, Captain J. S. Tyner of the Butter, Captain J. A. Goodwin, Mr. S.

A. Fowler, Mr. Hunter Housh, J. R.

Robertson, second clerk on the Dick

Fowler and Stoke T. Payne.

There are three companies in that section of Wyoming now, preparing to operate, and the grade of oil is very fine, being illuminating oil, worth

about ten times more than fuel oil.

It is probable that Mr. Payne will be sent to Wyoming shortly to look after the local investors' interests,

and file articles of incorporation. In case oil is found, which is probable,

all the gentlemen will become wealthy, and if not, they will be out

nothing, as the land itself is worth

what they paid for it.

It is expected that there will be a big rush into the field this spring,

and this will cause the price of the land to go up. The new company will be incorporated under the laws of

South Dakota.

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

Today's Chicago Record-Herald says: "The Illinois Central railroad will, within the course of a short while, have all the principal stations along its lines completely equipped with telephone wires for the use of officials and employees in transmitting orders and messages of the company."

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the arrival will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Louisville, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Riecke and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on him. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

On the ground, of Post A, Louisville, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt, from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so than that which swells the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteers, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally a couple of flames shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the exalted captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolitan Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixtieth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by lancing some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years, and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, engineer, L. E. & W. B. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted."

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details for the Two Weeks Stay.

PRINCE MAY MAKE FLYING TOUR

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the celebration of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the prince, as the special representative of the President. When the prince reaches Washington he will become the guest of the German ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be confided to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wyckelsky, the counselor and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Hingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he cannot start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the ruler.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill, Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield. The launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his brother, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capital when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will call for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure.

THE RIVER NEWS.

(By W. F. LAMBIN, Reporter.)

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 8.5, in last 24 hours a fall of 0.3. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 40. Poll, Observer.

Business rather quiet down on the wharf today.

The Clyde is due this evening from Tennessee river.

The Ohio is getting low, but there will be a rise soon.

The H. W. Butterfield left at noon today for Clarksville.

The W. W. O'Neil left New Orleans Friday for this city.

The John K. Speed is on her way up from New Orleans.

There is plenty of work at the Marine Ways, and dry docks.

The coal combine is loading 10,000 tons of steel rails at Bessemer for the South.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with nice business.

John Winfrey and "Vallendun" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and R. F. Estes, of Caplo.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the extension business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Superintending Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever ran from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magenta, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charming, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natchez, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne. Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was wharfed that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain, she was so christened. The rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouse, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

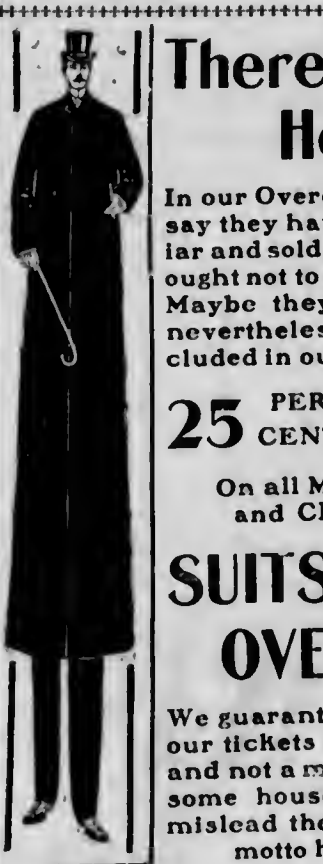

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

LOVE AND THE MODERN NOVEL

Coasting stories to be connected with Modern literature.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinate to the modern literature which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it easier prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawning century will come back to the older assumption, reinstating the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-time greenish? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive is due to the shifted place of woman in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole recreation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-supporting work. Modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonesome hearth, sadly reminiscence, knitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

A Gun Manufacturer's Enterprise.

An hour after Colonel Roosevelt took the oath of office as president, one of the most famous gun manufacturers in the world had artists at work making a picture of his excellency standing on the pinnacle of Mount Marcy with a rifle at his shoulder aiming at a bull moose on the summit of Mt. Katahdin. The gun, of course, was the product of the alert manufacturer. Beneath the picture was the weapon with which President Roosevelt killed a moose a few minutes before receiving the news that he was president of the United States, etc. There is nothing historically correct in the "work of art," but it shows the purpose for which it was intended.—New York Press.

Knowledge Are Superstitions. Like the Japanese, the Norwegians are very superstitious, and as in the forests, the mountains and gorges are peopled with fairies, so in the good fairy of the Germanic folk looks after the cattle pastures, and if he is well treated they are healthy, and the cow gives lots of milk. To propitiate him it is necessary to put a dish of porridge on the threshold of the cow stable on Christmas morning. Whenever the family mares, this invisible being goes along with them, and sits on the top of the roof.

Bernard Chase a Preacher. At Derby, Conn., the other day, a leading pastor ran madly through the village and disappeared in the woods. A swarm of hornets had nested in the clergyman's rural free delivery mail box. Two miles away the church was as and by the pastor plus the reservoir.

Two Scottish Newspapers. The most Scottish newspaper in Scotland is the Edinburgh Statesman, and the oldest is the Dundee Advertiser. They are edited respectively by Sir John Long and Charles Cooper, both of whom are Englishmen and natives of Hull, Yorkshire.

Several important scientific institutions in the East are in danger of having valuable collections confiscated by the government. So intimates S. J. Holmgren, a special agent of the Interior Department, who has technical possession of all the Indian ruins in Arizona and New Mexico, which, with their relics, he holds for the government. Valuable collections of pottery and other relics from these reservations have been secured by several museums, sometimes through unauthorized parties. Mr. Holmgren says, and he has made a report of this character to the government.

NEW CONCERN

TO HALL WILL BE ESTABLISHED AT VIOLA.

There is an effort being made, with prospects of success, to organize a stock company of $10,000 to build a roller, grist, saw and planing mills and general store at Viola, a flag station between Hickory and Bona.

The stock has about all been subscribed, and Mr. Bird Wurford, who is the chief promoter, says there is hardly any doubt of its success.

If this scheme goes, business will be on a new life at Viola.

IT IS A GO.

CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS CENTRAL CONTRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and today he signed it. He will purchase the land he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to work part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

TO PURCHASE MACHINERY.

FORMER MAYOR LANG TO ADD A LABORATORY TO HIS DRUG STORE.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed on the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up.

"I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.

THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 900 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

GOOD ROADS LAW.

MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION JANUARY 28.

The legislative committee of the Kentucky Good Roads Association will meet in Louisville Tuesday, January 28, for the purpose of formulating a good roads measure for presentation to the legislature. Letters have been sent to county judges in the state asking that any suggestions they may have to make with regard to the contemplated measure be sent to the committee at once. In addition, it is requested that any citizens who have suggestions to make also send them in.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. TOBE ROGERS

The funeral of the late Mr. Tobo Rogers took place this afternoon from the family residence on West Broadway, services by Rev. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Thomas House, of the county. The Old Fellows were in charge and the burial was at Oak Grove. Many friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

FOR COMPULSORY VACCINATION.

Wingo, Ky., Jan. 22.—The best citizens of this community have noted a petition to their representatives in the legislature for a compulsory vaccination law. The favours of smallpox have been severely felt here, and it is hoped that other communities will prepare similar petitions.

TRUE HAPPINESS

COLONEL LEMON TELLS OF A M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.

The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story:

"We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.

A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO AND WHISKY

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.

THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE TO LAND AT BROOKPORT TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.

CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty-three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

THE "FLORODNA" COMPANY LEFT THE CITY THIS MORNING AT 2 O'CLOCK FOR NASHVILLE IN SIX COACHES.

The train was in charge of Engineer Friss and is composed of two baggage cars, two day coaches and two sleepers. It was the largest special train ever run out of Paducah for the accommodation of an opera company.

PROFILE FORWARDED

A plat of the 20,000 acres on which Paducah wants the army site located, with a communication setting forth our claims to the post, were forwarded last night by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club, to General Miles, at Washington, for the consideration of the army board that has the matter under advisement.

BAD FALL.

New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Fitzsimmons, the ex-champion heavy weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theatre in Brooklyn. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side, and it is feared his spine had been hurt.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.

THE TRAMP DIED

Wm. Woods, the tramp in the Illinois Central wreck near South Fork last week, died at a farm house nearby, where he had been taken for treatment. He was stealing a ride when mangled by the collision.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES

Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case.

She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why—began the young woman—

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, mildly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.

Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

Eloquent Argument of Mr. Lodge

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held another consideration of the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell of Oregon calling upon the secretary of war for complete information regarding the transport service of the United States was adopted.

THE LEGISLATURE

McCREARY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected McCreary senator again. The Pittsford county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire.

Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHER'S CONTEST

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forsythe of this division of the secret service.

The Human Lottery

"Ah, if only I were beautiful how happy I would be."

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

For young girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, fast and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, protracted periods and painful menses, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleaning.

Regular cleans the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, restores the system, and builds up the system generally. It is a perfect health-giver for women. It is true and will be proved on every trial.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government from using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns.

The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DECLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

At press time the case of W. H. Robber against the I. C. railroad, for $20,000 damages, was on trial. The case will not be finished this afternoon.

COUNTY COURT

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

Georgia L. Fields of Fulton county, gives power of attorney to W. F. Paxton to do business in the city in her name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets.

G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $230, property on Jefferson street.

C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end.

Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,350, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his lively stable. The safe has been in the county judges office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

Olas Johnson, a colored barber of Columbus, Ky., and Bessie E. Caldwell of the city were licensed to wed this afternoon. It will be the first marriage of the bride and the second of the groom.

POLICE COURT

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed. El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for presenting a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Davis, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case.

Janie Noas, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

W. O. T. U. MEETING

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 with Mrs. J. D. Smith at Jefferson and Ninth streets.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. The bank was broken into about 2 this morning, and the robbers scooped some of the residents in their escape. A deputy sheriff was notified, and got out in time to fight four of the robbers, ten shots being exchanged. The robbers were routed, and bloodhounds are now on their trail. The four robbers were captured four miles from town. They only secured $1147, it seems, as this was all recovered. They would not talk. The names they gave were probably fictitious.

THE ELKS JUBILEE SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Gradually the Plans Are Becoming Defined for the Week.

The New Public School Session Begins on Feb. 1st.

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CRUCIATION INCREASING DAILY

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let.

The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

CENTRAL UNION

A Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Consider Caulkers Grievance.

Eight of Them Went on a Strike at the Dry Docks.

A meeting of Central Labor Union is called this evening for the purpose, it is understood, of hearing a grievance from eight ship caulkers who have been at work on the Paducah Dry Docks.

It is understood that the men claim their hours of work were cut down from ten to eight because of government work on hand, on which only eight hours' work a day is permitted. This cut them down sixty cents a day, and as it was no fault of theirs, and they want to work full time, they claim they should be paid for the full ten hours, or allowed to work that long and earn it.

Superintendent Young Taylor, however, states that the work he has contracted for on a basis of thirty-five cents an hour. If he pays them $3 a day for eight hours, he will be paying them 37 1/2 cents an hour, instead of 30, and will be losing 7 1/2 cents on every hour they work, which he alleges he cannot stand. His claim is no more to blame for the restriction to eight hours a day when they formerly worked ten, than they, and will not pay for something he isn't getting. Superintendent Taylor says that if the men do not desire to return to work at the present rate, $2.40 for eight hours, he will get new men.

WILL BE REAPPOINTED.

SURVEYOR OF CUSTOMS PURVEYOR TO KEEP HIS POSITION.

Washington, Jan. 22.—It was settled today that Surveyor of Customs J. H. Parryear of Paducah, is to be reappointed.

The local tobacco market this week is a little better on prices and on the grade compared with that of the past several weeks.

The following is a report of the sales held today at the warehouses: Gilbert and Co. offered 16 hogheads with light rejections.

Lugs brought from $3.75 to $4.75 and common leaf sold from $1.25 to $2.75. Good medium leaf was the best offered. The firms report no practical change in the condition of the tobacco and in the prices.

J. W. Farmer and Co. report offerings 11 with 2 rejections. Lugs sold from $3.80 to $4.50. Common leaf sold from $3.50 to $4.25.

There was no better grade of leaf offered. The market is reported a little better on leaf but about the same on lugs.

The Western District Warehouse company report offerings 5 with 1 rejection. There were no lugs offered but leaf brought from $1.75 to $4.65. The market is reported a little better on leaf.

GOES TO MARDI GRAS

CAPTAIN ED FARLEY WILL BE A GUEST ON THE ISLAND QUEEN.

Captain Ed Farley of Mechanicsburg will leave on the Island Queen when she goes south this week for New Orleans, where he will visit and attend Mardi Gras. On the handsome steamer he will be the guest of Captain Brooks, and he expects to be absent several weeks in the Crescent City.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being. The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

Send for our special book on Rheumatism, which is free to all who desire it. Write your physicians about your case, and they will cheerfully furnish any information or advice wanted free of cost.

A REAR-END CRASH

The Cannon-Ball Struck a Freight Train Near Kuttawa Today.

Engineer Devinney Slightly Hurt By Jumping to Save Himself—No One Else Hurt.

A CABOOSE AND CAR WERE BURNED

There was a passenger wreck on the Illinois Central at Kuttawa this morning shortly after 2 o'clock, but only one man was injured and he not seriously.

Passenger train No. 104, which arrives in Paducah at 1:20 a. m. struck the rear end of freight train No. 174, third section, both east bound, and one caboose and a freight car were burned and the passenger engine No. 204, damaged badly. The pilot of the engine was knocked off, the front end stove in and the headlight crashed. Engineer McNulty was sent out this morning on the wrecker to bring the disabled engine back to the local shops.

The freight train was composed of 80 cars and was going into a siding at the above named station when the passenger struck it. The fault of the wreck has not yet been settled.

The freight train was in charge of Conductor Burkam and Engineer Skera and the passenger in charge of Conductor Wheeler and Engineer Devinney, the latter being injured about the face in jumping from his engine when he saw the train ahead. It was reported that Mr. Owen Tully, a flagman, of Paducah, was injured but the report was unfounded. Engineer Devinney lives in Louisville but is now in the local hospital.

This is the first collision to occur on the Central City district for some time. The wrecker was sent out at 7:45 this morning, following the early accommodation train. Train No. 109 from Louisville to Memphis, was the only train into Paducah delayed by the accident.

It is understood that the freight train was on the other's time, as for some reason it failed to get off the main line.

Flagman Tully went back to flag the cannon ball, but didn't get far enough. The engineer of the passenger jumped about where the flagman was standing. About eight cars were telescoped, and the fireman, strange to say, remained on the engine and was not hurt.

Flagman Tully lost a gun and a pistol, two suits of clothing and forty dollars in the burning of the caboose.

Dr. John Bonds did not qualify as a member of the board of health when he was elected in December, and as a result some one will have to be elected in his place. He claims he elected in his place, and does not want it. The board of health seems to be a dead duck. It has not met in months, and it is claimed that there is no president, and no board, as it has never met for reorganization this year, as required by law.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your woes.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at

Frankfort is merely another Democratic

scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the naval and construction of the court of inquiry, and the

scholar work has been devoted to this alone. It has cost the state more than

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the

house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The

session lasted but a few minutes, and eventually no other business was transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they could not get a quorum to vote on the

resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was

broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on

record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general

assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified

and much more in keeping with the

true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business to

transact.

The lockup keeper question will

come up, and the mayor has signified

his intention of making the appointment tonight. The mayor will do

little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in the year around will be reported and

possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

the matter of condemning several buildings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the

city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be

taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

BANDAGES AND RED TAPE.

During the South African war Rud-

yard Kipling discovered, at Cape

Town, a hospital without bandages,

and in desperate need of them. This,

too, was in a city where bandages

were for sale in many shops.

He told an acquaintance that he was going to meet that want, and the

gentleman at once offered to pay for

all the bandages that Mr. Kipling

would buy and take to the hospital.

A cart was quickly loaded, and then

the author was informed that under

army rules the hospital authorities

could not receive supplies from a pri-

rate individual.

"Well," said he, "I will dump the

packages on the pavement before the

door, and tell them to come out and

clear up the litter. Perhaps they can get them into the building in that way without tearing any red tape."

WILL BORE FOR OIL

A Company of Eight Organized in

Paducah to Operate in Wyoming.

They Have Purchased 1600 Acres of Government Land to Develop.

TO CAPITALIZE AT $2,500,000

A big oil company, with a capital

stock of $2,500,000 is to be organized

in Paducah within the next few days.

The object of the company is to develop oil and mining lands in the Big

has been raised for purchasing 1,600

acres of government land, at $1.50

per acre.

The gentlemen interested in the

deal and who will cash own an eighth

interest in the 1,600 acres, are:

Clerk W. A. Bishop of the Dick Fowl-

er, Clerk Dick Newhall of the Hop-

kins, Captain J. S. Tyner of the Butter, Captain J. A. Goodwin, Mr. S.

A. Fowler, Mr. Hunter Housh, J. R.

Robertson, second clerk on the Dick

Fowler and Stoke T. Payne.

There are three companies in that section of Wyoming now, preparing to operate, and the grade of oil is very high, being illuminating oil, worth

about ten times more than fuel oil.

It is probable that Mr. Payne will be sent to Wyoming shortly to look

after the local investors' interests,

and file articles of incorporation. In case oil is found, which is probable,

all the gentlemen will become

wealthy, and if not, they will be out

nothing, as the land itself is worth

what they paid for it.

It is expected that there will be a

big rush into the field this spring,

and this will cause the price of the land to go up. The new company will be incorporated under the laws of

South Dakota.

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the arrival will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Louisville, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Ricks and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on him. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

On Grouse, of Post A, Louisville, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so than that which swells the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteers, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally a couple of flames shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the excited captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolitan Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixtieth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by lancing some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years, and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, engineer, L. E. & W. B. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially to those who are usually similarly afflicted."

ASKED FOR AN ORGAN

Andrew Carnegie, the noted philanthropist, has been asked by a member of the local First Presbyterian church, for a new organ. Some time ago it is said, Mr. Carnegie announced that he would give to every First Presbyterian church out of debt an organ. The local First Presbyterian church is out of debt and the lady notifying the announcement wrote him and a reply is soon expected.

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details for the Two Weeks Stay.

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the celebration of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the prince, as the special representative of the President. When the prince reaches Washington he will become the guest of the German ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be confided to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wyckelsky, the counselor and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Hingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he cannot start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the ruler.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill, Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield. The launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his representative, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capital when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will call for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

THE RIVER NEWS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 8.5, in last 24 hours a fall of 0.3. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 40. Poll, Observer.

Business rather quiet down on the wharf today.

The Clyde is due this evening from Tennessee river.

The Ohio is getting low, but there will be a rise soon.

The H. W. Butterfield left at noon today for Clarksville.

The W. W. O'Neil left New Orleans Friday for this city.

The John K. Speed is on her way up from New Orleans.

There is plenty of work at the Marine Ways, and dry docks.

The coal combine is loading 10,000 tons of steel rails at Bessemer for the South.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with nice business.

John Winfrey and "Vallendun" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and R. F. Estes, of Capito.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the extension business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Superintending Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever ran from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magenta, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charming, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natchez, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne. Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was wharfed that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain, she was so christened. The rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouse, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

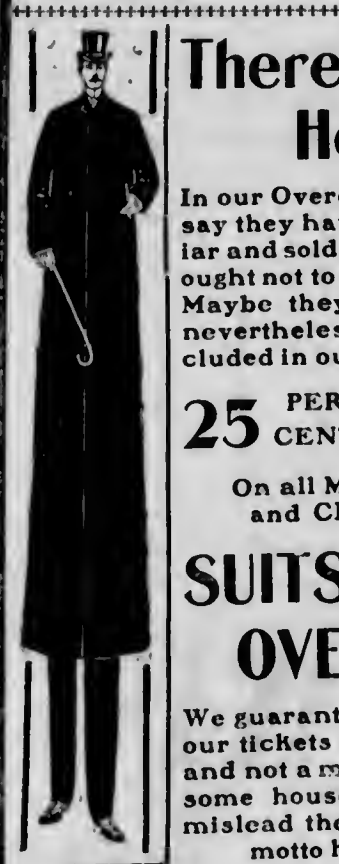

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. Kraus' office, at the city hall, and is a young lady esteemed by all who know her for her many excellent qualities, and one of charming personality. Mr. Schroeder is an employee of the Illinois Central, and is a highly respected and popular young man.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

Coasting stories to be connected with Modern literature.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinate to the modern literature which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it easier prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawn century will come back to the older assumption, re-inventing the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-fashionedness? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive is due to the shifted place of woman in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole recreation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-supporting work. Even if parental encouragement lack, modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonesome hearth, sadly reminiscing, kitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

MAGNIFICENT IMPERIAL GIFT.

Work of Art to Be Presented by Kaiser Wilhelm to King Edward.

Herr Otto Roloff, teacher at the Arts and Crafts school here, has executed a magnificent centerpiece epergne at the express desire and after the design of the emperor, who intends it as a gift to King Edward. In the center is an enormous silver gilt bottle-shaped centerpiece, one meter in height, with a diameter of twenty centimeters, made after the model of the famous epergne of King Frederick the First in the royal palace. Around the centerpiece between chased laurel wreaths, runs a circle with the inscription in English: "Emperor William II. to King Edward VII." On both sides of the circle are heads of lions, with rings in their jaws to serve as handles. The base of the centerpiece is beautifully decorated with chased and embossed work, representing scythian and laurel leaves and festoons, as is also the stopper of the decanter, which represents the king's crown. The centerpiece stands upon a wooden socle adorned with silver gilt rosettes. The entire piece lies between a curious arrangement of corbels shaped grotesquely with embossed floral ornamentation. Each corbel is of gilded bronze differently cut and ornamented. In the center of each corbel is a cartouche, upon which are alternately engraved the monogram and arms of King Edward, over which is the royal crown. It is stated that since the eighteenth century no such exquisite and artistic workmanship has been seen in Berlin.—Berlin Correspondence London Times.

May Lose Collections.

Several important scientific institutions in the East are in danger of having valuable collections confiscated by the government. So intimates S. J. Holinger, a special agent of the Interior Department, who has technical possession of all the Indian ruins in Arizona and New Mexico, which, with their relics, he holds for the government. Valuable collections of pottery and other relics from these reservations have been secured by several museums, sometimes through unauthorized parties. Mr. Holinger says, and he has made a report of this character to the government.

IT IS A GO.
CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN
GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS
CENTRAL CON-TRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and to Chicago today to have the contract signed up. He will purchase, before he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to every part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

FORMER MAYOR LANG TO ADD A LABORATORY TO HIS
DRUG STORE.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed on the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up.

"I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.

THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 900 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

GOOD ROADS LAW.

ASSOCIATION JANUARY 28.

The legislative committee of the Kentucky Good Roads Association will meet in Louisville Tuesday, January 28, for the purpose of formulating a good roads measure for presentation to the legislature. Letters have been sent to county judges in the state asking that any suggestions they may have to make with regard to the contemplated measure be sent to the committee at once. In addition, it is requested that any citizens who have suggestions to make also send them in.

FUNERAL OF THE
LATE MR. TOBE ROGERS

The funeral of the late Mr. Tob Rogers took place this afternoon from the family residence on West Broadway, services by Rev. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church, and Rev. TRUE HAPPINESS
COLONEL LEMON TELLS OF A
M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.

The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story: "We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.

A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO
AND WHISKY

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.

THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE TO LAND AT BROOKPORT
TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.

CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

PROFILE FORWARDED

A plat of the 20,000 acres on which Paducah wants the army site located, with a communication setting forth our claims to the post, were forwarded last night by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club, to General Miles, at Washington, for the consideration of the army board that has the matter under advisement.

BAD FALL.

New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Flanagan, the ex-champion heavy weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theatre in Brooklyn. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side, and it is feared his spine had been hurt.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES

Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case. She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of
Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why—began the young woman—

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, humbly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.

Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.

TEN CENTS PER WEEK

SETTLEMENT IS MADE BY COUNTY WITH MR. SMEDLEY

County Attorney Alben Barkley Acts For Fiscal Court With Company.

Two More Concrete Bridges Will be Erected.

COST WILL BE ABOUT $24,000

County Attorney Alben Barkley was authorized yesterday afternoon by the county court to make a settlement with the Title Guaranty and Surety company, of Scranton, Pa., for $1,582.50, which was found due to the county by Hiram Smedley while he was county clerk. After scrutinizing the delinquent tax books it was found that Smedley was short funds of the county to the extent of about $1,600, but Smedley was allowed his five per cent commission for collecting the money.

Ell G. Roone, county court clerk, who also is agent for the company, will recommend to the officers that the sum be paid, and it is expected that the settlement with the county will be made in a few days with County Attorney Alben Barkley, who will be allowed 20 per cent for making the settlement.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot presided over the meeting, while the following were present: Magistrates Welch, Knott, Brooks, Thompson, Gholson and Broadfoot.

The original suit for the settlement was filed by W. M. Husbands, state revenue agent for the county, but it was contended that Husbands had no right to sue for the county, and the fiscal court took it upon its own hands.

Concrete Bridges.

Two concrete bridges, one over Clark's river on the Henton road and the second over Perkin's creek on the Cairo road, have been recommended by the county road committee, and the recommendation is expected to be acted on favorably by the fiscal court, which will meet next April. The committee is composed of the magistrates of the county, and they include half the members of the fiscal court, so there is little doubt of the erection of the bridges.

County Road Supervisor Bert Johnson, with Magistrates C. I. Knott, Saunders Brooks, John Thompson and F. F. Gholson, yesterday afternoon visited the site of the proposed bridges, and made some measurements. The bridge over Clark's river will be 420 feet long, and probably five spans will be used in making the bridge. The present bridge is not in the best of condition, while the bridge over Perkin's creek will be 90 feet in length. The iron bridge is 120 feet in length, but the officials have decided to fill in the banks and make the bridge shorter.

County Road Supervisor Johnson is anxious to begin the work and will begin the work of preparing plans at once. Roughly it is estimated that the two concrete bridges will cost about $24,000, and will take about three months to complete the structures.

McCracken county has several concrete bridges over creeks crossed by the county roads, and they have given satisfaction. The bridge over Clark's river will be the longest in the county, but when completed will be much more substantial than the present iron bridge.

County Property Values.

Final and complete figures on the recapitulation of the real estate and property in McCracken county show a decrease of $524,198 over last year. The decrease was slightly more than was estimated about 10 days ago, before the assessment of the bank stock was received. The assessment of all property in the county is given at $11,588,461, while the bank stock is $851,200, making a total of $12,439,661. Last year the recapitulation was $12,071,735, while the bank stock was $891,114, making a total of $12,962,849.

The complete figures were completed today by J. H. Wilcox and Walter Smedley, who did the work of copying and recapitulating the figures in the short time of ten days.

Police Baffled

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Agnes Barrett, accused by Ella Gingles as the person who assaulted her and took her to the Wellington hotel, where she was left tied to a bath tub, will be brought face to face with her accuser this afternoon. The police are baffled by the mystery. They are unable to make the details of the stories told by those connected with the case agree.

Tennessee and Kentucky Lumber Dealers Meet in Convention Here ---Hoo-Hoo Concatenation Tonight

Hark! Hark!
The dogs do bark;
The Hoo-Hoo have come
to town!
Some with tales;
All with tails.
There'll be a concatenation.

Nearly all the hotels are filled with members of the West Tennessee and Kentucky Retail Lumber Dealers' association, which began its annual session in K. C. hall this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Earl Palmer delivered the address of welcome, to which Mr. John W. Bransford, of Union City, Tenn., responded.

President W. K. Hall, of Fulton, then delivered his annual address.

Most of the afternoon is being consumed with routine work of organizing the convention.

Tonight there will be a concatenation of the Hoo-Hoos under the direction of Mr. John K. Ferguson, vice-president.

This will be followed by a banquet.

Tomorrow's Program.

The program for tomorrow, commencing at 10 o'clock, is:

Address on Association Work—Mr. H. C. Seacree, Mooreville, Ind., secretary of Indiana Retail Lumbermen's association.

Discussion of the "Code of Ethics"—Led by Mr. C. H. Sherrill, Paducah, Ky.

How to Increase Our Membership—Discussed by Mr. L. A. Ward, Obion, Tenn.

Discussion of Lien Laws of Tennessee and Kentucky—Led by Mr. H. C. Cannady, Mayfield, Ky., and Mr. W. E. Elie, Jackson, Tenn.

The Mail Order Question—Led by Mr. J. W. Henry, Clinton, Ky.

What it Costs Retailers to Handle Stock—By Mr. R. E. Montgomery, Memphis, Tenn.

How to Boost Our Meetings—Address by Capt. Drecka, Union City, Tenn.

Discussion of Credits and Collections—Led by Mr. W. L. Patrick, Milan, Tenn.

General Discussion of Association Topics—Conducted by President W. K. Hall.

Address of Welcome.

One year ago it was my privilege and pleasure to welcome the members of this association to our city, and I trust that my remarks at that time, were not lacking in sincere expressions of genuine hospitality. I now, however, frankly admit, that the welcome then extended by me did not partake of the degree of spontaneous heartiness with which I desire to invest my remarks today.

The reasons for this contrast in the sentiment existing at the opening of your former meeting and the feeling which I am now endeavoring to express to you, is obvious. One year ago I was called upon to address a gathering largely composed of strangers. We then accepted you as guests of quality, because you came well recommended and because you were our brothers in trade. We took you on faith; and, after associating with you during the period of your meeting, we were prepared to assert that our faith had been amply justified. You were weighed in the critical balance of our esteem and no man was found wanting; we tested the temper of your metal and found it to ring true. Therefore, today we do not extend to you the chilly welcome, reserved for respectable strangers, but we accord to you the greeting due from one old friend to another, whether respectable or not respectable. We not only extend our hands to you in cordial welcome, but we open our hearts to you in full fellowship as well; only asking in return, that you reciprocate in kind.

One year has passed since your former visit and, while the time has seemed short, not many of us would care to live over again those last twelve months. In many ways they were not good months; they brought little of material prosperity to any of us. But the signs now are better. We are making progress toward more prosperous conditions and upon more dependable lines. The era of widespread lawlessness in our states of Kentucky and Tennessee, which for the past two years has cast its blighting shadow across the pathway of industrial and commercial prosperity in these states, is coming to an end. For a time, it seemed that justice was dead as well as blind; and that law had departed from our boundaries. But justice was not dead. She heard the cry of an outraged people. The majesty of the law has been re-established in our commonwealth; and under the protection of its strong arm, our people may again plant in peace and harvest with the certain assurance that the torch will no longer deprive them of the fruits of their labors. The hand of the midnight assassin is stayed. For this, thanks to justice, and yet, not wholly to her, but in part, also, to those servants who courageously minister at her altars.

We have also progressed upon more general lines. The conscience of the entire nation is awakening. The political trickster, together with the man given to sharp practice in business dealing, no longer has a place in the affairs of public or private life. Ethical questions are receiving quite as much consideration at the hands of our business men, as we were at times in the past, wont to bestow upon purely commercial questions.

Code of Ethics.

I note on the program prepared for this meeting, a discussion on the Code of Ethics. No such a subject was ever considered at a lumber convention.

INTERURBAN MAY BE FINANCED BY EASTERN CONCERN

The Commercial Club Receives Communications Concerning Project.

Engine Company is Seeking Location Here.

A FAIRHOOD IS DENOUNCED

Mr. Saunders Fowler, secretary of the Commercial club, is in receipt of two letters with reference to the proposed interurban from here to Mayfield. One is from W. E. Alton, of Milburn, and the other from the National Trust company, of Washington.

The trust company states that the matter is under consideration and that the company will fully investigate the proposition, with the view to financing it. Mr. Alton writes to interest Paducah business men in the enterprise. The proposed route of the line is through Bardwell, Wickliffe, Milburn, Fancy Farm, Arlington, Mayfield, Folsomdale and Oakton, making a total line which would connect Paducah with all of these important towns. Mr. Alton proposes to join his work with that of the proposed road from here to Mayfield and Hickman and has hopes of putting it through in the near future.

Mr. Fowler is receiving quite a number of letters from concerned seeking location, one of which is from a big gas engine concern in an Illinois town that desires a new location. This company would employ about 100 men at the start. It wrote first in December and is still corresponding with the club.

In justice to the club the statement is made that this letter of inquiry has been the basis of a story that is being circulated to the injury of the organization and some of its members, to the effect that the interested men in the company were here seeking a location some weeks ago, and found a desirable one, but that some directors of the club obtained an option on the site and when the terms of its sale were broached the price was raised to a prohibitive figure. This story, as usual, is false, as the records of the club will show.

Capital Punishment Stands.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 19.—By a vote of 56 to 24 the house voted down the Harper bill for the abolition of capital punishment.

MAYOR CAN'T CALL ONE BOARD OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—In a decision in a Newport case today, the court of appeals decided that the mayor of a city can not call an extra session of one board of the general council, but must call both boards on the same night.

New City Treasurer

J. J. Dorias turned over the office of city treasurer to G. W. Walters this morning. Chairman Ernest Lackey, of the finance committee of the general council, at the request of Mr. Dorias, was present. The formalities were simple. Treasurer Walters announced that he will not have a deputy.

Russian Revolutionists Abandon Their Terrorist Campaign When They Discover Spy in Their Mids

Chicago Refugees' Association Says Fight Will Continue Until Appeal to Arms or to Reason.

Berlin, Feb. 19.—The Deutsche Zeitung says today the Russian revolutionary committee has dissolved. Kuropatkin and other leaders in the movement declare that henceforth they will abandon the efforts.

Revolution Continues.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—The political Refugees' Defense league, with headquarters here, has received notice of the announcement of the abandonment of the Russian revolution. It declares only the Terrorist movement will go on and finally be fought by armed force or by education of the people. It says the Terrorist movement is dropped because of the recent discovery that Axel, leader of the "Reds," is a Russian government agent, using the Terrorist committee to rid the country of the czar's enemies.

London, Feb. 19.—The house of commons today defeated Austin Chamberlain's motion favoring the abandonment of free trade. The vote stood more than two to one.

Austria's Ultimatum.

London, Feb. 19.—Details of the note recently sent by Austria to Belgrade is made known today. It says that unless Serbia disarms by February 27, Austria will rush a big army across the frontier. Diplomats say if Austria lives up to the terms of the note actual fighting will begin in a fortnight.

SMALL RESIDENCE BURNS

ON THE NORTH SIDE TODAY.

The roof of a house occupied by Robert Bartlett, colored, 1026 North Eleventh street, burned off this morning about 1 o'clock by a fire of unknown origin. No one was at home, and the fire gained a good hold before it was discovered. The house is owned by Armour Gardner, and was damaged about $250. Hose company No. 3, and truck company No. 4, answered the alarm. Last night a telephone message was received that there was a fire at Ninth and Monroe streets, but the firemen failed to find any fire or any person that gave the alarm. Hose companies Nos. 1 and 3, and truck company No. 4 answered the false alarm.

W. S. TAYLOR AND CHARLES PINLEY

State Treasurer Here

State Treasurer Ed Farley arrived here from Frankfort last night. He is attending to some private business here. Since Sunday and a national holiday come together, he probably will remain here until Monday. Captain Farley said this year will be as difficult, if not more difficult, than last year, making both ends meet, with no provisions to meet extraordinary appropriations. At the present time general warrants are being held up. "It is an unpleasant task," said Captain Farley, "but we have only so much money to meet obligations with and we cannot pay money until we get it."

POLICE DISBELIEVE STORY

TOLD BY DRUGGED WOMAN.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—After investigating all day the case of Miss Ella Gingles, who on Wednesday was found bound hand and foot in the general bathroom in the Wellington hotel, the police declare they are convinced that the girl's story of having been kidnapped, drugged and ill treated is untrue. Miss Gingles, however, insists that the story is true.

Money For Mayfield

Washington, Feb. 19.—The civil sundry appropriation bill reported to the house today, despite the message of the president, contains a recommendation for this restriction of the secret service to investigations of counterfeiting and protection of the president. The bill provides for the erection of a brand office building for the Indian department at Washington and an appropriation for the Panama canal of $33,000,000.

The sundry civil bill carries $15,000 for the public building at Mayfield.

JAMES BREATHITT MAY BE INDUCED TO RUN FOR JUDGE

Law and Order Folks Despair of Christian Getting Anyone Else.

John Goodloe Seeks Damages For False Imprisonment.

Murray, Ky., Feb. 19. (Special.)—

That Attorney General James B. Breathitt will be in the race for circuit judge in the Third judicial district at the coming regular election is the general belief here among law and order advocates, regardless of previous political affiliations. The many different moves that are being made by politicians at Hopkinsville to get out a Democratic candidate that would be acceptable to the law and order adherents of the district have so far been unavailing and it is not now believed that such a man can be found other than Judge Breathitt who, it is conceded, would win the race, should he decide to enter it. A strong demand is going out of the judicial district from Democrats and Republicans alike for Judge Breathitt to enter the race, and those who know the man are of the belief that he will yield to the pressure even at the sacrifice of his present position.

Jack Hanberry, who is the latest selection of Christian county politicians for the place was once popular in Calloway county and would have made a strong race for any office, but he or any other man will have to give a clear account of himself for the last year before he is accepted by a majority of the voters of this county for the office of circuit judge.

Goodloe Seeks Damages.

That his character and general reputation has been damaged to the extent of $5,000 by reason of his being held a prisoner in the county jail for 30 days is alleged by John Goodloe, the negro steamboat routeabout, who was recently dismissed of a charge of barn burning. Goodloe was rearrested on a capias issued to satisfy an old fine of $25 and is now serving the jail sentence in lieu of paying it. The whole contention of the plaintiff, who is represented by Attorneys Arees & Speight, is that a magistrate is compelled to give notice to a defendant before his court as to the time and date for which his trial is set, providing a continuance is granted in the case. The theory of the defense is that the defendant must inform himself as to the orders made in his case. The first trial in the case in which the defendant was fined, was set for the 28th day of November, 1907. That being Thanksgiving day the case was continued. The defendant was not present when the order was made and did not appear at the trial on the day fixed. He was fined and a capias issued, which was not served until one year later, when Goodloe was released of the barn burning charge and the officers wanted to hold him to await further developments. Magistrate R. R. Lassiter, County Attorney N. B. Barnett, Constable Calvin Stubblefield and their bondsmen are defendants in the action.

Calloway Clerks O. K.

The county and circuit clerks' offices were checked up by Charles E. Province and an associate from the auditor's office at Frankfort Thursday. These gentlemen are visiting every county seat in the state and the fact that large amounts of back taxes, etc., due the state are now being paid into the treasury by delinquent officers is largely due to their efforts. They made no comments as to the condition in which they found the offices in Calloway county. Most of the records in the circuit clerk's office burned in the court house fire and little time was consumed in going through this office. No discrepancies were found in either office.

Lodges May Build.

The Masonic and Odd Fellows fraternities are formulating plans for the erection of a $15,000 office and lodge building in Murray. The members of the Woodmen lodge are also considering the question of erecting a building to cost about $10,000.

HIS HORSE DROWNED.

The finding of the horse of P. G. Childress, a farmer of Lamont, drowned in a creek this morning about two miles southwest of Maxon Mills, gave rise to the report that he had been drowned. The horse and buggy were found in the creek by school children, and the creek was searched for Childress, but Childress was located at home. He was in Paducah last night and on route home stopped at a store in Maxon Mills. His horse, which was blind, ran off and ran into the ditch. Childress returned home with a neighbor.

COOPER DEFENSE

WOULD PROVE WHY
ROB COOPER SHOT

Nashville, Feb. 19.—

The defense in the case of Colonel Duncan Cooper took advantage of today's interim in the proceedings to meet new features that developed late yesterday. The defense is still guarding names of witnesses to be summoned. It is believed, however, the defense will endeavor to show that Robin Cooper believed his father was in danger and the shots fired therefore were justifiable. It is believed it will endeavor to show that Sharp had no connection with the case. The impression prevails that the state through the 29 witnesses examined has made a strong showing.

NASAL CATARRH.

Gilbert's Drug Store Sells the Great Remedy that Cured Mrs. Karberg.

Here is a very simple yet wholly sincere statement of a Michigan woman, who was cured by using Hyoniel—the no cure no pay remedy for catarrh, asthma, hay fever, croup, coughs and colds.

"A bad case of catarrh was cured for me by the use of Hyoniel. The trouble affected my head, nose and eyes, and was very annoying and disagreeable, and the cure, from the use of Hyoniel, was very gratifying. Hyoniel has from me a strong recommendation and endorsement."—Mrs. E. Karberg, 213 Kingsley St., Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16, 1908.

ALDERMEN ACCEPT BOND OF WALTERS

Accounts Allowed and New Ordinance Ordered.

Mr. Dorlan Says He Will Turn Over Office to the New Treasurer This Morning.

ROUTINE BUSINESS OF BOARD

After the bond of G. W. Walters as city treasurer was accepted last night by the board of aldermen, which action the board of councilmen had already taken, J. J. Dorlan (thanked the members for past courtesies and announced that he would relinquish the office to his successor this morning.

Walters announced that the city would lose no interest by the transfer of funds, and in a speech defended his attempt to assume official functions before the council had decided the contest, by saying he was under obligation to no bank, and by threatening his critics.

After the bond furnished by Walters had been accepted, Mr. Dorlan submitted his report as city treasurer to date, showing a balance on deposit of $115.08. Mr. Dorlan informed the board that all the money entrusted to him belonging to the city would be turned over to Mr. Walters Friday morning, just as soon as the bank certificate could be secured to verify the report, and he asked that the board appoint the chairman of the finance committee to go over the report with the bank certificate. Alderman Potter moved that the chairman of the finance committee or some other member of the committee be appointed. Alderman Hank seconded the motion. Alderman Potter then asked if the sinking fund was included in the money to be turned over to Mr. Walters. Mr. Walters said that the city treasurer was the sole custodian of every dollar belonging to the city and that he expected to be the custodian of the sinking fund of the city of Paducah.

Attorney Hal Corbett was heard on behalf of Mr. Walters. When D. A. Yelzer was mayor bids were received from the local banks for the purpose of finding out which bank would pay the highest interest for the deposit of the sinking fund and the money was deposited in the bank paying the highest interest, and the money to Mr. Dorlan's understanding was in charge of the sinking fund commission, which is composed of the president of the boards of the general council and the mayor, and for that reason Mr. Dorlan had said nothing about turning over the sinking fund. Mr. Dorlan thanked the board for the many courtesies extended him by the board. He said one side must win and since Mr. Walters won, that he had the kindest and most friendly feeling toward the winner and every one of the board.

Alderman Lackey moved that the sinking fund commission meet with the city solicitor Friday morning and find out what should be done, but the motion had no second. The city solicitor informed the board that the sinking fund is on deposit in the name of Mayor James P. Smith and the best way out of it was to instruct the mayor to draw the money out and pay it over to the city treasurer. Alderman Lackey moved and Alderman Potter seconded the motion, that the mayor be instructed to draw the sinking fund from the Citizens' Savings bank and turn it over to the city treasurer. Alderman Durrett expressed himself as believing that the board had nothing to do with the changing of the sinking fund.

On motion of Alderman Stewart all the motions before the board were tabled.

Other Business.

The action of the lower board in referring CHET Wood's request to purchase 4,000 feet of hose and two horse collars was concurred in.

The joint finance committee recommended the allowance and payment of $2,382.73 and the aldermen allowed the accounts as recommended. Alderman Potter, under new business, read a request from business men and property owners on Broadway from Third street to the river, asking that the Union station cars be run to the river. This request was made to Mr. Keldhead, manager of the traction company. Mr. Potter then read the reply to the request, which said on account of not having double tracks from Fourth street to the river it was impossible to comply with the request, but if the people, desiring to have the cars run to the river, would pay for the changing of the switch on the Union station line from Tenth and Tennessee streets to Eighth and Ohio streets, which would amount to about $300, it would be possible to run the cars to First street and Broadway. On motion of Mr. Potter the ordinance committee was instructed to bring in an ordinance, compelling the traction company to run the Union station cars down Broadway.

New Vaults.
On motion of Alderman Stewart the public improvement committee was instructed to receive bids for a new vault in the clerk's office. On motion of Alderman Hank the public improvement committee was instructed to receive bids for a vault to keep the city engineer's records and maps in.

Mr. Huddleston, of Melber, has been selling brooms in the city without license and Mr. Tate, the local broom manufacturer, asked that he not be allowed to peddle without a license. The request was referred to the ordinance committee.

Mrs. Nancy Bell was granted a deed to lot a lot in Oak Grove cemetery.

All members were present, but Alderman Sherrill and Lackey were excused before the meeting adjourned.

News of Theatres

AT THE KENTUCKY.

Friday Night—"Just a Woman's Way."

Saturday Matinee and Night—"A Pair of Country Kids."

Monday Night—"Little Miss Blue Bird."

February 23—Louis Mann in "The Man Who Stood Still."

Actors, no matter what theatrical managers may say to the contrary, make excellent audiences—a fact exemplified at all so-called "professional" matinees, and especially illustrated in the successive Thursday afternoon performances in the Circle theater. New York city, run of Louis Mann in "The Man Who Stood Still." Managers are prone to allege that they dislike "professional" audiences, for the reason that actors, obsessed with jealousy, are not inclined to give any too much credit to the persons on the stage, however much they may indulge in applause in the course of performance. To this line of reasoning, Mr. Mann replies:

"Granted that actors, after witnessing a performance, go out and 'roast' what they have seen. What difference can it possibly make? How is the success of a play allied or impaired by professional 'roasting'? Why, we actors are a very small part of the world; and all of us together could not keep a play alive a week, if we paid our way in. We live among ourselves, for the greater part; our horizon is bounded by the theater and the newspapers. No newspaper would give us its columns for a gratuitous 'roast' of a performance; and there is none save professionals to listen to us if we 'roast' our brother-professionals. So, why bother about such things? Some of the best criticism I have had has come from actors who, having seen my performance and praised it to my face, have afterward found fault with me, in the belief that the fault-finding would not reach my ears. This professional criticism has in times gone by done me a world of good; and I should like to get more of it."

Mr. Mann's matinee day in the midweek having been Thursday in his New York city run in "The Man Who Stood Still," he entertained in the Circle theater, more than the usual number of professionals, most of whom had Wednesday matinees, and were thus at liberty on Thursday afternoons. Mr. Mann comes in "The Man Who Stood Still" to the Kentucky theater on Tuesday, February 23.

The Rork production of "The Land of Nod," an extravaganza of the most amusing and palatable kind, will be presented at The Kentucky for matinee and night, February 24. It is built substantially along the lines of the prevailing musical comedy, possessing an arrangement of tuneful melodies of the popular sort and a comedy element which keeps an audience constantly laughing or applauding. All of the people of last season's company who made distinctive hits are retained in this cast, including Mr. Knox Wilson as "April Fool" and Grace Drew as "Jack of Hearts." And there have been additions to the list of players which, it is said, add materially to the charm of the performers. The sale of seats for "The Land of Nod" opens on Tuesday 9 a. m.

"Just a Woman's Way," the new melodramatic success which comes to The Kentucky tonight, is staged by an exceptionally strong and especially selected company. Great artistic skill, directness of method and intellectual strength are evident in

TWO SENATORS IN WORD FIGHT

Lafollette Criticizes Senate for Delaying.

Penrose Makes Report, Declared Wisconsin Man Was a Member of Several Committees.

NEVER RENDERED ANY SERVICE.

Washington, Feb. 19.—An acid exchange of words took place in the senate between Lafollette, who was criticizing the methods of that body in handling the appropriation bills, and Penrose, chairman of the committee on postoffices and postroads, in charge of the postoffice bill then under discussion.

The day began by Lafollette asking that the postoffice bill be allowed to go over until tomorrow as it had just been reported from the committee and he had had no time in which to examine it. Lafollette addressed himself at length to the measure and severely arraigned the senate for permitting legislation to accumulate until the last days of the session, when he declared important bills were rushed through with little or no time for the senators to understand them.

Come in late. "My observation is that these appropriation bills get in here about as late for the long session as they do for the short session," said Lafollette. "It seems to be a part of the system that these most important legislations."

He charged that important legislation was placed on these measures and passed when it could pass as a separate bill. He also said that salary increases for big officials had been put through in that way, and he insisted that the committee unduly delayed bills which might be reported earlier, so the senate would have more opportunity to study and understand them.

He declared that if the senator from Pennsylvania had attended sessions earlier his committee might have made the report more promptly. He added that the important legislation of congress was in the hands of seven committees while more than 50 senators were not assigned to any committee that has business. He took occasion to say that he hoped a tariff bill would not be put through on a "greased runway."

Better Have Special Session.

"I do not see," he continued, "that

WOMAN'S BEAUTY.

It Can Never Be Perfect Without Luxuriant Hair.

A head of luxuriant hair is sure to be attractive. But nature has not crowned every woman with glorious hair. Some very lovable women she has treated rather scantily in this respect.

For instance, there are tens of thousands of women in America today, who have harsh, faded and lusterless hair, who are unattractive simply because they do not know that nowadays even the whims of nature can be overruled by the genius of science.

If you are a woman without beautiful hair, do not permit your attractions to be hidden because of this slight misfortune.

Go today to Gilbert's drug store and buy a large bottle of Parisian Sage for 50 cents, use it each night, and you will notice the harsh, repulsive hair disappear, and in its place will come soft, silky, bright and luxuriant hair.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by Gilbert's drug store to cure dandruff, itching of the scalp, and stop falling hair in two weeks, or money back.

It would be such a terrible calamity to the country if the discussion of these bills should carry some of them over to an extra session. I know that if the appropriation bills are disposed of at this time there will not be any reorganization of the committees at this term, and various important legislation outside of the appropriation bills must go over to another session of congress.

Lafollette rebuked the senate with having put down interstate commerce legislation nine years and having delayed the pure food law seventeen by applying the same methods against which he was contending.

Penrose Makes Report.

At this moment Penrose arose and with violent anger and glaring across the chamber at the slight form of the senator from Wisconsin, said in a loud voice:

"I shall not sit silent in my seat when misstatements are made or claptrap statecraft is attempted here. I charge the senator from Wisconsin had been on the committee on the census and during his service on that committee has failed to attend a single meeting of it. I make the charge without any fear of contradiction. He is on the committee on claims and had only attended its meetings once or twice in all his service and that attendance was only to bring up some trivial claim. I make the statement without fear of contradiction that he is on the committee on pensions, which has one of the largest appropriation bills pending before congress every year.

And he has hardly ever been present at its meetings according to the unanimous testimony of nearly all his colleagues on that committee.

Never Rendered Useful Service.

"I make another statement without any fear of contradiction, that he is on the important committee on Indian affairs, which every year considers a great appropriation bill, and he has seldom or never rendered useful service to it."

"And he has been in the senate during two years," interposed Gallinger from his seat.

"There is no senator," continued

Penrose, glaring angrily toward Lafollette, "who has a greater record for absenteeism than he. It all becomes him to criticize these committees. When he is here it is only to delay the business of the senate, to hold up the transactions of the public business and embarrass those who, under their oath of office and in conscientious discharge of their duty endeavor to enact legislation. I shall not sit here, and I desire to give notice to the senator from Wisconsin and listen to arguments that might better be made by a patent medicine vender from the tall door of a cart

Lafollette Replies.

Lafollette had remained standing while these remarks were directed toward him. "It is of little value," he said, "to utter a contradiction here to much that has been said. It would merely put the word of one senator against that of another. I have not attended a meeting of some of the committees to which I was assigned. I attended the meeting of the committee on claims once or twice. Not feeling that I could render any service of value on it I asked to be relieved

Daily Thought.
Borrowing is the canker and death of every man's estate.—Ralph.

The Maurelania has broken every thing on the ocean but her screw.

Taft became a Mason at eight last night. The goat took a look at his bulk and says: "You're a Mason, Mr. Taft."

The Ohio river is acting as if it anticipated a trip of the battleship fleet up this way as far as the Cairo bridge.

If Roosevelt is made a Roman citizen, some pesky senator will try to bar him as an undesirable alien on his return from Africa.

The majority of the delegates to the tariff commission convention are in favor of revision; but some of them are standpatters, who see a slight chance to secure delay, just as, we fear, some of our interested transportation lines are behind the fight against the lock and dam canal.

The statement from Frankfort that of the 119 county court clerks in Kentucky, 100 of them are engaged in paying back to the state money wrongfully withheld, should arouse the people to the importance of selecting trustworthy men to handle the public funds. This investigation by Auditor James will result in recovering much of the money stolen under his predecessor, but the people must depend for the future safety of the funds on the character of men they elect to office. If they elect professional gamblers, or men, whose loose habits and reckless manner of living are well known, they deserve nothing better than that the money should be stolen.

Senator Tillman got what he asked from LaFollette, when he inquired disingenuously how they could stop this naval extravagance, and LaFollette suggested that no member from a state, possessing a navy yard, should be allowed to be on the naval committee. Tillman has a little navy yard in South Carolina that a ship cannot reach.

On the very day the Saturday Evening Post published a page story of Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, as the silent statesman, Penrose burst forth in a tirade against LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and said LaFollette talked like a patent medicine vender from the rear end of a cart in a Wisconsin village. Now, we submit, that is doing pretty well for a man, who for 12 years had said nothing but "yes" and "nay."

WELCOME HOO-HOOS!
While the international conservation congress is being welcomed by President Roosevelt, it is the pleasure of The Sun again to welcome the retail lumber dealers of Tennessee and Kentucky. There are well dressed lumber dealers among them, there are men with the bark on, there are hard and soft woodmen, there are sound and knotty, seantlings and heavy timber men, but none of them are bored. From the time Pat Dugas established his woodyard at the mouth of the Tennessee, until that stream was choked with log rafts, Paducah has been close to the lumber business, and the delegates to this convention are at home.

KENTUCKY'S FIRST OFFENDERS.
Kentucky has 2,935 convicts in her penitentiary. How many of them, we wonder, are men whose first, bitterly regretted wrong step, was criminal? They are beyond redemption as useful citizens now. That is worth thinking about. Many a man through sheer weakness, subjected to some sudden and pressing temptation under unaccustomed circumstances and unexpected opportunities, has betrayed a trust, or committed a felony. Other men have met experiences, prepared by gradual introduction to responsibilities. Sometimes a humbug being, having once fallen, stands erect. All of them do not, poor creatures; but isn't it better to give a man a chance?

It is time for Kentucky to introduce reformatory methods for her first offenders. It is an irreparable wrong to the individual and to the state to hacken a man with a prison record for his first misstep. There are reformatories in some states, where inmates work on farms unguarded and unwatched, and the honor of the inmates has suffered to maintain order and prevent a single escape.

The penitentiaries are now overcrowded. The investigation of charges of terrible brutality and mismanagement, should be carried through to complete reform of the prison system. The Bertillon system of measurements, so that a man, who once has been in the prison can never afterwards be recognized, has been introduced; it is time now to see, if we cannot correct the tendencies of our first offenders to make them conform to the full measurements and marks of a man.

THE CARMACK MURDER.

The foundation laid by the state of Tennessee to establish proof of conspiracy in the murder of Hon. Ed Carmack looks bad, and yet we must remember the fact that Carmack's enemies met frequently in their common office and cursed him and wished he was dead, was not remarkable in the heat of that bitter fight, or unusual among politicians in any campaign. That it was feared Duncan Cooper would shoot him is altogether probable, and the anticipation of a tragedy would lend a compromising tone to the conversations of Cooper's friends in this after shadow, and their very attempts to avert a meeting between the belligerents, look like evidences of a conspiracy. The murder was cold-blooded, brutal and unjustifiable, and we have no more use for that Patterson ring than have the good people of Tennessee; but we cannot bring ourselves to believe that men of our race could dream of such a plot.

THE PANAMA LIEBEL.

Papers are frequently sued for libel, when through an inadvertence they do injury to the reputation of some member of society, or when in pursuit of a legitimate reform, they overstep the technical boundaries of permissible criticism. But when a newspaper is engaged in a legitimate reform, the one thing it demands and seeks is the truth. No paper can say it is urging a reform if it does not try to bring out the facts. The New York World and the Indianapolis News have been indicted for libel. During the heat of the recent presidential campaign, these papers, which were opposed to Taft, published the statement that the brother of Taft, the brother-in-law of President Roosevelt, J. Pierpont Morgan and others received inside information that the government proposed to purchase the Panama canal and that they, while the plan was kept secret from the French company, bought the holdings of the company at a nominal price and made huge sums of money from the deal.

If that was so, no one should more greatly desire the truth to be brought out than the New York World, and the Indianapolis News. We do not believe a reputable newspaper would publish such a reflection on the character of our government, as that, even in the heat of a campaign, without having the facts to back the assertion. If the newspapers have the fact, they can easily justify themselves by producing the facts at their trial, and the country will approve their publication; for if such a deal was made the country ought to know.

There was much bitterness in the senatorial debate at the time the choice between the Panama and Nicaraguan route was made, but no one ever proved any wrong motives in connection with the selection.

We await with interest the defense of the newspapers, and trust that they will not seek to evade trial and proof of their allegations.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Even the winning of the honor of representing the High school at the oratorical contest at Madisonville did not excuse Edwin Lightfoot from doing his chores about the home. County Judge H. T. Lightfoot is a believer in the adage of "Spare the rod and spoil the child," and frequently substitutes a good licking for a term in the reformatory school when incorrigible lads are brought before him. The afternoon after his son had won the honor the judge was seated at home, and he saw the coal supply was short. He called to his son that the coal buckets needed replenishing. The young orator was upstairs and he called down: "Father remember I am an orator, and I should not be compelled to do such labor as that. Why, I have read the life of Demosthenes through several times, and have failed to find where he was compelled to do such chores."

"All right, son, he was Demosthenes, and you are Edwin Lightfoot, suspect you had better get the coal," and the young orator complied with the answer.

Moving is so much trouble. This little sentence was proven to be true when Mr. Bob Stilt, a well known man in this city began moving, Tuesday. Two men were engaged to take the carpets and take them to the house in which he intended to move. Yesterday morning a load of furniture was taken to the new home and it was then that Mr. Stilt discovered that the carpets had been put down in the wrong house.

SHAKE THIS WELL IN A BOTTLE TO MIX

Prescription For Kidney and Bladder Troubles and Rheumatism.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and set it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer can mix it at home: Compound Kagon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

River stage at 7 o'clock this morning, Feb. 19, a rise of 1.5 since yesterday morning. Rainfall last night and until 7 o'clock this morning was 1.40 inches. Providing the rainfall is general and especially at the headwaters of the Mississippi, Ohio, Tennessee and Cumberland rivers, it is certain that the rivers will go above the flood stage. Rivermen say if the rainfall all over the country is like it is here, the river here will go several feet above the flood stage. At the present time if the Mississippi was up we would have a stage of 40 feet at Paducah, but the Mississippi is low and the water is running out of the Ohio rapidly.

The steamer Kentucky arrived in port this morning at 8 o'clock from Riverport and way landings with a large cargo of freight aboard for Paducah and Brookport. She went on down the river this morning to unload and receive freight and will return tonight. The Kentucky will leave tomorrow evening for the Tennessee.

The Dick Fowler got away on time this morning for Cairo and way landings with a good freight and passenger list. She will be due tonight about 9 o'clock.

The steamer George Cowling made her two daily trips from Metropolis and return doing a fair business on both trips.

The steamer Royal came in this morning from Goicound and left on a return trip this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She did a right good business in and out of this port.

The Peters Lee will probably get away from Memphis this afternoon for Cincinnati and will be due here Sunday afternoon on her way up.

The river again took upon itself to be rough last night and today, compelling boats with tow to tie up to the banks.

The American came into port yesterday afternoon from Cairo, where she delivered a tow of ties. She had expected to leave for the Tennessee today, but on account of the bad weather she probably will not leave till tomorrow.

The Martha Hennen, in charge of Capt. Ed Pixley, has arrived at Mobile, Ala., after a stormy voyage from New Orleans to Mobile. The Hennen was over a week making the trip in the salt water and during that time she burned her boilers by using salt water and was delayed. In good weather it would take the Hennen about three days to make the trip from New Orleans to Mobile.

About 400 cords of cottonwood that had been cut floated down the river yesterday from just below Brookport. The J. T. Friend, a towboat from Cairo, came up to Brookport and recovered some of the wood, but most of it floated on down the Ohio. Several cords were recovered at Metropolis.

The Wash Henshell that passed down yesterday morning was compelled to tie up at Turner's landing on account of the wind.

NEWS OF COURTS

Police Court.

Breach of peace—Will Husband, fined $10; Lake Roberts, fined $15.

In Circuit Court.

The case of Mrs. T. J. Spidell against the Illinois Central railroad and William O. Hurch for damages, resulting from the killing of her husband by a train near Terrell's crossing, October 29, was begun this morning in circuit court. The case was begun at noon and probably the jury will not receive the case until tomorrow morning.

In the case of Obe Bradshaw, colored, against the Paducah Light and Power company for personal damages, a verdict for the defendant was returned.

Business Session of Woman's Club.

The Woman's club met in regular session yesterday afternoon at the club house. The business was mainly routine. At the recommendation of Mrs. Henry C. Overby, chairman of the Education committee, the club ordered 50 anti-tubercular posters which will be placed in the school buildings and other public places in the city. They are from the Red Cross association.

Mrs. C. E. Purcell reported that a letter had been written to State Superintendent J. G. Crabbe asking for conditions under which Paducah would have to work to secure the Western Normal school from Howling Green. The club will then begin an active canvass of the city.

The members were urged to send in their ballots for the election of the three officers: Second vice president, treasurer and corresponding secretary on March 4, so that nominations can be made. Ballots have been mailed out to all the members to fill in.

Mr. A. D. Brooks, superintendent of the fire extinguishers of the Illinois Central railroad, was in the city yesterday and left this morning for Mississippi.

—Now is the time to sow your lawn with Hiederman's Lawn Grass Seed.

HY-O-MEI AND MI-O-NA

Is the latest special agency which we have secured and its one which we value very highly indeed, for these great remedies have proven themselves wonders of efficiency by sick men and women all over the country. Mi-O-NA, you know cures sick stomachs and Hyomei cures catarrh and asthma and they're both mighty quick about it, too. We'd like to talk with you about them.

Dinner Party for Mr. and Mrs. Fendol Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burnett entertained Thursday evening with an elegant 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fendol Burnett, who have just returned from their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett were assisted in receiving by Miss Burnett, Mrs. Charles Curtis, of St. Louis; Mrs. George Reeves and Mrs. E. B. Shelton, of Wickliffe, Ky.

Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were: Mrs. Le'a Wade Lewis, Miss Courtie Puryear, Miss May Davis, Mr. George Goodman, Mr. Gus Thompson, Mr. Oscar Hank, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McAllister and Mr. and Mrs. Fendol Burnett.

It was a beautifully appointed six-course dinner, the color scheme being green and white, the bride's colors.

Mrs. Moams, of St. Louis, made the wedding cake, which was in the design of orange blossoms and lilacs-of-the-valley. In the cut for the wedding favors Mrs. Fendol Burnett got the shoe, Mrs. Shelton the ring, Miss Sophia Burnett and Mrs. Reeves the penny and Mr. George Goodman the button.

Mrs. Burnett was formerly Miss Mary Wright, of Como, Minn., one of that city's most charming girls. She was the recipient of much social attention in her home town. A beautiful linen shower given by her club members expressed their deep regret at losing her. Mr. Burnett is connected with the American Shuff company and is one of Paducah's most popular young men. They will be at home for the present at 315 North Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett received many beautiful gifts.

Brilliant Recital at Woman's Club.

One of the most altogether satisfying musical events ever given in Paducah was the pianoforte recital of Edward Baxter Perry, the blind pianist of Boston, yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club house. Mr. Perry appeared under the auspices of the Music department of the club at their regular open meeting and was greeted by the largest audience ever gathered in the club house. It was a representative crowd of music lovers and music critics, and all alike were charmed.

Mr. Perry was introduced by Miss Virginia Newell, chairman of the Music department in a charming way that placed him and his audience in sympathetic touch at once.

Mr. Perry is the originator of the lecture-recitals, and his Paducah audience really saw how the method has proved so popular both at home and abroad. The program featured 12 piano numbers from the composers Schumann, Liszt, Rubenstein, Grieg, Chopin and Edward Baxter Perry. Each number was prefaced by a short explanation of what the music meant and Mr. Perry showed himself an artist in the picturing power of words. His manner was charming in its ease and simplicity, his enunciation delightful and his imagination vividly placed before his audience the exact scene he desired to convey. His technical execution was no less finished and powerful than his artistic interpretation.

Mr. Perry's artistic compositions were especially appreciated. They are full of poetic charm and fire. "The Ballad of the Last Island" tells a story in music of the destruction of Last Island, a noted winter resort, in the midst of the gayety of the season. The roar of the approaching storm, the lighter music of the dance, the unconsciousness of the dancers were all powerfully contrasted and held his audience spellbound throughout.

Pretty Nashville Party.

Mrs. Hamilton Parks entertained her Sunday school class charmingly last evening, her home being prettily decorated with flowers and ferns. Numerous games and contests appropriate to the valentine season were enjoyed. In the archery contest a heart-shaped box of candy was presented. Another diversion was the matching of love ditties, which were written on red hearts, and placed in every available space about the reception rooms. In this the guest matching the largest number was presented with a book of Bible pictures. The dining room decorations were quite pretty. The covers of the table were of Chiny lace, and in the center was a cut glass vase of polio-sella blooms, which extended to a red heart, hung from the smilax-covered chandelier. Platters of red and white candy balls and heart-shaped mints were arranged on the table. The valentine cake, which was heart-shaped and appropriately decorated, held a silver heart and key, and these were drawn for by red and green ribbons, and provoked much merriment. From one end of the table Mrs. C. B. Rogan poured chocolate and served sandwiches, and from the other, Miss Mildred Ralus served an ice. The guest list included thirty, each member of the class having had the privilege of inviting a guest. These were supplemented by Miss Cecil Rogan

The Glueklich club gave a dance last night at the Three Links building. Although the weather was inclement about 20 couples were present at the dance.

Informal Reception to Mr. Perry Last Night.

An informal reception for Mr. Edward Baxter Perry, of Boston, was held last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, 2005 Broadway. It was given by the Crescendo club of the city, and their guests were the members of the Matinee Musical club and the Woman's club.

Mr. Perry complimented the club with an informal miscellaneous lecture-recital program that was most delightful and was charming socially.

A pretty salad course luncheon was served during the evening.

Charity Euchre Successful Affair.

The euchre given by the ladies' auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus last night was a decided success. The prizes for the ladies were: First prize, a large bisque vase, Mrs. Henry Snyder; second prize, a handsome embroidered centerpiece, Miss Marceline Ruddle; lone-hand prize, a beautiful piece of hand work, Miss Katie Grogan; guest prize, an elegant Bohemian glass vase, Miss Florence Hurdy; Mrs. James Hofflich won the consolation prize. The men's prizes went as follows: First, a box of cigars, Mr. William Seck; second, a pair of silk suspenders, Mr. George Houdurant; lone-hand, a silk tie, Mr. John Leonard; guest, a paper knife, Mr. Felix Wurth, and the consolation, an ash tray, to Mr. Charles Hurdy.

A large crowd was in attendance. The euchre was one of a series for charity that have been given during the winter with much success. It was an enjoyable affair.

Mr. A. L. Rouse, of Chattanooga, arrived in the city today on business.

Miss Rosa Simpson, of Fulton, is visiting in the city this afternoon.

UNCLE SAM AND FAUST

SPAGHETTI.

The United States Agricultural Department declares spaghetti to be a highly nutritious food—rich in gluten and other strength-producing elements. These qualities are found at their best in Faust Spaghetti, a food that has no equal anywhere as regards taste, nutrition, and low price—a price which, when compared to that of meat and other food, seems insignificant in view of the great food value.

Faust Brand Spaghetti is a strictly American food. American grown and American made. Put up in clean packages, reaching you fresh and dainty, ready for immediate cooking.

Faust Spaghetti always delights because its adaptability prevents its becoming tiresome. To better understand its all-round cooking usefulness, get a five or ten cent package from almost any grocer, and write for book of Faust Spaghetti recipes—free on request.

tion ten years ago, or even five years ago. Ethics means the attitude which we shall sustain toward ourselves and toward our fellow men. Up to very recent times, our attitude toward our fellows in trade, or our competitors, as we then called them, was every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost, and our attitude toward our customer was, to get all we could out of him with the least possible outlay of money and of effort.

But now, this is all changed. We realize that we owe certain obligations to our fellows in trade and to our customers, that cannot be ignored; and we meet together, upon such occasions as this, for the purpose of determining what these obligations are, and with the sincere desire of arriving at the best methods by which they may be effectively discharged.

In accomplishing this re-adjustment of conditions, there is but little doubt that the immediate resumption of prosperity is being retarded. But let us not forget that the panic of 1907 was brought on by the lack of the very conditions which we are now seeking to establish; and that confidence can only properly be restored by the establishment of these conditions upon a secure and permanent foundation. Therefore, let us exercise patience in our progress; let us build carefully and make no mistakes wholly confident that when prosperity again returns, it will be of such an enduring nature as not only to remain with us, but with our children and with our children's children.

The Social Side.

We lumbermen possess one faculty not generally accorded to men engaged in other lines of trade, and that is, when we have completed our day's work, when we have stood up to the rack for ten hours and have pulled every pound that there is in us during that time, we can cast down our burdens of care, worry and fatigue, join in social converse and forget that there is such a thing as business in all the world. That this trait is peculiar to lumbermen only, is evidenced by the fact that we lumbermen, of all other lines of industry and trade, alone have been able to evolve and maintain a purely social and fraternal organization that is national in its scope. An organization, the membership of which was at first limited to 9,999—but which we have seen compelled to extend to 99,999. A friend inquired the other day how we lumbermen happened to start the order of Hoo-Hoo. I asked him if he recalled that Mark Twain once said "Be good and you'll be lonesome," and told him that we started Hoo-Hoo in order that we good lumbermen might not be too lonely.

Great Hoo-Hoo will hold court in our city tonight, primarily, to prevent any visiting lumberman from becoming lonesome, and 'Incidentally, to open the eyes of any and all poor blind kittens who are now in darkness, but who desire to walk in the light.

In conclusion permit me to report that we are mighty glad to have you with us, and I trust that the good which you will derive from these business meetings and the pleasure which you may enjoy from our social features will amply repay you for the effort which you have put forth in order to be with us today.

Response.

Mr. J. W. Brandtford, of Union City, replied to the address of welcome, as follows:

"Mr. Palmer and Gentlemen of Paducah:—I feel that I have been honored in that the directors of the West Tennessee and Kentucky Retail Lumber Dealers' association has selected me as the one to respond to Mr. Palmer, and to extend to you the thanks of the association and its visitors for the hearty and whole-soul welcome that has been given us. It is a pleasant task that I have before me, but in trying to perform it I find myself akin to old Sam's mule. He sold his mule representing him to be free from all faults and blemishes. The man who bought it came to Sam in a few days and said: 'Look here, Sam, I found that mule had no faults, and I find he is nearly blind in one eye.' To this Sam replied: 'Dat, boss, am not de po mule's fault, it am his misfortune.' So my friends, it is my misfortune and not my fault that I have not sufficient words to say to you what I and my fellow guests would like to have said.

"To Robert Burns' much quoted stanza:—'Oh, would some power the gift give us, To see ourselves as others see us,' a modern poet has added:—'But how much better 'if by spells, others could see us as we see ourselves.'"

"If you could see us as we see ourselves this afternoon, no words of thanks would be necessary for me, for you would fully comprehend the feeling of gratitude that we have for your smiles of welcome, your cheerful greetings, your hearty hand shakes and your unbounded hospitality.

"There is no truer saying than 'actions speak louder than words'; so our return to you this year expresses better than could the most eloquent speech of the most famous orator our appreciation of the splendid treatment we received from you last year and the great pleasure it gives us to be with you again."

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrap and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. TO REFOREST MAINE.

A Man Who Plants Thousands of Trees Offers Prizes to Others.

A plan for the reforestation of the state of Maine has been submitted to the governor by B. C. Jordan of Alfred. Mr. Jordan offers to give the state $1,000 on condition that once in eighteen years five prizes shall be awarded for the five best lots of young forest growth.

These lots are to consist of not less than ten acres, accurately surveyed and plotted, the majority of the trees to be not less than ten or more than thirty feet high and not less than ten or more than thirty years old when the prizes are awarded. The varieties of trees to be grown are specified and cover a long list of white pine and elm.

Mr. Jordan believes that the incentive afforded by such prizes would do much to bring about better forestry conditions. Maine has many thousands acres of waste land, now almost worthless but naturally well adapted to timber growth, and which, according to a writer in Suburban Life, by a small expense for care and forest cultivation and could be made easily worth in fifty years $100 an acre.

In this way the state instead of being the poorest in the Union might be made one of the richest. Fifty years is a large part of one person's life, but a very small part of the life of a state. Mr. Jordan himself set out from ten to fifteen thousand trees the last summer and states that he hopes to set out many thousands every year as long as he lives.

ATTACKS RULES OF THE HOUSE

Congressmen Have Betrayed
Their Trust.

Made Speaker Tyrant—Bill Codifying
and Amending Penal Laws of United States.

THE KNOX MATTER SETTLED.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The controversy over the legislative appropriation bill, in connection with the much-discussed salary of the secretary of state, involving the eligibility of Senator Knox for that office, was settled in the house when the bill was sent to a conference and the committee was authorized to consider the salary provisions as if in disagreement.

This gives the committee the power to reduce the pay from $12,000 to $8,000, its former figure. The Republicans were caught napping when the resolution by Fitzgerald was adopted disagreeing to the senate amendment creating the offices of under-secretary and fourth assistant secretary of state.

The bill codifying and amending the penal laws of the United States was passed and the fortification appropriations bill discussed.

Vigorous attacks on the house rules were made by Hubbard and Hepburn, of Iowa. The latter asserted that the members had betrayed their trust and prostituted themselves at the feet of the speaker, who, he said, had been made a tyrant.

The bill was pending when the house took a recess until tomorrow.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 19.—Cattle.—The receipts were 169; for the four days, 2,368. The attendance of buyers was light, the demand limited, and the trade very slow and drabgy throughout the day. Strict choice heavy-weight butcher cattle were very scarce, yet they did not sell hardly as well as Monday, and all medium and inferior kinds were easily 10c and 15c lower. The feeder and stocker trade was quiet, but about steady. Bulls steady, canners and cutters slow. Milch cows unchanged. No heavy steers on sale, feeling easy. We quote: Shipping steers, $4.50 @ 5.75; beef steers, $3.00 @ 5.25; fat heifers and cows, $3.00 @ 4.75; cutters, $2.00 @ 3.85; canners, $1.00 @ 2.00; bulls, $2.00 @ 3.85; feeders, $3.00 @ 4.75; stockers, $2.25 @ 4.25; choice milch cows, $35.00 @ 45.00; common to fair, $15 @ 35.

Calves—Receipts, 82; for the four days, 487. The market ruled steady, best, 7c @ 7 1/2c; medium, 4 @ 6c; common, 2 1/2 @ 4c.

Hogs—Receipts, 2,232; for the four days, 9,193. The market ruled slow and 10c lower; choice corn-fed hogs, 160 pounds and up, $6.55; 130 to 160 pounds, $5.25; pigs ranged from $5.15 for light pigs to $5.40 for heavy pigs; roughs, $5.95 down.

"FRAUDS UPON THE PUBLIC." Is what some physicians have called patent medicines, and it is undoubtedly true that some are frauds and some are even worse, because they are injurious. On the other hand, there are many patent medicines such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and others, which are of real worth, and are recommended by physicians of recognized standing.

EWING, KING OF THE BLACK PATCH

One of the most fascinating and thrilling fact stories that has appeared in public print since the guerrilla days of the Civil war is that found in Hampton's Magazine for March. It is entitled "Night-riding in the Black Patch," and is written by Eugene P. Lytle, Jr., a well known and trustworthy author. Here is a portion of Mr. Lytle's story of what he found out during a recent visit to the Black Patch:

Close to the Tennessee line, near Guthrie, Ky., there lives a planter, Felix G. Ewing. He was popular, in a way, with his neighbors. At Guthrie, his beautiful home, he threw open the doors now and then in a baronial manner, and the man in jeans came and was flattered. The host raised tobacco. He understood the woes of the man in jeans.

"In Ewing's brain there burst into flame an idea superb, colossal, of a daring and design worthy of genius. That was in 1901. The growers of tobacco should do their own selling—through him. A warehouse monopoly, to prize, to sample, to sell—and to tax la commissions—the bulk of that monumental crop of 120,000,000 pounds, year after year.

He must find a name potent with the promise of mutual co-operation, a name to make him one with the thousands of growers, and the thousands of growers one with him. All for all, and one for all, they would cast their lots, and their tobacco, into one gigantic pool. The growers would believe—and he made many of them believe it later, by matter-of-fact, business-like, convincing argument—that no matter how much tobacco they grew, or how much was grown elsewhere, they need only corer a good portion of the crop to shoot prices upward.

The new idea spread, and had every semblance of faience. It was fair at first. The farmers, taking eager hold in their despair were possessed with the notion that it was their idea. They assembled by hundreds at Guthrie on September 24, 1901, and crystallized the idea into an organization. They called it the Dark District Planters' Protective association of Kentucky and Tennessee. It was really a co-operative association, according to its charter, given under the laws of Kentucky. The board of directors was elected by the farmers themselves. Each magisterial district of each county, in an annual election, was to name a director. The directors in each county were to elect a chairman, who was to be a member of the executive committee. No member of the association was to receive a salary. There were to be one thousand shares, of the value of $1 each, with which to control an annual product worth six or eight million dollars.

Here was really a farmers' association. Felix G. Ewing was made its general manager. Charles H. Fort, Ewing's neighbor, a man of imposing presence, was made president. Of the supplanting of this co-operative association by a private warehouse concern chartered under a similar name, I shall write in another article. It need only be stated here that the co-operative society during its existence, and thereafter the private concern that succeeded it. For the underscoring farmer the two associations have been one and the same thing. The organization was first and last, "His Association." As a matter of fact, it is nobody's association but Ewing's. He is still general manager.

The original association began its career with the 1904 tobacco. Ewing and his associates claimed that 70 per cent. of the crop was pledged to them. Later it was shown that they handled about one-third of the crop.

The scale of prices began to advance in 1904. It is an economic problem as to whether the association or a reduced acreage—or both—was responsible for the increase. Independent farmers, those who had not joined Ewing's movement, received the advantage of the same advanced prices obtained by association members. The independent growers were disposed to skepticism. They said that association "prizing" was inferior and costly, and association charges were higher. Several warehousemen who had financed the association for hundreds of thousands of dollars thought themselves ruined, though they pulled out with a narrow margin. Independent warehousemen were competing. Independent farmers holding aloof made the corner ineffective.

In the spring of 1905 General Manager Ewing faced a big, grave, absorbing question: "How shall I induce the independents to bring me their tobacco?"

Marked For Death.

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." FOR CONSTIPATION.

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless It Cures.

If you suffer from constipation in any form whatever, acute or chronic, we will guarantee to supply you medicine that will surely effect a cure if taken with regularity and according to directions for a reasonable length of time. Should the medicine fail to benefit you to your entire satisfaction, we promise that it shall cost you nothing.

No other remedy can be compared with Rexall Orderlies for the easy, pleasant and successful treatment of constipation. The active medicinal ingredient of this remedy which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a preparation which is incomparable as a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience, and may be taken at any time, day or night.

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, delicate or aged persons because they do not contain anything that could possibly injure the most delicate organism. They are just as easy to take as candy, and unlike other preparations for a like purpose they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habits acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. We know that there is nothing that will do you so much good, and we will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. They are prepared in tablet form in two sizes of packages: 24 tablets, 25c, and 12 tablets, 10c. W. B. McPherson, Drug-ist Paducah.

NOTICE.

I urgently request all persons indebted to me to make settlement before the first day of May, 1909, as I will after that date bring suit on every unpaid note and account due me. Now your account is to each of you a small matter, while the whole is to me very important. I shall deal with all alike; if you don't pay you may know that you will be sued, whatever your name or color may be. I hate to do this, but I am forced to it in self-defense. If you have not the money and will borrow it to pay me in full by the first day of March, 1909, I will deduct 10 per cent from your account, thereby paying the interest myself. Home Course In Modern Agriculture

XVII.—The Farm Home

By C. V. GREGORY.

Agricultural Division, Iowa State College

Copyright, 1900, by American Press Association

THE farmer is more important than his farm, and the most important crop he raises is not corn nor hogs, but boys and girls. The success of a farmer is not measured so much by the money he makes as it is by the happiness he brings to himself and to his family. One of the surest ways of accomplishing this end is by making the home surroundings attractive.

There is no place on earth where it is easier to have an attractive home than on the farm. Yet in spite of this too many farm homes are located in the middle of a weed patch that goes by the name of garden or are hidden behind such a thick jungle of trees that it is impossible to see in or out.

The first thing to consider is the house itself. It should be situated on the highest part of the hill on which the farm buildings stand. A house need not be expensive to be homelike and convenient. Indeed, the most expensive houses are often the least homelike.

The starting point is the cellar. With but little additional expense this can be made the full size of the house. In this case the foundation walls should extend to the bottom of the cellar. The first course should be of hollow brick, laid end to end, and connecting with a tile drain on the lowest side. In this way seepage water will be kept out of the cellar. A cement floor is a great advantage and is inexpensive, since the cement need not be more than two or three inches thick.

The cellar should be divided into about four rooms. Hollow brick makes good partition walls and at the same time help support the floor. One of the rooms may be used for vegetables, one for fruit, milk and butter, one for a laundry and the fourth cemented on the inside and used as a cistern. If the furnace is used another room will be necessary, or the cistern can be located outside.

For an ordinary sized family a hundred barrel cistern is about the right size. A partition of a double layer of filter brick, with gravel and charcoal packed between, should extend across it. The water is drawn out from the opposite side of the filter from that to which the pipe from the roof supplies. In this way the water obtained is pure enough for cooking or drinking. A plentiful supply of soft water is a luxury that can be obtained so cheaply that no one can afford to do without it. Wood is still the cheapest and most satisfactory building material. In building the house the two extremes of size should be avoided. If the house is too small it will be crowded, while if too large it costs more and is harder to keep clean.

In arranging the rooms, convenience and ease of keeping in order are the chief considerations. The large and solemn "sunny room" which was opened only on state occasions, has largely given way to the bright, cheerful living room with its bookcases and work and reading tables, which is used every day and evening in the year. This room, together with the dining room, kitchen and bedroom, with a wash and bath room if possible, will comprise the first story.

A cupboard in the wall between the kitchen and dining room is handy, as the dishes can be reached from either side. A spring door between the two rooms keeps out the flies and at the same time opens easily. A bedroom on the ground floor is almost a necessity, especially in the case of sick ones.

The upstairs will of course be largely devoted to bedrooms, although it is often convenient to have one small room fixed up for a library. The attic makes a good storeroom for seed corn.

Probably the most satisfactory way to heat the house is by a furnace. This is cheaper and cleaner than stoves. If the furnace room is made large enough to hold a load of coals and several tons of coal the work of fire building will be greatly reduced. A register in the hall upstairs will be enough to take the chill off the sleeping rooms. It is a good plan to have a furnace pipe run to the kitchen, too, and use a gasoline or kerosene range for cooking. This is cheaper, handier and cleaner than a cook stove, and the kitchen can be kept much cooler in the summer time.

Most farm homes are very poorly lighted. A kerosene lamp is dirty, smells bad and does not give very much light. A gasoline lamp is much better. Best of all is the acetylene gas system. After this is once installed it can be operated cheaply and will furnish an abundant supply of light.

The water system is another thing in which farmhouses are behind those in the city. There is scarcely a house in a town of any size but that is provided with water and sewage systems. In the country these are the exception rather than the rule, yet they can be put in at a small cost.

An air tight tank in the cellar is sometimes used to supply the pressure for a farm water system, but is rather expensive. The water can also be drawn from the elevated tank at the barn. If one is used there, the only disadvantage in this case being that cistern water cannot be used. On the whole, the most satisfactory plan is to have a small galvanized tank in the attic. A little covering in the coldest weather will keep it from freezing, and a few minutes work with the cistern pump each day will keep it filled.

The laundry room, downstairs is the place where the convenience of such a system will be appreciated most. In this room the washing machine, tubs, wringer and other utensils can be kept. An opening in the floor connected with the tile drain will carry off the waste water, and hot and cold water from upstairs will be always on tap. Such a room, together with the entire water system, can be fitted up for less than $100.

Another convenience that can be installed at small cost is a sewerage system. This can be connected with the bathtub and sink, and with a small additional expense another luxury that is seldom found on the farm, an indoor closet, can be added. Drain-pipe well cemented at the joints should be used in constructing the sewer. The cheapest form of outlet is the "septic tank." This is a small underground tank divided into four compartments, so arranged that when the first of these becomes full it will overflow into the second, and so on. The tank should be covered and provided with a ventilator. The action of bacteria in the septic tank will destroy all the solid matter, so that the water which flows out the lower end will be clear and have no objectionable odor. With an occasional clean-out such a tank will last forever.

The house should be provided with plenty of porches. These increase the expense somewhat, but also add much to the comfort and appearance of the house. Vines trained up over them to keep out the sun and screens to keep out the flies make them still more comfortable. Nothing adds more to the external appearance of the house than a neat lawn of ample size. Do not make it too large, however, or the work of mowing will be likely to be neglected. A lawn is not hard to make. A little work leveling and preparing a fine seed bed and a liberal application of blue grass seed that will grow will almost certainly result in a good lawn.

Do not make the common mistake of planting trees too close to the house. They detract from the appearance and make the house close and stuffy. The opposite extreme should be avoided also. A few trees about the edges of the lawn furnish grateful shade and provide a flanking for the picture of which the house is the central figure.

The decorative value of shrubs is often not appreciated as much as it should be. A climbing rosebush over the porch or a few dwarf varieties in out of the way corners will add to the color and beauty of the yard. There are many other flowering shrubs, such as snowballs, geraniums and lilacs, that can be used to fill in empty spaces and corners.

A row or two of hard maples or elms along the driveway, with a thick evergreen windbreak to the north, will finish the supply of necessary trees unless there are corners or bare spaces about the yards that will be better for a tree or two.

You can judge a man better by the company he keeps than by the relatives of his wife that he has to keep.

COMMISSION

PLAN DEFEATED BY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

Cities of First and Second Class With Control Their Own Affairs.

Louisville, Feb. 19.—The Republican state central committee, after holding executive session, announced its disapproval of the proposed W. O. Bradley rules. This knocks out the plan to place the control of the Republican party in the cities in the hands of a commission.

Most Hopeful Sign of the Future.

In this great country of ours there stands out pre-eminently the inventive genius, the masterful ability, the resourcefulness, the courage, the optimism of America's business men. At no period in the world's development have there been in any given country at any one time so many opportunities standing ready and so many young men able to embrace them and to move on to such splendid achievements, as we have in our United States today. It can not be possible that these young men will be pessimists, that they will miss the legion of opportunities that are theirs! And this is no waving of the American flag or screaming of the American eagle. The business enterprises—the healthy checks organized labor puts on capital—the strong, conservative check which those who have put upon those who have not, combined with the extraordinary freedom which our government gives us to come out and criticize one another—all this gives promise that the right course will be found and followed. Where else in the world is this true? It is the healthiest, the most hopeful sign of our great future for good. It is the clearest indication of the extraordinary opportunities ready at hand for those of us which have brains and who will play the game to its limit.—Appleton's Magazine.

A Substitute for Work.

"Physical culture, father is perfectly lovely!" exclaimed an enthusiastic young miss just home from college. "Look! To develop the arms I grasp this rod by one end and move it slowly from right to left."
"Well, well!" exclaimed the father. "What don't science discover! If that rod had straw at the other end you'd be sweeping."—Success Magazine.

"I would that I might share your griefs!"
"You'd look mighty funny with one of my shoes on."—Houston Post.

A CLOSE SHAVE

Many of Them Happening Every Day But Soon Forgotten.

Close shaves would be of more frequent occurrence but for the tender faces of many men, which will not permit of shaving often. Heretofore, nothing has been milder in these columns about posam, a new skin discovery, in connection with its use after shaving. Its publicity and sales have been confined almost exclusively to its remarkable properties as an eczema cure; it stops the itching at once and cures the worst cases in a few days. While the application of posam after shaving is one of its minor uses, such as for pimples, the complexion, etc., chavers will find it a revelation, as it does for abrasions, roughness, and severe scrapings what it does for all manner of skin difficulties—heads and cures—in a few hours. It is the only article possessing real antiseptic and curative value that has ever been exploited for this purpose, and will soothe and tone up the skin as no toilet preparation could possibly do.

Posam can be had for fifty cents at any reliable druggists' particularly Gilbert's, who make a specialty of it. Or the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West 25th Street, New York City, will send a trial supply free by mail to any one who will write for it. This is sufficient to show results in 24 hours.

Restored Their Health But Cost Them Nothing

Thousands of stomach and bowel sufferers have found the means of permanent good health and permanent good digestion through Dr. Caldwell's offer to send any sufferer a free trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. He believes from watching for twenty years what it has done that it will cure any case of chronic constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia, sour stomach, torpid liver, heartburn, biliousness, sick headache and similar disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. It is pleasant to take, acts mildly but none the less effectively, never gripes, and is as every way as ideal laxative for the family. It is wonderful in children's stomach troubles, and they like its agreeable taste. It is a vast improvement over gripe salts and cathartic pills, which are simply a temporary relief, while Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a permanent cure. Its tonic properties build up the stomach and intestinal muscles. Thousands are buying it of their druggists at 50 cents and $1 a bottle, but those who have never used it should write the Doctor for a free trial bottle so that they can make a test without expense. If you have a stomach, liver or bowel disorder, or any member of your family has, send your address and a free bottle will be sent to your home, fully prepaid. In this way legions have been restored to health without a cent of cost. Read these letters and write today.

of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin
The Nation's Safeguard of Health FOR EVERYBODY

For fifteen years I suffered from stomach trouble and constipation, until I began using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The most prevalent symptoms were bloating and pressure against the heart and the most distressing pains across the stomach. I had Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin recommended to me and commenced using it. I soon found it a most effective remedy, and I can honestly say I believe it saved my life. I don't think anyone suffered more than I did, and got well, for I am not only relieved, but cured, and can eat anything without any pain or distress.—B. P. Thompson, Foreman Shenandoah, Iowa, Brick and Tile Works.

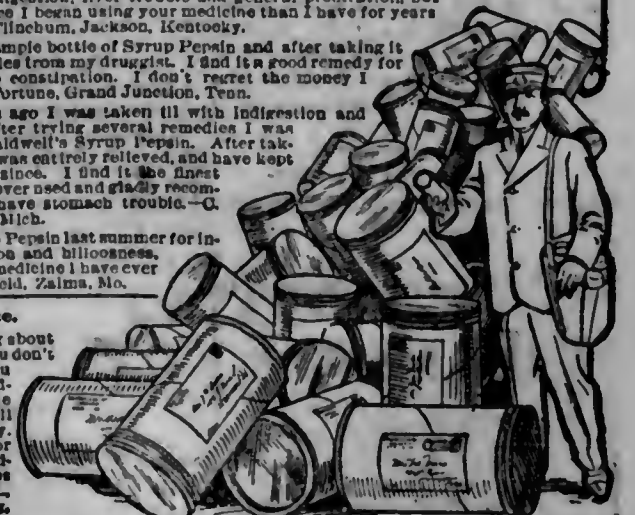

We have used the sample bottle of Syrup Pepsin and one regular 50-cent bottle and are now using a $1.00 bottle. I feel greatly benefited by its use and expect to continue using it until an entirely cured. I am 48 years old and was afflicted with indigestion, liver trouble and general prostration, but am feeling better since I began using your medicine than I have for years before.—Mrs. Brick Filbeck, Jackson, Kentucky.

I received your sample bottle of Syrup Pepsin and after taking it I bought several bottles from my druggist. I find it a good remedy for indigestion, and also constipation. I don't regret the money I paid for it.—Ida A. Fortune, Grand Junction, Texas.

About four years ago I was taken ill with indigestion and stomach trouble. After trying several remedies I was reduced to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. After taking a bottle I was entirely relieved, and have kept a bottle in my house since. I find it the finest stomach tonic I have ever used and gladly recommend it to all who have stomach trouble.—G. Fowler, Carson City, Mich.

I used your Syrup Pepsin last summer for indigestion, constipation and biliousness, and I find the best medicine I have ever used.—Noah H. Haddock, Zanesville, Mo.

Medicine That Is Medicine.
"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Kleetler, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at all druggists.

MASONIC HONORS

ACCORDED J. E. JONES AT HIS FUNERAL AT OSCAR.

Prominent Farmer Dies Suddenly and Is Mourned By Entire Community.

Mr. J. E. Jones, 65 years old, a prominent farmer and a Mason of Oscar, died very suddenly Wednesday night of heart trouble. Mr. Jones was feeling well up to about two minutes before his death. He had retired after eating a hearty supper. About 9 o'clock he got out of bed and said he did not feel very well. He took just one step from the bed and pitched forward, falling to the floor. Before he could be lifted on the bed he died. Mr. Jones was a faithful member of the Christian church and he went by the name of "Father" Jones at Oscar. He is survived by his wife and five children: Mrs. Nannie Waford, Mrs. Anna Wyatt, Mrs. Phillips and Messrs. George and Will Jones.

The funeral was held this morning at 11 o'clock and the burial was in the Oscar cemetery. The Masonic lodge had charge of the funeral.

MAURETANIA AGAIN

Cuts Down Time for Trip From Liverpool.

New York, Feb. 19.—The turbine flyer Mauretania came ahead American Channel lighthouse at 10:20 o'clock last night, completing a voyage in which several new ocean records were established. The steamer not only broke her own record over the long winter course of 2,890 miles by 2 hours and 25 minutes, but she also hauled down the figures held by the Lusitania and has set a new record of 4 days, 17 hours and 50 minutes, 1 hour and 47 minutes better than the Lusitania's best time over the course. Another achievement was a day's run of 671 knots, breaking all records for 24 hours' run.

A RATHER QUIET 4TH

A General Holiday Observed With Many Out.

Amusements of Every Description Getting a Share of the Public Attention.

MANY VISITORS ARE HERE

The Fourth, a hot but auspicious day, is being somewhat quietly celebrated today, but everybody appears to be enjoying a holiday, and there are people at every place of amusement in large numbers. The stores nearly all closed at noon, and the banks, postoffice and courts were out of business until Monday.

Large crowds went across the river, many are at the Old Fort Massac celebration near Metropolis while Wallace park is filled with picnickers and sightseers and the old harmony singing is enjoying an immense crowd.

MILITARY BOYS HERE.

A portion of the Murray boys arrived last night, but the remainder of the company will get here this afternoon at 1:30. Mayfield is represented with about thirty-five. The total number of soldiers from the different cities are: Murray 55, Mayfield 35, Clinton 35 and Paducah 60, making a total of 185 soldiers.

The Clinton boys arrived at noon with nearly the full military company. About thirty members are here and a good showing will be made at the sham battle.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVE.

Roommaster J. M. Russell of the Louisville division of the I. C. is in the city today looking after the trains.

The traffic on the road is heavy in the passenger service and the trainmen have all they can attend to. Both accommodation trains were loaded this morning and over a thousand people were brought in on the Hopkinsville and Fulton accommodation trains.

PERFORMANCES AT LA BELLE.

There will be four performances at the Casino, La Belle park, this afternoon and evening and the theater will no doubt be taxed to its utmost at every performance. The Seward shows are drawing large audiences and today will be the banner day.

FACTORIES CLOSED DOWN.

Few, if any, of the factories are running today. The employees are consequently out for a holiday and the railroads are not having much of a rush except in the passenger service, as no freight will be received or shipped today.

CROWDS LARGER THAN USUAL.

The railroad companies and boats are doing an enormous business and more people were brought here on the three morning trains and the several boats than have ever been brought here before for a Fourth of July celebration, it is said.

BASEBALL TODAY.

The baseball game between the Pepsi and Coca Cola will be witnessed by a large crowd, and the sham battle by perhaps as many as the park will hold. The military boys are here in large numbers and will make a splendid display.

RIVER SHOW ARRIVES.

The Swallow & Markle river show arrived last night and today the band paraded the streets and attracted a great deal of attention. The show has been here before and will doubtless get its share of patronage.

K. OF P. GO TO METROPOLIS.

The Uniform Rank No. 19, K. P., went to Metropolis this morning to appear in the exhibition drill. About twenty members of the rank went down and the K. P. lodge here will be well represented.

ASKS $1,000 DAMAGES.

Mr. F. M. Lawrence, the second-hand dealer of 216 court street, today filed suit against Armour & Co. for $1,000 damages, alleging that the defendant did maintain a nuisance in the way of a poultry slaughter house near his place of business and he has been damaged to that extent.

KENTUCKY POSTMEN

State Convention of Letter Carriers in Session Here.

Nine Out-of-Town Delegates Arrive—Business Meeting This Afternoon.

The State Letter Carriers' convention is being held today in Paducah. This morning the delegates from other cities arrived at 4 o'clock and were met at the depot by the local reception committee.

There are nine out-of-town delegates, as follows: Charles W. Huber and W. E. Farley, Louisville; Henry Rauch and D. E. Berry, Covington; W. M. Newton, Newport; E. R. Simcox, Robert L. Skinner and W. T. S. Carpenter, Lexington; Owen W. Farr, Frankfort. An informal reception was held this morning at the Palmer house, at which refreshments were served to the guests until noon.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock the business session began at Masonic hall and will probably last three hours. It will include the transaction of all business essential to the welfare of the Letter Carriers' association.

The delegates are all gentle, highly respected young men, and it is the first visit of most of them to Paducah. The postmen find it more difficult to get off to attend conventions than perhaps any other members of organizations, and they have so arranged it that the business can be transacted by a few.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

1 o'clock. Invocation—Rev. W. H. Robertson. Welcome address—D. A. Yeiser, Mayor.

Address of Welcome to Our Guests—J. G. Card, president Branch 383. Response—State President Henry Rauch, Newport.

Business Session Program to be Arranged by State President.

Address—Hon. F. M. Fisher, P. M., Paducah.

Address—Hon. W. C. Clark, ex-postmaster, Paducah.

Address—T. B. McGregor, Benton. Subject: "The Substitute Letter Carrier."

EVENING SESSION.

Reception to invited guests at Palmer House parlors 9 to 9:30 p. m.

Banquet 9:30 to 11:30 p. m. Toastmaster—Captain Ed Farley, ex-postmaster, introduced by President Card, Branch 383.

Responses to toasts by the following gentlemen: State President Henry Rauch, Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, ex-congressman, Major J. H. Ashcraft, ex-P. M., Hon. Chas. Reed, Dr. Don Gilbert, Captain J. E. Williamson, R. L. Skinner, state vice president, and F. M. Fisher, postmaster.

RENDERED AT CLOSING EXERCISES OF HOME OF FRIENDLESS SCHOOL.

Closing exercises of the school at the Home of the Friendless were held Tuesday afternoon. The children under the excellent management of Miss Raper, matron and teacher at the home, acquitted themselves with credit. The school room, which has been endowed by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Friedman, in memory of Mr. Friedman's father, the late Leopold Friedman, is furnished with every appliance for a well regulated school.

Icos and cako were served to the children after the exercises.

RAILROAD BRIDGE ON FIRE.

A telephone message received just before going to press this afternoon states that the Tennessee river bridge of the Illinois Central is on fire and had burned in two. All telegraph wires are expected to go down. As the bridge is iron, the damage will likely not be great. It is supposed sparks from a locomotive set it afire.

Bank clearings show a slight decrease from the same week last year. This has been the case, however, in but few weeks this year. The first half of 1903 has closed and the period was the most profitable in the history of local banks. The expansion of their business was remarkable. The loans and discount accounts show an increase of nearly $700,000 in a year and the deposit accounts an increase of over $500,000. The net earnings showed the largest on record, too. As the banks are best indicators of the prosperity of a city these figures give an idea of the growth and great prosperity of Paducah.

Wholesale business for the week showed up a little better. Weather conditions were more favorable for the crops, and a better feeling exists all around.

Retail trade has been good, the majority of the houses reporting a good increase over the same period last year, notwithstanding the backwardness of summer.

THE LODGES

Red Men Take in Two Popular Citizens Last Night.

Elks Honor Past Officer—Other Secret Order News.

The Red men last night held their regular meeting and conferred the adoption degree on Police Captain Henry Bailey and Former Councilman G. R. Davis. The order is now one of the largest and most popular in the city.

The Uniform Rank K. of P. left today for Metropolis, where they will be guests of the rank of that place and assist in the big celebration at Old Fort Massac. The Paducah and Metropolis Sir Knights have established the most cordial of relations and needless to say all will enjoy the day.

A fine past exalted ruler's badge has been presented by the Paducah lodge of Elks to Capt. Wm. Kraus, past exalted ruler. Capt. Kraus was a most popular officer and is very proud of the jewel.

The election of officers of the Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, has been postponed until next Tuesday. The new organization promises to be one of the most popular in the city.

Mr. Robert Noble, the contractor, is entertaining about fifty of his friends over at the lakes today with a barbecue, and a most enjoyable time is being spent.

DEBATE ENDS

Both Sides Satisfied With the Result of it.

Two Ministers Fined in Graves County for a Breach of Peace.

The big religious debate at Sedalia, Graves county, between Revs. Hall and Pique has ended and was heard by a large crowd during the four days it lasted. Both Baptists and Methodists are confident their minister won, and there was nothing to mar the perfect harmony and good feeling which prevailed during the contest. Wild Bill Evans and W. M. Hicks, who had trouble of a wordy nature before the debate began, were tried before Justice Wilson and fined $5 and costs each. The Mayfield Messenger says of them:

"Public sentiment was strongly against them and many have expressed themselves that they should have been fined heavier for their conduct, but this may teach them an important lesson, and that hereafter they must not be so severe in their criticisms of each other."

"The debate was well attended by ministers of the Baptist church, there being over thirty present each day. The Methodist ministers were not there in such large numbers. The debate is over, however, and all is calm and serene."

ALLEGED FORGERY.

SON OF CAPT. TYNER CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSE.

Thomas Tyner, son of Captain James Tyner, of the Buttorff, is wanted here on a charge of forgery. It is claimed that he had Mr. George Goodman, the Second street liquor dealer, cash a check for him several days ago which proved to be a forgery. The check was apparently signed by Tyner & Earhart, of Nashville, and was returned as a forgery.

Captain Tyner stated that his son had forged a number of checks that he, Captain Tyner, had to make good, and he would no longer put up with it, and consequently the boy will be prosecuted if caught.

ONE LITTLE FLASH

Sent Vibrating Around World By Telegraph Today.

Pacific Cable Opened and Postal Circles the World With a Message.

HOW THE FEAT WAS DONE

The course of President Roosevelt's message around the world today was by the Postal Telegraph Co.'s land line from Oyster Bay to San Francisco, thence by the Commercial Pacific cables to Honolulu, to Midway, to Guam and to Manila. From Manila to Hong Kong the message passed by the cable which was lifted and cut by Admiral Dewey in 1898. From Hong Kong it went to Saigo, to Singapore, to Peking, to Madras, to Bombay, to Aden, to Suez, to Alexandria, to Malta, to Gibraltar, to Lisbon and to the Azores. Between Hong Kong and the Azores it had passed by foreign cables. At the Azores it was taken up again by the Commercial cables and sent to Canso, to New York and to Oyster Bay. The time of transmission was at noon today.

A message starting around the world at 5 a. m. today would arrive at Honolulu at 11 p. m. yesterday; at Midway at 10 p. m. yesterday; at Guam at 7 p. m. today, and at Manila at 8 p. m. today. It would pass through India at 8 p. m. today and would return to New York before 6 a. m.

Thus it would have an excursion from today into yesterday and have arrived back at New York within an hour of the time it started. Another message leaving New York at 8 p. m. today would arrive at Guam at 7 a. m. tomorrow, apparently fourteen hours after it started, continuing its journey around the world, it would arrive at Suez at midnight of today and back to New York this morning.

On May 16, 1896, at the National Electrical exposition held in the Grand Central Palace, New York, to demonstrate the promptness of modern telegraphic service a message written by the Hon. Chauncey Depew was sent from New York to Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Vancouver, Winnipeg and Canso to London, thence via Lisbon to Gibraltar, Malta, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Singapore, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Nagasaki and to Tokio and back again to New York, where it was received by Mr. Thos. A. Edison.

FEW ARRESTS

No Police Court Today and Few Happenings of Interest.

Females Flight and Will be Warranted for Trial Monday Morning.

Considerable excitement was created on a park car last night by a drunken man who insisted on cursing in the presence of ladies returning from the park. Motorman Burrows asked him to desist, but he became worse and started to pick up a rock with which to strike the motorman. He was then struck in the face with the switch key and had his nose split open. Subsequently he got possession of an iron rod used to turn switches and started through the car as if to go after the motorman, but was placed on the rear end and the door shut. No warrants were issued and the man's name was not learned.

In accordance with the law of the state, there was no court today, as it was a holiday.

Yesterday afternoon Ernest dorff and John Bulger were arrested in the sum of $150 each for robbing a man of $25 last Saturday at a South Second street saloon.

Hadder Stone, the colored girl who threw a rock through an I. C. window was held to answer in the sum of $50 and Bud Hill for rescuing her from officer.

Bulger and Elmendorf have given the $150 bond required of them and been released.

The police are making it warm for cows caught running at large, and if your cow truns up missing make inquiry at the city hall.

Minnie Grimes and Lillie Wormstead will be tried Monday on a charge of disorderly conduct, for which they were arrested by Officers Nance and Goulioux last night.

The police are investigating a fight that occurred last night between two women at Fifth and Court streets over a man. They had a lively scrap for awhile, but neither was seriously hurt. Warrants will be issued and the case will be aired in police court Monday.

George Brown, colored, was arrested last night on a breach of the peace charge by Officers Moore and Rogers. He will be given a hearing Monday.

SUIT RE-INSTATED

Ohio Concern Asks Judgment Against Calloway.

A suit was today filed in the U. S. court here by the Aultman-Taylor Co., of Ohio, against W. and T. H. Hargrove, of Calloway county, to secure a lien and sale of property to satisfy a balance of $2,086.97 on a judgment secured several years ago.

The petition stated that in 1888 the plaintiff secured a judgment for $2,118.48 with interest and that only $1,365 had been paid on it, leaving at this date a balance, interest and principle, of $2,086.97. It is alleged that the defendants have property and the plaintiffs pray for a lien on same and that the action be redocketed and the prayer granted for lien and sale of property.

JOURNAL OF LABOR MADE ITS APPEARANCE TODAY.

The Journal of Labor a paper devoted to the interest of local union made its first appearance today, Samuel Simon editor. The intention is to make it a permanent institution.

Central Labor union is to shortly give an excursion in Paducah and the committee on arrangements is now at work preparing for it. The committeemen are: Messrs. Wm. Hoffman, L. Crandell, C. Bundy, P. Smith, Wm. Rawlings, J. Welkert, P. Martin, J. Stokes, M. Danaher, T. Scoopes, W. J. Forrester and Jerome Smith.

Organizer Sam Simon has installed a painters' and decorators' union at Mayfield. George Goddard is president.

COUSINS MARRY.

CAME FROM ILLINOIS BECAUSE THEY COULD NOT MARRY THERE.

Miss Regina Delenne and Mr. Jesse Johnston of Collinsville, Ill., were married at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. Rev. Father H. W. Jansen performed the ceremony.

The couple came here to be married because they are cousins, and it is against the law of the state of Illinois for cousins to wed. They returned home today.

ASKED TO RESIGN

Law and Order League Call on School Trustees.

Two Good Addresses and a Number of Good Talks Heard at the Meeting Last Night.

The Good Government league met last night at the Broadway M. E. church and eleven members were added. In an election of officers Mr. B. H. Scott was elected first vice president and Mr. W. J. Hills second vice president and Mr. W. B. Smith treasurer.

The following clause was added to the by-laws:

Addresses were made by Rev. W. C. Sellers on "The Responsibility of an Officer" and Rev. Thos. J. Newell on "The Responsibility of the Citizen." Talks were made by several others, and before the meeting adjourned the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, Mr. Ben Weille, as shown by the records of the courts, is a persistent violator of the statute laws of Kentucky, and

"Whereas, One Samuel Jackson is also the manager of a band of men who persistently violate the said laws, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the Good Government league of Paducah, Ky., that they resign as members of the school board of the city of Paducah and they are hereby requested to do so."

ALLOWED CLAIMS.

AND DEMOCRATS IN M'CRACKEN WILL SOON RECEIVE MONEY.

The Democratic state executive committee met at Frankfort yesterday and allowed the various claims against the committee for expenses incurred at the primary in May. The total expenses amounted to $19,600, and $16,000 of this was assessed against candidates, leaving $3600 yet to be paid by the nominees.

A committee was before the body relative to the Bush-Cook judicial contest but the committee decided not to hear it at present.

Chairman Young announced his intention to fight the Louisville machine until one of them gets licked.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TO HEAR CONTEST.

COMMITTEEMEN FIND THEY ARE COMPELLED TO SIT IN CASE.

The contest of Attorney L. K. Taylor for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in this district will probably be tried shortly by the judicial committee, composed of Chairman Morrison, of McCracken and Chairman Edwards, of Marshall, after all. It has been discovered that the law makes it compulsory on the committeemen to hear such contests, instead of making it optional with them. Preparations are accordingly being made to take up the matter again, and Mr. Lovett has filed his answer to the allegations contained in Taylor's contest papers.

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All. How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, various etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. Knapp Medical Co., Box 1144 Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from their daily mail show what men think of their generosity.

"Dear Sirs—Please accept my sincere thanks for your gift of recent date. I have given you treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sirs—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sirs—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man to have it.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS.

(St. Louis Chronicle.)

A man was driving a beautiful horse. At the roadside was a watering trough. The animal swerved from the road. Its delicate muzzle was quivering and a short whinny said as plain as a horse can talk, "Master, I am very thirsty; please can I have a drink?"

The answer was a jerk on the reins, a blow with the whip, and the rig disappeared in a cloud of dust.

That was cruelty—unthinking cruelty—and it brings up the whole question of hot weather treatment of animals.

Is your horse given water frequently? Do you give your dog and your cat water as often as they desire it, or do you simply guess they will find all the water they need?

The owner of any animal, large or small, who does not think of these things is not fit to own a dumb brute. Not to provide for the wants of domestic animals and pets is cruelty that causes torture. It is not safe to trust to an animal's finding food or drink.

In a wild state they were able to do this. Domesticated they have learned to rely on man, and in many instances they have met with base betrayal.

Water is as essential as food. In the hot days of July and August it really comes before food.

Kindness to animals is more than kindness; it is justice.

The man who beats a horse can be reached by the law, although too seldom does he meet with his just deserts.

The man who does not beat his horse and who forgets to water him for long periods can seldom be reached by the law, and yet his cruelty is far greater than temporary pain that follows the feet of the lash.

Think about these things. Remember how it feels when your own throat is dry and parched, and look after the needs of your four-footed friends.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Kompe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick and threw up all food; could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

EXPRESS COMPANIES

LIFT RATES.

Chicago, July 4—Announcements of a heavy advance in merchandise rates were sent out today to all the shippers by the express companies. The new schedule went into effect on July 1 by joint agreement and henceforth the shipper of packages weighing less than fifty pounds will have to bear the burden of the increase.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it is the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever-producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Advancement in Norway.

A Swedish company has purchased the Ifjungen Falls at Telemarken, in Norway, in order to apply its power to industrial purposes. This is one of the largest waterfalls in the world, and plans are being drawn up for making use of it. This company tried to obtain some of the falls in Sweden, but that Government retained them for public objects.

WILL BE ARTISTIC

Coming Production of "Faust" Arouses Great Interest.

Will be the Most Complete, Elaborate and Satisfactory Amateur Performance on Record Here.

DETAILS OF ARRANGEMENTS

The greatest interest is being taken in the forthcoming production of "Faust" for the benefit of the Paducah chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, by local talent, assisted by Mr. James A. Young of New York, a young actor of considerable age, who will be seen in the role of Mephisto, and by Miss Lillian Lancaster, Paducah's gifted little actress, who is fast gaining an enviable place in the drama. It will be remembered that Mr. Young and Miss Lancaster were seen here in "Quo Vadis," and were greeted by the largest house that ever crowded the Kentucky. Their friends are anxiously looking forward to this second appearance, and in the beautiful classic "Faust," the greatest of German masterpieces of literature, their talents will have a wider scope.

The play is a very ambitious one, the parts of Mephisto and Marguerite demanding extreme versatility. Mephisto, as is well known, is one of the strongest and most difficult characters of the drama, while the role of Marguerite ranges from the gentle, child-like innocence of the famous garden scene to supreme and tragic emotion of the death scene in the prison.

The beautiful moral of the play is one that will live through all the ages, and is one that touches the heart and soul of every Christian thinker; the eternal battle of the church and the devil, with the church and love of God triumphant.

The entire cast has been carefully selected, and Paducah will be both surprised and proud of the amount of real talent that has developed here. The whole production will be put on with every precision and as much regard to details as if a professional one. Special scenery and electrical effects for the weird Broken scene have been brought from New York and altogether it promises to be a beautiful scenic treat.

The noble cause for which it is produced should assure a packed house, and this, together with the popularity of the members of the company, leaves no room to doubt of its perfect success.

The following is the complete cast: Mephisto—Mr. James A. Young. Faust—Mr. Omar Fowler. Valentine—Mr. Edwin J. Paxton. Wagner, Brandon, Feeche, Siebel, students—Mr. Will Gilbert, Mr. Bert Gilbert, Mr. Arthur Y. Martin, Mr. Robert Caldwell.

Martha—Miss Geraldine Sanders. Elsie—Miss Mary Sykes. Liza—Miss Frances Herndon. Olga—Miss May V. Patterson. Gretchen—Miss May Hayes. Marguerite—Miss Lillian Lancaster.

Peasant girls and village children—Maybelle Heyer, Floyd Swift, Mabel Smith, Dow Gilson, Claire St. John, Katherine Thomas, Della Gilson, Willie Willie, Bessie Grigsby, May Frederick, Emma Greer, Olga East, Mollie Gardner, Rosella Farley, Lena Edwards, Helen Mills.

Demons, witches, evil spirits, etc. Harry Gilbert, musical director.

THE SUN'S PUZZLE PICTURE.

Ling Lung had not expected to celebrate the Fourth. Can you see the two boys who set off the mine?

The Week In Society.

SUMMER WANDERERS.

The warm weather will start the usual summer exodus of Paducah people to summer resorts in the next few weeks. The watering places near this city have all had their openings and will doubtless be liberally patronized by Paducahans during the warm months as they generally are. Dawson, Corleann, Crittenden, Creal and Dixon vie in popularity, and each has many Paducah visitors, during the season.

Many people from this city will go to Michigan, and a few to the mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina. The Morton family of this place, including Misses Mollie, Susie, Adine and Cherie Morton left Tuesday of last week for their summer home in Flat Rock, N. C. They will remain until October. Dr and Mrs. R. A. Hicks are spending the summer in the Tennessee mountains.

SOCIETY AND THE FOURTH.

No special entertainments of a patriotic character have been arranged to celebrate the glorious Fourth, by Paducah society. Several informal picnics are on the program for today, and a large crowd will attend the baseball game this afternoon to be played at Wallace park, between the Coca Colas and the Peppols, for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless.

PRESS CONVENTION TRIP.

Miss Mary Boswell and Miss Anne Boswell and probably others from Paducah will attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press convention in Lexington July 22-23. A trip east which will include Canada has been arranged. Niagara Falls is in the itinerary and the tour will prove a most delightful one.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foster entertained with a dance at Wallace park pavilion Friday evening. As one of the first on door dances of the season, it was much enjoyed. The guests were: Messrs. G. R. Noble, H. W. Hinkle, W. H. McPherson, L. P. Jones, Harris Rankin, Harry McElwee, Peter Poryear, Fred Rudy, James P. Smith, P. H. Stewart, R. G. Terrell, H. E. Thompson, H. L. Bradley, W. F. Thompson, Joe Sinnott, Stewart Sinnott, Wallace Weil, Dow Wilcox, and Dr. J. Q. Taylor, Dr. Allen Ashcraft and Dr. I. H. Howell.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson entertained a few of her friends with a farewell dance at the residence of her grandmother Joseph Johnson, Tuesday evening. Miss Wilson, her grandmother, her mother, Mrs. Chloe Wilson, and little brother, will leave July 15 for St. Louis to reside. The guests were: Misses Lillian Logue, Leah Johnson, Kate Holliday, Virginia Johnson, Eunice McElhaney, Claire St. John, Floyd Swift, Horace Thurman, May Belle Beyer, Nellie Henneberger, Theresa Willett, Inez Kruger, Messrs. Harry King, Mair Given, Ivo Pettit, Frank McCarney, Louis Carnes, Carol Gliven, Henry Henneberger, Jesse Thurman, Rob Leigh, W. T. McDowell, Duffot, George Holliday, Strother Smith, Will Graham, Edgar Warren, Eugene Richardson, Boone, Bolton.

Mrs. H. S. Wells entertained a few young people informally at lunch Tuesday evening at her home on Court street near Fifth in honor of Miss Florence Hutchinson on Chicago, guest of Mrs. Frank Fulton. The first prize a box of candy was won by Miss Hutchinson. The booby prize, a bottle of shoe polish went to Mr. George DuBois. The guests were: Misses Florence Hutchinson, Chicago; Frances Terrell, Marjorie Scott, Gertrude Scott, Ethel Brooks, Louise Cox, Messrs. John Brooks, George DuBois, Vaughan Scott, David Koger, George Poage, and Douglas Hagby. Light refreshments were served.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Happiness is a paradox, because it may co-exist with trial, sorrow and poverty. It is the gladness of the heart—rising superior to all conditions.—William George Jordan.

THE RUSSIAN AFFAIR.

There will likely not be any serious results from the Russian affair. Owing to the stir which has been raised over the petition prepared by Jewish societies of the United States to be sent to the Russian government, the petition will probably not now be sent, and the incident will end. The Russian massacre was a horrible, inexcusable outrage, but apparently it was a local act, and not a national one, and the government having removed the governor of the province, and evinced a determination to punish all those implicated in the carnage, indicates that it regrets it as much as do the humane people of this country.

But however that may be, this government decided, according to reports, that a petition prepared by certain societies would be sent through official channels to Russia. Owing to the rapidity with which news travels in this enlightened age Russia soon became aware of such intention of the United States and in a diplomatic, tactful manner authorized a statement that the Russian government would not regard kindly such a petition. Thus the Russian government knows just as well as if it had the petition itself that the Jews in the United States disapprove of the massacre of their co-religionists in Russia, sympathize with the unfortunates' families and appeal to the government for protection for other Jews in Russia. The United States knows that Russia would regard the petition as extremely indelicate, if not officious, and inasmuch as all concerned know pretty well about what each thinks the matter can well be dropped without saying or doing anything more. It is not believed the Jewish citizens of the United States would desire that this government run the risk of straining its relations with a powerful nation over a petition which could possibly benefit no one. The conclusion of the United States will probably be something similar to that of a prominent diplomat, who is quoted as saying:

"It would be construed as an interference by this government with the internal affairs of Russia. Such interference cannot be defended either by diplomatic usage or international law. It would establish a precedent that would be embarrassing in all future diplomatic relations. Other governments will find warrant in it for making representations to the United States which this country, with its complex government and the peculiar relations which the general government maintains toward the state governments, cannot answer.

"In case foreigners who have espoused citizenship in this country become the victims of mob violence in any of the states foreign governments will be warranted in calling the attention of this government to such outrages, and with the proposed precedent could even go further and suggest immediate remedies, which the federal government, which has delegated the policing power to states, would be unable to enforce."

and the proper way to celebrate it. At any rate, owing to the hot weather and the desire of our force to get a half holiday, no effusions on the subject of Fourth of July will adorn these columns today. The glorious Fourth comes once a year, and will doubtless be back on time next summer. The most timely admonition is to keep cool and don't fool with the gun that isn't loaded or get in front of one that shoots blank cartridges.

The young men of Maryland have adopted a new method of settling their differences which might be the vogue here in Kentucky if so many firearms were not imported. They fell out at a dance and agreed to meet the next day and fight it out. They met in a field and had 500 interested spectators present to see them pummel each other until one was insensible. The man who got licked was pretty sore at last accounts, but with all that is probably not feeling so bad as a well licked man in Maryland, as he might have felt as a corpse in Kentucky.

The discovery that Gen. Cassin M. Clay, the "sage of Whitehall," is crazy is no discovery at all to many. It has been evident to those who have been reading of his antics for several years past that he was either crazy or just a natural born imbecile. His latest diversion is to send for friends and relatives who live at a distance to come to see him and then not allow them to come near the place after they have traveled many miles at his request.

Good Marksmanship Needed.

In the days of wooden navies and brass cannonades seamanship was everything. The best captain was he who could most skillfully maneuver to bring the enemy within effective range of his guns and put his own ship in a position to rake that of his antagonist. When this had been accomplished the battle turned more on rapidity of fire and weight of metal than on accuracy of aim. Nowadays straight shooting is the sine qua non. To secure the highest possible efficiency in this respect is a matter of much greater moment than to add battleships to our navy that are not needed and which if poorly manned would be of comparatively little service.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Paducah at Jackson, two games.

Clarksville at Hopkinsville.

Henderson at Cairo, two games.

PADUCAH WON A GAME!

Jackson, Tenn., July 4—Girard won the game for Paducah here yesterday afternoon. He held the home club down to five hits and with three men on bases knocked a home run, giving the Indians a lead that the Jackson boys could not tally. Result, 7 to 4. Paducah made four scores in the third, one in the fifth and two in the sixth, while Jackson made one in each the second, third, seventh and ninth. Batteries, Accorsini and Butler.

HOPTOWN WAKES UP.

Hopkinsville, July 4—The defeat of the home team the day before was discounted yesterday by our own victory over the Clarksville boys by a score of 16 to 1. The Hoptown boys bunched their fifteen hits, while Clarksville could do nothing with the five hits credited to her. The batteries were: Hoptown, Morris and Street; Clarksville, Collins, Reid, Rayen and Holmes.

GEE, LOOK AT CAIRO!

Cairo, July 4—Henderson was shut out again yesterday by the Cairo club by a score of 10 to 0. The heavy batting of Wallace, Cairo's left fielder, was a feature. He made two home runs and a three bagger out of four times at bat. Cairo got 8 hits and 1 error and Henderson 1 hit and 3 errors.

EUREKA DOWN IN DEFEAT.

In one of the fastest games of the season Ben Boyd's crack colored club was beaten by the East St. Louis aggregation yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3. The time was one hour and twenty minutes, and it is the first out of nine games that the Paducah club has lost.

A LITTLE DOPE.

President Ben Weille has signed Best, a Memphis league pitcher with a good reputation for strike-outs. Best will arrive today or tomorrow and the battery for tomorrow will be Best and Kelly, the latter, the Vincennes catcher, arriving tonight from his home. This will be of interest to the local baseball fans and the fact that a new battery will appear will be sufficient to draw more than the usual attendance.

Perhaps some time in the season the Paducah club will be permanently arranged so the boys can get used to their positions and not be changed about every day. Other clubs in the league are not having to do it, and there is no reason Paducah should.

President Weille has tried to secure good players, and in proof of the fact this morning rendered a check to the telegraph companies to the amount of $50, total for telegrams last month. This looks like business and Paducah will have a team at any cost.

President Weille has not yet heard from Southoff relative to sending two pitchers, but states that he has three good ones in mind and will pick the best.

Potts will arrive tonight and appear in tomorrow's game. Sawyer has not agreed to come, but President Weille will hold him to his contract.

Girard is the surest thing Paducah has. He is always good for a hit, and his home run yesterday was the feature of the game.

Cairo must be playing mighty good ball or Henderson, the "top-notchers," might rotten ball.

If Edmunds goes one of the surest hitters they have will go.

Tomorrow Jackson comes to Paducah for another game.

Mr. Solon L. Palmer, of Benton, is in the city.

Nervous Depression.

Summer months are peculiarly the months of nervous diseases, especially nervous prostration and other depressed states of the nervous system. People who are not at all inclined to be nervous or suffer from weak nerves find this time especially trying. Sultry heat and electrical disturbances of the atmosphere are probably the cause of this.

Invalids need to be particularly careful to fortify the nervous system by the use of Peru-na.

Miss Helen Rolof, Kaukauna, Wis., writes: "Several times during the past two years or more my system has been greatly in need of a tonic, and at those times Peru-na has been of great help in building up the system, restoring my appetite and securing restful sleep. I know a great number of women who are using it for the troubles peculiar to the sex, and with the best results."

MISS HELEN ROLOF.

MISS LOUISE HERTSEL.

Miss Louise Hertsel, 1914 Second street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "My health was excellent until about six months ago, when I seemed to have a collapse from overdoing socially, and the doctor ordered an entire change of scene and climate. As this was an absolute impossibility at the time, I had to try and regain my health in another way and was induced by a friend, who gave Peru-na such a good recommendation, to try Peru-na. I cannot tell you the condition of my nerves when I began to use it. The least noise irritated me, and I felt that life was not worth living. But Peru-na soon changed me into a well woman, and now I do not know I have nerves."—Louise Hertsel.

"A newspaper contributor was lately admitted into the extensive suite of offices which constitute the headquarters of Dr. Hartman, who treats catarrh patients by the thousand. Among the busy array of assistant doctors, clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers, Dr. Hartman stopped long enough to say a few words.

"A large number of female patients visit me every year, but the number who are entered on my books as regular patients and are treated by correspondence is very much larger. Hundreds of letters are received and answered free every day. A yet greater number take my catarrh remedy, Peru-na, and are cured, of whom I never hear. Some of this latter class write me years after their cure.

MISS LUCY M. HILEY.

Miss Lucy M. Hiley, 33 Davenport street, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I wish to add my endorsement to thousands of other women who have been cured through the use of Peru-na. I suffered for five years with severe headache, and when weary or worried in the least I had prolonged headache. This all I caught a cold and was advised to take Peru-na for it. Imagine my astonishment and pleasure to find that after taking two bottles not only was my cough gone, but I had no more headache or headache. I am now in perfect health, enjoy life and have neither an ache or pain, thanks to Peru-na."

ably not a tenth of the women know that their disease is catarrh. To distinguish catarrh of various organs it has been named very differently.

One woman has dyspepsia, another bronchitis, another Bright's disease, another liver complaint, another consumption, another female complaint. These women would be very much surprised to hear that they are all suffering with chronic catarrh. But it is so, nevertheless.

Each one of these troubles and a great many more are simply catarrh—that is, chronic inflammation of the mucous lining, of which organ is affected. Any internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in another location. This is why Peru-na has become so justly famous in the cure of female diseases. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures remain. Peru-na does not palliate—it cures.

Miss Jennie Finley, 79 Madrie, 3 Street, Memphis, Tenn., a popular young society lady of that place, writes: "Three years ago I had very poor health, and while I was only sick occasionally, I was unable to enjoy life, and lacked vitality and strength. I was an easy subject to cold and malaria. Four bottles of Peru-na changed my entire physical condition. My head stopped aching, my strength returned, and the poison was driven out of my blood till I felt like a new and well woman once more. It is a truly great medicine and well worthy the good things its friends say about it, and it will always have my endorsement."—Jennie Finley.

DIED OF SCALDS

Two Year Old Child Meets Horrible Fate.

A Kettle of Water Accidentally Upset
Causes Death.

Zehner Craig, the 2 year old son of Fairfax Craig, died this morning at 5 o'clock at 1018 Court street from being scalded with boiling water
Thursday

A colored nurse had the baby in the kitchen and accidentally upset a kettle of boiling water on the child.
His lower limbs and the lower part
of his body were severely burned.
After suffering great agony death came as a relief to the little one this morning

The burial will take place in a family cemetery at Woodville this afternoon

Edward Swift, the 4 months old son of W. R. Swift, died at Sixteenth and Jones streets this morning. The burial will take place at Oak Grove at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

BURIED BY ELKS.

REMAINS OF MAYFIELD BOY
RECEIVED FROM ALTON, ILL.

The remains of Vivian Shelton were buried at Mayfield yesterday by the Elks. The young man died from morphine poisoning at Alton, Ill., at the home of his brother, and is supposed to have committed suicide.
He asked not to be awakened for dinner if he happened to be asleep, and when discovered was too far gone to be saved. He was quite a popular young man.

WITH THE SICK.

Mr. Farrar Winchester, who for the past year or more has been living in Texas, has been brought back to Paducah and yesterday afternoon was operated on at the I. C. hospital for abdominal abscess growth. His condition is serious but it is believed he will recover.

The little daughter of Mr. George McDowell, of Broad street, is quite sick.

"Waiting in the bank directly in front of me was a charming woman
of twenty or so who was having her first experience in banking," said the merchant as he lighted his cigar after luncheon. "She was asked the
questions usual for one who is opening an account; her name, address,
whether married or single and her father's and mother's name. She got along all right until the clerk asked:
"Mother's maiden name, please."
"I don't quite understand, I'm afraid," she said hesitatingly.
"I mean your mother's name when
she was a girl," explained the clerk.
"How should I know? I don't like impertinence, Sir! How should I know? I didn't know her when she was a girl. The idea! Are you trying

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert as she foresees the joy, ambition, success and the life-long satisfaction coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl or a brave boy face beside her on the pillow as she rests to her expectancy. Mother's Friend applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced by the continued use of this great liniment, MOTHER'S FRIEND. Theatrical Notes.

Mart W. Hanley, who was the manager for Harrigan and Hart when they were at the height of their popularity in New York, and who was the manager and partner of Robert Mantell for the past seven years, has dissolved his partnership with that actor.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell will appear at Wyndham's theater, London, in "The Joy of Living," under the management of Charles Frohman. Martin Harvey, whose new play, "The Exiles," was a failure, has been engaged by Mr. Frohman to support Mrs. Campbell.

Forbes Robertson and Gertrude E. Lott will begin their American tour in Kipling's "The Light That Failed," at Buffalo, N. Y., on September 21. The dramatization which they will see was made by Constance Fletcher, whose nom de plume is George Fleming.

Grace George and her husband, William A. Brady, with their infant son, are in Europe. Owing to certain repairs and improvements that have been ordered by the department of buildings, Miss George will not be able to open at the Madison Square theater in "Pretty Peggy" as early as was at first intended.

True S. James, who has written a domestic play of Colorado entitled "The Garden of the Gods," will be started in that play during the coming season under the management of Mr. Hanley. The scenic effects will be unusually beautiful.

Mr. James was married on June 17 to Miss Grace Turner, of Evansville, Ind., so he will enter upon his career as a star and a benedict at about the same time.

The new play is said to tell a charming story, with humor and heart interest well blended.

The Merry-makers' club will be entertained Wednesday evening by Miss Louise Detzel at her home 719 Madison street at cards.

PERSONAL.

Miss Kate Hayes, of Dyersburg, Tenn., is the guest of Miss May Hayes.

Mrs. Thomas C. Leach left yesterday to spend the summer in Montreal, Canada, her former home.

Mr. T. J. Flournoy will leave next week for Tennessee to join a party and will leave July 16 for a trip abroad.

Mrs. W. D. Greer and daughters, Mrs. Charles Moeqnot and Miss Myrtle Greer, left this week for Petoskey, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Alben Barkley returned Wednesday from their wedding trip to the Tennessee mountains and are at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Coburn, 414 Washington street.

Misses Robble Loving, Lillie May Winstead, Blanch Hills and Mary Scott left Friday for Paris, Tenn., to attend a house party to be given by Miss Louise Dumas. The young ladies will go from Paris to Hinson Springs to attend another house party.

The contemplated removal of Dr. and Mrs. Warwick M. Cowgill and sons William and Allen, to Lincoln, Nebraska, to reside, will be regretted by their many friends in this city. Mrs. Cowgill is prominent in social, church and club circles and will be greatly missed. Dr. Cowgill will go to Nebraska in a few days and if he is satisfied with the location, his family will soon follow him.

The Nashville Banner of Thursday contains an interesting account of the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp, near Nashville, which Master Vaughan Dabney of this city, joined. The camp is situated on Caney Fork river, on a high bluff, surrounded by beautiful scenery and affords opportunities for bathing, boating and fishing and other diversions which appeal especially to boys. The camp opened Thursday and will last until Saturday July 11.

Champion "Square" Man. George Morrish of Holbrook comes mighty near being a square man. It is said that he measures 4 feet 10 inches from the top of his head to the point of his big toe, and 4 feet 10 inches around his body at what soldiers term the salient point.

BEAR TOOK CARE OF HER.

Little Child Carried Off by Animal and Put to Bed.

An extraordinary but apparently well-authenticated story of a bear's freak comes from a Russian village in the district of Odoff. The village lies on the fringe of a forest, whence it is of frequent occurrence for bears to make prowling excursions both by day and night into the adjacent settlements. Some two weeks ago two young girls, aged respectively 6 and 13, were surprised by a huge bear at a short distance from the village. The animal seized and carried off the younger child, while the elder, terror-stricken, fled home and gave the not unusual alarm.

An immediate pursuit was instituted and the search was continued during the evening and the next day, but without result. On the third day, with the assistance of neighboring villagers, a wide cordon was drawn around an extensive tract of the forest, and the searchers closed in. Toward sundown the bear and her booty were discovered in a dense thicket. The child was perfectly unharmed, says the London Mail, and reclining in a deep mossy couch made for her by the bear.

GRAUSTARK

...By... GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"There was one other condition," said Boleroz hastily, unable to glance at her. "The recapture of the assassin."

"I have the prisoner, your highness."

the assassin who slew my son would have meant much to Graustark. It is unfortunate that your police department is so inefficient. Dangloss writhed beneath this thrust. Yetive's eyes went to him for an instant sorrowfully. Then they dropped to the fatal document which Gaspen had placed on the table before her. The lines ran to gether and were the color of blood. Unconsciously she took the pen in her nerveless fingers. A deep sigh came from the breast of her gray old uncle, and Gaspen's hand shook like a leaf as he placed the seal of Graustark on the table, ready for use.

She looked up and her lips moved as if she would have spoken. No words came, no breath, it seemed to her. Casting a piteous, hunted glance over the faces before her, she bent forward and blindly touched the pen to the paper. The silence was that of death. Before she could make the first stroke a harsh voice, in which there was combined triumph and amazement, broke the stillness like the clanging of a bell.

"Have you no honor?"

The pen dropped from her fingers as the expected condemnation came. In sheer desperation, her eyes flashing with the intensity of defiant guilt, bitter rage welling up against her persecutor, she half arose and cried:

"Who uttered these words? Speak!"

"I, Gabriel of Dawsberg! Where is the prisoner, madam?" rang out the voice.

"The man is dead!" cried she, shivering back with a shudder.

"Mad, eh? Because I do as I did promise? Behold the queen of justice! Madam, I will be heard. Lorry is in this castle!"

"He is dead!" gasped Boleroz, the first of the stunned spectators to find his tongue.

There was a commotion near the door. Voices were heard outside.

"You have been duped!" insisted Gabriel, taking several steps toward the throne. "Your idol is a traitress, a deceiver; I say he is here! She has seen him! Let her shut that device if she dares! I command you, Yetive of Graustark, to produce this criminal!"

The impulse to crush the deceiver was checked by the sudden appearance of two men inside the curtains.

"He is here!" cried a strong voice, and Lorry, breathless and haggard, pushed through the astonished crowd, followed by Captain Quinnox, upon whose ghastly face there were blood stains.

A shout went up from those assembled, a shout of joy. The faces of Dangloss and Allode were pictures of astonishment and, it must be said, relief. Harry Anguish staggered, but recovered himself instantly and turned his eyes toward Gabriel. That worthy's legs trembled and his jaw dropped.

"I have the prisoner, your highness," said Quinnox in hoarse, discordant tones. He stood before the throne with his captive, but dared not look his mistress in the face. As they stood there the story of the night just passed was told by the condition of the two men. There had been a struggle for supremacy in the dungeon, and the prisoner had won. The one had tried to hold the other to the dungeon's safety after his refusal to leave the castle, and the other had fought his way to the halls above. It was then that Quinnox had wit enough to change front and drag his prisoner to the place which, most of all, he had wished to avoid.

"The prisoner?" shouted the northern nobles, and in an instant the solemn throneroom was wild with excitement.

"Do not sign that decree!" cried some one from a far corner.

"Here is your man, Prince Boleroz!" cried a baron.

"Quinnox has saved me!" shouted another.

The princess, white as death and as motionless, sat bolt upright in her royal seat.

"Oh!" she moaned piteously, and, clenching her hands, she carried them to her eyes as if to shut out the sight.

The Countess Halfont and Dagmar ran to her side, the latter frantic with alarm. She knew more than the others.

"Are you the fugitive?" cried Boleroz.

"I am Grenfall Lorry. Are you Boleroz?"

"The father of the man you murdered. Ah, this is capture!"

"I have only to say to your highness I did not kill your son. I swear it, so help me God!"

"Your highness," cried Boleroz, stepping to the throne, "destroy that decree. This brave soldier has saved Graustark. In an hour your ministers and mine will have drawn up a ten years' extension of time, in proper form, to which my signature shall be gladly attached. I have not forgotten my promise."

Yetive straightened suddenly, seized the pen and thereby began to sign the decree in spite of all and before those about her fairly realized her intention. Lorry understood and was the first to snatch the document from her hands. A half written Yetive, a blot and a long, splintering scratch of the pen told how near she had come to signing away the lands of Graustark, forgetful of the fact that it could be of no benefit to the prisoner she loved.

"Yetive!" gasped her uncle in horror.

"She would have signed," cried Gaspen in wonder and alarm.

"Yes, I would have signed!" she exclaimed, starting to her feet, strong and defiant. "I could not have saved his life, perhaps, but I might have saved him from the cruel injustice that that man's vengeance would have invented. He is innocent, and I would give my kingdom to stay the wrong that will be done."

"Stop!" cried the princess, the command checking the men. Quinnox leaped in front of his charge. "He is my prisoner, and he shall have justice. Keep back your soldiery, Prince Boleroz. It is a girl you have to deal with. I will say to you all, my people and yours, that I believe him to be innocent; and that I sincerely regret his capture, fortunate as it may be for us. He shall have a fair and a just trial, and I shall do all in my power, Prince Boleroz, to secure his acquittal."

"Why do you take this stand, Yetive? Why have you tried to shield him?" cried the heart broken Halfont.

She drew herself to her full height, and, sweeping the threatening crowd with a challenge in her eyes, cried, the tones ringing strong and clear above the growing tumult:

"Because I love him!"

As if by magic the room became suddenly still.

"Behold an honest man. I would have saved him at the cost of my honor. Scorn me if you will, but listen to this: The man who stands here accused came voluntarily to this castle, surrendering himself to Captain Quinnox that he might, though innocent, stand between us and disaster. He was safe from our pursuit, yet returned, perhaps to his death. For me, for you and for Graustark he has done this. Is there a man among you who would have done as much for his own country? Yet he does this for a country to which he is stranger. I must commit him to prison once more. But," she cried in sudden fierceness, "I promise him now, before the trial, a royal pardon. Do I make my meaning clear to you, Prince Boleroz?"

The white lips of the old prince could frame no reply to this daring speech.

"Be careful what you say, your highness," cried the prisoner lustily. "I must refuse to accept a pardon at the cost of your honor. It is because I love you better than my life that I stand here. I cannot allow you and your people to suffer when it is in my power to prevent it. All that I can ask is fairness and justice. I am not guilty, and God will protect me, Prince Boleroz. I call upon you to keep your promise. I am not the slayer of your son, but I am the man you would send to the block, guilty or innocent."

As he spoke the princess dropped back in the chair, her rash courage gone. A stir near the doorway told of his concluding sentence, and the other American stepped forward, his face showing his excitement.

"Your highness," he said, "I should have spoken sooner. My lips were parted and ready to cry out when Prince Gabriel interposed and prevented the signing of the decree. Grenfall Lorry did not kill the young prince. I can produce the guilty man!"

CHAPTER XXVI.

THE GUESSING OF ANGUSH.

THE startling assertion created a fresh sensation. Sensations had come so thick and so fast, however, that they seemed component parts of one grand, bewildering climax. The new actor in the drama held the center of the stage undisputed.

"Harry!" cried Lorry.

"Prince Gabriel, why do you shake like a leaf? Is it because you know what I am going to say?" exclaimed Anguish, pointing his finger accusingly at the astonished Prince of Dawsberg.

Gabriel's lips parted, but nothing more than a gasp escaped them. Instinctively his eyes sought the door, then the windows, the peculiar, uncontrollable look of the seated coming to him. Boleroz allowed his gaze to leap instantly to that pallid face, and every eye in the room followed. Yetive was standing again, her face glowing.

"An accomplice has confessed all. I have the word of the man who saw the crime committed. I charge Prince Gabriel with the murder of his highness Prince Lorenz."

With a groan Gabriel threw his hands to his heart and tottered forward, glaring at the merciless face of the accuser.

"Confessed! Betrayed!" he faltered. Then he whirled like a madman upon his little coterie of followers. "Vile traitor!" he shrieked. "I will drink your heart's blood!"

With a howl he leaped toward one of the men, a dark faced nobleman named Berrowag. The latter evaded him and rushed toward the door, crying:

"It is a lie, a lie! He has tricked you! I did not confess!"

The prince was seized by his friends, struggling and cursing. A peculiar smile lit up the face of Harry Anguish.

"I repeat, he is the assassin!"

Gabriel broke from the detaining hands and, drawing a revolver, rushed for the door.

"Out of the way! I will not be taken alive!"

Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms, Baron Dangloss and others tearing the weapon from his hand. The utmost confusion reigned—women screaming, men shouting—and above all could be heard the howls of the accused prince.

Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms.

"Let me go! Curse you! Curse you! I will not surrender! Let me kill that traitor! Let me at him!" Berrowag had been seized by willing hands, and the two men glared at each other, one crazy with rage, the other shrinking with fear.

Dangloss and Allode half carried, half dragged the prince forward. As he neared Boleroz and the princess he collapsed and became a trembling, moaning suppliant for mercy. Anguish's accusation had struck home.

"Prince Boleroz, I trust you will not object if the Princess Yetive substitutes the true assassin for the man named in your promise to Graustark," said Anguish dramatically. Boleroz, as if coming from a dream, turned and knelt before the throne.

"Most adorable Yetive," he said, "I sue for pardon. I bow low and lay my open heart before the truest woman in the world." He kissed the black lace hem of her gown and arose. "I am your friend and ally. Asaphin and Graustark will live no more with hatred in their hearts. From you I have learned a lesson in justice and constancy."

Prince Gabriel was raving like a madman as the officers hurried him and Berrowag from the room. A shout went up from those assembled. Its echo, reaching the halls, then the gardens, was finally taken up by the waiting masses beyond the gates. The news flew like wildfire. Rejoicing such as had never been known shook Edelweiss until the monks on the mountain looked down in wonder.

After the dazed and happy throng about the throne had heaped its expressions of love and devotion upon the radiant princess a single figure knelt in submission just as she was preparing to depart. It was the Duke of Mizrog.

"Your royal highness, Mizrog is ready to pay his forfeit. My life is yours," he said calmly. She did not comprehend until her uncle reminded her of the oath. Mizrog had taken the morning after the murder.

"The sworn-on his life that you killed Lorenz," she said, turning to Lorry.

"I was wrong, but I am willing to pay the penalty. My love for Lorenz was greater than my discretion. That is my only excuse, but it is one you should not accept," said Mizrog, as coolly as if announcing the time of day.

Lorry looked first at him and then at the princess, bewildered and uncertain.

"I have no ill will against you, my lord duke. Release him from his bond, your highness."

"Gladly, since you refuse to hold him to his oath," she said.

"I am under an eternal obligation to you, sir, for your leniency, and I shall ever revere the princess who pardons so graciously the gravest error."

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held under consideration the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell of Oregon calling upon the secretary of war for complete information regarding the transport service of the United States was adopted.

THE LEGISLATURE

M'CRAERY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected McCreary again. The Pittsburg county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire. Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHERS' CONTEST

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forester of this division of the secret service.

The Human Lottery

"Ah, if only I were beautiful how happy I would be."

Many a fortune teller has said this as he looked into the mirror. For beauty women have sacrificed home, love and friends. It is the one possession in the lottery of human life which women would not refuse.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

For young girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, fast and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, protracted periods and painful menses, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleaning. Bradfield's Female Regulator for women is particularly valuable and useful owing to its tonic properties to build up the system, and as a regulator of the menstrual flow. The mild, pleasant and agreeable medicinal properties of its ingredients make it a pleasant and safe remedy for all women. It cleanses the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, restores the system and builds up the system by removing the cause. It does not cure by force, but by gentle persuasion. "Perfect Health for Women" is true and will be proved on every trial of address. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns. Her gunner, however, was the first man killed. The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DEOLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

At press time the case of W. H. Robber against the I. C. railroad, for $20,000 damages, was on trial. The case will not be finished this afternoon.

COUNTY COURT

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

Georgia L. Fields of Fulton county, gives power of attorney to W. F. Paxton to do business in the city in her name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets. G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $220, property on Jefferson street. C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end.

Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,250, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his livery stable. The safe has been in the county judges' office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

Olas Johnson, a colored barber of Columbus, Ky., and Bessie E. Caldwell of the city were licensed to wed this afternoon. It will be the first marriage of the bride and the second of the groom.

POLICE COURT

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed. El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for presenting a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Davis, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case. Janie Nease, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

W. O. T. U. MEETING

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 with Mrs. J. D. Smith at Jefferson and Ninth streets.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. The bank was broken into about 2 this morning, and the robbers scooped some of the residents in their escape. A deputy sheriff was notified, and got out in time to fight four of the robbers, ten shots being exchanged. The robbers were routed, and bloodhounds are now on their trail. The four robbers were captured four miles from town. They only secured $1147, it seems, as this was all recovered. They would not talk. The names they gave were probably fictitious.

THE ELKS JUBILEE SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Gradually the Plans Are Becoming Defined for the Week.

The New Public School Session Begins on Feb. 1st.

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CRORRESPONDENCE INCREASING DAILY

THE COUNTY SCHOOLS ARE CLOSING

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let.

The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

CENTRAL UNION

A Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Consider Caulkers Grievance.

Eight of Them Went on a Strike at the Dry Docks.

A meeting of Central Labor Union is called this evening for the purpose, it is understood, of hearing a grievance from eight ship caulkers who have been at work on the Paducah Dry Docks.

It is understood that the men claim their hours of work were cut down from ten to eight because of government work on hand, on which only eight hours' work a day is permitted. This cut them down sixty cents a day, and as it was no fault of theirs, and they want to work full time, they claim they should be paid for the full ten hours, or allowed to work that long and earn it.

Superintendent Young Taylor, however, states that the work he has contracted for on a basis of thirty-five cents an hour. If he pays them $3 a day for eight hours, he will be paying them 37 1/2 cents an hour, instead of 30, and will be losing 7 1/2 cents on every hour they work, which he alleges he cannot stand. His claims he is no more to blame for the restriction to eight hours a day when they formerly worked ten, than they, and will not pay for something he hasn't getting. Superintendent Taylor says that if the men do not desire to return to work at the present rate, $2.40 for eight hours, he will get new men.

WILL BE REAPPOINTED.

SURVEYOR OF CUSTOMS PURYEAR TO KEEP HIS POSITION.

Washington, Jan. 22.—It was settled today that Surveyor of Customs J. H. Paryear, of Paducah, is to be reappointed.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being. The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

Send for our special book on Rheumatism, which is free to all who desire it. Write our physicians about your case, and they will cheerfully furnish any information or advice wanted free of cost.

A REAR-END CRASH

The Cannon-Ball Struck a Freight Train Near Kuttawa Today.

Engineer Devinney Slightly Hurt By Jumping to Save Himself—No One Else Hurt.

A CABOOSE AND CAR WERE BURNED

There was a passenger wreck on the Illinois Central at Kuttawa this morning shortly after 2 o'clock, but only one man was injured and he not seriously.

Passenger train No. 104, which arrives in Paducah at 1:20 a. m. struck the rear end of freight train No. 174, third section, both east bound, and one caboose and a freight car were burned and the passenger engine No. 204, damaged badly. The pilot of the engine was knocked off, the front end stove in and the headlight crashed. Engineer McNulty was sent out this morning on the wrecker to bring the disabled engine back to the local shops.

The freight train was composed of 80 cars and was going into a siding at the above named station when the passenger struck it. The fault of the wreck has not yet been settled.

The freight train was in charge of Conductor Burkam and Engineer Skera and the passenger in charge of Conductor Wheeler and Engineer Devinney, the latter being injured about the face in jumping from his engine when he saw the train ahead. It was reported that Mr. Owen Tully, a flagman, of Paducah, was injured but the report was unfounded. Engineer Devinney lives in Louisville but is now in the local hospital.

This is the first collision to occur on the Central City district for some time. The wrecker was sent out at 7:45 this morning, following the early accommodation train. Train No. 109 from Louisville to Memphis, was the only train into Paducah delayed by the accident.

It is understood that the freight train was on the other's time, as for some reason it failed to get off the main line.

Flagman Tully went back to flag the cannon ball, but didn't get far enough. The engineer of the passenger jumped about where the flagman was standing. About eight cars were telescoped, and the fireman, strange to say, remained on the engine and was not hurt.

Flagman Tully lost a gun and a pistol, two suits of clothing and forty dollars in the burning of the caboose.

DR. JOHN BONDS DOES NOT WANT TO BE A MEMBER OF HEALTH BOARD.

Dr. John Bonds did not qualify as a member of the board of health when he was elected in December, and as a result some one will have to be elected in his place. He claims he elected in his place, and does not want it. The board of health seems to be a dead duck. It has not met in months, and it is claimed that there is no president, and no board, as it has never met for reorganization this year, as required by law.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your woes.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at

Frankfort is merely another Democratic

scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the naval and construction of the court of inquiry, and the scholar work has been devoted to that

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the

house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and Historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The

session lasted but a few minutes, and

eventually no other business was

transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they would not get a quorum to vote on the

resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on

record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general

assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified

and much more in keeping with the

true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business to

transact.

The lockup keeper question will

come up, and the mayor has signified

his intention of making the appointment tonight. The mayor will do

little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in

Garbage Dump Keoper Joe Wagner

from $30 and $30 per month to $35

the year around will be reported and

possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

the matter of condemning several build-

ings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the

city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be

taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

and damaged his property.

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

Today's Chicago Record-Herald says: "The Illinois Central railroad will, within the course of a short while, have all the principal stations along its lines completely equipped with telephone wires for the use of officials and employees in transmitting orders and messages of the company."

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the arrival will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Louisville, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Ricks and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on him. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

On the ground, of Post A, Louisville, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt, from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so than that which swells the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteers, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally a couple of flames shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the excited captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolitan Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixtieth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by lancing some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years, and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, engineer, L. E. & W. B. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted."

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details for the Two Weeks Stay.

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the celebration of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the prince, as the special representative of the President. When the prince reaches Washington he will become the guest of the German ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be confided to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wyckelsky, the counselor and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Hingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he cannot start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the ruler.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill. Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield, the launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his representative, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capital when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will call for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure.

THE RIVER NEWS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 8.5, in last 24 hours a fall of 0.3. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 40. Poll, Observer.

Business rather quiet down on the wharf today.

The Clyde is due this evening from Tennessee river.

The Ohio is getting low, but there will be a rise soon.

The H. W. Butterfield left at noon today for Clarksville.

The W. W. O'Neil left New Orleans Friday for this city.

The John K. Speed is on her way up from New Orleans.

There is plenty of work at the Marine Ways, and dry docks.

The coal combine is loading 10,000 tons of steel rails at Bessemer for the South.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with nice business.

John Winfrey and "Vallendrum" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and R. F. Estes, of Caplo.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the extension business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Superintending Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever ran from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magenta, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charming, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natchez, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne. Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was wharfed that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain, she was so christened. The rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouse, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. Kraus' office, at the city hall, and is a young lady esteemed by all who know her for her many excellent qualities, and one of charming personality. Mr. Schroeder is an employee of the Illinois Central, and is a highly respected and popular young man.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

Coasting stories to be connected with Modern literature.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinate to the modern literature which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it easier prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawning century will come back to the older assumption, reinstating the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-time greenness? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive is due to the shifted place of woman in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole recreation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-supporting work. Modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonesome hearth, sadly reminiscing, kitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

A Gun Manufacturer's Enterprise.

Definition of "Ghetto."

Mr. J. Zangwill has written the following letter as to the derivation of the word "ghetto": "I don't think any quite convincing etymology of 'ghetto' has been advanced, though the most likely connection is with the 'ghetto' or iron country, the quarter of Venice to which the Jews were assigned in 1516. As this was the first compulsory Jewish quarter in Italy the others were called by the same name. Possibly it may come from 'geto,' a bulid. That 'ghetto' means to purify gold and silver has also been suggested. But these two suggestions come to me only as I write."

Newspapers Are Superstitious.

Like the Japanese, the Norwegians are very superstitious, and as in the forests, the mountains and gorges are peopled with fairies, so in the good fairy of the Norwegian looks after the cattle pastures, and if he is well treated they are healthy, and the cow gives lots of milk. To propitiate him it is necessary to put a dish of porridge on the threshold of the cow stable on Christmas morning. Whenever the family mares, this invisible being goes along with them, and sits on the top of the roof.

NEW CONCERN
TO HALL WILL BE ESTABLISHED
AT VIOLA.

There is an effort being made, with prospects of success, to organize a stock company of $10,000 to build a roller, grist, saw and mill, and a general store at Viola, a flag station between Hickory and Bona.

The stock has about all been subscribed, and Mr. Bird Wurford, who is the chief promoter, says there is hardly any doubt of its success.

If this scheme goes, business will be on a new life at Viola.

IT IS A GO.
CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN
GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS
CENTRAL CON-
TRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and today he signed it. He will purchase the land he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to work part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed on the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up.

"I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.

THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 900 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

TRUE HAPPINESS
COLONEL LEMON TELLS OF A
M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.

The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story:

"We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.

A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO
AND WHISKY

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.

THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE
TO LAND AT BROOKPORT
TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.

CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY
SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty-three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

The "Florodora" company left the city this morning at 2 o'clock for Nashville in six coaches. The train was in charge of Engineer Friss and is composed of two baggage cars, two day coaches and two sleepers. It was the largest special train ever run out of Paducah for the accommodation of an opera company.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES

Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case.

She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of
Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why—began the young woman—

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, humbly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.

Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

Eloquent Argument of Mr. Lodge

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held another consideration of the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell of Oregon calling upon the secretary of war for complete information regarding the transport service of the United States was adopted.

THE LEGISLATURE

McCREARY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected McCreary senator again. The Pittsford county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire.

Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHER'S CONTEST

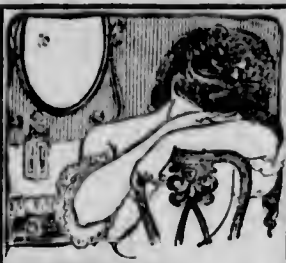

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forsythe of this division of the secret service.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns.

The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DECLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

COUNTY COURT

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets. G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $200, property on Jefferson street. C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end. Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,250, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his lively stable. The safe has been in the county judges office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

POLICE COURT

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed. El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for presenting a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Dains, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case. Janie Noas, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. THE ELKS JUBILEE SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Gradually the Plans Are Becoming Defined for the Week.

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CORRESPONDENCE INCREASING DAILY

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let.

The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

TOBACCO SALES

The Local Market Was a Little Better This Week.

The Prices Were About as Usual—Sales Picking Up.

The local tobacco market this week is a little better on prices and on the grade compared with that of the past several weeks. The following is a report of the sales held today at the warehouses:

Gilbert and Co. offered 16 hogheads with light rejections. Lugs brought from $3.75 to $4.75 and common leaf sold from $1.25 to $2.75. Good medium leaf was the best offered. The firms report no practical change in the condition of the tobacco and in the prices.

J. W. Farmer and Co. report offerings 11 with 2 rejections. Lugs sold from $3.80 to $4.50. Common leaf sold from $3.50 to $4.25.

There was no better grade of leaf offered. The market is reported a little better on leaf but about the same on lugs.

The Western District Warehouse company report offerings 5 with 1 rejection.

There were no lugs offered but leaf brought from $1.75 to $4.65. The market is reported a little better on leaf.

GOES TO MARDI GRAS

CAPTAIN ED FARLEY WILL BE A GUEST ON THE ISLAND QUEEN.

Captain Ed Farley of Mechanicsburg will leave on the Island Queen when she goes south this week for New Orleans, where he will visit and attend Mardi Gras. On the handsome steamer he will be the guest of Captain Brooks, and he expects to be absent several weeks in the Crescent City.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being. The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

Send for our special book on Rheumatism, which is free to all who desire it. Write your physicians about your case, and they will cheerfully furnish any information or advice wanted free of cost.

A REAR-END CRASH

The Cannon-Ball Struck a Freight Train Near Kuttawa Today.

Engineer Devinney Slightly Hurt By Jumping to Save Himself—No One Else Hurt.

A CABOOSE AND CAR WERE BURNED

There was a passenger wreck on the Illinois Central at Kuttawa this morning shortly after 2 o'clock, but only one man was injured and he not seriously.

Passenger train No. 104, which arrives in Paducah at 1:20 a. m. struck the rear end of freight train No. 174, third section, both east bound, and one caboose and a freight car were burned and the passenger engine No. 204, damaged badly. The pilot of the engine was knocked off, the front end stove in and the headlight crashed. Engineer McNulty was sent out this morning on the wrecker to bring the disabled engine back to the local shops.

The freight train was composed of 80 cars and was going into a siding at the above named station when the passenger struck it. The fault of the wreck has not yet been settled.

The freight train was in charge of Conductor Burkam and Engineer Skera and the passenger in charge of Conductor Wheeler and Engineer Devinney, the latter being injured about the face in jumping from his engine when he saw the train ahead. It was reported that Mr. Owen Tully, a flagman, of Paducah, was injured but the report was unfounded. Engineer Devinney lives in Louisville but is now in the local hospital.

This is the first collision to occur on the Central City district for some time. The wrecker was sent out at 7:45 this morning, following the early accommodation train. Train No. 109 from Louisville to Memphis, was the only train into Paducah delayed by the accident.

It is understood that the freight train was on the other's time, as for some reason it failed to get off the main line.

Flagman Tully went back to flag the cannon ball, but didn't get far enough. The engineer of the passenger jumped about where the flagman was standing. About eight cars were telescoped, and the fireman, strange to say, remained on the engine and was not hurt.

Flagman Tully lost a gun and a pistol, two suits of clothing and forty dollars in the burning of the caboose.

DR. JOHN BONDS DOES NOT WANT TO BE A MEMBER OF HEALTH BOARD.

Dr. John Bonds did not qualify as a member of the board of health when he was elected in December, and as a result some one will have to be elected in his place. He claims he elected in his place, and does not want it. The board of health seems to be a dead duck. It has not met in months, and it is claimed that there is no president, and no board, as it has never met for reorganization this year, as required by law.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your woes.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at

Frankfort is merely another Democratic

scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the naval and construction of the court of inquiry, and the

scholar work has been devoted to that

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the

house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and Historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The

session lasted but a few minutes, and

eventually no other business was

transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they

could not get a quorum to vote on the

resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on

record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general

assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified and much more in keeping with the true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business

to transact.

The lockup keeper question will come up, and the mayor has signified his intention of making the appointment tonight. The mayor will do little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in

Garbage Dump Keoper Joe Wagner

from $30 and $30 per month to $35

the year around will be reported and

possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

the matter of condemning several build-

ings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the

city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be

taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

and damaged his property.

AT LOVELACEVILLE

CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT

FROM SMALL POX THERE

There is much small pox in the vi-

city of Lovelaceville. The disease

made its first appearance about one week ago. The symptoms of the illness were described to the physicians, who then wrote out the prescriptions. The real nature of the disease was discovered a day or two ago, but a further spread has been prevented. There are now five cases

near that place. There is little excitement over it.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's

Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucusous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength

by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.

The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer

one hundred dollars for any case that

it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY &

BANDAGES AND RED TAPE.

During the South African war Rul-

yard Kipling discovered, at Cape

Town, a hospital without bandages,

and in desperate need of them. This,

too, was in a city where bandages

were for sale in many shops.

He told an acquaintance that he was going to meet that want, and the

gentleman at once offered to pay for

all the bandages that Mr. Kipling

would buy and take to the hospital.

A cart was quickly loaded, and then

the author was informed that under

army rules the hospital authorities

could not receive supplies from a private individual.

"Well," said he, "I will dump the

packages on the pavement before the door, and tell them to come out and

clear up the litter. Perhaps they can get them into the building in that way without tearing any red

tape."

He drove off with the bandages,

WILL BORE FOR OIL

A Company of Eight Organized in

Paducah to Operate in Wyoming.

They Have Purchased 1600 Acres of Government Land to Develop.

TO CAPITALIZE AT $2,500,000

A big oil company, with a capital

stock of $2,500,000 is to be organized

in Paducah within the next few days.

The object of the company is to develop oil and mining lands in the Big

Horn Basin, Wyoming. The money

has been raised for purchasing 1,600

acres of government land, at $1.50

per acre.

The gentlemen interested in the

deal and who will cash own an eighth

interest in the 1,600 acres, are:

Clerk W. A. Bishop of the Dick Fowl-

er, Clerk Dick Newhall of the Hop-

kins, Captain J. S. Tyner of the Buttorff, Captain J. A. Goodwin, Mr. S.

A. Fowler, Mr. Hunter Housh, J. R.

Robertson, second clerk on the Dick

Fowler and Stoke T. Payne.

There are three companies in that section of Wyoming now, preparing to operate, and the grade of oil is very

fine, being illuminating oil, worth

about ten times more than fuel oil.

It is probable that Mr. Payne will be sent to Wyoming shortly to look

after the local investors' interests,

and file articles of incorporation. In case oil is found, which is probable,

all the gentlemen will become

wealthy, and if not, they will be out

nothing, as the land itself is worth

what they paid for it.

It is expected that there will be a

big rush into the field this spring,

and this will cause the price of the land to go up. The new company will be incorporated under the laws of

South Dakota.

FORMER CONDUCTOR.

Al Crockett Has a Foot Cut Off at

Louisville.

His Foot Was Caught in a Frog and an Engine Ran Over It.

The many friends here of Al Crockett, for years a passenger conductor on the Illinois Central, will be pained to learn that he had his foot cut off in a frog by a switch engine at Louisville Saturday. He is in a critical condition, threatened with blood

poisoning.

Mr. Crockett had had no position

for the past two years, and was almost a wreck. It is believed by many of his friends that he fully intended to commit suicide, but flickered at the last moment, as the engine bore down

on him.

He telephoned to headquarters of the Order of Railway Conductors a short time before the accident, and asked how his insurance stood, and was told he had $3,000 paid up. He

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

Today's Chicago Record-Herald says: "The Illinois Central railroad will, within the course of a short while, have all the principal stations along its lines completely equipped with telephone wires for the use of officials and employees in transmitting orders and messages of the company."

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the arrival will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Louisville, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Ricks and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on him. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

Don't Grouse, of Post A, Louisville, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt, from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so than that which swells the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteers, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally a couple of flames shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the excited captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

GILBERT.

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolitan Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixtieth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by lancing some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years, and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, engineer, L. E. & W. B. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially to those who are usually similarly afflicted."

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details for the Two Weeks Stay.

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the celebration of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the prince, as the special representative of the President. When the prince reaches Washington he will become the guest of the German ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be confided to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wyckelsky, the counselor and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Hingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he can not start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the ruler.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill, Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield. The launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his brother, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capital when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will call for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure.

THE RIVER NEWS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 8.5, in last 24 hours a fall of 0.3. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 40. Poll, Observer.

Business rather quiet down on the wharf today.

The Clyde is due this evening from Tennessee river.

The Ohio is getting low, but there will be a rise soon.

The H. W. Butterfield left at noon today for Clarksville.

The W. W. O'Neil left New Orleans Friday for this city.

The John K. Speed is on her way up from New Orleans.

There is plenty of work at the Marine Ways, and dry docks.

The coal combine is loading 10,000 tons of steel rails at Bessemer for the South.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with nice business.

John Winfrey and "Yallerdum" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and R. F. Estes, of Capito.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the extension business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Superintending Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever ran from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magnolia, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charming, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natchez, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne. Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was wharfed that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain, she was so christened. The rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouse, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

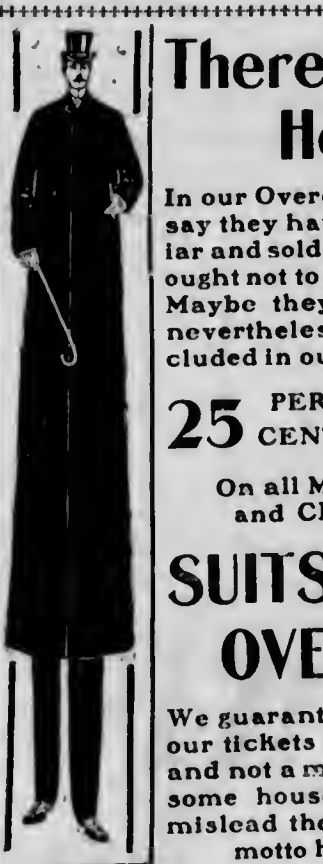

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. Kraus' office, at the city hall, and is a young lady esteemed by all who know her for her many excellent qualities, and one of charming personality. Mr. Schroeder is an employee of the Illinois Central, and is a highly respected and popular young man.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

Coasting stories to be connected with Modern literature.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinate to the modern literature which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it easier prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawning century will come back to the older assumption, reinstating the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-time greenness? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive is due to the shifted place of woman in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole recreation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-supporting work. Even if parental encouragement lack, modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonesome hearth, sadly reminiscing, kitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

A Gun Manufacturer's Enterprise.

An hour after Colonel Roosevelt took the oath of office as president, one of the most famous gun manufacturers in the world had artists at work making a picture of his excellency standing on the pinnacle of Mount Marcy with a rifle at his shoulder aiming at a bull moose on the summit of Mt. Katahdin. The gun, of course, was the product of the alert manufacturer. Beneath the picture was the weapon with which President Roosevelt killed a moose a few minutes before receiving the news that he was president of the United States, etc. There is nothing historically correct in the "work of art," but it shows the purpose for which it was intended.—New York Press.

CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN
GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS
CENTRAL CON-
TRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and to Chicago today to have the contract signed up. He will purchase, before he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to every part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

DRUG STORE.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed on the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up.

"I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.

THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 900 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

FOR COMPULSORY
VACCINATION.

Wingo, Ky., Jan. 22.—The best citizens of this community have noted a petition to their representatives in the legislature for a compulsory vaccination law. The favours of smallpox have been severely felt here, and it is hoped that other communities will prepare similar petitions.

TRUE HAPPINESS
COLONEL LEMON TELLS OF A
M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.

The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story: "We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.

A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO
AND WHISKY

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.

THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE
TO LAND AT BROOKPORT
TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.

CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY
SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

PROFILE FORWARDED

A plat of the 20,000 acres on which Paducah wants the army site located, with a communication setting forth our claims to the post, were forwarded last night by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club, to General Miles, at Washington, for the consideration of the army board that has the matter under advisement.

BAD FALL.

New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Flanagan, the ex-champion heavy weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theatre in Brooklyn. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side, and it is feared his spine had been hurt.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.

New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. H. E. Holman of this city announced today that her daughter Josephine had asked William Maroon, the developer of wireless telegraphy, to release her from her engagement to marry him, and that Mr. Maroon had complied with her request.

HORSES AND MULES WANTED

I will be in Paducah January the 28th at Glen's stable to receive all good mares and horses from three to seven years old, 18 1/2 to 16 hands high, and will pay highest cash prices.

REEVE GENTRY.

Try Dr. Jeannel's tooth powder. It is warranted to be the best offered to the public.

RECEIVED A PARDON

Arthur Winters, a young man convicted at Mayfield recently for passing forged checks, and given three years, has been pardoned. He was a stranger in Mayfield and claimed a check on Ligon, Allen and Co., that afterwards proved to be forged, was given to him by a man named Bell.

$500 FOR HENDERSON CHURCH.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The committee on war claims this morning reported favorably a bill for the settlement of the claim of the Christian church at Henderson, Ky., for rent during the Civil War. The original claim of $1,500 was reduced in $500.

MARRIAGE IN GRAVES

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 22.—Mr. John Ochoa and Miss Maud Williams were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. J. H. Roberts. Both of these young people are very popular with the people who knew them.

THE TRAMP DIED

Wm Woods, the tramp in the Illinois Central wreck near South Fork last week, died at a farm house nearby, where he had been taken for treatment. He was stealing a ride when mangled by the collision.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES

Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case. She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of
Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why—began the young woman—

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, humbly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.

Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.

in Germany.

A RAILROAD PRESIDENT DEAD

THE JETT TRIAL BEGINS.
Cynthiana, July 27.—The trial of the Jett-White cases was today begun here. Judge Osborn is keeping the soldiers in the background but allows the escort of bluecoats for Ewen, the star witness who took alarm and went to Lexington.

P. J. KIMBALL DEAD.
Philadelphia, July 27.—F. J. Kimball, president of the Norfolk and Western railroad, died at his country home at Readnor, Pa., today, after an illness of a month following an operation.

HERMAN STRASS DEAD.

Louisville, July 27.—A cablegram from Göttingen, Germany, says Herman Strass, a wealthy Louisville dry goods merchant, dropped dead there today from heart disease. He was probably the wealthiest Hebrew in Louisville.

States census office is in the city taking notes in the county clerk's office.
He is preparing statistics for publishing and will give the expense and every other detail interesting to the public. It will require him some time to complete work here.

ONLY CONTEMPLATED

NOTHING DEFINITE DONE IN REGARD TO NEW IRON FURNACE.

It is understood that Mr. George
S. Finney, formerly with the Kentucky Iron Furnace Co., backed by a number of wealthy capitalists, has on foot a plan to erect another iron furnace here, probably south of Island creek. No site has been selected, however, and the plans are as yet in embryo. The third street furnace has not run for some time.

TWO KILLED IN RIOT

Bloody Scenes at Danville, Ill., Saturday Night.

Sheriff Hops on the Mob After Many Are Hurt—Troops Called Ont.

OTHERS WOUNDED MAY DIE

Danville, Ill., July 27.—This city was plunged into a race war Saturday night in which two lives were lost—one by lynch law—two persons have been fatally injured, and a dozen more or less seriously injured. The casualties:

The dead: J. D. Metcalf, Evansville, Ind., negro, lynched and burned by mob.

Henry Hatterman, Danville, Ill., white, shot dead by Mayfield.

Fatally wounded: Adam Merry, white, shot through head by volley from jail.

H. Hines, white, shot in neck and shoulders by volley from jail.

Seriously wounded: Otto Heink, white, shot in arm.

Ben Rich, negro, badly beaten by mob.

Four unknown negroes, badly injured by mob, two of them knocked senseless and found lying in public square.

Patrolman Charles Lopp, clubbed on the head while defending Mayfield.

Patrolman William Leverenz, badly injured internally by mob's battering ram while defending Mayfield.

Fred Lorenz, shot three times in leg in attack on jail.

Mince Motack, shot in attack on jail.

— Laird, shot in attack on jail.

Thomas Bell, shot in attack on jail.

Mayfield, the negro victim of the mob's fury, was lynched by a company of 600 men, who were on their way to the jail, clamoring for the life of another negro named James Wilson, who has confessed to a brutal assault on Mrs. Thomas Burgess, wife of a farmer at Alvan, Ill., just north of here.

The angry throng was passing down East Main street when the negro became involved in an altercation with some of its members. They started after him and he pulled a gun, firing into the crowd.

Henry Gatterman, a young butcher, fell and expired. The negro turned and fled, but was caught by the officers and hurried to the police station with the mob in hot pursuit.

The officers, with their prisoner, took refuge in the city building, harboring themselves behind the door of one of the offices.

They could not check the mob, however, for it secured a long pole and proceeded to batter down a section of the wall and the door. On account of the overwhelming numbers of the mob
it was useless for the officers to resist.
Mayfield was hurriedly seized and rushed to the spot where he had shot down Gatterman.

It was the work of an instant to throw a rope around his neck and swing him up to the nearest telephone pole.

The mob did not delay long, but waited to see that their victim was dead. The life was slowly strangled out and he was left hanging, while the mob proceeded on to the county jail.

When the mob had done everything its fury could suggest it turned again to the jail. A fence rail was procured and the mob charged the jail door.
Inside, guarding the prisoner Wilson, were Sheriff R. D. Whitlock, several deputies and a negro turnkey.

The sheriff shouted to the mob to stand back or he and his men would fire. The warning was unheeded and as the mob was almost upon the jail door a volley rang out from inside.
Several of the mob fell wounded and dying.

The crowd remained around the jail long after midnight, but the sheriff had them intimidated and they did not seem disposed to make another assault. They continued to throw stones and broke all the windows in the

THEIR BUSY DAY

Sixteen Prisoners Escape From Jails in Kentucky.

Eight Sawed Out of Prison at Albany and Eight More at Middleboro.

Albany, Ky., July 27.—Eight prisoners confined in the county jail here secured their liberty by sawing the bars of the inner cage and tearing out the windows. Among those who escaped was Wm. Brannon of Fentress county, Tennessee, who had been sentenced to twenty-one years for murder. He had been arrested after a former escape and was being held at Albany until Tennessee officers could go for him.

BATTERED DOWN DOORS.

Middleboro, July 27.—Eight prisoners in jail escaped Sunday morning about 3 o'clock by battering away the heavy iron bars, and are now in the mountains.

REUNION WAS A SUCCESS.

The Confederate reunion at Sulphur Springs, Tenn., Saturday was a great success, several thousand people attending. General H. B. Lyon, of Eddyville, and Colonel Charles Lott of Paducah, were among the guests.
A barbecue added to the pleasure of the occasion and several speeches were made.

building. The police finally succeeded in confiscating the dynamite intended for use on the jail.

Danville is a city of 26,000 and has a negro population of between 3,000 and 4,000. The delegation from Alvan, Ill., did not arrive until after Mayfield had been lynched. He was strung up by a mob composed almost entirely of Danville's people.

When the sheriff and his deputies fired into the mob their bullets were aimed at the ringleaders, about 200 of whom were in the jail yard with the fence rail preparing for the attack on the door.

Four companies of militia arrived yesterday from Springfield. The troops marched to the market house opposite the jail and camped. The streets were cleared and the threatening attitude of the crowd disappeared.
There were snail threats heard, but no attempt at an outbreak was manifest during the day.

Last night 100 sentinels patrolled the streets in the immediate vicinity of the jail. Each soldier carried forty rounds of ammunition.

Sheriff Whitlock had four deputies and three constables with him in the jail guarding the prisoners. He says none fired into the mob but himself.

Leading citizens say the outbreak has been expected by them for a long time, as bitter feeling has existed for several years between the two races.
The feeling against the soldiers is noticeable. The commissary department today had trouble getting restaurants to serve meals, many refusing to feed the soldiers.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT

Train Crashes Into Street Car—
Four Killed.

Two Trainmen Were Scalded to Death
—Horrible Suffering.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 27.—An accommodation train on the Vandalla road en route to St. Louis, ran into a well filled electric car near Lansdown, three miles north of here, yesterday, killing three persons and injuring a score. The dead are:

John Roy, Vandalla engineer.

J. J. Lenhardt.

David H. Beattie.

The crash of the collision was terrific and was heard a long distance. The accommodation was drawn by an engine, which was backing at a good speed when suddenly the tender of the engine crashed into the trolley at the street crossing. The car was hurled from its track, a mass of wreckage.

The impact caused the engine to break loose from the coaches and leave the rails, turning over on its side. Engineer Roy and Fireman Higgins stuck to the engine and were hurled in the wreckage. The two were pinned under a jet of scalding steam and their screams were agonizing. They begged to be killed outright, that they might not suffer the torture they were undergoing. When finally taken out both were literally parboiled. Beattie and Lenhardt, the two other men who were killed, were standing on the platform of the street car when the crash came. The cause of the collision has not been determined.

A TEST CASE.

WILL BE MADE IN BASEBALL
WARRANTS.

Sheriff Lee Potter this morning proposed warrants in County Judge R.
T. Lightfoot's court against the baseball players who participated in yesterday's game, and on Friday morning
the case will be tried.

Heretofore the baseball warrants have been sworn out in some magistrate's court.

The evidence in the cases will be collected during the time the team is out of the city and will be in readiness for a speedy trial Friday. It is not known how the cases will be tried, whether singly or as a whole but it is understood that this will be made a test case.

SEVERAL WERE SHOT.

Madisonville, July 27.—A dispatch received from Providence, Ky., says that in a fight among negroes there Saturday night five negroes were shot, some of them fatally.

COLORED PETITIONER IN

FATAL FIRE AT ALTON

A WOMAN LYNCHED.

Shreveport, La., July 27.—Jennie Steer, a negress, was lynched on the Beard plantation for the supposed crime of poisoning Lizzie Dolan, a beautiful white girl, who was given poison in a glass of lemonade, and died in horrible agony. The negress was a servant at the house and protested her innocence to the last. She was not suspected at first. She is now suspected of other murders in this section.

She was strung up like a man to the nearest tree, and several bullets were fired into her body. It is said the negress is the first woman ever hanged in the state.

COLDIRON'S COLD DEAL.

Jackson, Ky., July 27.—An effort was made Saturday night to assassinate Riley Coldiron, who testified before the grand jury last week in the investigation of the Thomas Cockrell assassination. Friends of two men against whom he testified attempted to have him indicted for perjury, but he failed. He refused to take warning and leave the county and Saturday night while walking about with James Gear two shots were fired at them, one bullet going through Coldiron's clothing.

SEVERAL KILLED IN WRECK.

St. Paul, Minn., July 27.—A head-end collision occurred on the Chicago and Great Western yesterday, four being killed and 25 injured. The dead are:

Charles Merkert, engineer on passenger train.

H. Coger, fireman in cab of passenger engine, but not on duty.

H. H. Euman, engineer of the freight train.

Fred Horton, Dodge Center, Minn., passenger.

The seriously injured;

H. J. Hicks, fireman of the passenger train.

John Noble, colored porter.

Fireman Keen of the freight train.

Fred Horton, the passenger, who was killed, was standing in the vestibule of the front sleeper talking to a friend and was instantly killed, while his friend escaped injury.

A mistake in orders caused the wreck.

ONE BURNED IN LAUNDRY.

Alton, Ill., July 27.—The Alton
Steam laundry was burned, Miss Ruth Meyers being burned to death and several probably fatally burned.

POLICE NOTES.

A WOMAN CLAIMS HER HUS-BAND DESERTED HER.

Yesterday a woman appeared at the city hall and said her husband, whose name was given as Fudge, had deserted her. About the same time a man of the South Side reported at the city hall that his daughter, aged 20, had disappeared from home with the mar, and the supposition is that they left the city together to marry.

The woman who claimed to be the deserted wife said she came here from St. Louis, but if she could get money enough she would go to Nashville, where she has relatives. The police have been unable to secure any trace of the couple.

The police have received a communication from the Washington, D. C., authorities asking for information as to the whereabouts of Louis L. Dent, an athlete who has been missing from home for several weeks.

A warrant has been issued against Jesse Yancy, colored, for whipping his wife.

Miss Lillie Rucker is out after a several weeks' illness of fever.

THE BODY STILL HERE

Nothing Heard From Relatives of James Monroe.

It Is Possible He Is the Man Who Wrote to Louisville Officers He Was Going to Suicide.

REMAINS ARE BEING HELD

The remains of James Monroe, the man who died from morphine poisoning at the city hospital Friday and may have committed suicide, are still at Nance & Spanking's, and nothing has been heard of the relatives of the deceased, if he has any.

He said he lived in Bellview, Ky., a small place up near Gracely, but all efforts to locate his people have proven fruitless.

It may be that the deceased is the man who wrote a mysterious letter to the chief of police at Louisville which was received Saturday and is as follows:

"Chief of Police—Sir: This night I will put an end to my earthly existence in the river below the rapids. If the body is found please notify my wife, Mrs. Josephine Phillips, 422 Ward avenue, Bellview, Ky.

"W. M. PHILLIPS,
Bellview, Ky.

"P. S.—I am sick and nearly blind and tired of life.

"W. M. PHILLIPS,
Bellview, Ky."

The Louisville Herald says: "When the letter was received it was thought at first that it was sent by some practical joker who was anxious to put the police to the trouble of patrolling the river banks and prevent the supposed Phillips from ending his own life. It was finally decided, however, that it would be wise and might possibly save a life by stationing a detail of police on the river bank below the falls. Accordingly instructions were given that Captain Kinkel, of the Fourth police district, should take a detail of men and watch the banks of the river to prevent the writer of the letter from carrying out his announced intention of committing suicide.

"Nothing was seen of Phillips and it is supposed that if he really wrote the letter he decided to commit suicide somewhere else. Nothing was seen of him, although all patrolmen in the downtown districts were in-

LAST SPIKE TODAY.

THE CAIRO EXTENSION WILL

SOON BE IN OPERATION.

By night the bridge work and track laying on the Cairo extension of the Illinois Central will be completed and within the next two weeks the road will be in actual operation.

The last spike will be driven tonight before 1 o'clock, this being promised positively by the contractors, and the ballasting will be pushed steadily to completion. A new time card is being made out temporarily but after the road has been in active operation a time card to conform in every way with other divisions will be made out.

NO BODY WAS FOUND IN A

GRAVEL PIT.

Some little interest was aroused about police headquarters Saturday night by a telephone message saying that a corpse had been found in the Terrell gravel pit near Rowlandtown.
The matter was referred to Coroner
William Peal, who was at that time out of the city, and Justice Jesse Young, acting coroner, investigated the matter and reported that was nothing in the report.

She Is

Cured—Enjoying the Best of Health

After Years of Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Her.

"Five years ago my wife was a constant sufferer from weak heart and fainting spells that would cause her heart to flutter violently, leaving her in a very weak condition. She was extremely nervous, had little appetite, could not sleep well and was unable to do her household duties. She began the use of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and after the first bottle felt great relief. She has now used five bottles and I can say she is cured and enjoying the best of health. She goes out a great deal, does all her own work, and she thinks all the credit belongs to Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and we take pleasure in giving you this testimonial hoping it will be of benefit to others. I will add that I used the Restorative Nerve Tonic this spring as a spring tonic and it made a new man of me."—S. C. STAPLETON, Greenville, Texas.

The heart when exhausted relaxes just as does any weakened or exhausted muscle, causing the circulation to wholly or partially cease, when the person becomes weak, or perhaps faint. Should the relaxation continue for a minute or two sudden death is the consequence. If your heart is weak, if it flutters, palpitates, tires easily, you should immediately begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. This great blood and heart tonic has been uniformly successful in the treatment of heart disease. It enriches the blood, strengthens the heart nerves, regulates the pulse and improves the circulation.

All druggists sell and guarantee first bottle Dr. Miles' Remedies. Send for free book on Nervous and Heart Diseases. Address Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

ANOTHER PROMOTION.

MR. LESLIE LA NEIVE IS MADE CITY YARDMASTER.

Mr. Leslie La Neive, night yardmaster for the local Illinois Central, has gone to Versailles, Ky., on a short visit for his health.

Mr. La Neive will take the position of yardmaster in the city yards, a position under the general yardmaster on his return and the position of night yardmaster will be filled by Mr. James Finney, of Toledo, O., who will arrive tonight to assume charge of the yards. General Yardmaster R. S. Barrick and his clerk, Mr. C. V. Williams, are doing all the work at present.

MARK TWAIN TO LEAVE AMERICA.

New York, July 27—Mark Twain who has been advised by physicians to take his wife to Italy for a permanent residence, has sold his handsome home at Riverdale to George W. Perkins, one of the partners of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. They will go direct to Florence, by way of Genoa, and expect to sail the latter part of September on the Commonwealth. During the several months that Mrs. Clemens has been ill the house has been more like a hospital than a home, and even the Mark Twain quips and jests have seldom been heard.

AN ORGAN GRINDER.

London, July 27—The claim of William Tournour, Thomas Poulett, Viscount Hinton, the former organ grinder in the slums of London, who is a claimant to the earldom of Poulett, was before the committee on privilege of the house of lords today. The claimant, who is of striking appearance, was present with counsel, who requested an adjournment, as his evidence was not ready. Counsel for the defense was allowed to state his case, contending that it was impossible for the claimant to be a son of the late earl, though the earl's marriage to the claimant's mother was not denied. The hearing probably will last several days.

THREE YEARS LATE.

Reamont, Tex., July 27—When the Gulf and Interstate train arrived here Sunday it was almost three years late. The train left Galveston September 8, 1900, on a straight track. The great hurricane wrecked the roadbed and left the train standing in the prairie with only enough rails to support it. The owners of the road have been rebuilding it since at the rate of a mile a month, reaching the train Saturday evening. The engine was fired Sunday and brought in, but not by the same crew.

KENTUCKY'S REVENUE.

Washington, D. C., July 27—The preliminary report of the commissioner of internal revenue for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1903, has been made public. It shows the collections in the Kentucky districts to have been as follows: Second district, $1,536,508.32; Fifth district, $11,459,053.57; Sixth district, $3,172,682.01; Seventh district, $2,671,132.38; Eighth district, $2,276,249.93. Total, $21,115,626.21. Only three states, Illinois, Indiana and New York, showed larger collections than Kentucky.

TO SETTLE TAX CASE

Important Trial to Take Place Before Justice Gholson.

Residents of the County Question Right to Levy on Personal Property for School Tax.

TO BE SETTLED TOMORROW.

Tomorrow an important case will come up for trial in Justice Gholson's court and will settle the question as to whether or not the district collectors have a right to levy on personal property to satisfy the school tax debt. Several weeks ago Collector Scott, of the Woodland school district, made a levy on a buggy and several other personal articles belonging to Bud Humphrey and others for school tax and the gentlemen raised a question as to his right to do this. They brought a suit through their attorneys, Moss & Moss, for $50 damages, and the case has been made a test case. Attorney Worton represents Collector Scott.

The case is an important one and will attract a great deal of attention, especially in the county, where regular school tax levies are made. Mr. James Hughes, ex-county school superintendent, stated this morning that he thought the collector had a right to do this, but that the farmers questioned the law and had done so for several years.

LOCAL TAXATION

NOT A POLITICAL QUESTION, WORKERS IN BOTH PARTIES ARE FOR IT.

The special committees appointed by the last state commercial convention to secure the passage of amendment allowing towns to regulate their own taxation met at Louisville. There were present Judge S. S. Savage, of Ashland, chairman; W. C. Nones and Alvah I. Terry, Louisville; C. L. Searcy, Waco; Garrett Wall, Mayesville; R. B. Perry, Winchester, and W. L. Brown, of London. The situation was thoroughly discussed, and it was decided to open headquarters in Louisville and begin a campaign of education throughout the state. Literature giving arguments in favor of the amendment, will be freely distributed. Speakers in favor of the amendment will be sent to each county.

Peyton N. Clark was elected secretary.

It was decided that as the movement was for the good of the state, irrespective of party lines, that W. C. Nones should see that the Republicans voted for the measure, and C. L. Searcy will look after the Democrats. The following committee was appointed to have charge of the campaign: W. C. Nones, W. A. Robinson, Alvah I. Terry, W. L. Brown of London, and Henry L. Stone.

TWELVE LEFT.

SALOONS IN MANY TENNESSEE COUNTIES GIVE WAY TO "BLIND TIGERS."

Nashville, Tenn., July 27—According to a statement given out by the Tennessee Anti-saloon league, in only twelve of the ninety-six counties of the state can whiskey be sold legally. In these there is only an average of one town or city where sales are recognized. The "wet" counties remaining are Shelby, Madison, Chester, Maury, Davidson, Moore, Franklin, Hamilton, Campbell, Knox, Sullivan and Union. There is, however, considerable blind tigers or bootlegging in some of the dry counties, but officers are very watchful and some arrests have already been made. The league is prosecuting the illegal traffickers with vigor.

Recasting Ideas.

There are epochs in the history of the human race when the decayed branches fall from the tree of humanity, and when institutions, grown old and exhausted sink and leave space for fresh institutions, full of sap, which renew the youth and recast the ideas of a people.—Lamartine.

THEY TOOK THE ORIOLE CITY BY STORM—THE LOG CABIN.

Kentucky Elks returning from the Baltimore reunion state that the Kentucky crowd took everything by storm. One said: "The Kentucky headquarters took the town by storm. Our minstrel show was a great hit and everybody is still talking about the way Kentucky did the entertaining business. The Kentuckians had an ovation everywhere. The Kentucky Elks certainly have reason to feel proud of their success."

"The Baltimore reunion was the most successful Elks' reunion ever held. The city was gorgeously decorated and the illuminations were brilliant."

"The Kentucky headquarters made the hit of the reunion. Thousands visited the Union League club every day. The minstrel would have been a credit in any theater. Our log cabin was one of the show places of the meeting. It was certainly the proper thing to visit the Kentucky headquarters. The brothers from this state were congratulated on all sides on their hospitality and good fellowship."

"The ladies of the Kentucky delegation were toasted and received much attention."

POLICE COURT.

A Few Heavy Fines Were Assessed Today.

Two Pistol Toters Among Those Arraigned This Morning.

Richard Mayfield, Will Brannon and Tom Jones were the names of men charged with carrying concealed pistols. Jones, who is colored, was also charged with flourishing his weapon. The case against Mayfield and Brannon were continued and Jones was fined $50 and costs for presenting a pistol and $20 and costs for a breach of the peace.

W. Baglet, a stranger, was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk.

L. Ruddy and M. Murchip were fined $5 and costs each for fast driving.

Will Grant, colored, was fined $20 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

A breach of the peace case against John Ford was continued.

NO OBJECTION.

CITY OFFICIALS SAY REV. CAP OWEN MISUNDERSTOOD THEM.

Rev. Cap Owen was at the city hall this morning and Mayor Yeiser and Marshal Crow explained to him that the report he gave out to Sunday papers that he was denied permission to preach at the city hall was a mistake, as the minister misunderstood them. Mayor Yeiser said he gave permission, and when the minister said he would like to have the officers notified the mayor sent him to Marshal Crow. It appears from the latter's statement he thought the preacher simply wanted to know how the officers regarded the matter, and he claims he told him that it was all right so far as he, Marshal Crow, was concerned, but he could not speak for the others. Rev. Owen thought the mayor sent him to the marshal because it was necessary to have the latter's consent, while he already had the mayor's consent and didn't know it was all he needed. It seems to have been a misunderstanding all around.

MANY VISITORS.

NEARLY 1,000 FROM CAIRO YES-TERDAY AFTERNOON.

There were many visitors in the city yesterday. The Dick Fowler brought up over 350 from Cairo and way landings and the City of St. Louis equally as many more. A large crowd came up from Mayfield and Fulton, and most of them went to the ball game.

The street car company did the biggest Sunday business for many months, the hauling capacity being taxed all the afternoon. The park got a good crowd in both afternoon and evening.

GOT IN THE WINDOW

Thieves Enter Ice Company's Window and Get $54.

Theft Committed While the Engineer Was Out Checking Up Ice.

A bold theft was committed at the office of the Paducah Ice company, near First and Jefferson streets, Sunday morning between 3 o'clock and sunrise and $54 was secured.

Mr. Frank Bicke, manager of the ice company, stated this morning that the theft was probably committed by some one familiar with the office but that to their haste the thieves had overlooked nearly a hundred dollars in various places about the office.

The money was taken from an office desk in the rear office fronting on the river, entrance having been effected through a rear window by removal of the screen. It seems that the thieves could not get the door open and to avoid delay had torn away the screen and had broken open the rear end of the cash drawer and extracted the money in this way.

The pay roll had been made out and the money placed in small envelopes for the night employees. Several envelopes were left untouched, the money having probably been too far to reach. The amount left in the drawer was about $30. The theft was committed while Engineer Henry Threlkeld who stays in the office, had gone out to check up ice, being delivered to the drivers.

The police are at work on the case and hope to discover and arrest the guilty person.

KILLED BY A TRAIN

TRAMP NEGRO AT FULTON CUT IN HALF.

A strange negro, supposed to be Jim Tate, from Sheffield, Ala., was found dead by the Illinois Central track in South Fulton Saturday. His body was cut in halves about the stomach and he had been dead several hours when found.

It is supposed that he was stealing a ride on a freight train and fell between two cars.

MR. MATTHIS HAS ACCEPTED A POSITION HERE.

Mr. Ben L. Matthis who has recently resigned as physical instructor of the Y. M. C. A., has accepted a position in the office of Superintendent W. J. Hills of the N. C. and St. L. railroad. It will be pleasant news to Mr. Matthis' Paducah friends, that he will remain here.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, gray faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

FOR STATE ELECTION COMMISSIONERS.

Frankfort, July 27—C. B. Poyntz, Democrat, and George Denny, Republican, have been recommended for appointment as state election commissioners.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it is the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever-producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

DISAGREEABLE REFLECTIONS

The mirror never flatters; it tells the truth, no matter how much it may hurt the pride or how humiliating and disagreeable the reflections. A red, rough skin is fatal to beauty, and blackheads, blotches and pimples are ruinous to the complexion, and no wonder such desperate efforts are made to hide these blemishes, and cover over the defects, and some never stop to consider the danger in skin foods, face lotions, soaps, salves and powders, but apply them vigorously and often without regard to consequences, and many complexions are ruined by the chemicals and poisons contained in these cosmetics.

Skin diseases are due to internal causes, to humors and poisons in the blood, and to attempt a cure by external treatment is an endless, hopeless task. Some simple wash or ointment is often beneficial when the skin is much inflamed or itches, but you can't depend upon local remedies for permanent relief, for the blood is continually throwing off impurities which irritate and clog the glands and pores of the skin, and as long as the blood remains unhealthy, just so long will the eruptions last. To effectually and permanently cure skin troubles the blood must be purified and the system thoroughly cleansed and built up, and S. S. S., the well known blood purifier and tonic, is acknowledged superior to all other remedies for this purpose. It is the only guaranteed strictly vegetable blood remedy. It never deranges the system or impairs the digestion like Potash and Arsenic and drugs of this character, but aids in the digestion and assimilation of food and improves the appetite. Being a blood purifier and tonic combined, the humors and poisons are counteracted and the blood made rich and pure, and at the same time the general health and system is rapidly built up and good health is established, and this, after all, is the secret of a smooth, soft skin and beautiful complexion.

Some two years ago I suffered a great deal, caused on account of bad blood. Small rash or pimples broke out over my body and kept getting worse day by day for ever a year. Seeing S. S. S. advertised in the papers and having heard also it had cured several people in this city, concluded to give it a fair trial. After using the medicine for some time, taking in all six bottles, I was entirely cured.

Engineer Murchison Dies From Heart Disease at Hospital.

Was There but Two Days When the Summons Came—V. Paul Mattil, an Honored Citizen Dead.

FUNERAL AT 3 P. M. TOMORROW

Mr. C. W. Murchison, an Illinois Central engineer of Memphis, Tenn., died at the Illinois Central hospital here Saturday night about 12 o'clock of heart disease. Mr. Murchison was brought here Friday suffering from what seemed to be appendicitis, but when the hospital physicians examined him, they decided that it was nothing so serious. He was able to be up, and his wife, who came with him, returned to Memphis.

Saturday evening he complained of not feeling comfortable in bed after he had retired, and got up. He went toward the smoking room, rolling a cigarette. A few minutes afterward one of the nurses found him sitting in a chair in the smoking room dead. His wife arrived this morning to take the body to Memphis for burial.

The deceased was a man popular and widely known on the South End and the news of his sudden death will be received with much regret and sorrow by his many friends. He was about 31 years of age and leaves a wife. The remains will be sent to Memphis tonight at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Paul Mattil, one of the oldest undertakers in the state, died at his home, 227 South Sixth street, at 1:15 o'clock Sunday morning from general debility, aged 88.

Mr. Mattil had been in failing health for the past several years, and retired from business a few years ago, being one of Paducah's oldest and most respected citizens.

He was born in Kaiserlauder, Germany, and came to America half a century ago, locating soon afterwards in Paducah. He was a cabinet maker, but about 1860 opened an undertaking establishment here, and had since its formation been senior member of the establishment of Mattil & Edinger. He was a man of splendid character and unassuming habits, and was liked by all who knew him.

By his thrift and attention to business he prospered, and was among the most honored of Paducah's well-to-do pioneer citizens. He leaves two children, Mrs. Frank Edinger of Paducah and Mr. Jacob Mattil of New York.

The deceased was twice married, his last wife dying thirteen years ago. His son in New York cannot come to the funeral.

The pall bearers will be: Honorary—L. Kolb, Sr., George Rock, George Ochslehaeger, H. Diehl, Charles Smith, John Lehrer. Active—J. G. Kinckleff, J. Young, J. A. Beyers, H. Gockel, H. Meyer and A. Bauer.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the German Evangelical church, burial at Oak Grove.

RETURNS TO MEMPHIS

Manager Sam Quisenberry Has Resigned Here.

Accepts a Better Position—E. A. Roper to Succeed Him.

Mr. Sam Quisenberry, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co., has resigned his position, effective August 15, and returns to Memphis to accept a position with the same company. This will be an welcome news to Mr. Quisenberry's many friends here. He has been manager of the company here since the 15th of last November and has made a hustler and has secured much business and made many friends for the company.

The health of his family has not been good, however, and an opportunity presenting itself to get a better position, he asked to be transferred and the company has complied with his request.

He will be succeeded by Mr. E. A. Roper of Jackson, Tenn., who will arrive a few days before the 15th.

Mr. Roper is a popular young man who stands high with the company, having formerly been acting assistant manager at Memphis.

Mr. Quisenberry has not been apprised of what position he will be given in Memphis, but it will probably be in the cotton exchange office.

He was for many years employed as operator in the local Western Union office, but was transferred to Memphis several years ago the first time, and back to Paducah last year, when there was a general shake-up of managers and young men were substituted for the old.

THE TRUE STATE

OF DEMOCRACY.

A great many of those who believe implicitly in whatever Rev. Sam

Jones says are rabid Democrats. So as Rev. Jones himself once. Rev.

Jones is constantly traveling over the country, especially in the South, where his lives, and not only in a position of judge conditions but is not afraid to tell what he has learned. Here are some of his latest observations on the Democratic party:

Their My advice to the Democrats is not to hold any national convention next year. They will save both time and money.

William J. Bryan's assets as a political corpse are greater than as a living candidate.

Grover Cleveland is one of the biggest Democrats of today who is confident. While he has never gone back to Democratic principles, the Bryan of the party have long ago floundered to the Pop pen."

St. Louis Globe-Democrat says:

Gulf Jones, speaking of the feeling

South regarding the next candidate for president on the Democratic 1908, said that it was one of apathy, and that the people apparently regarded it as an absolute certainty that the Democratic national ticket was doomed to failure and consequently felt no great interest in the probable candidates.

It is remarked that it was a case of even "out door" with Democrats, as the day is a element in the party would come to a knife and a Cleveland man, and the land wing would do the same

Bryan candidate.

For the circumstances, he could prelate his advice to Democrats to er of time and whiskey by refrain year of holding a national convenmade in the 4, he said, would be worth a political corpse than as a lar nature come up in the state, and may have a salutary effect in reducing the number of murders.

Not only the people of Kentucky,
but the whole world, is watching events growing out of the trouble in Breathitt county. The Louisville Post says: "The occurrences Friday in Breathitt show why it is difficult to induce witnesses to testify to what they saw. Coldiron says he saw Britton shoot Cockrill. Greene says he does not recognize Britton, therefore Coldiron is arrested on an affidavit charging perjury, and the grand jury is asked to indict not Britton, but Coldiron. Citizens of Kentucky, watch Breathitt. It has more interest for us than any news from Wall street."

DRAGGED BY A CAR

Painful Accident of Mr. Warren
Thornberry Last Evening.

His Injuries Are Not Considered Serious—Lady Takes Insect Poison Through Mistake.

A FEW SMALLER MISHAPS

Mr. Warren Thornberry fell from a Broadway car last evening about 6 o'clock near the corner of Fifth and Broadway and was painfully, though not seriously hurt.

Mr. Thornberry had descended from the car to assist a lady off, and when he started to get back on the car started before he had a firm hold and he fell. He was dragged for some distance, and is painfully skinned and bruised. He was carried to the office of Dr. P. H. Stewart on Broadway between Fourth and Fifth, where his injuries were dressed by Drs. P. H.
Stewart, D. T. Stuart, Robert Rivers and Johnson Bass. He was later carried to the residence of his sister, Mrs.
James E. English, on Fountain avenue. He is suffering from considerable soreness from the fall, but will be able to be out in a few days.

Mr. Thornberry is well known and has many friends, and the accident gave rise to many exaggerated reports.
His friends will be pleased to learn he is not seriously hurt.

Mrs. Taylor Walker of 609 Jefferson street took some liquid insect poison through mistake Saturday evening, thinking it was nerve medicine, and but for the timely arrival of Drs.
Frank Boyd and D. J. Foster would probably have died from the effects.
She was soon out of danger, the effects of the poison not having had time to manifest themselves when the physicians arrived.

Mr. R. E. Drennan, proprietor of the Richmond house bar, while drying his hands Saturday night on his hand on a piece of glass that had gotten into the towel. One finger was badly cut and he is unable to be on duty.
Mr. Fred Gray is acting in his place
today.

Dick Redd, colored, porter at the New Richmond bar, had his left wrist painfully cut Saturday night by tal-ling through a glass door while "sky-larking" with a companion. Drs.
Hoyer and Robertson attended him.

Adrian Todd, a car repairer on the
I. C., was painfully hurt Saturday afternoon by a piece of flying steel penetrating his leg.

Miss May Plemons, 735 Boyd street, had a finger badly mashed in one of the machines at Bishop's laundry on South Third Saturday evening.

MINISTERS MEET.

BASEBALL RESOLUTIONS MAY LATER BE ADOPTED.

The Ministerial association met this morning in the office of Rev. G. W.
Perryman, of the First Baptist church.
Resolutions regarding Sunday baseball were presented, but were not given out today for publication. It is understood they may be presented to the mayor.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Cairo at Paducah.
Clarksville at Jackson.
Hopkinsville at Henderson.

Before a crowd of three thousand or more people, the banner attendance of the K. I. T. league, Paducah fell an easy victim to Cairo's aggregation of sluggers for the second time, yesterday afternoon at Wallace park by a score of 10 to 1. The vast throng complet-ly filled the grand stand long before the game was called, and overflowed into the bleachers, along the fence leading to the gate, and finally into right field, where a hot ball would have played havoc with them.

Cairo had the game won early,
which made it almost devoid of interest. Best twirled for Paducah and it became evident soon after the first ball was pitched that the bunch of paddle wielders from the Egyptian City could bat any man who would throw 'em in reach. There were two home runs knocked during the game, one by Wallace, who got two the day before, and the other by "Dummy" Hughes.
Brown, Paducah's new catcher, was hit in the head by a pitched ball and disabled, and Edmunds, who has been playing first base, was substituted, catching a good game during the two innings he wore the mit.

Paducah played fairly well, but was able to score only once on Brockett's puzzles. Once or twice it seemed the umpire was giving Cairo the best of it, but he evened things up by other decisions. The crowd was orderly and seemed to enjoy the game, despite the uncomfortable positions of many, hundreds having to stand up. The Cairo crowd was on hand several hundred strong, and Paducah's rooters club was there, but there was little rooting after the first inning or two.

Game by inning:

able.

A NEW COMMISSION COMPAN-Y—Mr. Joe Exall is preparing to organize a commission company here.
He was until recently with the J. E.
English company, and is a popular young man of great business ability.

WHEEL CAME OFF—Black No.
25, of the Palmer-Wilkerson Co., broke down near Third and Broadway
this morning with one person in it.
One rear wheel came off but the occupant was not injured. The damage to the vehicle is slight.

BARBER EXAMINERS COMING
—John Schmeizer, president and George J. Rontenhusch, secretary and treasurer, of the board of examiners of barbers, are expected this week to renew barbers' certificates and issue new ones. It has been nearly a year since they were in Paducah.

ADJUDGED INSANE TODAY—
Annie Bell Dixon, colored, was tried and convicted of lunacy this morning and will this afternoon be taken to Hopkewille by Sheriff Lee Potter.
She was picked up here several days ago and at first was thought to be full of coke, but her trouble later developed to be lunacy.

REQUISITION PAPERS EXPECTED—Marshall Crow has received word that requisition papers have been started here for George Devine, the negro wanted in Osceola, Ark., and they are expected today or tomorrow.
Devine refused to return without a requisition recently when an officer came here after him.

TO ORGANIZE NEW BAND—A plan is on foot to organize a brass band of thirty pieces among the members of the Carmen of America, in Paducah. There is a membership of 222 here, among them many musicians, and it is probable a leader will be employed and steps be taken in a few days to organize the band.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC—The Tenth street Christian church Sunday school will have its annual picnic at Wallace park Thursday, the 30th. Pupils will meet at the church at 8:30 with lunch baskets and take the car at Tenth and Jackson at 9 o'clock. It is hoped that every member of the school will go and parents and friends of the children are invited to go out and enjoy the day.

BROCKO BUSTER KILLED—Friends in the city have received information of the death of Leo Marshall, at Dubois, Penn., the bronco rider with the Cleo Younger-Frank James Wild West formerly the Buckskin Bill, owned by Terrell Brothers, of Paducah. He was killed by his pony falling over backwards on him. He was in the show when it was last here and is remembered by many people who then witnessed his daring feats.

AN ARTISTIC FLOAT—Paducah will be well represented at the Window Trimmers' association convention to be held at Nashville next week.
Messrs. Clarence Housholder, Henry Schroder and Logan Housholder, of Paducah, will attend and have for the parade a handsome float now being built, representing an Indian in full paint in a shell decorated in pink. It will be shipped Wednesday on the Butterfly, and "Old Paduke" which is a credit to the talented young men who made it, is sure to attract a good deal of attention.

St. Petersburg's Centennial.
St. Petersburg is about to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of its foundation. Nearly 4,000,000 will be spent on new schools, a hospital with 1,000 beds, and a people's palace will be built and the new Cathedral of St.
Peter will be dedicated.

HAD REASON TO LAUGH.

How Deacon Unwittingly Amused the Congregation.

Deacon Reice of Hartford, Conn., was well known as being provided with an enormous handle to his countenance in the shape of a huge nose;

in fact, it was remarkable for its length. On one occasion, when taking up a collection in the church to which he belonged, every person to whom he presented the box seemed to be possessed of a sudden and uncontrollable desire to laugh. The deacon did not know what to make of it. He had often passed it around before, but no such effects had he witnessed. The secret, however, leaked out. He had been afflicted a day or two with a sore on his nasal appendage, and had placed a small sticking plaster over it.

During the morning of the day in question the plaster had dropped off, and the deacon, seeing it, as he supposed, lying on the floor, picked it up and stuck it on again. But, alas! he picked up instead one of the pieces of paper which the manufacturers of spool cotton paste on the end of every spool, and which read, "Warranted 200 yards."

GOD WAS NOT DISPLEASED.

How Little One Obtained Absolution
for a Fib.

Little Dorothy Perkins was usually a truthful child. When she was not truthful she was plausible.

Coming in from her walk one morning she informed her mother that she had seen a lion in the park.

No amount of persuasion or reasoning wavered her statement one hair'sbreadth, so at night, when she slipped down beside her knee, her mother said: "Ask God to forgive you for that fib, Dorothy."

Dorothy hid her face for a minute;
then she looked straight into her mother's eyes with her own shining like stars, and said: "I did ask him, mamma dearest, and he said: 'Don't mention it, Miss Perkins. That big dog has often fooled me.'"

Rough on the Choir.

When the Rev. Dr. John Phelps Taylor, an ex-professor in Andover Theological seminary, was pastor of a Congregational church in a New England city, he was noted as being perfectly courteous and exceedingly considerate of the feelings of others. So, how he came to make the faux pas recorded in this story of him is past understanding.

A soprano singer, who aspired to a position in the church choir, had received permission one evening to sing a solo. The organist was not pleased with the arrangement, and he played the accompaniment to the somewhat long selection as loudly and noisily as possible. When the solo came to an end, it was followed almost without pause by the passage of Scripture which Dr. Taylor had selected for that evening, and which began: "And when the uproar had ceased."—New York Times.

Human Nature.

A woman who was one of many in a railroad accident the other day noticed the different effect a narrow escape from injury had on different passengers. One woman fell on her knees and prayed aloud in gratitude.
One man swore profusely at being delayed from keeping an important business engagement.

REED AS A LOVER OF PEACE.

Rebellion a Reflection Against Common Sense of the Race.

The late Thomas B. Reed's make-up, mental and physical, fitted him for conflict, yet he was a lover of peace.
The American Friend, the organ of the orthodox Quakers, publishes this week extracts from letters which Mr. Reed wrote during the Spanish war and since, which are very characteristic of the man. It seems that a letter written to his Quaker friend in March, 1898, he complained that he had received so little credit from peace societies for his consistent service as a peace man, while Mr. Long, secretary of the navy, was the idol of the societies. He said in a note at the end of this letter: "Does thee remember the book of Jonathan Dymond? I have never forgotten it, and have it yet." Thirty-eight years before when he was a student at Bowdoin this Quaker friend had given him a copy of "Essays on the Principles of Morality," written by the English Quaker, Jonathan Dymond, in 1829.

After President McKinley had made a speech assigning to Providence responsibility for the war with Spain,
Mr. Reed wrote to this same friend,
"No, it is the devil," and he also added, "There is something better than the fat of rams or even going to meeting regularly." In 1901 his Quaker friend sent him a pamphlet on war, to which he replied that he would read it,
"although Jonathan Dymond made up my mind on it a good many years ago." This same correspondent also quotes Mr. Reed as saying to the fact that the North and the South to settle their conflict as they did, "Is a tremendous reflection against the conscience of the race."—Boston

SORROW IS GREATER THAN I CAN BEAR.

World Wise Stonecutter Proved He Knew His Business.

"That a man may be an artist in any profession, no matter how lowly, was brought to my attention in an amusing manner last summer when I was visiting a little country town in England," said the Tourist Girl.

"There was a stonecutter in the town whose reputation was great among the people as a designer of tombstones and a writer of appropriate epitaphs to put upon the stones. One day a disconsolate widow came to him with a request for a headstone for her departed husband which should bear this inscription:

"My sorrow is Greater Than I Can Bear."

"Being a wise man, aware of the frailties of the human heart, he took care to leave space on the stone so that more could be added at any time.

"A year later the widow made him another visit. She was about to remarry, and wanted him to efface the inscription on the stone and write a more fitting one.

"No need for that, ma'am," was the reply. "I always looks to contingencies when there's widders left. All that's wanted to that inscription is just one word put at the end of the others, in the space left there."

"And the revised epitaph read as follows:

"My Sorrow is Greater Than I Can Bear Alone."

WORK OF MODERN GUNS.

Magnificent Engines of Destruction Mounted in Fort Hancock.

The mortars at Fort Hancock look like pocket pistols in comparison with "Little Animosities." The officer in command sits in a small hut on a bridge above the powder magazines, giving his directions to the crew, in whichever direction the eyes may wander there is a gray mass of metal, an angel of death. It may be a rifle or a mortar. Both Miles and Merritt pronounce Fort Hancock impregnable.
There are 16-inch rifles, 12-inch rifles, 10-inch rifles, two mortar batteries of 16 guns each and a pneumatic dynamite gun. The turn of a wheel or the raising of a level controls the directing of many tons of steel, so perfectly balanced are the "angels." Springs resisting the recoil of the mortars look like elephants' legs. "Betty" is aimed at an angle of 45 degrees. A whistle like a postman's blows three times. "Are you ready, Gridley? Fire!" Someone concealed presses a button. The shell sounds like 4,000,000 wild geese making their annual fall pilgrimage from Labrador to Curruck. Wagner has tried to imitate it in the fight of the valkyries in "Die Walkure." It is said that no man has ever seen a modern mortar shell in flight. Long after its song has ceased and you have forgotten about it, comes the splash out at sea.
—New York Press.

Most Appropriate.

Previous to making arrangements for the famous fancy dress ball which Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish gave last August at Newport, she is said to have conferred with leading electricians concerning decorations. Guests were asked to appear in Colonial costume, and everything was to savor of Colonial days. The electricians were told to evolve something appropriate and novel, as she would have it at any price.

After pondering a few days, one of the electricians approached Mrs. Fish and suggested "Liberty" illuminated.
"But that is so common," objected
the lady.

"Most appropriate," argued the electrician. "By that means we can show how dear liberty was to our forefathers, and that they, like you, would have it at any price."

A. Novelist's Old Age.
"I am 74," says George Meredith, the novelist, "but I do not feel to be growing old either in heart or mind. I still look on life with a young man's eye. I have always hoped I should not grow old as some do—with a palsied intellect, living backward, regarding other people as anachronisms because they themselves have lived on into other times and left their sympathies behind them with their years."

TO OLD POINT COMFORT AND THE SEASHORE, AUG. 18—A TOUR OF EDUCATION.

The personally conducted excursion to Old Point Comfort, in charge of Mr. W. A. Wilgas, S. P. A., will be run Tuesday, August 18, via the I. O. and O. and O. railways, from Paducah. On regular train, connecting with Seashore Special, leaving Louisville from union depot, foot of Seventh street, at 1:30 p. m. The round trip rate to Old Point Comfort is only $18.55, and the tickets are good until September 2.

This is the most popular outing offered the traveling public. Grand and beautiful scenery, invigorating mountain air, surf bathing, ocean voyage, palatial hotel entertainment and a visit to the capital. Every attention and every comfort guaranteed. Delightful side trips at low rates. Every attention and courtesy will be extended to ladies traveling alone. Choice of routes returning, between Richmond and Clifton Forge, will be given. Application for sleeping car space should be made at once to W. A. Wilgas, S. P. A., Hopkinsville, Ky. For further particulars address as above or call on I. O. railway agent, J. T. Donovan.

Swiss School Rule.
A child's absence from school in Switzerland in punished with a fine, which is increased daily unless the child is ill—in which case, of course, he is free to stay at home. Should the school authorities doubt the genuineness of any child's illness they send a doctor to see him, and if their suspicions prove correct the parents have to pay his fee.

WANTED.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and liver troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constipation, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists.

THE CONTINGENCY WAS REMOTE

What Colored Man Thought of His Employer's Prospect.

When a southern representative is at home he has as his servant a good old colored man called Snowball, who stands in ostensible awe of his employer. One day, while waiting on the table Snowball accidentally spilled the soup on the person of this congressman. With apparent indignation, the southerner shouted:

"Snowball, you black rascal, do you know you have scalded a representative in the United States congress?"

"For de Lawd, uh knows dat, but ah really didn't mean fer to do it."

"Do you know, you scoundrel," continued the congressman, in still more violent terms, "that you have scalded a man who may be senator of the United States?"

Snowball's face took on a still more serious look and he again apologized most abjectly, but his master was not satisfied.

"Snowball," he roared, "you have scalded a man who may yet be president of the United States."

Snowball's face relaxed and two gleaming rows of ivory came into prominence.

"Lawd, mistah," said he, "when you gets to be president I reckon I'll be Gawd."—Washington Post.

STRAIN TOO MUCH FOR MOODY.

Giving a Dinner Brought on an Attack of Nervous Prostration. President Roosevelt is having a great deal of fun with Secretary Moody these days. He tells his little joke to every member of Congress who visits the white house.

"My secretary of the navy has broken down," says the President to his callers. "Moody has nervous prostration and his doctors have sent him on a month's sea voyage."

"Overwork?" naturally asks the visitor.

"No, the heavy round of social duties. He cannot stand much. He gave one dinner and that completely unnerved him. He gave it at the hotel, where everything was got up for him. Mrs. Dewey invited all the guests. He had a guard of marines to see that everything was all right. He did not do a thing but eat the dinner. Since then he has been in a state of collapse. It is wonderful how delicate these hachelors are." Then the president laughs loud and long.

Secretary Is Kept Busy.

Although a number of bureaus of the treasury department have been transferred to the new department of commerce, the secretary of the treasury is not without duties. He raises and distributes a billion dollars of government revenue; he supervises the system of national banks; he is custodian of $800,000,000 of coin in the treasury vaults; he is responsible for the cash balance; he controls the mints, directs 3,000 persons in printing money and securities and is head of the highest auditing office in the world.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Knapp, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick and throw up all food; could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Threatens His Unwilling Landlord.

There is always something new developing in the old Kansas trouble. In Topeka a liquor seller has been ordered to vacate the premises he has occupied for a long time. A recent interchange of fire between Col. Hepburn of Iowa, and Gen. Grosvenor of Ohio on the floor of the house: "Gen. Grosvenor—The gentleman from Iowa does not believe that any public man was ever sincere or honest in his advocacy of a proposition and always looks around for a selfish motive. That is because the gentleman himself has no other standard of morality than that. Col. Hepburn—I draw the line somewhere; I draw it at Ohio people. I do not propose to hold the gentleman from Ohio responsible for what he has said. I recognize the fact that I myself am getting old and that some day I will be senile."

OUTING SPOTS IN THE NORTHWEST

There are many places in the country of the Northern Pacific, some inexpensive, others better and more expensive, where one can spend the summer days pleasantly and healthfully. Among these are Walker in the Leech lake country, and Detroit and Hattie Lake in the Lake Park region in Minnesota; Eaton's ranch, near Medora, N. D.; Hunter's Hot Springs in the Yellowstone valley, and Missoula and the Butter-root valley in Montana; Lakes Pend d'Oreille and Cour d'Alene, Idaho; North Yakima in Eastern Washington, and Green River Hot Springs in the Cascades; Tacoma, Seattle, Port Townsend, Port Angeles and Victoria on Puget Sound, and many places along the Columbia river and on the Pacific Ocean from Portland as a center.

Those east of the Mississippi who wish a decided change should go to the Rockies or the Puget Sound and Columbia river and sea coast country. We can only hint at these things here, but write us giving particulars as near as you can, and we will try to give you the needed information to enable you to find what you want. And don't forget that Yellowstone Park is the chief of all tourist shrines.

"What had he that?" asked Miller. "I am at the first of it."

"Oh, we are giving one here in this house tonight," answered Burton, who was a handsome man of thirty-five, tall and erect, and appeared at his best in his close fitting evening suit and light overcoat. "Come upstairs, and I'll introduce you to a lot of strangers."

"Can't," Rayburn told him. "I've got to leave at 10 o'clock."

"Well, you've got a good hour yet," insisted the officer. "Come up on the next floor, where the orchestra is, anyway, and we can sit down and watch the crowd come in."

Miller complied, and they found seats on the spacious floor overlooking the thronged office. From where they sat they could look through several drawing rooms into the ballroom beyond. Already a considerable number of people had assembled, and many couples were walking about even quite near to the two young men.

"By George!" suddenly exclaimed Miller as a couple passed them. "Who is that stunning looking blond? She walks like a queen."

"Where?" asked Burton, looking in the wrong direction.

"Why, there, with Charlie Penrose," "Oh, that one," said Burton, trying to think. "I know as well as I know anything, but her name has slipped my memory. Why, she's visiting the Bishops, on Pendleton street—a Miss Bishop, that's it."

"Adele—little Adele? Impossible!" cried Rayburn. "And I've been thinking of her as a child all these years."

"So you know her?" said Captain Burton.

"Her brother is a chum of mine," explained Miller. "I haven't seen her since she went to Virginia to school five years ago. I never would have recognized her in the world. My Lord, she's simply regal!"

"I haven't had the pleasure of meeting her," said the captain, "but I've heard lots about her from the boys who go to Bishop's. They say she's remarkably clever—recluse, you know, and takes off the plantation negro to perfection. She's a great favorite with Major Middleton, who doesn't often take to the frying size. She has been a big drawing card out at Bishop's ever since she came. The boys say the house overflows every evening. Are you going to speak to her?"

"If I get a good chance," said Rayburn, his eyes on the couple as they disappeared in the hall. "I don't like to go looking like this, but she'd want to hear from home."

"Oh, I see," said Burton. "Well, you'd better try it before the grand march sweeps everything before it."

As Miller entered the ballroom Penrose was giving Adele a seat behind a cluster of palms, near the grand piano, around which the German orchestra was grouped. He went straight to her. "You won't remember me, Miss Adele," he said, with a smile, "but I'm going to risk speaking to you anyway."

She looked up from the bunch of flowers in her lap and in a startled, eager sort of way began to study his face.

"No, I do not," she said, flushing a little and yet smiling agreeably.

"Well, I call that a good joke," Penrose broke in, with a laugh, as he greeted Miller with a familiar slap on the shoulder. "Why, Rayburn, on my ingjacks, like that one—to excuse her, and to put them into a good humor when she has good reason to change her mind about an engagement? That's a sort of slavery I don't intend to enter."

"You served him right," said Miller, who had himself resented the young man's childish impetuosity and felt like slapping him for his impertinence.

Adele shrugged her fine shoulders. "Let's not waste any more time talking about him," she said. "I was going to tell you how happy you made them all. When I read mother's description of their return home that night—how she went round looking at each object and touching it that she might realize it was hers again, and how father sat up till past midnight talking incessantly about it, and all the good things I've heard about—I cried and laughed by turns. I longed to see you, to tell you how I felt about what you did, and yet, now that I'm with you, all I say seems utterly weak and inadequate."

"It seems wonderfully nice to me," Miller declared. "I don't deserve anything, and yet—well, I like to hear you talk."

He laughed. "Whether I deserve it or not, I could listen to you for a week on a stretch."

In truth Rayburn Miller had never in all his varied social career become so suddenly and startlingly interested in any woman. It all seemed like a dream, and a most delicious one—the gay assemblage, the intermittent strains of the music, the touch of the stately creature on his arm, the perfume of her flowers, her hair, her eyes. He suddenly felt fearful of the passage of time, the leaving of his train, the approach of some one to claim her attention. He could not explain the spell she had thrown on him. Was it because she was his friend's sister and so astoundingly pretty, frank and sensible, or could it be that?

His train of thought was broken by which rebelled against being made much of, would have appeared to better advantage in a street costume.

"Oh, Adele," she cried reproachfully, "what do you mean? Do you know you have mortally offended Mr. Ted castle? He had the march with you."

"And I asked him as a favor to excuse me from it," said Adele simply. "I had just met Mr. Miller, who is to leave on an early train, and I wanted to talk to him about home. Have you been introduced? My cousin, Miss Bishop, Mr. Rayburn Miller."

Miss Bishop bowed indifferently and looked as if she still saw no justification in the slight under question.

"I'm awfully sorry," she said reproachfully. "Mr. Tedcastle has been as nice to you as he could be, and this is the way you show appreciation for it. I don't blame him for being mad, do you, Mr. Miller?"

"I'm afraid I'd be a prejudiced witness," she smiled, "benefitting as I am by the gentleman's discomfiture; but really I can't think that any circumstances could justify a man in pressing a lady to fill an engagement when she chooses not to do so for any reason of hers."

"I knew you'd say that," said Adele. "If anybody has a right to be offended it is I, for the way he has acted without waiting for my full explanation."

"Oh, that is a high and mighty course that will do better for novels than real life," disagreed Miss Ida Bishop. "The young men are badly spoiled here, and if we want attention we've got to humor them."

"They shall not be spoiled by me," declared Adele. "Why," shrugging her shoulders contemptuously, "if I had to run after them and blind up their bruises every time they fell down I'd not appreciate their attentions. Besides, Mr. Tedcastle and his whole ilk actually put me to sleep. What do they talk about? Driving, pet dogs, flowers, candies, theater parties and silly bosh generally. Last Sunday Senator Hare dined at uncle's, and after dinner he and I were having really a wholesome sort of talk, and I was respecting myself—well, a little like I am now—when I tripped Teddy, with his lingers on. Of course I had to introduce them to the separator, and I felt like a fool, for he knew they were my 'company,' and it was impossible to keep them quiet. They went on with their baby talk just as if Senator Hare were being given an intellectual treat. Of course there are some grown up men in Atlanta, but they are driven to the clubs by the swarms of little fellows. There comes Major Middleton, one of the old regime. He may ask me to dance with him. Now watch. If he does, I'll answer him just as I did Mr. Tedcastle, and you shall see how differently he will treat it."

The major, a handsome man of powerful physique and a great shock of curly iron gray hair, approached Adele and with a low bow held out his hand.

"I'm after the next dance, my dear," he said. "You are one of the very few who ever dance with me, and I don't want to go home without it."

Adele smiled. "I'm very sorry, major," she said, "but I hope you'll excuse me this evening."

"Oh, that's all right, my dear child," he said. "No; don't explain. I know your reasons are all right. Go ahead and enjoy yourself in your own way."

"I won my bet," Adele laughed. "Major, I knew so well what you would say that I bet on it." And then she explained the situation.

"Tedcastle ought to be spanked," said the major in his high keyed voice. "A girl who had not rather hear from home than spin around with him ought not to have a home. I'm going to mine rather early tonight. I came only to show the boys how to make my famous Kentucky 'snack.'"

When the major and Miss Ida Bishop had gone and left them together, Adele looked over the railing at the big clock in the office. "We have only a few minutes longer, if you are to take that train," she said regretfully.

"I never had as little interest in trains in my life," he said, and he meant it.

"Not in the 'bus on our new road?" she laughed.

"They are too far ahead to interfere with my comfort," he retorted. "This one is a steam nightmare."

"I presume you really could not miss it?" Her long lashed eyes were down.

He hesitated. The simple thought suggested by her thrilled him as he had never been thrilled before.

"Because," she added, "it would be so nice to have you come out tomorrow afternoon to tea, about 4."

He drew out his watch and looked at it waveringly.

"I could send a night message," he said finally. "I really don't want to go. Miss Adele, I don't want to go at all."

"I don't want you to either," she said softly. "It seems almost as if we are quite old friends. Isn't that strange?"

He restored his watch to his pocket. "I shall stay," he said, "and I shall call tomorrow afternoon."

Some one came for her a few minutes later, and he went down to the office and out into the street. He wanted to walk, to feel his body in action, keeping pace with his throbbing, bounding brain. His whole being was aflame with a fire which had never burned in him before.

"Alan's little sister!" he kept repeating to himself. "Little Adele—she's wonderful, wonderful! Perhaps she may be the woman. By George, she is—she is! A creature like that, with that soul full of appreciation for a man's best efforts, would lift a fellow to the highest rung on the ladder of human effort. Alan's little sister! And the idiot never told me, never intimated that she was a goddess."

Lloyd batted for Best in ninth.
Earned runs, Paducah 0, Cairo 4; stolen bases, Akers 1, Ray 2, O'Connor 3, Powers 1, Lewis 1; two base hits, Lewis 1, Wallace 1; home run, Wallace 1; Hughes 1; sacrifice hits, Witt 1; passed balls, Rutledge 2, Brown 3; wild pitch, Best 3, Brockett 2; hit by Best 1, by Brockett 2; struck out, Best 4, Brockett 8; left on bases, Paducah 9, Cairo 5; time, 1:50; Clark, umpire.

SATURDAY'S GAME WITH CAIRO.

There is nothing to Saturday's game except that Cairo's bunch of heavy hitters had the game won before the fans were aware of it. They batted Girard in all directions just as they are in the habit of batting everybody else. Paducah played a good game considering everything and there were only two errors recorded against the Indians. Many of the raps that were not handled in time to retire the batters were hits that could not be fielded, and the Paducah men are entitled to credit for stopping them. Cairo's heavy hitter, Wallace, made two home runs, and Lewis made one. Wilson was put in the fifth inning and the Cairoites made only two runs off him.

According to dispatches, Milwaukee will probably sell Lon Hedges, the Paducah pitcher, to St. Louis for next season, although it is not settled yet, and Hedges will probably continue to pitch for Milwaukee during this season.

A FEW WHIFFS.

Orr and Edmunds will be Paducah's battery for today's game.

Willie Le Compte is out of the game on account of an injured finger.

O'Connor was robbed of a two bag for yesterday by the umpire's decision.

The Paducah men should be provided with uniforms. Part in blue and part in gray confuse even the spectators.

Catcher Clifford may not return. He did not say he would not, but told the boys good bye, and said it was possible he would not.

Lon Hedges at Toledo, O., Saturday shut out Toledo for Milwaukee. He got a hit, struck out three men and won great applause for his clever work.

Ray, who played short stop yesterday in Le Compte's place, seems to be a good man. He got a hit every time he went to the bat yesterday and is a fast fielder.

Colonel Dick Calisi says it will be cheaper for him to move the fence back next time Cairo comes to town. He has been paying a dollar a piece for home runs.

Lyneky of Hopkinsville has been compelled to quit the game on account of illness. He has been quite sick on the trip and has gone home to Huntsville. He will return as soon as he regains his health.

There is talk of protesting yesterday's game by Paducah on account of the "hum" decisions of the umpire. This would be ridiculous. In the first place professional judgment does not constitute grounds for a protest, and in the second Cairo could more than offset it by claiming all of Paducah's men were not in proper uniform, which they are required to be by rule.

HENDERSON'S OPINION

OF PADUCAH.

Henderson Gleaner.

Paducah will protest the game lost here Thursday which they claim they were robbed of. We are not positive but we believe that Paducah has protested more games than she has won. Of all the kickers, robbers, rag chowers, knockers, babies, quitters, soreheads, bun players, no players at all, growlers, wranglers, fussers and school boys that ever played ball on the local diamond the Paducah aggregation carries off the palm. A number of rooters said after the game yesterday afternoon that they would never go out to see the "Padies" play again, and they expressed the feelings of almost all of the local lovers of the game. The "Padies" played like a lot of old women and if they make two or three errors are ready to quit the game. That was the cause of the squabble yesterday. Clifford, the catcher, made two or three bad plays, then the

A RATHER QUIET 4TH

A General Holiday Observed With Many Out.

Amusements of Every Description Getting a Share of the Public Attention.

MANY VISITORS ARE HERE

The Fourth, a hot but auspicious day, is being somewhat quietly celebrated today, but everybody appears to be enjoying a holiday, and there are people at every place of amusement in large numbers. The stores nearly all closed at noon, and the banks, postoffice and courts were out of business until Monday.

Large crowds went across the river, many are at the Old Fort Massac celebration near Metropolis while Wallace park is filled with picnickers and sightseers and the old harmony singing is enjoying an immense crowd.

MILITARY BOYS HERE.

A portion of the Murray boys arrived last night, but the remainder of the company will get here this afternoon at 1:30. Mayfield is represented with about thirty-five. The total number of soldiers from the different cities are: Murray 55, Mayfield 35, Clinton 35 and Paducah 60, making a total of 185 soldiers.

The Clinton boys arrived at noon with nearly the full military company. About thirty members are here and a good showing will be made at the sham battle.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVE.

Roadmaster J. M. Russell of the Louisville division of the I. C. is in the city today looking after the trains.

The traffic on the road is heavy in the passenger service and the trainmen have all they can attend to. Both accommodation trains were loaded this morning and over a thousand people were brought in on the Hopkinsville and Fulton accommodation trains.

PERFORMANCES AT LA BELLE.

There will be four performances at the Casino, La Belle park, this afternoon and evening and the theater will no doubt be taxed to its utmost at every performance. The Seward shows are drawing large audiences and today will be the banner day.

FACTORIES CLOSED DOWN.

Few, if any, of the factories are running today. The employees are consequently out for a holiday and the railroads are not having much of a rush except in the passenger service, as no freight will be received or shipped today.

CROWDS LARGER THAN USUAL.

The railroad companies and boats are doing an enormous business and more people were brought here on the three morning trains and the several boats than have ever been brought here before for a Fourth of July celebration, it is said.

BASEBALL TODAY.

The baseball game between the Pepsi and Coca Cola will be witnessed by a large crowd, and the sham battle by perhaps as many as the park will hold. The military boys are here in large numbers and will make a splendid display.

RIVER SHOW ARRIVES.

The Swallow & Markle river show arrived last night and today the band paraded the streets and attracted a great deal of attention. The show has been here before and will doubtless get its share of patronage.

K. OF P. GO TO METROPOLIS.

The Uniform Rank No. 19, K. P., went to Metropolis this morning to appear in the exhibition drill. About twenty members of the rank went down and the K. P. lodge here will be well represented.

ASKS $1,000 DAMAGES.

Mr. F. M. Lawrence, the second-hand dealer of 216 court street, today filed suit against Armour & Co. for $1,000 damages, alleging that the defendant did maintain a nuisance in the way of a poultry slaughter house near his place of business and he has been damaged to that extent.

KENTUCKY POSTMEN

State Convention of Letter Carriers in Session Here.

Nine Out-of-Town Delegates Arrive—Business Meeting This Afternoon.

TONIGHT IS THE BANQUET

The State Letter Carriers' convention is being held today in Paducah. This morning the delegates from other cities arrived at 4 o'clock and were met at the depot by the local reception committee.

There are nine out-of-town delegates, as follows: Charles W. Huber and W. E. Farley, Louisville; Henry Rauch and D. E. Berry, Covington; W. M. Newton, Newport; E. R. Simcox, Robert L. Skinner and W. T. S. Carpenter, Lexington; Owen W. Farr, Frankfort. An informal reception was held this morning at the Palmer house, at which refreshments were served to the guests until noon.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock the business session began at Masonic hall and will probably last three hours. It will include the transaction of all business essential to the welfare of the Letter Carriers' association.

The delegates are all gentle, highly respected young men, and it is the first visit of most of them to Paducah. The postmen find it more difficult to get off to attend conventions than perhaps any other members of organizations, and they have so arranged it that the business can be transacted by a few.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

1 o'clock. Invocation—Rev. W. H. Robertson. Welcome address—D. A. Yeiser, Mayor.

Address of Welcome to Our Guests—J. G. Card, president Branch 383. Response—State President Henry Rauch, Newport.

Business Session Program to be Arranged by State President.

Address—Hon. F. M. Fisher, P. M., Paducah.

Address—Hon. W. C. Clark, ex-postmaster, Paducah.

Address—T. B. McGregor, Benton. Subject: "The Substitute Letter Carrier."

EVENING SESSION.

Reception to invited guests at Palmer House parlors 9 to 9:30 p. m.

Banquet 9:30 to 11:30 p. m. Toastmaster—Captain Ed Farley, ex-postmaster, introduced by President Card, Branch 383.

NICE PROGRAM

RENDERED AT CLOSING EXERCISES OF HOME OF FRIENDLESS SCHOOL.

Closing exercises of the school at the Home of the Friendless were held Tuesday afternoon. The children under the excellent management of Miss Raper, matron and teacher at the home, acquitted themselves with credit. The school room, which has been endowed by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Friedman, in memory of Mr. Friedman's father, the late Leopold Friedman, is furnished with every appliance for a well regulated school.

Icos and cako were served to the children after the exercises.

RAILROAD BRIDGE ON FIRE.

A telephone message received just before going to press this afternoon states that the Tennessee river bridge of the Illinois Central is on fire and had burned in two. All telegraph wires are expected to go down. As the bridge is iron, the damage will likely not be great. It is supposed sparks from a locomotive set it afire.

Justice R. J. Barber went to Dawson today to spend the 4th.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week $600,446 Same week last year 611,145 Decrease 10,699

Bank clearings show a slight decrease from the same week last year. This has been the case, however, in but few weeks this year. The first half of 1903 has closed and the period was the most profitable in the history of local banks. The expansion of their business was remarkable. The loans and discount accounts show an increase of nearly $700,000 in a year and the deposit accounts an increase of over $500,000. The net earnings showed the largest on record, too. As the banks are best indicators of the prosperity of a city these figures give an idea of the growth and great prosperity of Paducah.

Wholesale business for the week showed up a little better. Weather conditions were more favorable for the crops, and a better feeling exists all around.

Retail trade has been good, the majority of the houses reporting a good increase over the same period last year, notwithstanding the backwardness of summer.

THE LODGES

Red Men Take in Two Popular Citizens Last Night.

Elks Honor Past Officer—Other Secret Order News.

The Red men last night held their regular meeting and conferred the adoption degree on Police Captain Henry Bailey and Former Councilman G. R. Davis. The order is now one of the largest and most popular in the city.

The Uniform Rank K. of P. left today for Metropolis, where they will be guests of the rank of that place and assist in the big celebration at Old Fort Massac. The Paducah and Metropolis Sir Knights have established the most cordial of relations and needless to say all will enjoy the day.

A fine past exalted ruler's badge has been presented by the Paducah lodge of Elks to Capt. Wm. Kraus, past exalted ruler. Capt. Kraus was a most popular officer and is very proud of the jewel.

The election of officers of the Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, has been postponed until next Tuesday. The new organization promises to be one of the most popular in the city.

Ingliside lodge of Odd Fellows installed officers last night as follows: J. G. Switzer, noble grand; Frank L. Smith, vice grand; R. L. Gilbert, right support to noble grand; J. G. Smith, left support to noble grand; Q. P. Wallace, I. O.; V. G. Berry, W.; J. H. Maxwell, chaplain; W. C. Roark, R. S. S.; Charles Lock, L. S. S.; Charles Pryor, inner guard; S. J. Craig, outer guard; J. M. Cockrill, right support to vice grand; A. R. Davis, left support to vice grand. The finance committee is A. O. Meyer, J. T. Hutchens and Earl Hazen. Mangum lodge has postponed its installation until Thursday evening.

Mr. Robert Noble, the contractor, is entertaining about fifty of his friends over at the lakes today with a barbecue, and a most enjoyable time is being spent.

DEBATE ENDS

Both Sides Satisfied With the Result of it.

Two Ministers Fined in Graves County for a Breach of Peace.

The big religious debate at Sedalia, Graves county, between Revs. Hall and Pique has ended and was heard by a large crowd during the four days it lasted. Both Baptists and Methodists are confident their minister won, and there was nothing to mar the perfect harmony and good feeling which prevailed during the contest. Wild Bill Evans and W. M. Hicks, who had trouble of a wordy nature before the debate began, were tried before Justice Wilson and fined $5 and costs each. The Mayfield Messenger says of them:

"Public sentiment was strongly against them and many have expressed themselves that they should have been fined heavier for their conduct, but this may teach them an important lesson, and that hereafter they must not be so severe in their criticisms of each other."

"The debate was well attended by ministers of the Baptist church, there being over thirty present each day. The Methodist ministers were not there in such large numbers. The debate is over, however, and all is calm and serene."

ALLEGED FORGERY.

SON OF CAPT. TYNER CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSE.

Thomas Tyner, son of Captain James Tyner, of the Buttorff, is wanted here on a charge of forgery. It is claimed that he had Mr. George Goodman, the Second street liquor dealer, cash a check for him several days ago which proved to be a forgery. The check was apparently signed by Tyner & Earhart, of Nashville, and was returned as a forgery.

Captain Tyner stated that his son had forged a number of checks that he, Captain Tyner, had to make good, and he would no longer put up with it, and consequently the boy will be prosecuted if caught.

ONE LITTLE FLASH

Sent Vibrating Around World By Telegraph Today.

Pacific Cable Opened and Postal Circles the World With a Message.

HOW THE FEAT WAS DONE

The course of President Roosevelt's message around the world today was by the Postal Telegraph Co.'s land line from Oyster Bay to San Francisco, thence by the Commercial Pacific cables to Honolulu, to Midway, to Guam and to Manila. From Manila to Hong Kong the message passed by the cable which was lifted and cut by Admiral Dewey in 1898. From Hong Kong it went to Saigo, to Singapore, to Peking, to Madras, to Bombay, to Aden, to Suez, to Alexandria, to Malta, to Gibraltar, to Lisbon and to the Azores. Between Hong Kong and the Azores it had passed by foreign cables. At the Azores it was taken up again by the Commercial cables and sent to Canso, to New York and to Oyster Bay. The time of transmission was at noon today.

A message starting around the world at 5 a. m. today would arrive at Honolulu at 11 p. m. yesterday; at Midway at 10 p. m. yesterday; at Guam at 7 p. m. today, and at Manila at 8 p. m. today. It would pass through India at 8 p. m. today and would return to New York before 6 a. m.

Thus it would have an excursion from today into yesterday and have arrived back at New York within an hour of the time it started. Another message leaving New York at 8 p. m. today would arrive at Guam at 7 a. m. tomorrow, apparently fourteen hours after it started, continuing its journey around the world, it would arrive at Suez at midnight of today and back to New York this morning.

On May 16, 1896, at the National Electrical exposition held in the Grand Central Palace, New York, to demonstrate the promptness of modern telegraphic service a message written by the Hon. Chauncey Depew was sent from New York to Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Vancouver, Winnipeg and Canso to London, thence via Lisbon to Gibraltar, Malta, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Singapore, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Nagasaki and to Tokio and back again to New York, where it was received by Mr. Thos. A. Edison.

FEW ARRESTS

No Police Court Today and Few Happenings of Interest.

Females Flight and Will be Warranted for Trial Monday Morning.

Considerable excitement was created on a park car last night by a drunken man who insisted on cursing in the presence of ladies returning from the park. Motorman Burrows asked him to desist, but he became worse and started to pick up a rock with which to strike the motorman. He was then struck in the face with the switch key and had his nose split open. Subsequently he got possession of an iron rod used to turn switches and started through the car as if to go after the motorman, but was placed on the rear end and the door shut. No warrants were issued and the man's name was not learned.

In accordance with the law of the state, there was no court today, as it was a holiday.

Yesterday afternoon Ernest dorff and John Bulger were arrested in the sum of $150 each for robbing a man of $25 last Saturday at a South Second street saloon.

Hadder Stone, the colored girl who threw a rock through an I. C. window was held to answer in the sum of $50 and Bud Hill for rescuing her from officer.

Bulger and Elmendorf have given the $150 bond required of them and been released.

The police are making it warm for cows caught running at large, and if your cow truns up missing make inquiry at the city hall.

Minnie Grimes and Lillie Wormstead will be tried Monday on a charge of disorderly conduct, for which they were arrested by Officers Nance and Goulioux last night.

The police are investigating a fight that occurred last night between two women at Fifth and Court streets over a man. They had a lively scrap for awhile, but neither was seriously hurt. Warrants will be issued and the case will be aired in police court Monday.

George Brown, colored, was arrested last night on a breach of the peace charge by Officers Moore and Rogers. He will be given a hearing Monday.

SUIT RE-INSTATED

Ohio Concern Asks Judgment Against Calloway.

Request Lien and Sale of Property Amounting to $2,086.97.

A suit was today filed in the U. S. court here by the Aultman-Taylor Co., of Ohio, against W. and T. H. Hargrove, of Calloway county, to secure a lien and sale of property to satisfy a balance of $2,086.97 on a judgment secured several years ago.

The petition stated that in 1888 the plaintiff secured a judgment for $2,118.48 with interest and that only $1,365 had been paid on it, leaving at this date a balance, interest and principle, of $2,086.97. It is alleged that the defendants have property and the plaintiffs pray for a lien on same and that the action be redocketed and the prayer granted for lien and sale of property.

FIRST ISSUE

JOURNAL OF LABOR MADE ITS APPEARANCE TODAY.

The Journal of Labor a paper devoted to the interest of local unions made its first appearance today, Samuel Simon editor. The intention is to make it a permanent institution.

Central Labor union is to shortly give an excursion in Paducah and the committee on arrangements is now at work preparing for it. The committeemen are: Messrs. Wm. Hoffman, L. Crandell, C. Bundy, P. Smith, Wm. Rawlings, J. Welkert, P. Martin, J. Stokes, M. Danaher, T. Scoopes, W. J. Forrest and Jerome Smith.

Organizer Sam Simon has installed a painters' and decorators' union at Mayfield. George Goddard is president.

COUSINS MARRY.

CAME FROM ILLINOIS BECAUSE THEY COULD NOT MARRY THERE.

Miss Regina Delenne and Mr. Jesse Johnston of Collinsville, Ill., were married at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. Rev. Father H. W. Jansen performed the ceremony.

The couple came here to be married because they are cousins, and it is against the law of the state of Illinois for cousins to wed. They returned home today.

ASKED TO RESIGN

Law and Order League Call on School Trustees.

Two Good Addresses and a Number of Good Talks Heard at the Meeting Last Night.

SEVERAL OFFICERS ELECTED

The Good Government league met last night at the Broadway M. E. church and eleven members were added. In an election of officers Mr. B. H. Scott was elected first vice president and Mr. W. J. Hills second vice president and Mr. W. B. Smith treasurer.

The following clause was added to the by-laws:

"It is distinctly understood that this league is not organized for the benefit of any candidate for office, and, unless by special action of the league to the contrary, the announcement as a candidate for office of any member shall be considered as his resignation as a member."

Addresses were made by Rev. W. C. Sellers on "The Responsibility of an Officer" and Rev. Thos. J. Newell on "The Responsibility of the Citizen." Talks were made by several others, and before the meeting adjourned the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, Mr. Ben Weille, as shown by the records of the courts, is a persistent violator of the statute laws of Kentucky, and

"Whereas, One Samuel Jackson is also the manager of a band of men who persistently violate the said laws, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the Good Government league of Paducah, Ky., that they resign as members of the school board of the city of Paducah and they are hereby requested to do so."

ALLOWED CLAIMS.

AND DEMOCRATS IN M'CRACKEN WILL SOON RECEIVE MONEY.

The Democratic state executive committee met at Frankfort yesterday and allowed the various claims against the committee for expenses incurred at the primary in May. The total expenses amounted to $19,600, and $16,000 of this was assessed against candidates, leaving $3600 yet to be paid by the nominees.

A committee was before the body relative to the Bush-Cook judicial contest but the committee decided not to hear it at present.

Chairman Young announced his intention to fight the Louisville machine until one of them gets licked.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TO HEAR CONTEST.

COMMITTEEMEN FIND THEY ARE COMPELLED TO SIT IN CASE.

The contest of Attorney L. K. Taylor for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in this district will probably be tried shortly by the judicial committee, composed of Chairman Morrison, of McCracken and Chairman Edwards, of Marshall, after all. It has been discovered that the law makes it compulsory on the committeemen to hear such contests, instead of making it optional with them. Preparations are accordingly being made to take up the matter again, and Mr. Lovett has filed his answer to the allegations contained in Taylor's contest papers.

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All. How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, various etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. Knapp Medical Co., Box 1144 Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from their daily mail show what men think of their generosity.

"Dear Sir:—Please accept my sincere thanks for your gift of recent date. I have given you treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man to have it.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS.

(St. Louis Chronicle.)

A man was driving a beautiful horse. At the roadside was a watering trough. The animal swerved from the road. Its delicate muzzle was quivering and a short whinny said as plain as a horse can talk, "Master, I am very thirsty; please can I have a drink?"

The answer was a jerk on the reins, a blow with the whip, and the rig disappeared in a cloud of dust.

That was cruelty—unthinking cruelty—and it brings up the whole question of hot weather treatment of animals.

Is your horse given water frequently? Do you give your dog and your cat water as often as they desire it, or do you simply guess they will find all the water they need?

The owner of any animal, large or small, who does not think of these things is not fit to own a dumb brute. Not to provide for the wants of domestic animals and pets is cruelty that causes torture. It is not safe to trust to an animal's finding food or drink.

In a wild state they were able to do this. Domesticated they have learned to rely on man, and in many instances they have met with base betrayal.

Water is as essential as food. In the hot days of July and August it really comes before food.

Kindness to animals is more than kindness; it is justice.

The man who beats a horse can be reached by the law, although too seldom does he meet with his just deserts.

The man who does not beat his horse and who forgets to water him for long periods can seldom be reached by the law, and yet his cruelty is far greater than temporary pain that follows the feet of the lash.

Think about these things. Remember how it feels when your own throat is dry and parched, and look after the needs of your four-footed friends.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Kompe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick and threw up all food; could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

EXPRESS COMPANIES

LIFT RATES.

Chicago, July 4.—Announcements of a heavy advance in merchandise rates were sent out today to all the shippers by the express companies. The new schedule went into effect on July 1 by joint agreement and henceforth the shipper of packages weighing less than fifty pounds will have to bear the burden of the increase.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it is the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever-producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Advancement in Norway.

A Swedish company has purchased the Ifjungen Falls at Telemarken, in Norway, in order to apply its power to industrial purposes. This is one of the largest waterfalls in the world, and plans are being drawn up for making use of it. This company tried to obtain some of the falls in Sweden, but that Government retained them for public objects.

WILL BE ARTISTIC

Coming Production of "Faust" Arouses Great Interest.

Will be the Most Complete, Elaborate and Satisfactory Amateur Performance on Record Here.

DETAILS OF ARRANGEMENTS

The greatest interest is being taken in the forthcoming production of "Faust" for the benefit of the Paducah chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, by local talent, assisted by Mr. James A. Young of New York, a young actor of considerable age, who will be seen in the role of Mephisto, and by Miss Lillian Lancaster, Paducah's gifted little actress, who is fast gaining an enviable place in the drama. It will be remembered that Mr. Young and Miss Lancaster were seen here in "Quo Vadis," and were greeted by the largest house that ever crowded the Kentucky. Their friends are anxiously looking forward to this second appearance, and in the beautiful classic "Faust," the greatest of German masterpieces of literature, their talents will have a wider scope.

The play is a very ambitious one, the parts of Mephisto and Marguerite demanding extreme versatility. Mephisto, as is well known, is one of the strongest and most difficult characters of the drama, while the role of Marguerite ranges from the gentle, child-like innocence of the famous garden scene to supreme and tragic emotion of the death scene in the prison.

The beautiful moral of the play is one that will live through all the ages, and is one that touches the heart and soul of every Christian thinker; the eternal battle of the church and the devil, with the church and love of God triumphant.

The entire cast has been carefully selected, and Paducah will be both surprised and proud of the amount of real talent that has developed here. The whole production will be put on with every precision and as much regard to details as if a professional one. Special scenery and electrical effects for the weird Broken scene have been brought from New York and altogether it promises to be a beautiful scenic treat.

The noble cause for which it is produced should assure a packed house, and this, together with the popularity of the members of the company, leaves no room to doubt of its perfect success.

The following is the complete cast: Mephisto—Mr. James A. Young. Faust—Mr. Omar Fowler. Valentine—Mr. Edwin J. Paxton. Wagner, Brandon, Feeche, Siebel, students—Mr. Will Gilbert, Mr. Bert Gilbert, Mr. Arthur Y. Martin, Mr. Robert Caldwell.

Martha—Miss Geraldine Sanders. Elsie—Miss Mary Sykes. Liza—Miss Frances Herndon. Olga—Miss May V. Patterson. Gretchen—Miss May Hayes. Marguerite—Miss Lillian Lancaster.

Peasant girls and village children—Maybelle Heyer, Floyd Swift, Mabel Smith, Dow Gilson, Claire St. John, Katherine Thomas, Della Gilson, Willie Willie, Bessie Grigsby, May Frederick, Emma Greer, Olga East, Mollie Gardner, Rosella Farley, Lena Edwards, Helen Mills.

Choir boys—James Langstaff, Walker Bowman, Randolph Bowman, Rabb Noble Kirkland, Harry Sloan, Frank Wahl, Fred Wahl, Tom Terrell, Leo McElwee, James McElwee, Lionel Levy, Dave Yelzer, Norvin Alley, Goverel Rosenthal, Las Powell, Warren Gilbert, Nelson Soule, Billie Powell, Sam Winstead, Wheeler Worten, Emmett Quick.

Demons, witches, evil spirits, etc. Harry Gilbert, musical director.

THE SUN'S PUZZLE PICTURE.

Ling Lung had not expected to celebrate the Fourth. Can you see the two boys who set off the mine?

The Week In Society.

SUMMER WANDERERS.

The warm weather will start the usual summer exodus of Paducah people to summer resorts in the next few weeks. The watering places near this city have all had their openings and will doubtless be liberally patronized by Paducahans during the warm months as they generally are. Dawson, Corleann, Crittenden, Creal and Dixon vie in popularity, and each has many Paducah visitors, during the season.

Many people from this city will go to Michigan, and a few to the mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina. The Morton family of this place, including Misses Mollie, Susie, Adine and Cherie Morton left Tuesday of last week for their summer home in Flat Rock, N. C. They will remain until October. Dr and Mrs. R. A. Hicks are spending the summer in the Tennessee mountains.

SOCIETY AND THE FOURTH.

No special entertainments of a patriotic character have been arranged to celebrate the glorious Fourth, by Paducah society. Several informal picnics are on the program for today, and a large crowd will attend the baseball game this afternoon to be played at Wallace park, between the Coca Colas and the Peppols, for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless.

PRESS CONVENTION TRIP.

Miss Mary Boswell and Miss Anne Boswell and probably others from Paducah will attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press convention in Lexington July 22-23. A trip east which will include Canada has been arranged. Niagara Falls is in the itinerary and the tour will prove a most delightful one.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foster entertained with a dance at Wallace park pavilion Friday evening. As one of the first on door dances of the season, it was much enjoyed. The guests were: Messrs. G. R. Noble, H. W. Hinkle, W. H. McPherson, L. P. Jones, Harris Rankin, Harry McElwee, Peter Poryear, Fred Rudy, James P. Smith, P. H. Stewart, R. G. Terrell, H. E. Thompson, H. L. Bradley, W. F. Thompson, Joe Sinnott, Stewart Sinnott, Wallace Weil, Dow Wilcox, and Dr. J. Q. Taylor, Dr. Allen Ashcraft and Dr. I. H. Howell.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson entertained a few of her friends with a farewell dance at the residence of her grandmother Joseph Johnson, Tuesday evening. Miss Wilson, her grandmother, her mother, Mrs. Chloe Wilson, and little brother, will leave July 15 for St. Louis to reside. A lawn party was given by the Ramsey Society of the Broadway Methodist church, Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Mildred Davis on Court street, near Seventh. A large crowd was in attendance and a nice sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

The order of the Eastern Star entertained with a social session Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall on North Fourth street. A "peanut walk" formed the diversion for the evening and refreshments were served at Soule's.

Mrs. R. G. Terrell entertained Tuesday morning informally at cards in honor of Mrs. Charles Trueheart of Louisville. The first prize was won by Miss Pollie Ferriman and the guest's prize went to Mrs. Trueheart.

The Presbyterian Sunday schools of the city including that of the First Presbyterian church, Mizpah and Hebrew missions went to Almo on the N., C. and St. L. road Wednesday for a picnic.

The Retail Merchants' association celebrated its first anniversary Wednesday evening with a social session at the K. P. hall. Some bright toasts followed an elaborate banquet.

Miss Sammie Wallace entertained a few friends Tuesday evening at her home on Jackson street.

The Greeting club gave a dance Thursday evening at Wallace park pavilion.

A party of the young people of the city had a picnic on the Benton road today.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Mrs. Mattie L. Wilkerson and Mr. R. C. Benner is announced to take place Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Downes, 220 North Seventh street. Mrs. Wilkerson is a young woman of many charms. Mr. Benner is a representative of the New York Life Insurance company in this city. He came here from Pennsylvania a few years ago, and has become very popular in this city. The couple will reside here.

A surprise wedding was that of Miss Maize Bradshaw of this city, and Mr. Frank Murray of Pine Bluff, Ark., which took place in Memphis Monday at noon at the Gayoso hotel. The bride left here Monday morning with her brother, Mr. Miller Bradshaw, and was joined there by the groom. The couple remained in Memphis until Wednesday when they went to Pine Bluff, where they will reside.

Mr. William Grigsby, formerly of this city and now of Lexington, and Miss Bessie Thomas of Louisville, were married in Louisville Tuesday at noon. Mr. E. A. Grigsby, of this city, a brother of the groom, attended the wedding.

Miss Pearl Cook of this city, and Mr. Thomas Clifford, of Marion, were married Tuesday morning at the residence of the bride's parents on South Fourth street. The couple will reside in Marion. Miss Fredonia Sible and Mr. Maurice M. Henly of Littleville were married Thursday afternoon. Rev. T. J. Owen performed the ceremony.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Happiness is a paradox, because it may co-exist with trial, sorrow and poverty. It is the gladness of the heart—rising superior to all conditions.—William George Jordan.

THE RUSSIAN AFFAIR.

There will likely not be any serious results from the Russian affair. Owing to the stir which has been raised over the petition prepared by Jewish societies of the United States to be sent to the Russian government, the petition will probably not now be sent, and the incident will end. The Russian massacre was a horrible, inexcusable outrage, but apparently it was a local act, and not a national one, and the government having removed the governor of the province, and evinced a determination to punish all those implicated in the carnage, indicates that it regrets it as much as do the humane people of this country.

But however that may be, this government decided, according to reports, that a petition prepared by certain societies would be sent through official channels to Russia. Owing to the rapidity with which news travels in this enlightened age Russia soon became aware of such intention of the United States and in a diplomatic, tactful manner authorized a statement that the Russian government would not regard kindly such a petition. Thus the Russian government knows just as well as if it had the petition itself that the Jews in the United States disapprove of the massacre of their co-religionists in Russia, sympathize with the unfortunates' families and appeal to the government for protection for other Jews in Russia. The United States knows that Russia would regard the petition as extremely indelicate, if not officious, and inasmuch as all concerned know pretty well about what each thinks the matter can well be dropped without saying or doing anything more. It is not believed the Jewish citizens of the United States would desire that this government run the risk of straining its relations with a powerful nation over a petition which could possibly benefit no one. The conclusion of the United States will probably be something similar to that of a prominent diplomat, who is quoted as saying:

"It would be construed as an interference by this government with the internal affairs of Russia. Such interference cannot be defended either by diplomatic usage or international law. It would establish a precedent that would be embarrassing in all future diplomatic relations. Other governments will find warrant in it for making representations to the United States which this country, with its complex government and the peculiar relations which the general government maintains toward the state governments, cannot answer. "In case foreigners who have espoused citizenship in this country become the victims of mob violence in any of the states foreign governments will be warranted in calling the attention of this government to such outrages, and with the proposed precedent could even go further and suggest immediate remedies, which the federal government, which has delegated the policing power to states, would be unable to enforce."

This is Independence day, the anniversary of our country's birth, and as it is not its first appearance it is presumed our readers know its meaning

and the proper way to celebrate it. At any rate, owing to the hot weather and the desire of our force to get a half holiday, no effusions on the subject of Fourth of July will adorn these columns today. The glorious Fourth comes once a year, and will doubtless be back on time next summer. The most timely admonition is to keep cool and don't fool with the gun that isn't loaded or get in front of one that shoots blank cartridges.

The young men of Maryland have adopted a new method of settling their differences which might be the vogue here in Kentucky if so many firearms were not imported. They fell out at a dance and agreed to meet the next day and fight it out. They met in a field and had 500 interested spectators present to see them pummel each other until one was insensible. The man who got licked was pretty sore at last accounts, but with all that is probably not feeling so bad as a well licked man in Maryland, as he might have felt as a corpse in Kentucky.

The discovery that Gen. Cassin M. Clay, the "sage of Whitehall," is crazy is no discovery at all to many. It has been evident to those who have been reading of his antics for several years past that he was either crazy or just a natural born imbecile. His latest diversion is to send for friends and relatives who live at a distance to come to see him and then not allow them to come near the place after they have traveled many miles at his request.

Good Marksmanship Needed.

In the days of wooden navies and brass cannonades seamanship was everything. The best captain was he who could most skillfully maneuver to bring the enemy within effective range of his guns and put his own ship in a position to rake that of his antagonist. When this had been accomplished the battle turned more on rapidity of fire and weight of metal than on accuracy of aim. Nowadays straight shooting is the sine qua non. To secure the highest possible efficiency in this respect is a matter of much greater moment than to add battleships to our navy that are not needed and which if poorly manned would be of comparatively little service.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Paducah at Jackson, two games.
Clarksville at Hopkinsville.
Henderson at Cairo, two games.

PADUCAH WON A GAME!

Jackson, Tenn., July 4—Girard won the game for Paducah here yesterday afternoon. He held the home club down to five hits and with three men on bases knocked a home run, giving the Indians a lead that the Jackson boys could not tally. Result, 7 to 4. Paducah made four scores in the third, one in the fifth and two in the sixth, while Jackson made one in each the second, third, seventh and ninth. Batteries, Accorsini and Butler.

HOPTOWN WAKES UP.

Hopkinsville, July 4—The defeat of the home team the day before was discounted yesterday by our own victory over the Clarksville boys by a score of 16 to 1. The Hoptown boys bunched their fifteen hits, while Clarksville could do nothing with the five hits credited to her. The batteries were: Hoptown, Morris and Street; Clarksville, Collins, Reid, Rayen and Holmes.

GEE, LOOK AT CAIRO!

Cairo, July 4—Henderson was shut out again yesterday by the Cairo club by a score of 10 to 0. The heavy batting of Wallace, Cairo's left fielder, was a feature. He made two home runs and a three bagger out of four times at bat. Cairo got 8 hits and 1 error and Henderson 1 hit and 3 errors.

EUREKA DOWN IN DEFEAT.

In one of the fastest games of the season Ben Boyd's crack colored club was beaten by the East St. Louis aggregation yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3. The time was one hour and twenty minutes, and it is the first out of nine games that the Paducah club has lost.

A LITTLE DOPE.

President Ben Weille has signed Best, a Memphis league pitcher with a good reputation for strike-outs. Best will arrive today or tomorrow and the battery for tomorrow will be Best and Kelly, the latter, the Vincennes catcher, arriving tonight from his home. This will be of interest to the local baseball fans and the fact that a new battery will appear will be sufficient to draw more than the usual attendance.

Perhaps some time in the season the Paducah club will be permanently arranged so the boys can get used to their positions and not be changed about every day. Other clubs in the league are not having to do it, and there is no reason Paducah should.

President Weille has tried to secure good players, and in proof of the fact this morning rendered a check to the telegraph companies to the amount of $50, total for telegrams last month. This looks like business and Paducah will have a team at any cost.

President Weille has not yet heard from Southoff relative to sending two pitchers, but states that he has three good ones in mind and will pick the best.

Potts will arrive tonight and appear in tomorrow's game. Sawyer has not agreed to come, but President Weille will hold him to his contract.

Girard is the surest thing Paducah has. He is always good for a hit, and his home run yesterday was the feature of the game.

Cairo must be playing mighty good ball or Henderson, the "top-notchers," might rotten ball.

If Edmunds goes one of the surest hitters they have will go.

Tomorrow Jackson comes to Paducah for another game.

Mr. Solon L. Palmer, of Benton, is in the city.

Nervous Depression.

Summer months are peculiarly the months of nervous diseases, especially nervous prostration and other depressed states of the nervous system. People who are not at all inclined to be nervous or suffer from weak nerves find this time especially trying. Sultry heat and electrical disturbances of the atmosphere are probably the cause of this.

Invalids need to be particularly careful to fortify the nervous system by the use of Peru-na.

Miss Helen Rolof, Kaukauna, Wis., writes: "Several times during the past two years or more my system has been greatly in need of a tonic, and at those times Peru-na has been of great help in building up the system, restoring my appetite and securing restful sleep. I know a great number of women who are using it for the troubles peculiar to the sex, and with the best results."

—Helen Rolof.

MISS HELEN ROLOF.

MISS LOUISE HERTSEL.

Miss Louise Hertsel, 1914 Second street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "My health was excellent until about six months ago, when I seemed to have a collapse from overdoing socially, and the doctor ordered an entire change of scene and climate. As this was an absolute impossibility at the time, I had to try and regain my health in another way and was induced by a friend, who gave Peru-na such a good recommendation, to try Peru-na. I cannot tell you the condition of my nerves when I began to use it. The least noise irritated me, and I felt that life was not worth living. But Peru-na soon changed me into a well woman, and now I do not know I have nerves."

—Louise Hertsel.

"A newspaper contributor was lately admitted into the extensive suite of offices which constitute the headquarters of Dr. Hartman, who treats catarrh patients by the thousand. Among the busy array of assistant doctors, clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers, Dr. Hartman stopped long enough to say a few words.

"A large number of female patients visit me every year, but the number who are entered on my books as regular patients and are treated by correspondence is very much larger. Hundreds of letters are received and answered free every day. A yet greater number take my catarrh remedy, Peru-na, and are cured, of whom I never hear. Some of this latter class write me years after their cure.

"I never allow a name published except by the written consent of the patient. We make no charge at any time. The medicine only is obtained by each patient at her own drug store. Those desiring to become regular patients have only to send address, duration of disease and treatment previously received, and I will direct for the first month's treatment, it will be sent at once."

Over half the women have catarrh in some form or another. And yet, probably not a tenth of the women know that their disease is catarrh. To distinguish catarrh of various organs it has been named very differently.

One woman has dyspepsia, another bronchitis, another Bright's disease, another liver complaint, another consumption, another female complaint. These women would be very much surprised to hear that they are all suffering with chronic catarrh. But it is so, nevertheless.

Each one of these troubles and a great many more are simply catarrh—that is, chronic inflammation of the mucous lining, of which organ is affected. Any internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in another location. This is why Peru-na has become so justly famous in the cure of female diseases. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures remain. Peru-na does not palliate—it cures.

MISS JENNIE FINLEY.

Miss Jennie Finley, 79 Madrie's Street, Memphis, Tenn., a popular young society lady of that place, writes: "This 9 years ago I had very poor health, and while I was only sick occasionally, I was unable to enjoy life, and lacked vitality and strength. I was an easy subject to cold and influenza. Four bottles of Peru-na changed my entire physical condition. My head stopped aching, my strength returned, and the poison was driven out of my blood till I felt like a new and well woman once more. It is a truly great medicine and well worthy the good things its friends say about it, and it will always have my indorsement."

—Jennie Finley.

MISS LUCY M. HILEY.

Miss Lucy M. Hiley, 88 Davenport street, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I wish to add my indorsement to thousands of other women who have been cured through the use of Peru-na. I suffered for five years with severe headache, and when weary or worried in the least I had prolonged headache. This all I sought to cure, and was advised to take Peru-na for it. I imagine my astonishment and pleasure to find that after taking two bottles not only was my cough gone, but I had no more headache or headache. I am now in perfect health, enjoy life and have neither an ache or pain, thanks to Peru-na."

MISS LUCY M. HILEY.

Miss Louise Hertsel, 1914 Second street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "My health was excellent until about six months ago, when I seemed to have a collapse from overdoing socially, and the doctor ordered an entire change of scene and climate. As this was an absolute impossibility at the time, I had to try and regain my health in another way and was induced by a friend, who gave Peru-na such a good recommendation, to try Peru-na. I cannot tell you the condition of my nerves when I began to use it. The least noise irritated me, and I felt that life was not worth living. But Peru-na soon changed me into a well woman, and now I do not know I have nerves."

DIED OF SCALDS

Two Year Old Child Meets Horrible Fate.

A Kettle of Water Accidentally Upset
Causes Death.

Zehner Craig, the 2 year old son of Fairfax Craig, died this morning at 5 o'clock at 1018 Court street from being scalded with boiling water
Thursday

A colored nurse had the baby in the kitchen and accidentally upset a kettle of boiling water on the child.
His lower limbs and the lower part
of his body were severely burned.
After suffering great agony death
came as a relief to the little one this morning

BURIED BY ELKS.

REMAINS OF MAYFIELD BOY
RECEIVED FROM ALTON, ILL.

The remains of Vivian Shelton were buried at Mayfield yesterday by the Elks. The young man died from morphine poisoning at Alton, Ill., at
the home of his brother, and is supposed to have committed suicide.
He asked not to be awakened for dinner if he happened to be asleep, and
when discovered was too far gone to be saved. He was quite a popular young man.

WITH THE SICK.

Mr. Farrar Winchester, who for the past year or more has been living in Texas, has been brought back to Paducah and yesterday afternoon was operated on at the I. C. hospital for abdominal abscess growth. His condition is serious but it is believed he
will recover.

The little daughter of Mr. George McDowell, of Broad street, is quite sick.

"Waiting in the bank directly in front of me was a charming woman
of twenty or so who was having her
first experience in banking," said the merchant as he lighted his cigar after luncheon. "She was asked the
questions usual for one who is opening an account; her name, address,
whether married or single and her father's and mother's name. She got along all right until the clerk asked:
"Mother's maiden name, please."
"I don't quite understand, I'm afraid," she said hesitatingly.
"I mean your mother's name when
she was a girl," explained the clerk.
"How should I know? I don't like

WHEN BABY IS COMING USE Mother's Friend

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert as she foresees the joy, ambition, success and the life-long satisfaction coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl or a brave boy face beside her on the pillow as she rests to her expectancy. Mother's Friend applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced by the continued use of this great liniment, MOTHER'S FRIEND. Buy of druggists, $1.00 per bottle. Our treatise "Motherhood" mailed free. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

SANTAL-MIDY
Standard remedy for Gleet, Gonorrhea and Runnings in 48 HOURS. Cures Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

Theatrical Notes.

Mart W. Hanley, who was the manager for Harrigan and Hart when they were at the height of their popularity in New York, and who was the manager and partner of Robert Mantell for the past seven years, has dissolved his partnership with that actor.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell will appear at Wyndham's theater, London, in "The Joy of Living," under the management of Charles Frohman. Martin Harvey, whose new play, "The Exiles," was a failure, has been engaged by Mr. Frohman to support Mrs. Campbell.

Forbes Robertson and Gertrude E. Lott will begin their American tour in Kipling's "The Light That Failed," at Buffalo, N. Y., on September 21. The dramatization which they will see was made by Constance Fletcher, whose nom de plume is George Fleming.

Grace George and her husband, William A. Brady, with their infant son, are in Europe. Owing to certain repairs and improvements that have been ordered by the department of buildings, Miss George will not be able to open at the Madison Square theater in "Pretty Peggy" as early as was at first intended.

True S. James, who has written a domestic play of Colorado entitled "The Garden of the Gods," will be started in that play during the coming season under the management of Mr. Hanley. The scenic effects will be unusually beautiful.

Mr. James was married on June 17 to Miss Grace Turner, of Evansville, Ind., so he will enter upon his career as a star and a benedict at about the same time.

The new play is said to tell a charming story, with humor and heart interest well blended.

PERSONAL.

Miss Kate Hayes, of Dyersburg, Tenn., is the guest of Miss May Hayes.

Mrs. Thomas C. Leech left yesterday to spend the summer in Montreal, Canada, her former home.

Mr. T. J. Flournoy will leave next week for Tennessee to join a party and will leave July 16 for a trip abroad.

Mrs. W. D. Greer and daughters, Mrs. Charles Moeqnot and Miss Myrtle Greer, left this week for Petoskey, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Alben Barkley returned Wednesday from their wedding trip to the Tennessee mountains and are at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Coburn, 414 Washington street.

Misses Robble Loving, Lillie May Winstead, Blanch Hills and Mary Scott left Friday for Paris, Tenn., to attend a house party to be given by Miss Louise Dumas. The young ladies will go from Paris to Hinson Springs to attend another house party.

The contemplated removal of Dr. and Mrs. Warwick M. Cowgill and sons William and Allen, to Lincoln, Nebraska, to reside, will be regretted by their many friends in this city. Mrs. Cowgill is prominent in social, church and club circles and will be greatly missed. Dr. Cowgill will go to Nebraska in a few days and if he is satisfied with the location, his family will soon follow him.

The Nashville Banner of Thursday contains an interesting account of the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp, near Nashville, which Master Vaughan Dabney of this city, joined. The camp is situated on Caney Fork river, on a high bluff, surrounded by beautiful scenery and affords opportunities for bathing, boating and fishing and other diversions which appeal especially to boys. The camp opened Thursday and will last until Saturday July 11.

BEAR TOOK CARE OF HER.

Little Child Carried Off by Animal and Put to Bed.

An extraordinary but apparently well-authenticated story of a bear's freak comes from a Russian village in the district of Odoff. The village lies on the fringe of a forest, whence it is of frequent occurrence for bears to make prowling excursions both by day and night into the adjacent settlements. Some two weeks ago two young girls, aged respectively 6 and 13, were surprised by a huge bear at a short distance from the village. The animal seized and carried off the younger child, while the elder, terror-stricken, fled home and gave the not unusual alarm.

An immediate pursuit was instituted and the search was continued during the evening and the next day, but without result. On the third day, with the assistance of neighboring villagers, a wide cordon was drawn around an extensive tract of the forest, and the searchers closed in. Toward sundown the bear and her booty were discovered in a dense thicket. The child was perfectly unharmed, says the London Mail, and reclining in a deep mossy couch made for her by the bear.

GRAUSTARK

...By... GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"There was one other condition," said Boleroz hastily, unable to glance at her. "The recapture of the assassin."

"I have the prisoner, your highness."

the assassin who slew my son would have meant much to Graustark. It is unfortunate that your police department is so inefficient. Dangloss writhed beneath this thrust. Yetive's eyes went to him for an instant sorrowfully. Then they dropped to the fatal document which Gaspen had placed on the table before her. The lines ran to gether and were the color of blood. Unconsciously she took the pen in her nerveless fingers. A deep sigh came from the breast of her gray old uncle, and Gaspen's hand shook like a leaf as he placed the seal of Graustark on the table, ready for use.

"The assassin's life could have saved you," went on Boleroz, a vengeful glare coming to his eyes.

She looked up and her lips moved as if she would have spoken. No words came, no breath, it seemed to her. Casting a piteous, hunted glance over the faces before her, she bent forward and blindly touched the pen to the paper. The silence was that of death. Before she could make the first stroke a harsh voice, in which there was combined triumph and amazement, broke the stillness like the clanging of a bell.

"Have you no honor?"

The pen dropped from her fingers as the expected condemnation came. In sheer desperation, her eyes flashing with the intensity of defiant guilt, bitter rage welling up against her persecutor, she half arose and cried:

"Who uttered these words? Speak!"

"I, Gabriel of Dawsberg! Where is the prisoner, madam?" rang out the voice.

"The man is dead!" cried she, shivering back with a shudder.

"Mad, eh? Because I do as I did promise? Behold the queen of justice! Madam, I will be heard. Lorry is in this castle!"

"He is dead!" gasped Boleroz, the first of the stunned spectators to find his tongue.

There was a commotion near the door. Voices were heard outside.

"You have been duped!" insisted Gabriel, taking several steps toward the throne. "Your idol is a traitress, a deceiver; I say he is here! She has seen him! Let her shut that device if she dares! I command you, Yetive of Graustark, to produce this criminal!"

The impulse to crush the deceiver was checked by the sudden appearance of two men inside the curtains.

"He is here!" cried a strong voice, and Lorry, breathless and haggard, pushed through the astonished crowd, followed by Captain Quinnox, upon whose ghastly face there were blood stains.

A shout went up from those assembled, a shout of joy. The faces of Dangloss and Allode were pictures of astonishment and, it must be said, relief. Harry Anguish staggered, but recovered himself instantly and turned his eyes toward Gabriel. That worthy's legs trembled and his jaw dropped.

"I have the prisoner, your highness," said Quinnox in hoarse, discordant tones. He stood before the throne with his captive, but dared not look his mistress in the face. As they stood there the story of the night just passed was told by the condition of the two men. There had been a struggle for supremacy in the dungeon, and the prisoner had won. The one had tried to hold the other to the dungeon's safety after his refusal to leave the castle, and the other had fought his way to the halls above. It was then that Quinnox had wit enough to change front and drag his prisoner to the place which, most of all, he had wished to avoid.

"The prisoner?" shouted the northern nobles, and in an instant the solemn throne-room was wild with excitement.

"Do not sign that decree!" cried some one from a far corner.

"Here is your man, Prince Boleroz!" cried a baron.

"Quinnox has saved me!" shouted another.

The princess, white as death and as motionless, sat bolt upright in her royal seat.

"Oh!" she moaned piteously, and, clenching her hands, she carried them to her eyes as if to shut out the sight.

The Countess Halfont and Dagmar ran to her side, the latter frantic with alarm. She knew more than the others.

"Are you the fugitive?" cried Boleroz.

"I am Grenfall Lorry. Are you Boleroz?"

"The father of the man you murdered. Ah, this is capture!"

"I have only to say to your highness I did not kill your son. I swear it, so help me God!"

"Your highness," cried Boleroz, stepping to the throne, "destroy that decree. This brave soldier has saved Graustark. In an hour your ministers and mine will have drawn up a ten years' extension of time, in proper form, to which my signature shall be gladly attached. I have not forgotten my promise."

Yetive straightened suddenly, seized the pen and thereby began to sign the decree in spite of all and before those about her fairly realized her intention. Lorry understood and was the first to snatch the document from her hands. A half written Yetive, a blot and a long, splintering scratch of the pen told how near she had come to signing away the lands of Graustark, forgetful of the fact that it could be of no benefit to the prisoner she loved.

"Yetive!" gasped her uncle in horror.

"She would have signed," cried Gaspen in wonder and alarm.

"Yes, I would have signed!" she exclaimed, starting to her feet, strong and defiant. "I could not have saved his life, perhaps, but I might have saved him from the cruel injustice that that man's vengeance would have invented. He is innocent, and I would give my kingdom to stay the wrong that will be done."

"Stop!" cried the princess, the command checking the men. Quinnox leaped in front of his charge. "He is my prisoner, and he shall have justice. Keep back your soldiery, Prince Boleroz. It is a girl you have to deal with. I will say to you all, my people and yours, that I believe him to be innocent; and that I sincerely regret his capture, fortunate as it may be for us. He shall have a fair and a just trial, and I shall do all in my power, Prince Boleroz, to secure his acquittal."

"Why do you take this stand, Yetive? Why have you tried to shield him?" cried the heart broken Halfont.

She drew herself to her full height, and, sweeping the threatening crowd with a challenge in her eyes, cried, the tones ringing strong and clear above the growing tumult:

"Because I love him!"

As if by magic the room became suddenly still.

"Behold an honest man. I would have saved him at the cost of my honor. Scorn me if you will, but listen to this: The man who stands here accused came voluntarily to this castle, surrendering himself to Captain Quinnox that he might, though innocent, stand between us and disaster. He was safe from our pursuit, yet returned, perhaps to his death. For me, for you and for Graustark he has done this. Is there a man among you who would have done as much for his own country? Yet he does this for a country to which he is stranger. I must commit him to prison once more. But," she cried in sudden fierceness, "I promise him now, before the trial, a royal pardon. Do I make my meaning clear to you, Prince Boleroz?"

The white lips of the old prince could frame no reply to this daring speech.

"Be careful what you say, your highness," cried the prisoner lustily. "I must refuse to accept a pardon at the cost of your honor. It is because I love you better than my life that I stand here. I cannot allow you and your people to suffer when it is in my power to prevent it. All that I can ask is fairness and justice. I am not guilty, and God will protect me, Prince Boleroz. I call upon you to keep your promise. I am not the slayer of your son, but I am the man you would send to the block, guilty or innocent."

As he spoke the princess dropped back in the chair, her rash courage gone. A stir near the doorway told of his concluding sentence, and the other American stepped forward, his face showing his excitement.

"Your highness," he said, "I should have spoken sooner. My lips were parted and ready to cry out when Prince Gabriel interposed and prevented the signing of the decree. Grenfall Lorry did not kill the young prince. I can produce the guilty man!"

CHAPTER XXVI.

THE GUESSING OF ANGUSH.

THE startling assertion created a fresh sensation. Sensations had come so thick and so fast, however, that they seemed component parts of one grand, bewildering climax. The new actor in the drama held the center of the stage undisputed.

"Harry!" cried Lorry.

"Prince Gabriel, why do you shake like a leaf? Is it because you know what I am going to say?" exclaimed Anguish, pointing his finger accusingly at the astonished Prince of Dawsberg.

Gabriel's lips parted, but nothing more than a gasp escaped them. Instinctively his eyes sought the door, then the windows, the peculiar, uncontrollable look of the seated coming to him. Boleroz allowed his gaze to leap instantly to that pallid face, and every eye in the room followed. Yetive was standing again, her face glowing.

"An accomplice has confessed all. I have the word of the man who saw the crime committed. I charge Prince Gabriel with the murder of his highness Prince Lorenz."

With a groan Gabriel threw his hands to his heart and tottered forward, glaring at the merciless face of the accuser.

"Confessed! Betrayed!" he faltered. Then he whirled like a nimble upon his little coterie of followers. "Vile traitor!" he shrieked. "I will drink your heart's blood!"

With a howl he leaped toward one of the men, a dark faced nobleman named Berrowag. The latter evaded him and rushed toward the door, crying:

"It is a lie, a lie! He has tricked you! I did not confess!"

The prince was seized by his friends, struggling and cursing. A peculiar smile lit up the face of Harry Anguish.

"I repeat, he is the assassin!"

Gabriel broke from the detaining hands and, drawing a revolver, rushed for the door.

"Out of the way! I will not be taken alive!"

Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms, Baron Dangloss and others tearing the weapon from his hand. The utmost confusion reigned—women screaming, men shouting—and above all could be heard the howls of the accused prince.

Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms.

"Let me go! Curse you! Curse you! I will not surrender! Let me kill that traitor! Let me at him!" Berrowag had been seized by willing hands, and the two men glared at each other, one crazy with rage, the other shrinking with fear.

Dangloss and Allode half carried, half dragged the prince forward. As he neared Boleroz and the princess he collapsed and became a trembling, moaning suppliant for mercy. Anguish's accusation had struck home.

"Prince Boleroz, I trust you will not object if the Princess Yetive substitutes the true assassin for the man named in your promise to Graustark," said Anguish dramatically. Boleroz, as if coming from a dream, turned and knelt before the throne.

"Most adorable Yetive," he said, "I sue for pardon. I bow low and lay my open heart before the truest woman in the world." He kissed the black lace hem of her gown and arose. "I am your friend and ally. Asaph and Graustark will live no more with hatred in their hearts. From you I have learned a lesson in justice and constancy."

Prince Gabriel was raving like a madman as the officers hurried him and Berrowag from the room. A shout went up from those assembled. Its echo, reaching the halls, then the gardens, was finally taken up by the waiting masses beyond the gates. The news flew like wildfire. Rejoicing such as had never been known shook Edelweiss until the monks on the mountain looked down in wonder.

After the dazed and happy throng about the throne had heaped its expressions of love and devotion upon the radiant princess a single figure knelt in submission just as she was preparing to depart. It was the Duke of Mizrog.

"Your royal highness, Mizrog is ready to pay his forfeit. My life is yours," he said calmly. She did not comprehend until her uncle reminded her of the oath. Mizrog had taken the morning after the murder.

"The sworn-on his life that you killed Lorenz," she said, turning to Lorry.

"I was wrong, but I am willing to pay the penalty. My love for Lorenz was greater than my discretion. That is my only excuse, but it is one you should not accept," said Mizrog, as coolly as if announcing the time of day.

Lorry looked first at him and then at the princess, bewildered and uncertain.

"I have no ill will against you, my lord duke. Release him from his bond, your highness."

"Gladly, since you refuse to hold him to his oath," she said.

"I am under an eternal obligation to you, sir, for your leniency, and I shall ever revere the princess who pardons so graciously the gravest error."

Correct Summer Clothing The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thin clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and felt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. We show the new Irish Donegal Cloths, Cheviots and Home-spuns in coats and pants for men and young men.

School Trustees Say They Will Resign—Nit.

Board of Education to Hold Meeting Tuesday Next.

Trustees Ben Wehle and Sam Jackson, who were last night called upon to resign from the board of education by the Good Government league on account of their connection with the Sunday games of the Paducah Baseball association, were inclined to treat the matter as a joke when seen by a reporter this morning.

One said that the 100 or more members of the Good Government league may imagine they are better qualified to run the town than the officials who have been elected to do it, or than any of the four or five thousand voters who do not belong to the league, but that so far as they are concerned as trustees they will continue to hold office the same as if there was no such thing as the league.

A meeting of the board of education will be held Tuesday evening at which a number of matters deferred at the last meeting will be taken up and disposed of in some manner. The repairs on the public school buildings and the appointment of a superintendent of buildings in order that the cost of keeping the buildings in repair may be reduced will be settled, but teachers are not to be assigned until the meeting in August.

SLOW SO FAR.

THE CRACKER AND TOY PISTOL WELL BEHAVED.

Engene Stovall of South Tenth, an employee of the I. C., had a firecracker he thought had gone out explode in his face last night, painfully injuring him. Drs. Robertson and Hoyer attended him and he will probably soon be all right again.

Miss Linnie Beattie, who has been visiting in Hopkinsville, has returned with a painfully sprained ankle. She was hurt by jumping from a buggy when the horse became frightened.

Mr. L. Newhouse, the drummer who was injured in yesterday's runaway, is resting very well today, although very weak and nervous from the shock of the injury.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Joseph Compean, aged 32, of the city, to Melvina Cole of the city, aged 28. It will make the first marriage of both.

DELEGATES BACK

Successful Missionary Meeting at Dyersburg Over.

Reports Showed the Year's Work to Have Been Very Successful.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Memphis conference, which convened in the Methodist church at Dyersburg, Tenn., Tuesday evening, closed Friday. Mrs. A. F. Covington and Miss Jessie Byrd, who were delegates from Paducah, returned home today. Master Ben Griffith, who was a delegate from the juvenile missionary society, came home yesterday. Mrs. T. J. Newell, who also attended from here, will visit in West Tennessee before returning.

The annual address of the president, Mrs. Watson, showed that the heart of the speaker was in the work and it was fitting that she should urge her co-workers to go forward with the cause they espouse, for she has been leading them almost ever since the organization.

The report of Miss Laura Bradford, conference corresponding secretary, was a complete resume of the year's work, and it contained a great many interesting facts in connection with the foreign missionary work. In closing she told of twenty women in one of the Georgia conferences who had pledged themselves to support a missionary in the foreign field, and she begged the women of the Memphis conference to be up and doing and see if they too could not band a few together and support a missionary. She spoke with so much force and feeling that she had scarcely ceased when Mrs. T. W. Neal of Dyersburg volunteered to be one of thirty to assume the charge for a number of years, and others pledged in quick succession. The entire thirty will no doubt pledge themselves shortly.

The report of the conference treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Ottlinger, showed the financial condition of the conference, and over $4,000 was raised during the past year. The Memphis district led in collections, with $1,112.90, and the Butler Van Guards of First church, Memphis, led in the young people's societies.

Two missionary candidates were present, Miss Cordelia Erwin and Miss Elizabeth Chaborn.

Invitations were extended for the conference for next year to meet at Jackson, Tenn., Murray and Paducah.

The annual sermon was preached by the Rev. Seth Ward of Nashville.

PRESIDING ELDER'S APPOINTMENTS.

By "X-Rays."

Just for once won't you try a pair of shoes that are not made from guesswork measurements of what your foot ought to be, but from "X-ray" photographs of what women's feet really are?

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is exactly shaped to the bones, muscles, and ligaments of the foot, as they are plainly revealed by "X-ray" photograph. This is the explanation of why you hear so much talk on all sides about the wonderful "Dorothy Dodd." The shoe deserves its popular nickname of "an arrangement in comfort." But all this is of no help to you unless you own a pair. On the day you buy them you will learn a new lesson in Foot Comfort.

After that, no one can tell you any other shoe but a "Dorothy Dodd."

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

ELOQUENT ARGUMENT OF MR. LODGE

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held under consideration the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell of Oregon calling upon the secretary of war for complete information regarding the transport service of the United States was adopted.

THE LEGISLATURE

M'CRAERY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected M'Craery senator again. The Pittsford county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire.

Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHER'S CONTEST

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forsythe of this division of the secret service.

Regular cleans the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, restores the system, and builds up the system generally. It is a perfect health-giver for women. It is true and will be proved on every trial.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns. Her gunner, however, was the first man killed. The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DEOLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

At press time the case of W. H. Robber against the I. C. railroad, for $20,000 damages, was on trial. The case will not be finished this afternoon.

COUNTY COURT.

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

Georgia L. Fields of Fulton county, gives power of attorney to W. F. Paxton to do business in the city in her name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets.

G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $220, property on Jefferson street.

C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end.

Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,250, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his livery stable. The safe has been in the county judges office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

Olas Johnson, a colored barber of Columbus, Ky., and Bessie E. Caldwell of the city were licensed to wed this afternoon. It will be the first marriage of the bride and the second of the groom.

POLICE COURT.

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed. El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for presenting a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Dains, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case.

Janie Noas, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

W. O. T. U. MEETING

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 with Mrs. J. D. Smith at Jefferson and Ninth streets.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. The bank was broken into about 2 this morning, and the robbers scooped some of the residents in their escape. A deputy sheriff was notified, and got out in time to fight four of the robbers, ten shots being exchanged. The robbers were routed, and bloodhounds are now on their trail. The four robbers were captured four miles from town. They only secured $147, it seems, as this was all recovered. They would not talk. The names they gave were probably fictitious.

THE ELKS JUBILEE SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Gradually the Plans Are Becoming Defined for the Week.

The New Public School Session Begins on Feb. 1st.

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CORRESPONDENCE INCREASING DAILY

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let. The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

CENTRAL UNION

A Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Consider Caulkers Grievance.

Eight of Them Went on a Strike at the Dry Docks.

A meeting of Central Labor Union is called this evening for the purpose, it is understood, of hearing a grievance from eight ship caulkers who have been at work on the Paducah Dry Docks.

It is understood that the men claim their hours of work were cut down from ten to eight because of government work on hand, on which only eight hours' work a day is permitted. This cut them down sixty cents a day, and as it was no fault of theirs, and they want to work full time, they claim they should be paid for the full ten hours, or allowed to work that long and earn it.

Superintendent Young Taylor, however, states that the work he has contracted for on a basis of thirty-five cents an hour. If he pays them $3 a day for eight hours, he will be paying them 37 1/2 cents an hour, instead of 30, and will be losing 7 1/2 cents on every hour they work, which he alleges he cannot stand. His claim is no more to blame for the restriction to eight hours a day when they formerly worked ten, than they, and will not pay for something he hasn't getting. Superintendent Taylor says that if the men do not desire to return to work at the present rate, $2.40 for eight hours, he will get new men.

WILL BE REAPPOINTED.

SURVEYOR OF CUSTOMS PURVEYOR TO KEEP HIS POSITION.

Washington, Jan. 22.—It was settled today that Surveyor of Customs J. H. Parryear of Paducah, is to be reappointed.

GOES TO MARDI GRAS

CAPTAIN ED FARLEY WILL BE A GUEST ON THE ISLAND QUEEN.

Captain Ed Farley of Mechanicsburg will leave on the Island Queen when she goes south this week for New Orleans, where he will visit and attend Mardi Gras. On the handsome steamer he will be the guest of Captain Brooks, and he expects to be absent several weeks in the Crescent City.

The local tobacco market this week is a little better on prices and on the grade compared with that of the past several weeks.

The following is a report of the sales held today at the warehouses:

Gilbert and Co. offered 16 hogheads with light rejections.

Lugs brought from $3.75 to $4.75 and common leaf sold from $1.25 to $2.75. Good medium leaf was the best offered. The firms report no practical change in the condition of the tobacco and in the prices.

J. W. Farmer and Co. report offerings 11 with 2 rejections.

Lugs sold from $3.80 to $4.50. Common leaf sold from $3.50 to $4.25.

There was no better grade of leaf offered. The market is reported a little better on leaf but about the same on lugs.

The Western District Warehouse company report offerings 5 with 1 rejection.

There were no lugs offered but leaf brought from $1.75 to $4.65. The market is reported a little better on leaf.

THE COUNTY SCHOOLS ARE CLOSING

The latter part of this week and all of next week will be consumed in examining the senior class at the local public high school. With the end of the month closes the present term, and on February 1st the class will take up new studies and discard old ones. The changes in the studies of the under classes will not be made for some little time. The rating at the schools is done by general average of the month's work, but the examinations at the end of the terms and the tests given during the month, all go in to make the average.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being. The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

Send for our special book on Rheumatism, which is free to all who desire it. Write your physicians about your case, and they will cheerfully furnish any information or advice wanted free of cost.

A REAR-END CRASH

The Cannon-Ball Struck a Freight Train Near Kuttawa Today.

Engineer Devinney Slightly Hurt By Jumping to Save Himself—No One Else Hurt.

A CABOOSE AND CAR WERE BURNED

There was a passenger wreck on the Illinois Central at Kuttawa this morning shortly after 2 o'clock, but only one man was injured and he not seriously.

Passenger train No. 104, which arrives in Paducah at 1:20 a. m. struck the rear end of freight train No. 174, third section, both east bound, and one caboose and a freight car were burned and the passenger engine No. 204, damaged badly. The pilot of the engine was knocked off, the front end stove in and the headlight crashed. Engineer McCreary was sent out this morning on the wrecker to bring the disabled engine back to the local shops.

The freight train was composed of 80 cars and was going into a siding at the above named station when the passenger struck it. The fault of the wreck has not yet been settled.

The freight train was in charge of Conductor Burkam and Engineer Skera and the passenger in charge of Conductor Wheeler and Engineer Devinney, the latter being injured about the face in jumping from his engine when he saw the train ahead. It was reported that Mr. Owen Tully, a flagman, of Paducah, was injured but the report was unfounded. Engineer Devinney lives in Louisville but is now in the local hospital.

This is the first collision to occur on the Central City district for some time. The wrecker was sent out at 7:45 this morning, following the early accommodation train. Train No. 109 from Louisville to Memphis, was the only train into Paducah delayed by the accident.

It is understood that the freight train was on the other's time, as for some reason it failed to get off the main line.

Flagman Tully went back to flag the cannon ball, but didn't get far enough. The engineer of the passenger jumped about where the flagman was standing. About eight cars were telescoped, and the fireman, strange to say, remained on the engine and was not hurt.

Flagman Tully lost a gun and a pistol, two suits of clothing and forty dollars in the burning of the caboose.

Dr. John Bonds did not qualify as a member of the board of health when he was elected in December, and as a result some one will have to be elected in his place. He claims he elected in his place, and does not want it. The board of health seems to be a dead duck. It has not met in months, and it is claimed that there is no president, and no board, as it has never met for reorganization this year, as required by law.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your woes.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at

Frankfort is merely another Democratic

scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the naval and construction of the court of inquiry, and the

scholar work has been devoted to that

alone. It has cost the state more than

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and Historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The

session lasted but a few minutes, and

consequently no other business was

transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they

could not get a quorum to vote on the

resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on

record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general

assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified

and much more in keeping with the

true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business to

transact.

The lockup keeper question will

come up, and the mayor has signified

his intention of making the appointment tonight. The mayor will do

little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in

Garbage Dump Keoper Joe Wagner

from $30 and $30 per month to $35

the year around will be reported and

possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

will come up for discussion, and also

the matter of condemning several buildings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the

city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be

taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

and damaged his property.

THE MAYFIELD WOOLEN MILLS

WILL NOT BE ABSORBED.

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 20.—It has been rumored around the city and county

for several days that the May Pants company had absorbed the property of the Mayfield Woolen Mills at this place.

There has been talk between the parties on the subject, and Mr. J. D.

here several days ago to discuss the matter with the May people.

The stockholders of the May Pants

company met Saturday for the purpose of deciding whether or not they would buy the property. After quite a long consultation, it was decided that they would not buy, and the

AT LOVELACEVILLE

CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT

FROM SMALL POX THERE

There is much small pox in the vi-

city of Lovelaceville. The disease

made its first appearance about one week ago. The symptoms of the illness were described to the physicians, who then wrote out the prescriptions. The real nature of the disease was discovered a day or two

ago, but a further spread has been prevented. There are now five cases

near that place. There is little excitement over it.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least

one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and

that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's

Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mu-

cusous surfaces of the system, thereby

destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength

by building up the constitution and

assisting nature in doing its work.

The proprietors have so much faith in

its curative powers, that they offer

one hundred dollars for any case that

it fails to cure. Send for list of testi-

BANDAGES AND RED TAPE.

During the South African war Rud-

yard Kipling discovered, at Cape

Town, a hospital without bandages,

and in desperate need of them. This,

too, was in a city where bandages

were for sale in many shops.

He told an acquaintance that he was going to meet that want, and the

gentleman at once offered to pay for

all the bandages that Mr. Kipling

would buy and take to the hospital.

A cart was quickly loaded, and then

the author was informed that under

army rules the hospital authorities

could not receive supplies from a pri-

rate individual.

"Well," said he, "I will dump the

packages on the pavement before the door, and tell them to come out and

clear up the litter. Perhaps they can get them into the building in that way without tearing any red tape."

WILL BORE FOR OIL

A Company of Eight Organized in

Paducah to Operate in Wyoming.

They Have Purchased 1600 Acres of Government Land to Develop.

TO CAPITALIZE AT $2,500,000

A big oil company, with a capital

stock of $2,500,000 is to be organized

in Paducah within the next few days.

The object of the company is to develop oil and mining lands in the Big

Horn Basin, Wyoming. The money

has been raised for purchasing 1,600

acres of government land, at $1.50

per acre.

The gentlemen interested in the

deal and who will cash own an eighth

interest in the 1,600 acres, are:

Clerk W. A. Bishop of the Dick Fowl-

er, Clerk Dick Newhall of the Hop-

kins, Captain J. S. Tyner of the Butter, Captain J. A. Goodwin, Mr. S.

A. Fowler, Mr. Hunter Housh, J. R.

Robertson, second clerk on the Dick

Fowler and Stoke T. Payne.

There are three companies in that section of Wyoming now, preparing to operate, and the grade of oil is very

fine, being illuminating oil, worth

about ten times more than fuel oil.

It is probable that Mr. Payne will be sent to Wyoming shortly to look

after the local investors' interests,

and file articles of incorporation. In case oil is found, which is probable,

all the gentlemen will become

wealthy, and if not, they will be out

nothing, as the land itself is worth

what they paid for it.

It is expected that there will be a

big rush into the field this spring,

and this will cause the price of the land to go up. The new company will be incorporated under the laws of

South Dakota.

FORMER CONDUCTOR.

Al Crockett Has a Foot Cut Off at

Louisville.

His Foot Was Caught in a Frog and an

Engine Ran Over It.

The many friends here of Al Crockett, for years a passenger conductor on

the Illinois Central, will be pained to learn that he had his foot cut off in a frog by a switch engine at Louisville Saturday. He is in a critical condition, threatened with blood

poisoning.

Mr. Crockett had had no position

for the past two years, and was almost

a wreck. It is believed by many of his friends that he fully intended to commit suicide, but flickered at the last moment, as the engine bore down

on him.

He telephoned to headquarters of the Order of Railway Conductors a

short time before the accident, and

asked how his insurance stood, and

was told he had $3,000 paid up. He

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

Today's Chicago Record-Herald says: "The Illinois Central railroad will, within the course of a short while, have all the principal stations along its lines completely equipped with telephone wires for the use of officials and employees in transmitting orders and messages of the company."

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the arrival will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Louisville, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Riecke and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on him. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

On the ground, of Post A, Louisville, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt, from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so than that which swells the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteers, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally a couple of flames shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the excited captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolitan Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixtieth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by lancing some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years, and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, engineer, L. E. & W. B. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially to those who are usually similarly afflicted."

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details for the Two Weeks Stay.

PRINCE MAY MAKE FLYING TOUR

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the celebration of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the prince, as the special representative of the President. When the prince reaches Washington he will become the guest of the German ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be confided to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wyckelsky, the counselor and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Hingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he cannot start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the ruler.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill. Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield, the launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his representative, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capital when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will call for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure.

THE RIVER NEWS.

(By W. F. LAMBIN, Reporter.)

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 8.5, in last 24 hours a fall of 0.3. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 40. Poll, Observer.

Business rather quiet down on the wharf today.

The Clyde is due this evening from Tennessee river.

The Ohio is getting low, but there will be a rise soon.

The H. W. Butterfield left at noon today for Clarksville.

The W. W. O'Neil left New Orleans Friday for this city.

The John K. Speed is on her way up from New Orleans.

There is plenty of work at the Marine Ways, and dry docks.

The coal combine is loading 10,000 tons of steel rails at Bessemer for the South.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with nice business.

John Winfrey and "Vallendun" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and R. F. Estes, of Capito.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the extension business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Superintending Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever ran from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magenta, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charming, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natchez, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne.

Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was wharfed that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain, she was so christened. The rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouse, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. Mr. Schroeder is an employee of the Illinois Central, and is a highly respected and popular young man.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

Coasting stories to be connected with Modern literature.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinate to the modern literature which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it easier prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawn of the century will come back to the older assumption, re-inventing the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-fashionedness? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive is due to the shifted place of woman in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole recreation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-supporting work. Modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonesome hearth, sadly reminiscing, kitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

A Gun Manufacturer's Enterprise.

An hour after Colonel Roosevelt took the oath of office as president, one of the most famous gun manufacturers in the world had artists at work making a picture of his excellency standing on the pinnacle of Mount Marcy with a rifle at his shoulder aiming at a bull moose on the summit of Mt. Katahdin. The gun, of course, was the product of the alert manufacturer. Beneath the picture was the weapon with which President Roosevelt killed a moose a few minutes before receiving the news that he was president of the United States, etc. There is nothing historically correct in the "work of art," but it shows the purpose for which it was intended.—New York Press.

Newspapers Are Superstitious.
Like the Japanese, the Norwegians are very superstitious, and as in the forests, the mountains and gorges are peopled with fairies, so in the good fairy of the Norwegian looks after the cattle pastures, and if he is well treated they are healthy, and the cow gives lots of milk. To propitiate him it is necessary to put a dish of porridge on the threshold of the cow stable on Christmas morning. Whenever the family mares, this invisible being goes along with them, and sits on the top of the roof.
Bernard Chase a Preacher.
At Derby, Conn., the other day, a leading pastor ran madly through the village and disappeared in the woods. A swarm of hornets had nested in the clergyman's rural free delivery mail box. Two miles away the church was as and by the pastor plucked the reservoir.

NEW CONCERN
TO HALL WILL BE ESTABLISHED
AT VIOLA.

There is an effort being made, with prospects of success, to organize a stock company of $10,000 to build a roller, grist, saw and planing mills and general store at Viola, a flag station between Hickory and Bona.

IT IS A GO.
CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN
GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS
CENTRAL CON-
TRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and to Chicago today to have the contract signed up. He will purchase, before he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to every part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

TO PURCHASE MACHINERY.

FORMER MAYOR LANG TO ADD A LABORATORY TO HIS
DRUG STORE.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed on the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up.

"I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.

THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 900 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

GOOD ROADS LAW.

MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY
ASSOCIATION JANUARY 28.

The legislative committee of the Kentucky Good Roads Association will meet in Louisville Tuesday, January 28, for the purpose of formulating a good roads measure for presentation to the legislature. Letters have been sent to county judges in the state asking that any suggestions they may have to make with regard to the contemplated measure be sent to the committee at once. In addition, it is requested that any citizens who have suggestions to make also send them in.

FUNERAL OF THE
LATE MR. TOBE ROGERS

The funeral of the late Mr. Tob Rogers took place this afternoon from the family residence on West Broadway, services by Rev. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Thomas House, of the county. The Old Fellows were in charge and the burial was at Oak Grove. Many friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

FOR COMPULSORY
VACCINATION.

Wingo, Ky., Jan. 22.—The best citizens of this community have noted a petition to their representatives in the legislature for a compulsory vaccination law. The favours of smallpox have been severely felt here, and it is hoped that other communities will prepare similar petitions.

TRUE HAPPINESS
COLONEL LEMON TELL OF A
M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.

The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story: "We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.

A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO
AND WHISKY

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.

THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE
TO LAND AT BROOKPORT
TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.

CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY
SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

PROFILE FORWARDED

A plat of the 20,000 acres on which Paducah wants the army site located, with a communication setting forth our claims to the post, were forwarded last night by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club, to General Miles, at Washington, for the consideration of the army board that has the matter under advisement.

BAD FALL.

New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Fitzsimmons, the ex-champion heavy weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theatre in Brooklyn. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side, and it is feared his spine had been hurt.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.

New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. H. E. Holman of this city announced today that her daughter Josephine had asked William Maroon, the developer of wireless telegraphy, to release her from her engagement to marry him, and that Mr. Maroon had complied with her request.

HORSES AND

$500 FOR HENDERSON CHURCH.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The committee on war claims this morning reported favorably a bill for the settlement of the claim of the Christian church at Henderson, Ky., for rent during the Civil War. The original claim of $1,500 was reduced in $500.

MARRIAGE IN GRAVES

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 22.—Mr. John Ochoa and Miss Maud Williams were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. J. H. Roberts. Both of these young people are very popular with the people who knew them.

THE TRAMP DIED

Wm Woods, the tramp in the Illinois Central wreck near South Fork last week, died at a farm house nearby, where he had been taken for treatment. He was stealing a ride when mangled by the collision.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES

Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case. She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of
Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why," began the young woman, "is the stone here?"

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, mildly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.

Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

Eloquent Argument of Mr. Lodge

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held another consideration of the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines. As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

THE LEGISLATURE

McCREARY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected McCreary senator again. The Pittsford county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire.

Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHERS' CONTEST

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forester of this division of the secret service.

The Human Lottery

"Ah, if only I were beautiful how happy I would be."

Many a fortune teller has said this as he looked into the mirror. For beauty women have sacrificed home, love and friends. It is the one possession in the lottery of human life which women would not refuse.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

For young girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, fast and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, protracted periods and painful menses, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleaning. Bradfield's Female Regulator for women is particularly valuable and useful owing to its tonic properties to build up the system, and as a regulator of the menstrual flow. The mild, pleasant and agreeable medicinal properties of the Regulator are such that it can be taken by the most delicate and nervous. It is a perfect health-giver for women. It is true and will be so to all who use it. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns. Her gunner, however, was the first man killed. The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DEOLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

At press time the case of W. H. Robber against the I. C. railroad, for $20,000 damages, was on trial. The case will not be finished this afternoon.

COUNTY COURT

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

Georgia L. Fields of Fulton county, gives power of attorney to W. F. Paxton to do business in the city in her name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets.

G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $200, property on Jefferson street.

C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end.

Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,250, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his lively stable. The safe has been in the county judges' office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

Olas Johnson, a colored barber of Columbus, Ky., and Bessie E. Caldwell of the city were licensed to wed this afternoon. It will be the first marriage of the bride and the second of the groom.

POLICE COURT

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed. El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for presenting a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Davis, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case.

Janie Noas, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

W. O. T. U. MEETING

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 with Mrs. J. D. Smith at Jefferson and Ninth streets.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. The bank was broken into about 2 this morning, and the robbers scooped some of the residents in their escape. A deputy sheriff was notified, and got out in time to fight four of the robbers, ten shots being exchanged.

The robbers were routed, and bloodhounds are now on their trail.

The four robbers were captured four miles from town. They only secured $1147, it seems, as this was all recovered. They would not talk. The names they gave were probably fictitious.

THE ELKS JUBILEE SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Gradually the Plans Are Becoming Defined for the Week.

The New Public School Session Begins on Feb. 1st.

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CRUCIATION INCREASING DAILY

THE COUNTY SCHOOLS ARE CLOSING

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let.

The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

CENTRAL UNION

A Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Consider Caulkers Grievance.

Eight of Them Went on a Strike at the Dry Docks.

A meeting of Central Labor Union is called this evening for the purpose, it is understood, of hearing a grievance from eight ship caulkers who have been at work on the Paducah Dry Docks.

It is understood that the men claim their hours of work were cut down from ten to eight because of government work on hand, on which only eight hours' work a day is permitted. This cut them down sixty cents a day, and as it was no fault of theirs, and they want to work full time, they claim they should be paid for the full ten hours, or allowed to work that long and earn it.

Superintendent Young Taylor, however, states that the work he has contracted for on a basis of thirty-five cents an hour. If he pays them $3 a day for eight hours, he will be paying them 37 1/2 cents an hour, instead of 30, and will be losing 7 1/2 cents on every hour they work, which he alleges he cannot stand. His claim is no more to blame for the restriction to eight hours a day when they formerly worked ten, than they, and will not pay for something he hasn't getting. Superintendent Taylor says that if the men do not desire to return to work at the present rate, $2.40 for eight hours, he will get new men.

SURVEYOR OF CUSTOMS PURYEAR TO KEEP HIS POSITION.

Washington, Jan. 22.—It was settled today that Surveyor of Customs J. H. Paryear, of Paducah, is to be reappointed.

GOES TO MARDI GRAS

CAPTAIN ED FARLEY WILL BE A GUEST ON THE ISLAND QUEEN.

Captain Ed Farley of Mechanicsburg will leave on the Island Queen when she goes south this week for New Orleans, where he will visit and attend Mardi Gras. On the handsome steamer he will be the guest of Captain Brooks, and he expects to be absent several weeks in the Crescent City.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being. The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your voice.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at

Frankfort is merely another Democratic

scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the naval and construction of the court of inquiry, and the

scholar work has been devoted to this alone. It has cost the state more than

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and Historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The

session lasted but a few minutes, and

consequently no other business was

transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they

could not get a quorum to vote on the

resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on

record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general

assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified

and much more in keeping with the

true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business

to transact.

The lockup keeper question will

come up, and the mayor has signified

his intention of making the appointment tonight. The mayor will do

little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in

Garbage Dump Keoper Joe Wagner

from $30 and $20 per month to $35

the year around will be reported and

possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

will come up for discussion, and also

the matter of condemning several buildings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the

city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be

taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

and damaged his property.

DEAL IS OFF

THE MAYFIELD WOOLEN MILLS

WILL NOT BE ABSORBED.

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 20.—It has been rumored around the city and county

for several days that the May Pants

company had absorbed the property of the Mayfield Woolen Mills at this place.

There has been talk between the parties on the subject, and Mr. J. D.

Simpson of the Woolen Mills came here several days ago to discuss the

matter with the May people.

The stockholders of the May Pants

company met Saturday for the purpose of deciding whether or not they would buy the property. After quite

a long consultation, it was decided that they would not buy, and the negotiations were declared off.

While this is the case, there is some talk of some of our local capitalists organizing a company to buy it.

AT LOVELACEVILLE

CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT

FROM SMALL POX THERE

There is much small pox in the vicinity of Lovelaceville. The disease made its first appearance about one week ago. The symptoms of the illness were described to the physicians, who then wrote out the prescriptions. The real nature of the disease was discovered a day or two ago, but a further spread has been prevented. There are now five cases near that place. There is little excitement over it.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least

one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and

that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's

Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mu-

cusous surfaces of the system, thereby

destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength

by building up the constitution and

assisting nature in doing its work.

The proprietors have so much faith in

its curative powers, that they offer

one hundred dollars for any case that

it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY &

BANDAGES AND RED TAPE.

During the South African war Rud-

yard Kipling discovered, at Cape

Town, a hospital without bandages,

and in desperate need of them. This,

too, was in a city where bandages

were for sale in many shops.

He told an acquaintance that he was going to meet that want, and the

gentleman at once offered to pay for

all the bandages that Mr. Kipling

would buy and take to the hospital.

A cart was quickly loaded, and then

the author was informed that under

army rules the hospital authorities

could not receive supplies from a private individual.

"Well," said he, "I will dump the

packages on the pavement before the door, and tell them to come out and

clear up the litter. Perhaps they can get them into the building in that way without tearing any red

tape."

He drove off with the bandages,

and the supplies were somehow smuggled into the hospital.

CARNEGIE RENEWS OFFER.

Louisville, Jan. 20.—Mayor Grainger received a letter from Andrew Carnegie's private secretary in which Mr.

Carnegie offered to give Louisville

$250,000 for a public library, providing the city will contribute $25,000 annually for its support and offer a suitable site. The letter was in answer to a communication addressed to

Mr. Carnegie by Mayor Grainger, wherein the latter stated that he had taken steps to secure authority to tax the city for the support of a library.

Mr. Carnegie made the city a similar offer some time ago, but it was not accepted.

WILL BORE FOR OIL

A Company of Eight Organized in
Paducah to Operate in Wyoming.

They Have Purchased 1600 Acres of Government Land to Develop.

TO CAPITALIZE AT $2,500,000

A big oil company, with a capital
stock of $2,500,000 is to be organized
in Paducah within the next few days.
The object of the company is to develop oil and mining lands in the Big Horn Basin, Wyoming. The money
has been raised for purchasing 1,600 acres of government land, at $1.50 an acre. The gentlemen interested in the deal and who will cash own an eighth interest in the 1,600 acres, are: Clerk

W. A. Bishop of the Dick Fowler, Clerk Dick Newhall of the Hopkins, Captain J. S. Tyner of the But-tort, Captain J. A. Goodwin, Mr. S.
A. Fowler, Mr. Hunter Housh, J. R.
Robertson, second clerk on the Dick
Fowler and Stoke T. Payne.

There are three companies in that section of Wyoming now, preparing to operate, and the grade of oil is very fine, being illuminating oil, worth
about ten times more than fuel oil.

It is probable that Mr. Payne will be sent to Wyoming shortly to look after the local investors' interests,
and file articles of incorporation. In case oil is found, which is probable,
all the gentlemen will become
wealthy, and if not, they will be out
nothing, as the land itself is worth
what they paid for it.

It is expected that there will be a
big rush into the field this spring,
and this will cause the price of the land to go up. The new company will be incorporated under the laws of
South Dakota.

FORMER CONDUCTOR.

Al Crockett Has a Foot Cut Off at

Louisville.

His Foot Was Caught in a Frog and an

Engine Ran Over It.

The many friends here of Al Crockett, for years a passenger conductor on

the Illinois Central, will be pained to learn that he had his foot cut off in a frog by a switch engine at Louisville Saturday. He is in a critical condition, threatened with blood

poisoning.

Mr. Crockett had had no position

for the past two years, and was almost

a wreck. It is believed by many of his friends that he fully intended to commit suicide, but flickered at the last moment, as the engine bore down

on him.

He telephoned to headquarters of the Order of Railway Conductors a

short time before the accident, and

asked how his insurance stood, and

was told he had $3,000 paid up. He would get $3,000 for the loss of his foot, should he recover.

It is said he attempted to get his foot out from the frog, but was not quick enough, and had to lean over and allow the engine to cut off his foot. He is known from Louisville to Memphis.

REPAIR INCLINE

IT WILL HAVE TO BE WORKED

ON BY A DIVER.

Diver Charles Hill of Cairo arrived in the city last night and will begin work on the I. O. C. incline on this side of the Ohio.

Since the orrille was washed away

some few weeks ago, it has been out of repair, and will have to be straightened out. The wrecking crew, in replacing the orrille on the tracks threw it out of line, and the diver will have to go down and superintend the work of lining it up again.

The defect will have no bearing on the running of the trains or the landing of the transfer steamer.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

Mr. George T. Houser of Chicago, who is in the city in the interest of the State Y. M. C. A. convention, spoke to the men at the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon on the "Standard of Manhood in Kentucky." The address was well attended, and was highly appreciated.

Mr. Houser spoke at the church at that night service also.

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

Today's Chicago Record-Herald says: "The Illinois Central railroad will, within the course of a short while, have all the principal stations along its lines completely equipped with telephone wires for the use of officials and employees in transmitting orders and messages of the company."

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the arrival will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Louisville, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Ricks and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on him. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

On the ground, of Post A, Louisville, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt, from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so than that which swells the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteers, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally a couple of flames shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the excited captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolitan Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixtieth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by lancing some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years, and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

ASKED FOR AN ORGAN

Andrew Carnegie, the noted philanthropist, has been asked by a member of the local First Presbyterian church, for a new organ. Some time ago it is said, Mr. Carnegie announced that he would give to every First Presbyterian church out of debt an organ. The local First Presbyterian church is out of debt and the lady notifying the announcement wrote him and a reply is soon expected.

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details for the Two Weeks Stay.

PRINCE MAY MAKE FLYING TOUR

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the celebration of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the prince, as the special representative of the President. When the prince reaches Washington he will become the guest of the German ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be confided to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wyckelsky, the counselor and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Hingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he cannot start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the ruler.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill, Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield. The launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his representative, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capital when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will call for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure.

THE RIVER NEWS.

(By W. F. LAMBIN, Reporter.)

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 8.5, in last 24 hours a fall of 0.3. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 40. Poll, Observer.

Business rather quiet down on the wharf today.

The Clyde is due this evening from Tennessee river.

The Ohio is getting low, but there will be a rise soon.

The H. W. Butterfield left at noon today for Clarksville.

The W. W. O'Neil left New Orleans Friday for this city.

The John K. Speed is on her way up from New Orleans.

There is plenty of work at the Marine Ways, and dry docks.

The coal combine is loading 10,000 tons of steel rails at Bessemer for the South.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with nice business.

John Winfrey and "Vallendun" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and R. F. Estes, of Caplo.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the extension business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Superintending Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever ran from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magenta, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charming, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natchez, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne. Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was wharfed that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain, she was so christened. The rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouse, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. Kraus' office, at the city hall, and is a young lady esteemed by all who know her for her many excellent qualities, and one of charming personality. Mr. Schroeder is an employee of the Illinois Central, and is a highly respected and popular young man.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

Coasting stories to be connected with Modern literature.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinate to the modern literature which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it easier prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawning century will come back to the older assumption, reinstating the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-time greenness? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive is due to the shifted place of woman in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole recreation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-support. Modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonesome hearth, sadly reminiscing, kitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

A Gun Manufacturer's Enterprise.

An hour after Colonel Roosevelt took the oath of office as president, one of the most famous gun manufacturers in the world had artists at work making a picture of his excellency standing on the pinnacle of Mount Marcy with a rifle at his shoulder aiming at a bull moose on the summit of Mt. Katahdin. The gun, of course, was the product of the alert manufacturer. Beneath the picture was the weapon with which President Roosevelt killed a moose a few minutes before receiving the news that he was president of the United States, etc. There is nothing historically correct in the "work of art," but it shows the purpose for which it was intended.—New York Press.

MAGNIFICENT IMPERIAL GIFT.

Work of Art to Be Presented by Kaiser Wilhelm to King Edward.

Herr Otto Roloff, teacher at the Arts and Crafts school here, has executed a magnificent centerpiece epergne at the express desire and after the design of the emperor, who intends it as a gift to King Edward. In the center is an enormous silver gilt bottle-shaped centerpiece, one meter in height, with a diameter of twenty centimeters, made after the model of the famous epergne of King Frederick the First in the royal palace. Around the centerpiece between chased laurel wreaths, runs a circle with the inscription in English: "Emperor William II. to King Edward VII." On both sides of the circle are heads of lions, with rings in their jaws to serve as handles. The base of the centerpiece is beautifully decorated with chased and embossed work, representing scythian and laurel leaves and festoons, as is also the stopper of the decanter, which represents the king's crown. The centerpiece stands upon a wooden socle adorned with silver gilt rosettes. The entire piece lies between a curious arrangement of corbels shaped grotesquely with embossed floral ornamentation. Each corbel is of gilded bronze differently cut and ornamented. In the center of each corbel is a cartouche, upon which are alternately engraved the monogram and arms of King Edward, over which is the royal crown. It is stated that since the eighteenth century no such exquisite and artistic workmanship has been seen in Berlin.—Berlin Correspondence London Times.

May Lose Collections.

Several important scientific institutions in the East are in danger of losing valuable collections confiscated by the government. So intimates S. J. Holinger, a special agent of the Interior Department, who has technical possession of all the Indian ruins in Arizona and New Mexico, which, with their relics, he holds for the government. Valuable collections of pottery and other relics from these reservations have been secured by several museums, sometimes through unauthorized parties. Mr. Holinger says, and he has made a report of this character to the government.

Definition of "Ghetto."

Mr. J. Zangwill has written the following letter as to the derivation of the word "ghetto": "I don't think any quite convincing etymology of 'ghetto' has been advanced, though the most likely connection is with the 'ghetto' or iron country, that is the quarter of Venice to which the Jews were assigned in 1516. As this was the first compulsory Jewish quarter in Italy the others were called by the same name. Possibly it may come from 'geto,' a bulid. That 'ghetto' means to purify gold and silver has also been suggested. But these two suggestions come to me only as I write."

Knowledge Are Superstitions.

Like the Japanese, the Norwegians are very superstitious, and as in the forests, the mountains and gorges are peopled with fairies, so in the good fairy of the Norwegian looks after the cattle pastures, and if he is well treated they are healthy, and the cow gives lots of milk. To propitiate him it is necessary to put a dish of porridge on the threshold of the cow stable on Christmas morning. Whenever the family moves, this invisible being goes along with them, and sits on the top of the roof.

NEW CONCERN

TO HALL WILL BE ESTABLISHED AT VIOLA.

There is an effort being made, with prospects of success, to organize a stock company of $10,000 to build a roller, grist, saw and planing mills and general store at Viola, a flag station between Hickory and Bona.

The stock has about all been subscribed, and Mr. Bird Wurford, who is the chief promoter, says there is hardly any doubt of its success.

If this scheme goes, business will be on a new life at Viola.

IT IS A GO.

CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS CENTRAL CONTRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and today he signed it. He will purchase the land he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to work part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

FORMER MAYOR LANG TO ADD A LABORATORY TO HIS DRUG STORE.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed on the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up.

"I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.

THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 900 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

In addition, it is requested that any citizens who have suggestions to make also send them in.

TRUE HAPPINESS.

COLONEL LEMON TELLS OF A M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.

The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story:

"We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.

A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO AND WHISKY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.

THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE TO LAND AT BROOKPORT TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.

CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty-three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES.

Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case.

She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of
Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why—began the young woman—

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, humbly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.

Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.

SETTLEMENT IS MADE BY COUNTY WITH MR. SMEDLEY

County Attorney Alben Barkley Acts For Fiscal Court With Company.

Two More Concrete Bridges Will be Erected.

COST WILL BE ABOUT $24,000

County Attorney Alben Barkley was authorized yesterday afternoon by the county court to make a settlement with the Title Guaranty and Surety company, of Scranton, Pa., for $1,582.50, which was found due to the county by Hiram Smedley while he was county clerk. After scrutinizing the delinquent tax books it was found that Smedley was short funds of the county to the extent of about $1,600, but Smedley was allowed his five per cent commission for collecting the money.

Ell G. Roone, county court clerk, who also is agent for the company, will recommend to the officers that the sum be paid, and it is expected that the settlement with the county will be made in a few days with County Attorney Alben Barkley, who will be allowed 20 per cent for making the settlement.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot presided over the meeting, while the following were present: Magistrates Welch, Knott, Brooks, Thompson, Gholson and Broadfoot.

The original suit for the settlement was filed by W. M. Husbands, state revenue agent for the county, but it was contended that Husbands had no right to sue for the county, and the fiscal court took it upon its own hands.

Concrete Bridges.

Two concrete bridges, one over Clark's river on the Henton road and the second over Perkin's creek on the Cairo road, have been recommended by the county road committee, and the recommendation is expected to be acted on favorably by the fiscal court, which will meet next April. The committee is composed of the magistrates of the county, and they include half the members of the fiscal court, so there is little doubt of the erection of the bridges.

County Road Supervisor Bert Johnson, with Magistrates C. I. Knott, Saunders Brooks, John Thompson and F. F. Gholson, yesterday afternoon visited the site of the proposed bridges, and made some measurements. The bridge over Clark's river will be 420 feet long, and probably five spans will be used in making the bridge. The present bridge is not in the best of condition, while the bridge over Perkin's creek will be 90 feet in length. The iron bridge is 120 feet in length, but the officials have decided to fill in the banks and make the bridge shorter.

County Road Supervisor Johnson is anxious to begin the work and will begin the work of preparing plans at once. Roughly it is estimated that the two concrete bridges will cost about $24,000, and will take about three months to complete the structures.

McCracken county has several concrete bridges over creeks crossed by the county roads, and they have given satisfaction. The bridge over Clark's river will be the longest in the county, but when completed will be much more substantial than the present iron bridge.

County Property Values.

Final and complete figures on the recapitulation of the real estate and property in McCracken county show a decrease of $524,198 over last year. The decrease was slightly more than was estimated about 10 days ago, before the assessment of the bank stock was received. The assessment of all property in the county is given at $11,588,461, while the bank stock is $851,200, making a total of $12,439,661. Last year the recapitulation was $12,071,735, while the bank stock was $891,114, making a total of $12,962,849.

The complete figures were completed today by J. H. Wilcox and Walter Smedley, who did the work of copying and recapitulating the figures in the short time of ten days.

Police Baffled

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Agnes Barrett, accused by Ella Gingles as the person who assaulted her and took her to the Wellington hotel, where she was left tied to a bath tub, will be brought face to face with her accuser this afternoon. The police are baffled by the mystery. They are unable to make the details of the stories told by those connected with the case agree.

Tennessee and Kentucky Lumber Dealers Meet in Convention Here ---Hoo-Hoo Concatenation Tonight

Hark! Hark!
The dogs do bark;
The Hoo-Hoo have come
to town!
Some with tales;
All with tails.
There'll be a concatenation.

Nearly all the hotels are filled with members of the West Tennessee and Kentucky Retail Lumber Dealers' association, which began its annual session in K. C. half this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Earl Palmer delivered the address of welcome, to which Mr. John W. Bransford, of Union City, Tenn., responded.

President W. K. Hall, of Fulton, then delivered his annual address.

Most of the afternoon is being consumed with routine work of organizing the convention.

Tonight there will be a concatenation of the Hoo-Hoos under the direction of Mr. John K. Ferguson, vice-president.

This will be followed by a banquet.

Tomorrow's Program.

The program for tomorrow, commencing at 10 o'clock, is:

Address on Association Work—Mr. H. C. Seacree, Mooreville, Ind., secretary of Indiana Retail Lumbermen's association.

Discussion of the "Code of Ethics"—Led by Mr. C. H. Sherrill, Paducah, Ky.

How to Increase Our Membership—Discussed by Mr. L. A. Ward, Obion, Tenn.

Discussion of Lien Laws of Tennessee and Kentucky—Led by Mr. H. C. Cannady, Mayfield, Ky., and Mr. W. E. Elie, Jackson, Tenn.

The Mail Order Question—Led by Mr. J. W. Henry, Clinton, Ky.

What it Costs Retailers to Handle Stock—By Mr. R. E. Montgomery, Memphis, Tenn.

How to Boost Our Meetings—Address by Capt. Drexel, Union City, Tenn.

Discussion of Credits and Collections—Led by Mr. W. L. Patrick, Milan, Tenn.

General Discussion of Association Topics—Conducted by President W. K. Hall.

Address of Welcome.

In his address of welcome, Mr. Palmer said:

One year ago it was my privilege and pleasure to welcome the members of this association to our city, and I trust that my remarks at that time were not lacking in sincere expressions of genuine hospitality. I now, however, frankly admit, that the welcome then extended by me did not partake of the degree of spontaneous heartiness with which I desire to invest my remarks today.

The reasons for this contrast in the sentiment existing at the opening of your former meeting and the feeling which I am now endeavoring to express to you, is obvious. One year ago I was called upon to address a gathering largely composed of strangers. We then accepted you as guests of quality, because you came well recommended and because you were our brothers in trade. We took you on faith; and, after associating with you during the period of your meeting, we were prepared to assert that our faith had been amply justified. You were weighed in the critical balance of our esteem and no man was found wanting; we tested the temper of your metal and found it to ring true. Therefore, today we do not extend to you the chilly welcome, reserved for respectable strangers, but we accord to you the greeting due from one old friend to another, whether respectable or not respectable. We not only extend our hands to you in cordial welcome, but we open our hearts to you in full fellowship as well; only asking in return, that you reciprocate in kind.

In One Year.

One year has passed since your former visit and, while the time has seemed short, not many of us would care to live over again those last twelve months. In many ways they were not good months; they brought little of material prosperity to any of us. But the signs now are better. We are making progress toward more prosperous conditions and upon more dependable lines. The era of widespread lawlessness in our states of Kentucky and Tennessee, which for the past two years has cast its blighting shadow across the pathway of industrial and commercial prosperity in these states, is coming to an end. For a time, it seemed that justice was dead as well as blind; and that law had departed from our boundaries. But justice was not dead. She heard the cry of an outraged people. The majesty of the law has been re-established in our commonwealth; and under the protection of its strong arm, our people may again plant in peace and harvest with the certain assurance that the torch will no longer deprive them of the fruits of their labors. The hand of the midnight assassin is stayed. For this, thanks to Justice, and yet, not wholly to her, but in part, also, to those servants who courageously minister at her altars.

We have also progressed upon more general lines. The conscience of the entire nation is awakening. The political trickster, together with the man given to sharp practice in business dealing, no longer has a place in the affairs of public or private life. Ethical questions are receiving quite as much consideration at the hands of our business men, as we were at times in the past, wont to bestow upon purely commercial questions.

Code of Ethics.

I note on the program prepared for this meeting, a discussion on the Code of Ethics. No such a subject was ever considered at a lumber convention.

Capital Punishment Stands.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 19.—By a vote of 56 to 24 the house voted down the Harper bill for the abolition of capital punishment.

Mayor Can't Call One Board of the General Council.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—In a decision in a Newport case today, the court of appeals decided that the mayor of a city can not call an extra session of one board of the general council, but must call both boards on the same night.

New City Treasurer.

J. J. Dorias turned over the office of city treasurer to G. W. Walters this morning. Chairman Ernest Lackey, of the finance committee of the general council, at the request of Mr. Dorias, was present. The formalities were simple. Treasurer Walters announced that he will not have a deputy.

RIVERMEN ASK PRESIDENT TO INCLUDE RIVER AND HARBORS BILL IN HIS CALL

Rivermen are seeking to induce President-elect Taft to embody in his call for a special session of congress a river and harbors bill. The following resolutions have been adopted by the Commercial club of Paducah and copies of it forwarded to the Kentucky congressmen and senators:

"Whereas, The systematic improvement of our internal waterways is one of the most important subjects now before congress, from consideration of national defense; and

"Whereas, The maximum development of American manufactures and commerce requires the utilization of the most economic and efficient means of freight transportation; and

"Whereas, Much relief can be had by improved waterways; and

"Whereas, The incoming administration declared in its platform adopted at Chicago for the immediate improvement of inland waterways and harbors;

"Therefore be it Resolved, That the Commercial club of Paducah urges upon congress the necessity of regular appropriations of not less than $50,000,000 per annum for inland waterway improvements; these appropriations to be applied in such manner as to permit of progressive, continuous and permanent work being done upon such projects as may be deemed necessary for the proper development of the transportation interests of the country by water; and

"Resolved, That congress be urged in the call and message of the president to enact, at the special session, beginning March next, competent legislation by the passage of a liberal rivers and harbors bill commensurate with the needs of the nation, to the end that the work on our great waterway improvements may be advanced and the pledges to the country fulfilled."

INTERURBAN MAY BE FINANCED BY EASTERN CONCERN

The Commercial Club Receives Communications Concerning Project.

Engine Company is Seeking Location Here.

A FAIRHOOD IS DENOUNCED

Mr. Saunders Fowler, secretary of the Commercial club, is in receipt of two letters with reference to the proposed interurban from here to Mayfield. One is from W. E. Alton, of Milburn, and the other from the National Trust company, of Washington.

The trust company states that the matter is under consideration and that the company will fully investigate the proposition, with the view to financing it. Mr. Alton writes to interest Paducah business men in the enterprise. The proposed route of the line is through Bardwell, Wickliffe, Milburn, Fancy Farm, Arlington, Mayfield, Folsomdale and Oakton, making a total line which would connect Paducah with all of these important towns. Mr. Alton proposes to join his work with that of the proposed road from here to Mayfield and Hickman and has hopes of putting it through in the near future.

Mr. Fowler is receiving quite a number of letters from concerned seeking location, one of which is from a big gas engine concern in an Illinois town that desires a new location. This company would employ about 100 men at the start. It wrote first in December and is still corresponding with the club.

In justice to the club the statement is made that this letter of inquiry has been the basis of a story that is being circulated to the injury of the organization and some of its members, to the effect that the interested men in the company were here seeking a location some weeks ago, and found a desirable one, but that some directors of the club obtained an option on the site and when the terms of its sale were broached the price was raised to a prohibitive figure. This story, as usual, is false, as the records of the club will show.

Small Residence Burns On The North Side Today.

The roof of a house occupied by Robert Bartlett, colored, 1026 North Eleventh street, burned off this morning about 1 o'clock by a fire of unknown origin. No one was at home, and the fire gained a good hold before it was discovered. The house is owned by Armour Gardner, and was damaged about $250. Hose company No. 3, and truck company No. 4, answered the alarm. Last night a telephone message was received that there was a fire at Ninth and Monroe streets, but the firemen failed to find any fire or any person that gave the alarm. Hose companies Nos. 1 and 3, and truck company No. 4 answered the false alarm.

Seeks Pardon For W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 19.—Caleb Powers and Dr. Finley, of Barbourville, arrived this morning to ask Governor Willson to pardon W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley, charged with the Goebel murder.

Police Disrevelve Story Told By Drugged Woman.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—After investigating all day the case of Miss Ella Gingles, who on Wednesday was found bound hand and foot in the general bathroom in the Wellington hotel, the police declare they are convinced that the girl's story of having been kidnapped, drugged and ill treated is untrue. Miss Gingles, however, insists that the story is true.

Money For Mayfield.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The civil sundry appropriation bill reported to the house today, despite the message of the president, contains a recommendation for this restriction of the secret service to investigations of counterfeiting and protection of the president. The bill provides for the erection of a brand office building for the Indian department at Washington and an appropriation for the Panama canal of $33,000,000.

The sundry civil bill carries $15,000 for the public building at Mayfield.

Russian Revolutionists Abandon Their Terrorist Campaign When They Discover Spy in Their Mids

Chicago Refugees' Association Says Fight Will Continue Until Appeal to Arms or to Reason.

Revolution Continues.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—The political Refugees' Defense league, with headquarters here, has received notice of the announcement of the abandonment of the Russian revolution. It declares only the Terrorist movement will go on and finally be fought by armed force or by education of the people. It says the Terrorist movement is dropped because of the recent discovery that Axel, leader of the "Reds," is a Russian government agent, using the Terrorist committee to rid the country of the czar's enemies.

English Commons Votes Two to One Against Tariff.

London, Feb. 19.—The house of commons today defeated Austin Chamberlain's motion favoring the abandonment of free trade. The vote stood more than two to one.

Austria's Ultimatum.

London, Feb. 19.—Details of the note recently sent by Austria to Belgrade is made known today. It says that unless Serbia disarms by February 27, Austria will rush a big army across the frontier. Diplomats say if Austria lives up to the terms of the note actual fighting will begin in a fortnight.

Steel Trust Meeting.

New York, Feb. 19.—Representatives of the United States steel corporation at a meeting today decided not to give out anything until the stock market closes. It is reported it will make the steel market open, allowing each company to fix its own prices until differences are adjusted.

Cooper Defense Would Prove Why Rob Cooper Shot.

Nashville, Feb. 19.—The defense in the case of Colonel Duncan Cooper took advantage of today's interim in the proceedings to meet new features that developed late yesterday. The defense is still guarding names of witnesses to be summoned. It is believed, however, the defense will endeavor to show that Robin Cooper believed his father was in danger and the shots fired therefore were justifiable. It is believed it will endeavor to show that Sharp had no connection with the case. The impression prevails that the state through the 29 witnesses examined has made a strong showing.

State Treasurer Here.

State Treasurer Ed Farley arrived here from Frankfort last night. He is attending to some private business here. Since Sunday and a national holiday come together, he probably will remain here until Monday. Captain Farley said this year will be as difficult, if not more difficult, than last year, making both ends meet, with no provisions to meet extraordinary appropriations. At the present time general warrants are being held up. "It is an unpleasant task," said Captain Farley, "but we have only so much money to meet obligations with and we cannot pay money until we get it."

West Kentucky Shipyards Will Be Located Here.

The final arrangements which will assure Paducah the location of the ship yards the West Kentucky Coal company will erect to construct the 500 coal barges the company proposes to build probably will be consummated today. Captain Ed Farley is here from Frankfort. There are some minor points in the lease yet to be adjusted before it is a certainty. The Commercial club has raised the money for the ground rentals, $800 a year.

James Breathitt May Be Induced To Run For Judge.

Law and Order Folks Despair of Christian Getting Anyone Else.

John Goodloe Seeks Damages For False Imprisonment.

Technical Point Involved.

Murray, Ky., Feb. 19. (Special.)—That Attorney General James B. Breathitt will be in the race for circuit judge in the Third judicial district at the coming regular election is the general belief here among law and order advocates, regardless of previous political affiliations. The many different moves that are being made by politicians at Hopkinsville to get out a Democratic candidate that would be acceptable to the law and order adherents of the district have so far been unavailing and it is not now believed that such a man can be found other than Judge Breathitt who, it is conceded, would win the race, should he decide to enter it. A strong demand is going out of the judicial district from Democrats and Republicans alike for Judge Breathitt to enter the race, and those who know the man are of the belief that he will yield to the pressure even at the sacrifice of his present position.

Goodloe Seeks Damages.

That his character and general reputation has been damaged to the extent of $5,000 by reason of his being held a prisoner in the county jail for 30 days is alleged by John Goodloe, the negro steamboat routeabout, who was recently dismissed of a charge of barn burning. Goodloe was rearrested on a capias issued to satisfy an old fine of $25 and is now serving the jail sentence in lieu of paying it. The whole contention of the plaintiff, who is represented by Attorneys Arees & Speight, is that a magistrate is compelled to give notice to a defendant before his court as to the time and date for which his trial is set, providing a continuance is granted in the case. The theory of the defense is that the defendant must inform himself as to the orders made in his case. The first trial in the case in which the defendant was fined, was set for the 28th day of November, 1907. That being Thanksgiving day the case was continued. The defendant was not present when the order was made and did not appear at the trial on the day fixed. He was fined and a capias issued, which was not served until one year later, when Goodloe was released of the barn burning charge and the officers wanted to hold him to await further developments. Magistrate R. R. Lassiter, County Attorney N. B. Barnett, Constable Calvin Stubblefield and their bondsmen are defendants in the action.

Calloway Clerks O. K.

The county and circuit clerks' offices were checked up by Charles E. Province and an associate from the auditor's office at Frankfort Thursday. These gentlemen are visiting every county seat in the state and the fact that large amounts of back taxes, etc., due the state are now being paid into the treasury by delinquent officers is largely due to their efforts. They made no comments as to the condition in which they found the offices in Calloway county. Most of the records in the circuit clerk's office burned in the court house fire and little time was consumed in going through this office. No discrepancies were found in either office.

Lodges May Build.

The Masonic and Odd Fellows fraternities are formulating plans for the erection of a $15,000 office and lodge building in Murray. The members of the Woodmen lodge are also considering the question of erecting a building to cost about $10,000.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Abraham Lincoln's head is to appear on the new one-cent pieces which will appear in about a month. President Roosevelt approved the plan.

HIS HORSE DROWNED.

The finding of the horse of P. G. Childress, a farmer of Lamont, drowned in a creek this morning about two miles southwest of Maxon Mills, gave rise to the report that he had been drowned. The horse and buggy were found in the creek by school children, and the creek was searched for Childress, but Childress was located at home. He was in Paducah last night and on route home stopped at a store in Maxon Mills. His horse, which was blind, ran off and ran into the ditch. Childress returned home with a neighbor.

QUARANTINE MAY BE RAISED FIRST OF WEEK ON CAIRO

Dr. Horace Rivers, representing the county board of health, spent yesterday in Cairo inspecting the situation. Dr. H. P. Sights also held a telephone conversation with Dr. Carey, of Cairo. Both were informed that Cairo now has 52 cases of smallpox, all quarantined. It is probable that, if nothing new develops in the situation by Monday, the quarantine will be raised then.

NASAL CATARRH.

Gilbert's Drug Store Sells the Great Remedy that Cured Mrs. Karberg.

Here is a very simple yet wholly sincere statement of a Michigan woman, who was cured by using Hyoniel—the no cure no pay remedy for catarrh, asthma, hay fever, croup, coughs and colds.

"A bad case of catarrh was cured for me by the use of Hyoniel. The trouble affected my head, nose and eyes, and was very annoying and disagreeable, and the cure, from the use of Hyoniel, was very gratifying. Hyoniel has from me a strong recommendation and endorsement."—Mrs. E. Karberg, 213 Kingsley St., Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16, 1908.

Thousands of just such letters are in existence, and thousands more would be but for the desire to avoid publicity.

If you have catarrh, hoarse, sore throat, and drive it out of your system. Kill the germs. You can do that easily if you use Hyoniel (pronounced, High-o-mel).

It is a dry, antiseptic, and very pleasant air, that when inhaled, quickly relieves all forms of catarrhal inflammation, stops sneezing, hacking and blowing. The price for a complete outfit, including inhaler, is only $1.00 at Gilbert's Drug Store.

ALDERMEN ACCEPT BOND OF WALTERS

Accounts Allowed and New Ordinance Ordered.

Mr. Dorlan Says He Will Turn Over Office to the New Treasurer This Morning.

ROUTINE BUSINESS OF BOARD

After the bond of G. W. Walters as city treasurer was accepted last night by the board of aldermen, which action the board of councilmen had already taken, J. J. Dorlan (thanked the members for past courtesies and announced that he would relinquish the office to his successor this morning.

Walters announced that the city would lose no interest by the transfer of funds, and in a speech defended his attempt to assume official functions before the council had decided the contest, by saying he was under obligation to no bank, and by threatening his critics.

After the bond furnished by Walters had been accepted, Mr. Dorlan submitted his report as city treasurer to date, showing a balance on deposit of $115.08. Mr. Dorlan informed the board that all the money entrusted to him belonging to the city would be turned over to Mr. Walters Friday morning, just as soon as the bank certificate could be secured to verify the report, and he asked that the board appoint the chairman of the finance committee to go over the report with the bank certificate. Alderman Potter moved that the chairman of the finance committee or some other member of the committee be appointed. Alderman Potter then asked if the sinking fund was included in the money to be turned over to Mr. Walters. Mr. Walters said that the city treasurer was the sole custodian of every dollar belonging to the city and that he expected to be the custodian of the sinking fund of the city of Paducah.

Attorney Hal Corbett was heard on behalf of Mr. Walters. When D. A. Yelzer was mayor bids were received from the local banks for the purpose of finding out which bank would pay the highest interest for the deposit of the sinking fund and the money was deposited in the bank paying the highest interest, and the money to Mr. Dorlan's understanding was in charge of the sinking fund commission, which is composed of the president of the boards of the general council and the mayor, and for that reason Mr. Dorlan had said nothing about turning over the sinking fund. Mr. Dorlan thanked the board for the many courtesies extended him by the board. He said one side must win and since Mr. Walters won, that he had the kindest and most friendly feeling toward the winner and every one of the board.

Alderman Lackey moved that the sinking fund commission meet with the city solicitor Friday morning and find out what should be done, but the motion had no second. The city solicitor informed the board that the sinking fund is on deposit in the name of Mayor James P. Smith and the best way out of it was to instruct the mayor to draw the money out and pay it over to the city treasurer. Alderman Lackey moved and Alderman Potter seconded the motion, that the mayor be instructed to draw the sinking fund from the Citizens' Savings bank and turn it over to the city treasurer. Alderman Durrett expressed himself as believing that the board had nothing to do with the changing of the sinking fund.

On motion of Alderman Stewart all the motions before the board were tabled.

Other Business.
The action of the lower board in referring CHET Wood's request to purchase 4,000 feet of hose and two horse collars was concurred in.

The joint finance committee recommended the allowance and payment of $2,382.73 and the aldermen allowed the accounts as recommended.

Alderman Potter, under new business, read a request from business men and property owners on Broadway from Third street to the river, asking that the Union station cars be run to the river. This request was made to Mr. Keldhead, manager of the traction company. Mr. Potter then read the reply to the request, which said on account of not having double tracks from Fourth street to the river it was impossible to comply with the request, but if the people, desiring to have the cars run to the river, would pay for the changing of the switch on the Union station line from Tenth and Tennessee streets to Eighth and Ohio streets, which would amount to about $300, it would be possible to run the cars to First street and Broadway. On motion of Mr. Potter the ordinance committee was instructed to bring in an ordinance, compelling the traction company to run the Union station cars down Broadway.

New Vaults.
On motion of Alderman Stewart the public improvement committee was instructed to receive bids for a new vault in the clerk's office. On motion of Alderman Hank the public improvement committee was instructed to receive bids for a vault to keep the city engineer's records and maps in.

Mr. Huddleston, of Melber, has been selling brooms in the city without license and Mr. Tate, the local broom manufacturer, asked that he not be allowed to peddle without a license. The request was referred to the ordinance committee.

Mrs. Nancy Bell was granted a deed to lot a lot in Oak Grove cemetery.

All members were present, but Alderman Sherrill and Lackey were excused before the meeting adjourned.

February 23—Louis Mann in "The Man Who Stood Still."

Actors, no matter what theatrical managers may say to the contrary, make excellent audiences—a fact exemplified at all so-called "professional" matinees, and especially illustrated in the successive Thursday afternoon performances in the Circle theater. New York city, run of Louis Mann in "The Man Who Stood Still." Managers are prone to allege that they dislike "professional" audiences, for the reason that actors, obsessed with jealousy, are not inclined to give any too much credit to the persons on the stage, however much they may indulge in applause in the course of performance. To this line of reasoning, Mr. Mann replies:

"Granted that actors, after witnessing a performance, go out and 'roast' what they have seen. What difference can it possibly make? How is the success of a play allied or impaired by professional 'roasting'? Why, we actors are a very small part of the world; and all of us together could not keep a play alive a week, if we paid our way in. We live among ourselves, for the greater part; our horizon is bounded by the theater and the newspapers. No newspaper would give us its columns for a gratuitous 'roast' of a performance; and there is none save professionals to listen to us if we 'roast' our brother-professionals. So, why bother about such things? Some of the best criticism I have had has come from actors who, having seen my performance and praised it to my face, have afterward found fault with me, in the belief that the fault-finding would not reach my ears. This professional criticism has in times gone by done me a world of good; and I should like to get more of it."

Mr. Mann's matinee day in the midweek having been Thursday in his New York city run in "The Man Who Stood Still," he entertained in the Circle theater, more than the usual number of professionals, most of whom had Wednesday matinees, and were thus at liberty on Thursday afternoons. Mr. Mann comes in "The Man Who Stood Still" to the Kentucky theater on Tuesday, February 23.

The Rork production of "The Land of Nod," an extravaganza of the most amusing and palatable kind, will be presented at The Kentucky for matinee and night, February 24. It is built substantially along the lines of the prevailing musical comedy, possessing an arrangement of tuneful melodies of the popular sort and a comedy element which keeps an audience constantly laughing or applauding. All of the people of last season's company who made distinctive hits are retained in this cast, including Mr. Knox Wilson as "April Fool" and Grace Drew as "Jack of Hearts." And there have been additions to the list of players which, it is said, add materially to the charm of the performers. The sale of seats for "The Land of Nod" opens on Tuesday 9 a. m.

"Just a Woman's Way," the new melo-dramatic success which comes to The Kentucky tonight, is staged by an exceptionally strong and especially selected company. Great artistic skill, directness of method and intellectual strength are evident in

Lafollette Criticizes Senate for Delaying.

Penrose Makes Report, Declared Wisconsin Man Was a Member of Several Committees.

NEVER RENDERED ANY SERVICE.

Washington, Feb. 19.—An acid exchange of words took place in the senate between Lafollette, who was criticizing the methods of that body in handling the appropriation bills, and Penrose, chairman of the committee on postoffices and postroads, in charge of the postoffice bill then under discussion.

The day began by Lafollette asking that the postoffice bill be allowed to go over until tomorrow as it had just been reported from the committee and he had had no time in which to examine it. Lafollette addressed himself at length to the measure and severely arraigned the senate for permitting legislation to accumulate until the last days of the session, when, he declared, important bills were rushed through with little or no time for the senators to understand them.

Come in late. "My observation is that these appropriation bills get in here about as late for the long session as they do for the short session," said Lafollette. "It seems to be a part of the system that these most important legislations."

He charged that important legislation was placed on these measures and passed when it could pass as a separate bill. He also said that salary increases for U. S. officials had been put through in that way, and he insisted that the committee unduly delayed bills which might be reported earlier, so the senate would have more opportunity to study and understand them.

He declared that if the senator from Pennsylvania had attended sessions earlier his committee might have made the report more promptly. He added that the important legislation of congress was in the hands of seven committees while more than 50 senators were not assigned to any committee that has business. He took occasion to say that he hoped a tariff bill would not be put through on a "greased runway."

Better Have Special Session.

"I do not see," he continued, "that

WOMAN'S BEAUTY.

It Can Never Be Perfect Without Luxuriant Hair.

A head of luxuriant hair is sure to be attractive. But nature has not crowned every woman with glorious hair. Some very lovable women she has treated rather scantily in this respect.

For instance, there are tens of thousands of women in America today, who have harsh, faded and lusterless hair, who are unattractive simply because they do not know that nowadays even the whims of nature can be overruled by the genius of science.

If you are a woman without beautiful hair, do not permit your attractions to be hidden because of this slight misfortune.

Go today to Gilbert's drug store and buy a large bottle of Parisian Sage for 50 cents, use it each night, and you will notice the harsh, repulsive hair disappear, and in its place will come soft, silky, bright and luxuriant hair.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by Gilbert's drug store to cure dandruff, itching of the scalp, and stop falling hair in two weeks, or money back.

It would be such a terrible calamity to the country if the discussion of these bills should carry some of them over to an extra session. I know that if the appropriation bills are disposed of at this time there will not be any reorganization of the committees at this term, and various important legislation outside of the appropriation bills must go over to another session of congress.

Lafollette rebuked the senate with having put down interstate commerce legislation nine years and having delayed the pure food law seventeen by applying the same methods against which he was contending.

Penrose Makes Report.

At this moment Penrose arose and with violent anger and glaring across the chamber at the slight form of the senator from Wisconsin, said in a loud voice:

"I shall not sit silent in my seat when misstatements are made or claptrap statecraft is attempted here. I charge the senator from Wisconsin had been on the committee on the census and during his service on that committee has failed to attend a single meeting of it. I make the charge without any fear of contradiction. He is on the committee on claims and had only attended its meetings once or twice in all his service and that attendance was only to bring up some trivial claim. I make the statement without fear of contradiction that he is on the committee on pensions, which has one of the largest appropriation bills pending before congress every year.

and he has hardly ever been present at its meetings according to the unanimous testimony of nearly all his colleagues on that committee.

Never Rendered Useful Service.

"I make another statement without any fear of contradiction, that he is on the important committee on Indian affairs, which every year considers a great appropriation bill, and he has seldom or never rendered useful service to it."

"And he has been in the senate during two years," interposed Gallinger from his seat.

Perhaps you've delayed taking advantage of our last reduction—choice of the house in Suits and $12.25 The opportunity is open to you for a while longer, and there's a few choice suits and overcoats left. So if you're interested come without delay.

Penrose, glaring angrily toward Lafollette, "who has a greater record for absenteeism than he. It all becomes him to criticize these committees. When he is here it is only to delay the business of the senate, to hold up the transactions of the public business and embarrass those who, under their oath of office and in conscientious discharge of their duty endeavor to enact legislation. I shall not sit here, and I desire to give notice to the senator from Wisconsin and listen to arguments that might better be made by a patent medicine vender from the tall door of a cart

in a village of Wisconsin, than from a senator of the United States."

Lafollette Replies.

Lafollette had remained standing while these remarks were directed toward him. "It is of little value," he said, "to utter a contradiction here to much that has been said. It would merely put the word of one senator against that of another. I have not attended a meeting of some of the committees to which I was assigned. I attended the meeting of the committee on claims once or twice. Not feeling that I could render any service of value on it I asked to be relieved from membership on that committee. I have been reasonably diligent on the committee on Indian affairs."

Daily Thought.

Borrowing is the canker and death of every man's estate.—Ralph.

The Maurelania has broken every thing on the ocean but her screw.

Taft became a Mason at eight last night. The goat took a look at his bulk and says: "You're a Mason, Mr. Taft."

The Ohio river is acting as if it anticipated a trip of the battleship fleet up this way as far as the Cairo bridge.

If Roosevelt is made a Roman citizen, some pesky senator will try to bar him as an undesirable alien on his return from Africa.

The majority of the delegates to the tariff commission convention are in favor of revision; but some of them are standpatters, who see a slight chance to secure delay, just as we fear, some of our interested transportation lines are behind the fight against the lock and dam canal.

The statement from Frankfort that of the 119 county court clerks in Kentucky, 100 of them are engaged in paying back to the state money wrongfully withheld, should arouse the people to the importance of selecting trustworthy men to handle the public funds. This investigation by Auditor James will result in recovering much of the money stolen under his predecessor, but the people must depend for the future safety of the funds on the character of men they elect to office. If they elect professional gamblers, or men, whose loose habits and reckless manner of living are well known, they deserve nothing better than that the money should be stolen.

Senator Tillman got what he asked from LaFollette, when he inquired disingenuously how they could stop this naval extravagance, and LaFollette suggested that no member from a state, possessing a navy yard, should be allowed to be on the naval committee. Tillman has a little navy yard in South Carolina that a ship cannot reach.

On the very day the Saturday Evening Post published a page story of Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, as the silent statesman, Penrose burst forth in a tirade against LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and said LaFollette talked like a patent medicine vender from the rear end of a cart in a Wisconsin village. Now, we submit, that is doing pretty well for a man, who for 12 years had said nothing but "yes" and "nay."

WELCOME HOO-HOOS!

While the international conservation congress is being welcomed by President Roosevelt, it is the pleasure of The Sun again to welcome the retail lumber dealers of Tennessee and Kentucky. There are well dressed lumber dealers among them, there are men with the bark on, there are hard and soft woodmen, there are sound and knotty, seantlings and heavy timber men, but none of them are bored. From the time Pat Dugas established his woodyard at the mouth of the Tennessee, until that stream was choked with log rafts, Paducah has been close to the lumber business, and the delegates to this convention are at home.

KENTUCKY'S FIRST OFFENDERS.
Kentucky has 2,935 convicts in her penitentiary. How many of them, we wonder, are men whose first, bitterly regretted wrong step, was criminal? They are beyond redemption as useful citizens now. That is worth thinking about. Many a man through sheer weakness, subjected to some sudden and pressing temptation under unaccustomed circumstances and unexpected opportunities, has betrayed a trust, or committed a felony. Other men have met experiences, prepared by gradual introduction to responsibilities. Sometimes a humbug being, having once fallen, stands erect. All of them do not, poor creatures; but isn't it better to give a man a chance? It is time for Kentucky to introduce reformatory methods for her first offenders. It is an irreparable wrong to the individual and to the state to hacken a man with a prison record for his first misstep. There are reformatories in some states, where inmates work on farms unguarded and unwatched, and the honor of the inmates has suffered to maintain order and prevent a single escape.

The penitentiaries are now overcrowded. The investigation of charges of terrible brutality and mismanagement, should be carried through to complete reform of the prison system. The Bertillon system of measurements, so that a man, who once has been in the prison can never afterwards be recognized, has been introduced; it is time now to see, if we cannot correct the tendencies of our first offenders to make them conform to the full measurements and marks of a man.

THE CARMACK MURDER.

The foundation laid by the state of Tennessee to establish proof of conspiracy in the murder of Hon. Ed Carmack looks bad, and yet we must remember the fact that Carmack's enemies met frequently in their common office and cursed him and wished he was dead, was not remarkable in the heat of that bitter fight, or unusual among politicians in any campaign. That it was feared Duncan Cooper would shoot him is altogether probable, and the anticipation of a tragedy would lend a compromising tone to the conversations of Cooper's friends in this after shadow, and their very attempts to avert a meeting between the belligerents, look like evidences of a conspiracy. The murder was cold-blooded, brutal and unjustifiable, and we have no more use for that Patterson ring than have the good people of Tennessee; but we cannot bring ourselves to believe that men of our race could dream of such a plot.

THE PANAMA LIEBEL.

Papers are frequently sued for libel, when through an inadvertence they do injury to the reputation of some member of society, or when in pursuit of a legitimate reform, they overstep the technical boundaries of permissible criticism. But when a newspaper is engaged in a legitimate reform, the one thing it demands and seeks is the truth. No paper can say it is urging a reform if it does not try to bring out the facts. The New York World and the Indianapolis News have been indicted for libel. During the heat of the recent presidential campaign, these papers, which were opposed to Taft, published the statement that the brother of Taft, the brother-in-law of President Roosevelt, J. Pierpont Morgan and others received inside information that the government proposed to purchase the Panama canal and that they, while the plan was kept secret from the French company, bought the holdings of the company at a nominal price and made huge sums of money from the deal.

If that was so, no one should more greatly desire the truth to be brought out than the New York World, and the Indianapolis News. We do not believe a reputable newspaper would publish such a reflection on the character of our government, as that, even in the heat of a campaign, without having the facts to back the assertion. If the newspapers have the fact, they can easily justify themselves by producing the facts at their trial, and the country will approve their publication; for if such a deal was made the country ought to know.

There was much bitterness in the senatorial debate at the time the clearance between the Panama and Nicaraguan route was made, but no one ever proved any wrong motives in connection with the selection.

We await with interest the defense of the newspapers, and trust that they will not seek to evade trial and proof of their allegations.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Even the winning of the honor of representing the High school at the oratorical contest at Madisonville did not excuse Edwin Lightfoot from doing his chores about the home. County Judge H. T. Lightfoot is a believer in the adage of "Spare the rod and spoil the child," and frequently substitutes a good licking for a term in the reform school when incorrigible lads are brought before him. The afternoon after his son had won the honor the judge was seated at home, and he saw the coal supply was short. He called to his son that the coal buckets needed replenishing. The young orator was upstairs and he called down: "Father remember I am an orator, and I should not be compelled to do such labor as that. Why, I have read the life of Demosthenes through several times, and have failed to find where he was compelled to do such chores."

"All right, son, he was Demosthenes, and you are Edwin Lightfoot, suspect you had better get the coal," and the young orator complied with the answer.

Moving is so much trouble. This little sentence was proven to be true when Mr. Bob Stilt, a well known man in this city began moving, Tuesday. Two men were engaged to take the carpets and take them to the house in which he intended to move and put them down Tuesday afternoon. Yesterday morning a load of furniture was taken to the new home and it was then that Mr. Stilt discovered that the carpets had been put down in the wrong house.

SHAKE THIS WELL IN A BOTTLE TO MIX

Prescription For Kidney and Bladder Troubles and Rheumatism.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and set it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer can mix it at home: Compound Kagon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

River stage at 7 o'clock this morning, 31.7, a rise of 1.5 since yesterday morning. Rainfall last night and until 7 o'clock this morning was 1.40 inches. Providing the rainfall is general and especially at the headwaters of the Mississippi, Ohio, Tennessee and Cumberland rivers, it is certain that the rivers will go above the flood stage. Rivermen say if the rainfall all over the country is like it is here, the river here will go several feet above the flood stage. At the present time if the Mississippi was up we would have a stage of 40 feet at Paducah, but the Mississippi is low and the water is running out of the Ohio rapidly.

The steamer Kentucky arrived in port this morning at 8 o'clock from Riverport and way landings with a large cargo of freight aboard for Paducah and Brookport. She went on down the river this morning to unload and receive freight and will return tonight. The Kentucky will leave tomorrow evening for the Tennessee.

The Dick Fowler got away on time this morning for Cairo and way landings with a good freight and passenger list. She will be due tonight about 9 o'clock.

The steamer George Cowling made her two daily trips from Metropolis and return doing a fair business on both trips.

The steamer Royal came in this morning from Goicound and left on a return trip this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She did a right good business in and out of this port.

The Peters Lee will probably get away from Memphis this afternoon for Cincinnati and will be due here Sunday afternoon on her way up.

The river again took upon itself to be rough last night and today, compelling boats with tow to tie up to the banks.

The American came into port yesterday afternoon from Cairo, where she delivered a tow of ties. She had expected to leave for the Tennessee today, but on account of the bad weather she probably will not leave till tomorrow.

The Martha Hennen, in charge of Capt. Ed Pixley, has arrived at Mobile, Ala., after a stormy voyage from New Orleans to Mobile. The Hennen was over a week making the trip in the salt water and during that time she burned her boilers by using salt water and was delayed. In good weather it would take the Hennen about three days to make the trip from New Orleans to Mobile.

About 400 cords of cottonwood that had been cut floated down the river yesterday from just below Brookport. The J. T. Friend, a towboat from Cairo, came up to Brookport and recovered some of the wood, but most of it floated on down the Ohio. Several cords were recovered at Metropolis.

The Wash Henshell that passed down yesterday morning was compelled to tie up at Turner's landing on account of the wind.

The Margaret is loading ties for the Ayer & Lord Tie company between Paducah and Cairo.

In Circuit Court.

The case of Mrs. T. J. Spidell against the Illinois Central railroad and William O. Hurch for damages, resulting from the killing of her husband by a train near Terrell's crossing, October 29, was begun this morning in circuit court. The case was begun at noon and probably the jury will not receive the case until tomorrow morning.

In the case of Obe Bradshaw, colored, against the Paducah Light and Power company for personal damages, a verdict for the defendant was returned.

Business Session of Woman's Club.

The Woman's club met in regular session yesterday afternoon at the club house. The business was mainly routine. At the recommendation of Mrs. Henry C. Overby, chairman of the Education committee, the club ordered 50 anti-tubercular posters which will be placed in the school buildings and other public places in the city. They are from the Red Cross association.

Mrs. C. E. Purcell reported that a letter had been written to State Superintendent J. G. Carbo asking for conditions under which Paducah would have to work to secure the Western Normal school from Howling Green. The club will then begin an active canvass of the city.

The members were urged to send in their ballots for the election of the three officers: Second vice president, treasurer and corresponding secretary on March 4, so that nominations can be made. Ballots have been mailed out to all the members to fill in.

Mr. A. D. Brooks, superintendent of the fire extinguishers of the Illinois Central railroad, was in the city yesterday and left this morning for Mississippi.

Dinner Party for Mr. and Mrs. Fendol Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burnett entertained Thursday evening with an elegant 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fendol Burnett, who have just returned from their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett were assisted in receiving by Miss Burnett, Mrs. Charles Curtis, of St. Louis; Mrs. George Reeves and Mrs. E. B. Shelton, of Wickliffe, Ky.

Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were: Mrs. Le'a Wade Lewis, Miss Courtie Puryear, Miss May Davis, Mr. George Goodman, Mr. Gus Thompson, Mr. Oscar Hank, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McAllister and Mr. and Mrs. Fendol Burnett.

It was a beautifully appointed six-course dinner, the color scheme being green and white, the bride's colors.

Mrs. Moams, of St. Louis, made the wedding cake, which was in the design of orange blossoms and lilies-of-the-valley. In the cut for the wedding favors Mrs. Fendol Burnett got the shoe, Mrs. Shelton the ring, Miss Sophia Burnett and Mrs. Reeves the penny and Mr. George Goodman the button.

Mrs. Burnett was formerly Miss Mary Wright, of Como, Minn., one of that city's most charming girls. She was the recipient of much social attention in her home town. A beautiful linen shower given by her club members expressed their deep regret at losing her. Mr. Burnett is connected with the American Shuff company and is one of Paducah's most popular young men. They will be at home for the present at 315 North Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett received many beautiful gifts.

Brilliant Recital at Woman's Club.

One of the most altogether satisfying musical events ever given in Paducah was the pianoforte lecture-recital of Edward Baxter Perry, the blind pianist of Boston, yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club house. Mr. Perry appeared under the auspices of the Music department of the club at their regular open meeting and was greeted by the largest audience ever gathered in the club house. It was a representative crowd of music lovers and music critics, and all alike were charmed.

Mr. Perry was introduced by Miss Virginia Newell, chairman of the Music department in a charming way that placed him and his audience in sympathetic touch at once.

Mr. Perry is the originator of the lecture-recital, and his Paducah audience really saw how the method has proved so popular both at home and abroad. The program featured 12 piano numbers from the composers Schumann, Liszt, Rubenstein, Grieg, Chopin and Edward Baxter Perry. Each number was prefaced by a short explanation of what the music meant and Mr. Perry showed himself an artist in the picturing power of words. His manner was charming in its ease and simplicity, his enunciation delightful and his imagination vividly placed before his audience the exact scene he desired to convey. His technical execution was no less finished and powerful than his artistic interpretation.

Mr. Perry's artistic compositions were especially appreciated. They are full of poetic charm and fire. "The Ballad of the Last Island" tells a story in music of the destruction of Last Island, a noted winter resort, in the midst of the gayety of the season. The roar of the approaching storm, the lighter music of the dance, the unconsciousness of the dancers were all powerfully contrasted and held his audience spellbound throughout.

Pretty Nashville Party.

Mrs. Hamilton Parks entertained her Sunday school class charmingly last evening, her home being prettily decorated with flowers and ferns. Numerous games and contests appropriate to the valentine season were enjoyed. In the archery contest a heart-shaped box of candy was presented. Another diversion was the matching of love ditties, which were written on red hearts, and placed in every available space about the reception rooms. In this the guest matching the largest number was presented with a book of Bible pictures. The dining room decorations were quite pretty. The covers of the table were of Chiny lace, and in the center was a cut glass vase of polio-sella blooms, which extended to a red heart, hung from the smilax-covered chandelier. Platters of red and white candy balls and heart-shaped mints were arranged on the table. The valentine cake, which was heart-shaped and appropriately decorated, held a silver heart and key, and these were drawn for by red and green ribbons, and provoked much merriment. From one end of the table Mrs. C. B. Rogan poured chocolate and served sandwiches, and from the other, Miss Mildred Ralus served an ice. The guest list included thirty, each member of the class having had the privilege of inviting a guest. These were supplemented by Miss Cecil Rogan

Glueklich Club.

The Glueklich club gave a dance last night at the Three Links building. Although the weather was inclement about 20 couples were present at the dance.

Informal Reception to Mr. Perry Last Night.

An informal reception for Mr. Edward Baxter Perry, of Boston, was held last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, 2005 Broadway. It was given by the Crescendo club of the city, and their guests were the members of the Matinee Musical club and the Woman's club.

Mr. Perry complimented the club with an informal miscellaneous lecture-recital program that was most delightful and was charming socially.

A pretty salad course luncheon was served during the evening.

Charity Euchre Successful Affair.

The euchre given by the ladies' auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus last night was a decided success. The prizes for the ladies were: First prize, a large bisque vase, Mrs. Henry Snyder; second prize, a handsome embroidered centerpiece, Miss Marceline Ruddle; lone-hand prize, a beautiful piece of hand work, Miss Katie Grogan; guest prize, an elegant Bohemian glass vase, Miss Florence Hurdy; Mrs. James Hofflich won the consolation prize. The men's prizes went as follows: First, a box of cigars, Mr. William Seck; second, a pair of silk suspenders, Mr. George Houdurant; lone-hand, a silk tie, Mr. John Leonard; guest, a paper knife, Mr. Felix Wurth, and the consolation, an ash tray, to Mr. Charles Hurdy.

A large crowd was in attendance. The euchre was one of a series for charity that have been given during the winter with much success. It was an enjoyable affair.

Art Department Meets Tomorrow.

The Art department of the Woman's club will meet at 10 a. m. Saturday at the club building. The Post-Romanticists artists for discussion are:

Kalopsophic Club.

The Kalopsophic club met in regular weekly session at the Woman's club this morning. The program was attractively presented as follows:

"History and Literature of Ravenna, Old Church of San Apollinare"—Miss Rella Coleman.

"Sienna and its Cathedral; A Siennese Festival; The Palle"—Mrs. John Brooka.

"Benozzo Gozzoli and His Frescoes in the Campo Santo; Andrea Orcagna"—Miss Hallie Hiley.

Current Topics—Miss Blanche Hills.

Bougueno-Hayden.

Miss Lillian Bougueno, of this city, and Mr. Samuel J. Hayden, of Metropolis, were married last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Bougueno, 164 Clements street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Bruner, of the Second Baptist church. An informal reception followed the wedding. The bride is an attractive young woman, and Mr. Hayden is a popular citizen of Metropolis. The couple will make their home in Metropolis.

Elks to Give Dance at Club House Tonight.

The fifth of the series of dances being given this winter by the Paducah lodge of Elks at their club house on North Fifth street, will take place at 9 o'clock this evening.

Miss Park Entertained by Mrs. Hunt in Mayfield.

Mrs. B. S. Hunt entertained a number of friends with a 6 o'clock dinner Monday evening in honor of Miss Clara Park, of Paducah, who was the guest of Miss Datha Norman.—Mayfield Messenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Levy Return Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Levy, of Atlanta, returned home last night after a two months' visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wallerstein. Mr. and Mrs. Levy are very popular in social circles and have been the guests at some very handsome entertainments during their visit.

Miss Cherlie Morton will arrive home this evening from Louisville, where she has been visiting for several weeks.

Miss Betty MacNairy, of Paris, France, will arrive this week for a visit to her niece, Miss Louise Darby.—Louisville Times.

Mr. Julius Well has returned after a business trip to Baltimore.

SPAGHETTI.

The United States Agricultural Department declares spaghetti to be a highly nutritious food—rich in gluten and other strength-producing elements. These qualities are found at their best in Faust Spaghetti, a food that has no equal anywhere as regards tastiness, nutriment, and low price—a price which, when compared to that of meat and other food, seems insignificant in view of the great food value.

Faust Brand Spaghetti is a strictly American food. American grown and American made. Put up in clean packages, reaching you fresh and dainty, ready for immediate cooking.

Faust Spaghetti always delights because its adaptability prevents its becoming tiresome. To better understand its all-round cooking usefulness, get a five or ten cent package from almost any grocer, and write for book of Faust Spaghetti recipes—free on request.

tion ten years ago, or even five years ago. Ethics means the attitude which we shall sustain toward ourselves and toward our fellow men. Up to very recent times, our attitude toward our fellows in trade, or our competitors, as we then called them, was every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost, and our attitude toward our customer was, to get all we could out of him with the least possible outlay of money and of effort.

But now, this is all changed. We realize that we owe certain obligations to our fellows in trade and to our customers, that cannot be ignored; and we meet together, upon such occasions as this, for the purpose of determining what these obligations are, and with the sincere desire of arriving at the best methods by which they may be effectively discharged.

In accomplishing this re-adjustment of conditions, there is but little doubt that the immediate resumption of prosperity is being retarded. But let us not forget that the panic of 1907 was brought on by the lack of the very conditions which we are now seeking to establish; and that confidence can only properly be restored by the establishment of these conditions upon a secure and permanent foundation. Therefore, let us exercise patience in our progress; let us build carefully and make no mistakes wholly confident that when prosperity again returns, it will be of such an enduring nature as not only to remain with us, but with our children and with our children's children.

The Social Side.

We lumbermen possess one faculty not generally accorded to men engaged in other lines of trade, and that is, when we have completed our day's work, when we have stood up to the rack for ten hours and have pulled every pound that there is in us during that time, we can cast down our burdens of care, worry and fatigue, join in social converse and forget that there is such a thing as business in all the world. That this trait is peculiar to lumbermen only, is evidenced by the fact that we lumbermen, of all other lines of industry and trade, alone have been able to evolve and maintain a purely social and fraternal organization that is national in its scope. An organization, the membership of which was at first limited to 9,999—but which we have seen compelled to extend to 99,999. A friend inquired the other day how we lumbermen happened to start the order of Hoo-Hoo. I asked him if he recalled that Mark Twain once said "Be good and you'll be lonesome," and told him that we started Hoo-Hoo in order that we good lumbermen might not be too lonely.

Great Hoo-Hoo will hold court in our city tonight, primarily, to prevent any visiting lumberman from becoming lonesome, and 'Incidentally, to open the eyes of any and all poor blind kittens who are now in darkness, but who desire to walk in the light.

In conclusion permit me to report that we are mighty glad to have you with us, and I trust that the good which you will derive from these business meetings and the pleasure which you may enjoy from our social features will amply repay you for the effort which you have put forth in order to be with us today.

Response.

Mr. J. W. Brandtford, of Union City, replied to the address of welcome, as follows:

"Mr. Palmer and Gentlemen of Paducah:—I feel that I have been honored in that the directors of the West Tennessee and Kentucky Retail Lumber Dealers' association has selected me as the one to respond to Mr. Palmer, and to extend to you the thanks of the association and its visitors for the hearty and whole-soul welcome that has been given us. It is a pleasant task that I have before me, but in trying to perform it I find myself akin to old Sam's mule. He sold his mule representing him to be free from all faults and blemishes. The man who bought it came to Sam in a few days and said: 'Look here, Sam, I found that mule had no faults, and I find he is nearly blind in one eye.' To this Sam replied: 'Dat, boss, am not de po mule's fault, it am his misfortune.' So my friends, it is my misfortune and not my fault that I have not sufficient words to say to you what I and my fellow guests would like to have said.

"To Robert Burns' much quoted stanza:—'Oh, would some power the gift give us, To see ourselves as others see us,' a modern poet has added:—'But how much better 'if by spells, others could see us as we see ourselves.'"

"If you could see us as we see ourselves this afternoon, no words of thanks would be necessary for me, for you would fully comprehend the feeling of gratitude that we have for your smiles of welcome, your cheerful greetings, your hearty hand shakes and your unbounded hospitality.

"There is no truer saying than 'actions speak louder than words'; so our return to you this year expresses better than could the most eloquent speech of the most famous orator our appreciation of the splendid treatment we received from you last year and the great pleasure it gives us to be with you again."

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrap and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. TO REFOREST MAINE.

A Man Who Plants Thousands of Trees Offers Prizes to Others.

A plan for the reforestation of the state of Maine has been submitted to the governor by B. C. Jordan of Alfred. Mr. Jordan offers to give the state $1,000 on condition that once in eighteen years five prizes shall be awarded for the five best lots of young forest growth.

These lots are to consist of not less than ten acres, accurately surveyed and plotted, the majority of the trees to be not less than ten or more than thirty feet high and not less than ten or more than thirty years old when the prizes are awarded. The varieties of trees to be grown are specified and cover a long list of white pine and elm.

Mr. Jordan believes that the incentive afforded by such prizes would do much to bring about better forestry conditions. Maine has many thousands acres of waste land, now almost worthless but naturally well adapted to timber growth, and which, according to a writer in Suburban Life, by a small expense for care and forest cultivation and could be made easily worth in fifty years $100 an acre.

In this way the state instead of being the poorest in the Union might be made one of the richest. Fifty years is a large part of one person's life, but a very small part of the life of a state. Mr. Jordan himself set out from ten to fifteen thousand trees the last summer and states that he hopes to set out many thousands every year as long as he lives.

ATTACKS RULES OF THE HOUSE

Congressmen Have Betrayed
Their Trust.

Made Speaker Tyrant—Bill Codifying
and Amending Penal Laws of
United States.

THE KNOX MATTER SETTLED.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The controversy over the legislative appropriation bill, in connection with the much-discussed salary of the secretary of state, involving the eligibility of Senator Knox for that office, was settled in the house when the bill was sent to a conference and the committee was authorized to consider the salary provisions as if in disagreement.

This gives the committee the power to reduce the pay from $12,000 to $8,000, its former figure. The Republicans were caught napping when the resolution by Fitzgerald was adopted disagreeing to the senate amendment creating the offices of under-secretary and fourth assistant secretary of state.

The bill codifying and amending the penal laws of the United States was passed and the fortification appropriations bill discussed.

Vigorous attacks on the house rules were made by Hubbard and Hepburn, of Iowa. The latter asserted that the members had betrayed their trust and prostituted themselves at the feet of the speaker, who, he said, had been made a tyrant.

The bill was pending when the house took a recess until tomorrow.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 19.—Cattle.—The receipts were 169; for the four days, 2,368. The attendance of buyers was light, the demand limited, advice from other markets unfavorable, and the trade very slow and drabgy throughout the day. Strict choice heavy-weight butcher cattle were very scarce, yet they did not sell hardly as well as Monday, and all medium and inferior kinds were easily 10c and 15c lower. The feeder and stocker trade was quiet, but about steady. Bulls steady, canners and cutters slow. Milch cows unchanged. No heavy steers on sale, feeling easy. We quote: Shipping steers, $4.50 @ 5.75; beef steers, $3.00 @ 5.25; fat heifers and cows, $3.00 @ 4.75; cutters, $2.00 @ 3.85; canners, $1.00 @ 2.00; bulls, $2.00 @ 3.85; feeders, $3.00 @ 4.75; stockers, $2.25 @ 4.25; choice milch cows, $35.00 @ 45.00; common to fair, $15 @ 35.

Calves—Receipts, 82; for the four days, 487. The market ruled steady, best, 7c @ 7 1/2c; medium, 4 @ 6c; common, 2 1/2 @ 4c.

Hogs—Receipts, 2,232; for the four days, 9,193. The market ruled slow and 10c lower; choice corn-fed hogs, 160 pounds and up, $6.55; 130 to 160 pounds, $5.25; pigs ranged from $5.15 for light pigs to $5.40 for heavy pigs; roughs, $5.95 down.

"FRAUDS UPON THE PUBLIC." Is what some physicians have called patent medicines, and it is undoubtedly true that some are frauds and some are even worse, because they are injurious. On the other hand, there are many patent medicines such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and others, which are of real worth, and are recommended by physicians of recognized standing.

EWING, KING OF THE BLACK PATCH

One of the most fascinating and thrilling fact stories that has appeared in public print since the guerrilla days of the Civil war is that found in Hampton's Magazine for March. It is entitled "Night-riding in the Black Patch," and is written by Eugene P. Lytle, Jr., a well known and trustworthy author. Here is a portion of Mr. Lytle's story of what he found out during a recent visit to the Black Patch:

Close to the Tennessee line, near Guthrie, Ky., there lives a planter, Felix G. Ewing. He was popular, in a way, with his neighbors. At Guthrie, his beautiful home, he threw open the doors now and then in a baronial manner, and the man in jeans came and was flattered. The host raised tobacco. He understood the woes of the man in jeans.

"In Ewing's brain there burst into flame an idea superb, colossal, of a daring and design worthy of genius. That was in 1901. The growers of tobacco should do their own selling—through him. A warehouse monopoly, to prize, to sample, to sell—and to tax la commissions—the bulk of that monumental crop of 120,000,000 pounds, year after year.

He must find a name potent with the promise of mutual co-operation, a name to make him one with the thousands of growers, and the thousands of growers one with him. All for all, and one for all, they would cast their lots, and their tobacco, into one gigantic pool. The growers would believe—and he made many of them believe it later, by matter-of-fact, business-like, convincing argument—that no matter how much tobacco they grew, or how much was grown elsewhere, they need only corer a good portion of the crop to shoot prices upward.

The new idea spread, and had every semblance of fauraem. It was fair at first. The farmers, taking eager hold in their despair were possessed with the notion that it was their idea. They assembled by hundreds at Guthrie on September 24, 1901, and crystallized the idea into an organization. They called it the Dark District Planters' Protective association of Kentucky and Tennessee. It was really a co-operative association, according to its charter, given under the laws of Kentucky. The board of directors was elected by the farmers themselves. Each magisterial district of each county, in an annual election, was to name a director. The directors in each county were to elect a chairman, who was to be a member of the executive committee. No member of the association was to receive a salary. There were to be one thousand shares, of the value of $1 each, with which to control an annual product worth six or eight million dollars.

Here was really a farmers' association. Felix G. Ewing was made its general manager. Charles H. Fort, Ewing's neighbor, a man of imposing presence, was made president. Of the supplanting of this co-operative association by a private warehouse concern chartered under a similar name, I shall write in another article. It need only be stated here that the co-operative society during its existence, and thereafter the private concern that succeeded it. For the underscoring farmer the two associations have been one and the same thing. The organization was first and last, "His Association." As a matter of fact, it is nobody's association but Ewing's. He is still general manager.

The original association began its career with the 1904 tobacco. Ewing and his associates claimed that 70 per cent. of the crop was pledged to them. Later it was shown that they handled about one-third of the crop.

The scale of prices began to advance in 1904. It is an economic problem as to whether the association or a reduced acreage—or both—was responsible for the increase. Independent farmers, those who had not joined Ewing's movement, received the advantage of the same advanced prices obtained by association members. The independent growers were disposed to skepticism. They said that association "prizing" was inferior and costly, and association charges were higher. Several warehousemen who had financed the association for hundreds of thousands of dollars thought themselves ruined, though they pulled out with a narrow margin. Independent warehousemen were competing. Independent farmers holding aloof made the corner ineffective.

In the spring of 1905 General Manager Ewing faced a big, grave, absorbing question: "How shall I induce the independents to bring me their tobacco?"

Marked For Death.

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at all druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

So Grateful.

No Rest Day or Night

"I would lay awake for hours without any apparent cause, or dream terrible dreams which would bring on extreme spells of nervousness. After taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Tonic for awhile I could sleep well, and the nervous spells have left me." MISS ALMA HUG, R. R. No. 4, Canal Dover, Ohio.

Without sleep the nervous system soon becomes a wreck, and the healthful activity of all the organs obstructed. Restful, body-building sleep accompanies the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine because it soothes the irritable nerves, and restores nervous energy. When taken a few days according to directions, the most restless sufferer will find sleep natural and healthful. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

Factory, 405 Fraternity Bldg., Paducah, Ky.

This company was organized for the purpose of making for the dentists in all parts of the United States, pure aluminum plate, cast for artificial teeth, an invention of Dr. E. Stamper, of this city. These plates have proven a great success among the dentists also. Dr. Stamper has been using them in his own practice for the past year with marked success. From these facts we are sending these cast aluminum plates to the dentists in the states of Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Vermont, Maine, California and others.

Now these plates being such a success with the dentists at large, we are going to add to our work the local trade—that of Paducah and vicinity.

We have not room here to tell of all the good features of these plates, and we have for our consulting dentist Dr. Stamper, the inventor of the new process, who will do all of our office work. Call at his office, 203-205 Fraternity building. Office hours 8 to 5:30 daily, Saturday nights 7 to 9. Both telephones.

TOBACCO

TO:

Bohmer's Warehouse

9th & Harrison. Paducah, Ky. Old Phone 72

Empty hushbands furnished free to parties wishing to ship their tobacco by rail or river

Tobacco is unloaded in large, flat baskets, each grade to itself, weighed and receipt given owner, showing number of draft and pounds thereof. A corresponding ticket is placed on each pile. The highest bid is written on ticket and, should owner accept same, by presenting at office receipt previously given, the cash is handed over.

Should the bid offered not be satisfactory, the tobacco can be offered the next day or at any other time thereafter.

It costs absolutely nothing to offer your tobacco unless bid is accepted, in which case we charge 15 cents per hundred pounds and 2 cents on the dollar.

The greatest demand among manufacturers and dealers is for loose tobacco and, since it will bring more money offered loose, why go to the expense of having prized, stored, insured, inspected and looked after?

You will get more money for your tobacco when offered to the highest bidder in open competition with twenty-five buyers trying to buy than when you expect or require one buyer to buy millions of pounds without competition at a round price.

FOR CONSTIPATION.

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless It Cures.

If you suffer from constipation in any form whatever, acute or chronic, we will guarantee to supply you medicine that will surely effect a cure if taken with regularity and according to directions for a reasonable length of time. Should the medicine fail to benefit you to your entire satisfaction, we promise that it shall cost you nothing.

No other remedy can be compared with Rexall Orderlies for the easy, pleasant and successful treatment of constipation. The active medicinal ingredient of this remedy which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a preparation which is incomparable as a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience, and may be taken at any time, day or night.

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, delicate or aged persons because they do not contain anything that could possibly injure the most delicate organism. They are just as easy to take as candy, and unlike other preparations for a like purpose they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habits acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. We know that there is nothing that will do you so much good, and we will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. They are prepared in tablet form in two sizes of packages: 24 tablets, 25c, and 12 tablets, 10c. W. B. McPherson, Drug-gist Paducah.

NOTICE.

I urgently request all persons indebted to me to make settlement before the first day of May, 1909, as I will after that date bring suit on every unpaid note and account due me. Now your account is to each of you a small matter, while the whole is to me very important. I shall deal with all alike; if you don't pay you may know that you will be sued, whatever your name or color may be. I hate to do this, but I am forced to it in self-defense. If you have not the money and will borrow it to pay me in full by the first day of March, 1909, I will deduct 10 per cent from your account, thereby paying the interest myself. In this not as fair as any sane man can ask.

Home Course In Modern Agriculture

XVII.—The Farm Home

By C. V. GREGORY.

Agricultural Division, Iowa State College

Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association

THE farmer is more important than his farm, and the most important crop he raises is not corn nor hogs, but boys and girls. The success of a farmer is not measured so much by the money he makes as it is by the happiness he brings to himself and to his family. One of the surest ways of accomplishing this end is by making the home surroundings attractive.

There is no place on earth where it is easier to have an attractive home than on the farm. Yet in spite of this too many farm homes are located in the middle of a weed patch that goes by the name of garden or are hidden behind such a thick jungle of trees that it is impossible to see in or out.

The first thing to consider is the house itself. It should be situated on the highest part of the hill on which the farm buildings stand. A house need not be expensive to be homelike and convenient. Indeed, the most expensive houses are often the least homelike.

The starting point is the cellar. With but little additional expense this can be made the full size of the house. In this case the foundation walls should extend to the bottom of the cellar. The first course should be of hollow brick, laid end to end, and connecting with a tile drain on the lowest side. In this way seepage water will be kept out of the cellar. A cement floor is a great advantage and is inexpensive, since the cement need not be more than two or three inches thick.

The cellar should be divided into about four rooms. Hollow brick makes good partition walls and at the same time help support the floor. One of the rooms may be used for vegetables, one for fruit, milk and butter, one for a laundry and the fourth cemented on the inside and used as a cistern. If the furnace is used another room will be necessary, or the cistern can be located outside.

For an ordinary sized family a hundred barrel cistern is about the right size. A partition of a double layer of filter brick, with gravel and charcoal packed between, should extend across it. The water is drawn out from the opposite side of the filter from that to which the pipe from the roof supplies. In this way the water obtained is pure enough for cooking or drinking. A plentiful supply of soft water is a luxury that can be obtained so cheaply that no one can afford to do without it. Wood is still the cheapest and most satisfactory building material. In building the house the two extremes of size should be avoided. If the house is too small it will be crowded, while if too large it costs more and is harder to keep clean.

In arranging the rooms, convenience and ease of keeping in order are the chief considerations. The large and solemn "sunny room" which was opened only on state occasions, has largely given way to the bright, cheerful living room with its bookcases and work and reading tables, which is used every day and evening in the year. This room, together with the dining room, kitchen and bedroom, with a wash and bath room if possible, will comprise the first story.

A wash room, with a sink and a place for overhoses, coats and hats, is a great help in keeping dirt out of the kitchen. A bathroom is also a great convenience.

A cupboard in the wall between the kitchen and dining room is handy, as the dishes can be reached from either side. A spring door between the two rooms keeps out the flies and at the same time opens easily. A bedroom on the ground floor is almost a necessity, especially in the case of sick ones.

The upstairs will of course be largely devoted to bedrooms, although it is often convenient to have one small room fixed up for a library. The attic makes a good storeroom for seed corn.

Probably the most satisfactory way to heat the house is by a furnace. This is cheaper and cleaner than stoves. If the furnace room is made large enough to hold a load of coal and several tons of coal the work of fire building will be greatly reduced. A register in the hall upstairs will be enough to take the chill off the sleeping rooms. It is a good plan to have a furnace pipe run to the kitchen, too, and use a gasoline or kerosene range for cooking. This is cheaper, handier and cleaner than a cook stove, and the kitchen can be kept much cooler in the summer time.

Most farm homes are very poorly lighted. A kerosene lamp is dirty, smells bad and does not give very much light. A gasoline lamp is much better. Best of all is the acetylene gas system. After this is once installed it can be operated cheaply and will furnish an abundant supply of light.

The water system is another thing in which farmhouses are behind those in the city. There is scarcely a house in a town of any size but that is provided with water and sewage systems. In the country these are the exception rather than the rule, yet they can be put in at a small cost.

An air tight tank in the cellar is sometimes used to supply the pressure for a farm water system, but is rather expensive. The water can also be drawn from the elevated tank at the barn. If one is used there, the only disadvantage in this case being that cistern water cannot be used. On the whole, the most satisfactory plan is to have a small galvanized tank in the attic. A little covering in the coldest weather will keep it from freezing, and a few minutes work with the cistern pump each day will keep it filled.

By having a heater attached to the furnace or to the kitchen stove and making the proper connections hot and cold water can be supplied to the bathroom, the wash room and anywhere else that it is wanted.

The laundry room, downstairs is the place where the convenience of such a system will be appreciated most. In this room the washing machine, tubs, wringer and other utensils can be kept. An opening in the floor connected with the tile drain will carry off the waste water, and hot and cold water from upstairs will be always on tap. Such a room, together with the entire water system, can be fitted up for less than $100.

Another convenience that can be installed at small cost is a sewerage system. This can be connected with the bathtub and sink, and with a small additional expense another luxury that is seldom found on the farm, an indoor closet, can be added. Drain-pipe well cemented at the joints should be used in constructing the sewer. The cheapest form of outlet is the "septic tank." This is a small underground tank divided into four compartments, so arranged that when the first of these becomes full it will overflow into the second, and so on. The tank should be covered and provided with a ventilator. The action of bacteria in the septic tank will destroy all the solid matter, so that the water which flows out the lower end will be clear and have no objectionable odor. With an occasional clean-out such a tank will last forever.

The house should be provided with plenty of porches. These increase the expense somewhat, but also add much to the comfort and appearance of the house. Vines trained up over them to keep out the sun and screens to keep out the flies make them still more comfortable.

Nothing adds more to the external appearance of the house than a neat lawn of ample size. Do not make it too large, however, or the work of mowing will be likely to be neglected. A lawn is not hard to make. A little work leveling and preparing a fine seed bed and a liberal application of blue grass seed that will grow will almost certainly result in a good lawn.

Do not make the common mistake of planting trees too close to the house. They detract from the appearance and make the house close and stuffy. The opposite extreme should be avoided also. A few trees about the edges of the lawn furnish grateful shade and provide a flanking for the picture of which the house is the central figure.

The decorative value of shrubs is often not appreciated as much as it should be. A climbing rosebush over the porch or a few dwarf varieties in out of the way corners will add to the color and beauty of the yard. There are many other flowering shrubs, such as snowballs, geraniums and lilacs, that can be used to fill in empty spaces and corners.

A row or two of hard maples or elms along the driveway, with a thick evergreen windbreak to the north, will finish the supply of necessary trees unless there are corners or bare spaces about the yards that will be better for a tree or two.

You can judge a man better by the company he keeps than by the wife that he has to keep.

Consistency thou art not true!—

COMMISSION

PLAN DEFEATED BY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

Cities of First and Second Class With Control Their Own Affairs.

Louisville, Feb. 19.—The Republican state central committee, after holding executive session, announced its disapproval of the proposed W. O. Bradley rules. This knocks out the plan to place the control of the Republican party in the cities in the hands of a commission.

Most Hopeful Sign of the Future.

In this great country of ours there stands out pre-eminently the inventive genius, the masterful ability, the resourcefulness, the courage, the optimism of America's business men. At no period in the world's development have there been in any given country at any one time so many opportunities standing ready and so many young men able to embrace them and to move on to such splendid achievements, as we have in our United States today. It can not be possible that these young men will be pessimists, that they will miss the legion of opportunities that are theirs! And this is no waving of the American flag or screaming of the American eagle. The business enterprises—the healthy checks organized labor puts on capital—the strong, conservative check which those who have put upon those who have not, combined with the extraordinary freedom which our government gives us to come out and criticize one another—all this gives promise that the right course will be found and followed. Where else in the world is this true? It is the healthiest, the most hopeful sign of our great future for good. It is the clearest indication of the extraordinary opportunities ready at hand for those of us which have brains and who will play the game to its limit.—Appleton's Magazine.

A Substitute for Work.

"Physical culture, father is perfectly lovely!" exclaimed an enthusiastic young miss just home from college. "Look! To develop the arms I grasp this rod by one end and move it slowly from right to left."
"Well, well!" exclaimed the father. "What don't science discover! If that rod had straw at the other end you'd be sweeping."—Success Magazine.

"I would that I might share your griefs!"

"You'd look mighty funny with one of my shoes on."—Houston Post.

A CLOSE SHAVE

Many of Them Happening Every Day But Soon Forgotten.

Close shaves would be of more frequent occurrence but for the tender faces of many men, which will not permit of shaving often. Heretofore, nothing has been said in these columns about posam, a new skin discovery, in connection with its use after shaving. Its publicity and sales have been confined almost exclusively to its remarkable properties as an eczema cure; it stops the itching at once and cures the worst cases in a few days. While the application of posam after shaving is one of its minor uses, such as for pimples, the complexion, etc., chavers will find it a revelation, as it does for abrasions, roughness, and severe scrapings what it does for all manner of skin difficulties—heads and cures. In a few hours it is the only article possessing real antiseptic and curative value that has ever been exploited for this purpose, and will soothe and tone up the skin as no toilet preparation could possibly do.

Posam can be had for fifty cents at any reliable druggists' particularly Gilbert's, who make a specialty of it. Or the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West 25th Street, New York City, will send a trial supply free by mail to any one who will write for it. This is sufficient to show results in 24 hours.

Restored Their Health But Cost Them Nothing

Thousands of stomach and bowel sufferers have found the means of permanent good health and permanent good digestion through Dr. Caldwell's offer to send any sufferer a free trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. He believes from watching for twenty years what it has done that it will cure any case of chronic constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia, sour stomach, torpid liver, heartburn, biliousness, sick headache and similar disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. It is pleasant to take, acts mildly but none the less effectively, never gripes, and is as every way as ideal laxative for the family. It is wonderful in children's stomach troubles, and they like its agreeable taste. It is a vast improvement over gripe salts and cathartic pills, which are simply a temporary relief, while Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a permanent cure. Its tonic properties build up the stomach and intestinal muscles. Thousands are buying it of their druggists at 50 cents and $1 a bottle, but those who have never used it should write the Doctor for a free trial bottle so that they can make a test without expense. If you have a stomach, liver or bowel

MASONIC HONORS
ACCORDED J. E. JONES AT HIS FUNERAL AT OSCAR.
Prominent Farmer Dies Suddenly and Is Mourned By Entire Community.
Mr. J. E. Jones, 65 years old, a prominent farmer and a Mason of Oscar, died very suddenly Wednesday night of heart trouble. Mr. Jones was feeling well up to about two minutes before his death. He had retired after eating a hearty supper. About 9 o'clock he got out of bed and said he did not feel very well. He took just one step from the bed and pitched forward, falling to the floor. Before he could be lifted on the bed he died. Mr. Jones was a faithful member of the Christian church and he went by the name of "Father" Jones at Oscar. He is survived by his wife and five children: Mrs. Nannie Waford, Mrs. Anna Wyatt, Mrs. Phillips and Messrs. George and Will Jones.
The funeral was held this morning at 11 o'clock and the burial was in the Oscar cemetery. The Masonic lodge had charge of the funeral.

A RATHER QUIET 4TH

A General Holiday Observed With Many Out.

Amusements of Every Description Getting a Share of the Public Attention.

MANY VISITORS ARE HERE

The Fourth, a hot but auspicious day, is being somewhat quietly celebrated today, but everybody appears to be enjoying a holiday, and there are people at every place of amusement in large numbers. The stores nearly all closed at noon, and the banks, postoffice and courts were out of business until Monday.

Large crowds went across the river, many are at the Old Fort Massac celebration near Metropolis while Wallace park is filled with picnickers and sightseers and the old harmony singing is enjoying an immense crowd.

MILITARY BOYS HERE.

A portion of the Murray boys arrived last night, but the remainder of the company will get here this afternoon at 1:30. Mayfield is represented with about thirty-five. The total number of soldiers from the different cities are: Murray 55, Mayfield 35, Clinton 35 and Paducah 60, making a total of 185 soldiers.

The Clinton boys arrived at noon with nearly the full military company. About thirty members are here and a good showing will be made at the sham battle.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVE.

Roadmaster J. M. Russell of the Louisville division of the I. C. is in the city today looking after the trains.

The traffic on the road is heavy in the passenger service and the trainmen have all they can attend to. Both accommodation trains were loaded this morning and over a thousand people were brought in on the Hopkinsville and Fulton accommodation trains.

PERFORMANCES AT LA BELLE.

There will be four performances at the Casino, La Belle park, this afternoon and evening and the theater will no doubt be taxed to its utmost at every performance. The Seward shows are drawing large audiences and today will be the banner day.

FACTORIES CLOSED DOWN.

Few, if any, of the factories are running today. The employees are consequently out for a holiday and the railroads are not having much of a rush except in the passenger service, as no freight will be received or shipped today.

CROWDS LARGER THAN USUAL.

The railroad companies and boats are doing an enormous business and more people were brought here on the three morning trains and the several boats than have ever been brought here before for a Fourth of July celebration, it is said.

BASEBALL TODAY.

The baseball game between the Pepsi and Coca Cola will be witnessed by a large crowd, and the sham battle by perhaps as many as the park will hold. The military boys are here in large numbers and will make a splendid display.

RIVER SHOW ARRIVES.

The Swallow & Markle river show arrived last night and today the band paraded the streets and attracted a great deal of attention. The show has been here before and will doubtless get its share of patronage.

K. OF P. GO TO METROPOLIS.

The Uniform Rank No. 19, K. P., went to Metropolis this morning to appear in the exhibition drill. About twenty members of the rank went down and the K. P. lodge here will be well represented.

ASKS $1,000 DAMAGES.

Mr. F. M. Lawrence, the second-hand dealer of 216 court street, today filed suit against Armour & Co. for $1,000 damages, alleging that the defendant did maintain a nuisance in the way of a poultry slaughter house near his place of business and he has been damaged to that extent.

KENTUCKY POSTMEN

State Convention of Letter Carriers in Session Here.

Nine Out-of-Town Delegates Arrive—Business Meeting This Afternoon.

TONIGHT IS THE BANQUET

The State Letter Carriers' convention is being held today in Paducah. This morning the delegates from other cities arrived at 4 o'clock and were met at the depot by the local reception committee.

There are nine out-of-town delegates, as follows: Charles W. Huber and W. E. Farley, Louisville; Henry Rauch and D. E. Berry, Covington; W. M. Newton, Newport; E. R. Simcox, Robert L. Skinner and W. T. S. Carpenter, Lexington; Owen W. Farr, Frankfort. An informal reception was held this morning at the Palmer house, at which refreshments were served to the guests until noon.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock the business session began at Masonic hall and will probably last three hours. It will include the transaction of all business essential to the welfare of the Letter Carriers' association.

The delegates are all gentle, highly respected young men, and it is the first visit of most of them to Paducah. The postmen find it more difficult to get off to attend conventions than perhaps any other members of organizations, and they have so arranged it that the business can be transacted by a few.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

1 o'clock. Invocation—Rev. W. H. Robertson. Welcome address—D. A. Yeiser, Mayor.

Address of Welcome to Our Guests—J. G. Card, president Branch 383. Response—State President Henry Rauch, Newport.

Business Session Program to be Arranged by State President.

Address—Hon. F. M. Fisher, P. M., Paducah.

Address—Hon. W. C. Clark, ex-postmaster, Paducah.

Address—T. B. McGregor, Benton. Subject: "The Substitute Letter Carrier."

EVENING SESSION.

Reception to invited guests at Palmer House parlors 9 to 9:30 p. m.

Banquet 9:30 to 11:30 p. m. Toastmaster—Captain Ed Farley, ex-postmaster, introduced by President Card, Branch 383.

Responses to toasts by the following gentlemen: State President Henry Rauch, Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, ex-congressman, Major J. H. Ashcraft, ex-P. M., Hon. Chas. Reed, Dr. Don Gilbert, Captain J. E. Williamson, R. L. Skinner, state vice president, and F. M. Fisher, postmaster.

NICE PROGRAM

RENDERED AT CLOSING EXERCISES OF HOME OF FRIENDLESS SCHOOL.

Closing exercises of the school at the Home of the Friendless were held Tuesday afternoon. The children under the excellent management of Miss Raper, matron and teacher at the home, acquitted themselves with credit. The school room, which has been endowed by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Friedman, in memory of Mr. Friedman's father, the late Leopold Friedman, is furnished with every appliance for a well regulated school.

Icos and cako were served to the children after the exercises.

RAILROAD BRIDGE ON FIRE.

A telephone message received just before going to press this afternoon states that the Tennessee river bridge of the Illinois Central is on fire and had burned in two. All telegraph wires are expected to go down. As the bridge is iron, the damage will likely not be great. It is supposed sparks from a locomotive set it afire.

Justice R. J. Barber went to Dawson today to spend the 4th.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week $600,446 Same week last year 611,145 Decrease 10,699

Bank clearings show a slight decrease from the same week last year. This has been the case, however, in but few weeks this year. The first half of 1903 has closed and the period was the most profitable in the history of local banks. The expansion of their business was remarkable. The loans and discount accounts show an increase of nearly $700,000 in a year and the deposit accounts an increase of over $500,000. The net earnings showed the largest on record, too. As the banks are best indicators of the prosperity of a city these figures give an idea of the growth and great prosperity of Paducah.

Wholesale business for the week showed up a little better. Weather conditions were more favorable for the crops, and a better feeling exists all around.

Retail trade has been good, the majority of the houses reporting a good increase over the same period last year, notwithstanding the backwardness of summer.

THE LODGES

Red Men Take in Two Popular Citizens Last Night.

Elks Honor Past Officer—Other Secret Order News.

The Red men last night held their regular meeting and conferred the adoption degree on Police Captain Henry Bailey and Former Councilman G. R. Davis. The order is now one of the largest and most popular in the city.

The Uniform Rank K. of P. left today for Metropolis, where they will be guests of the rank of that place and assist in the big celebration at Old Fort Massac. The Paducah and Metropolis Sir Knights have established the most cordial of relations and needless to say all will enjoy the day.

A fine past exalted ruler's badge has been presented by the Paducah lodge of Elks to Capt. Wm. Kraus, past exalted ruler. Capt. Kraus was a most popular officer and is very proud of the jewel.

The election of officers of the Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, has been postponed until next Tuesday. The new organization promises to be one of the most popular in the city.

Ingliside lodge of Odd Fellows installed officers last night as follows: J. G. Switzer, noble grand; Frank L. Smith, vice grand; R. L. Gilbert, right support to noble grand; J. G. Smith, left support to noble grand; Q. P. Wallace, I. O.; V. G. Berry, W.; J. H. Maxwell, chaplain; W. C. Roark, R. S. S.; Charles Lock, L. S. S.; Charles Pryor, inner guard; S. J. Craig, outer guard; J. M. Cockrill, right support to vice grand; A. R. Davis, left support to vice grand. The finance committee is A. O. Meyer, J. T. Hutchens and Earl Hazen. Mangum lodge has postponed its installation until Thursday evening.

Mr. Robert Noble, the contractor, is entertaining about fifty of his friends over at the lakes today with a barbecue, and a most enjoyable time is being spent.

DEBATE ENDS

Both Sides Satisfied With the Result of it.

Two Ministers Fined in Graves County for a Breach of Peace.

The big religious debate at Sedalia, Graves county, between Revs. Hall and Pique has ended and was heard by a large crowd during the four days it lasted. Both Baptists and Methodists are confident their minister won, and there was nothing to mar the perfect harmony and good feeling which prevailed during the contest. Wild Bill Evans and W. M. Hicks, who had trouble of a wordy nature before the debate began, were tried before Justice Wilson and fined $5 and costs each. The Mayfield Messenger says of them:

"Public sentiment was strongly against them and many have expressed themselves that they should have been fined heavier for their conduct, but this may teach them an important lesson, and that hereafter they must not be so severe in their criticisms of each other."

"The debate was well attended by ministers of the Baptist church, there being over thirty present each day. The Methodist ministers were not there in such large numbers. The debate is over, however, and all is calm and serene."

ALLEGED FORGERY.

SON OF CAPT. TYNER CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSE.

Thomas Tyner, son of Captain James Tyner, of the Buttorff, is wanted here on a charge of forgery. It is claimed that he had Mr. George Goodman, the Second street liquor dealer, cash a check for him several days ago which proved to be a forgery. The check was apparently signed by Tyner & Earhart, of Nashville, and was returned as a forgery.

Captain Tyner stated that his son had forged a number of checks that he, Captain Tyner, had to make good, and he would no longer put up with it, and consequently the boy will be prosecuted if caught.

ONE LITTLE FLASH

Sent Vibrating Around World By Telegraph Today.

Pacific Cable Opened and Postal Circles the World With a Message.

HOW THE FEAT WAS DONE

The course of President Roosevelt's message around the world today was by the Postal Telegraph Co.'s land line from Oyster Bay to San Francisco, thence by the Commercial Pacific cables to Honolulu, to Midway, to Guam and to Manila. From Manila to Hong Kong the message passed by the cable which was lifted and cut by Admiral Dewey in 1898. From Hong Kong it went to Saigo, to Singapore, to Peking, to Madras, to Bombay, to Aden, to Suez, to Alexandria, to Malta, to Gibraltar, to Lisbon and to the Azores. Between Hong Kong and the Azores it had passed by foreign cables. At the Azores it was taken up again by the Commercial cables and sent to Canso, to New York and to Oyster Bay. The time of transmission was at noon today.

A message starting around the world at 5 a. m. today would arrive at Honolulu at 11 p. m. yesterday; at Midway at 10 p. m. yesterday; at Guam at 7 p. m. today, and at Manila at 8 p. m. today. It would pass through India at 8 p. m. today and would return to New York before 6 a. m.

Thus it would have an excursion from today into yesterday and have arrived back at New York within an hour of the time it started. Another message leaving New York at 8 p. m. today would arrive at Guam at 7 a. m. tomorrow, apparently fourteen hours after it started, continuing its journey around the world, it would arrive at Suez at midnight of today and back to New York this morning.

On May 16, 1896, at the National Electrical exposition held in the Grand Central Palace, New York, to demonstrate the promptness of modern telegraphic service a message written by the Hon. Chauncey Depew was sent from New York to Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Vancouver, Winnipeg and Canso to London, thence via Lisbon to Gibraltar, Malta, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Singapore, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Nagasaki and to Tokio and back again to New York, where it was received by Mr. Thos. A. Edison.

FEW ARRESTS

No Police Court Today and Few Happenings of Interest.

Females Flight and Will be Warranted for Trial Monday Morning.

Considerable excitement was created on a park car last night by a drunken man who insisted on cursing in the presence of ladies returning from the park. Motorman Burrows asked him to desist, but he became worse and started to pick up a rock with which to strike the motorman. He was then struck in the face with the switch key and had his nose split open. Subsequently he got possession of an iron rod used to turn switches and started through the car as if to go after the motorman, but was placed on the rear end and the door shut. No warrants were issued and the man's name was not learned.

In accordance with the law of the state, there was no court today, as it was a holiday.

Yesterday afternoon Ernest dorff and John Bulger were arrested in the sum of $150 each for robbing a man of $25 last Saturday at a South Second street saloon.

Hadder Stone, the colored girl who threw a rock through an I. C. window was held to answer in the sum of $50 and Bud Hill for rescuing her from officer.

Bulger and Elmendorf have given the $150 bond required of them and been released.

The police are making it warm for cows caught running at large, and if your cow truns up missing make inquiry at the city hall.

Minnie Grimes and Lillie Wormstead will be tried Monday on a charge of disorderly conduct, for which they were arrested by Officers Nance and Goulioux last night.

The police are investigating a fight that occurred last night between two women at Fifth and Court streets over a man. They had a lively scrap for awhile, but neither was seriously hurt. Warrants will be issued and the case will be aired in police court Monday.

George Brown, colored, was arrested last night on a breach of the peace charge by Officers Moore and Rogers. He will be given a hearing Monday.

SUIT RE-INSTATED

Ohio Concern Asks Judgment Against Calloway.

Request Lien and Sale of Property Amounting to $2,086.97.

A suit was today filed in the U. S. court here by the Aultman-Taylor Co., of Ohio, against W. and T. H. Hargrove, of Calloway county, to secure a lien and sale of property to satisfy a balance of $2,086.97 on a judgment secured several years ago.

The petition stated that in 1888 the plaintiff secured a judgment for $2,118.48 with interest and that only $1,365 had been paid on it, leaving at this date a balance, interest and principle, of $2,086.97. It is alleged that the defendants have property and the plaintiffs pray for a lien on same and that the action be redocketed and the prayer granted for lien and sale of property.

JOURNAL OF LABOR MADE ITS APPEARANCE TODAY.

The Journal of Labor a paper devoted to the interest of local union made its first appearance today, Samuel Simon editor. The intention is to make it a permanent institution.

Central Labor union is to shortly give an excursion in Paducah and the committee on arrangements is now at work preparing for it. The committeemen are: Messrs. Wm. Hoffman, L. Crandell, C. Bundy, P. Smith, Wm. Rawlings, J. Welkert, P. Martin, J. Stokes, M. Danaher, T. Scoopes, W. J. Forrester and Jerome Smith.

Organizer Sam Simon has installed a painters' and decorators' union at Mayfield. George Goddard is president.

COUSINS MARRY.

CAME FROM ILLINOIS BECAUSE THEY COULD NOT MARRY THERE.

Miss Regina Delenne and Mr. Jesse Johnston of Collinsville, Ill., were married at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. Rev. Father H. W. Jansen performed the ceremony.

The couple came here to be married because they are cousins, and it is against the law of the state of Illinois for cousins to wed. They returned home today.

ASKED TO RESIGN

Law and Order League Call on School Trustees.

Two Good Addresses and a Number of Good Talks Heard at the Meeting Last Night.

SEVERAL OFFICERS ELECTED

The Good Government league met last night at the Broadway M. E. church and eleven members were added. In an election of officers Mr. B. H. Scott was elected first vice president and Mr. W. J. Hills second vice president and Mr. W. B. Smith treasurer.

The following clause was added to the by-laws:

"It is distinctly understood that this league is not organized for the benefit of any candidate for office, and, unless by special action of the league to the contrary, the announcement as a candidate for office of any member shall be considered as his resignation as a member."

Addresses were made by Rev. W. C. Sellers on "The Responsibility of an Officer" and Rev. Thos. J. Newell on "The Responsibility of the Citizen." Talks were made by several others, and before the meeting adjourned the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, Mr. Ben Weille, as shown by the records of the courts, is a persistent violator of the statute laws of Kentucky, and

"Whereas, One Samuel Jackson is also the manager of a band of men who persistently violate the said laws, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the Good Government league of Paducah, Ky., that they resign as members of the school board of the city of Paducah and they are hereby requested to do so."

ALLOWED CLAIMS.

AND DEMOCRATS IN M'CRACKEN WILL SOON RECEIVE MONEY.

The Democratic state executive committee met at Frankfort yesterday and allowed the various claims against the committee for expenses incurred at the primary in May. The total expenses amounted to $19,600, and $16,000 of this was assessed against candidates, leaving $3600 yet to be paid by the nominees.

A committee was before the body relative to the Bush-Cook judicial contest but the committee decided not to hear it at present.

Chairman Young announced his intention to fight the Louisville machine until one of them gets licked.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TO HEAR CONTEST.

COMMITTEEMEN FIND THEY ARE COMPELLED TO SIT IN CASE.

The contest of Attorney L. K. Taylor for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in this district will probably be tried shortly by the judicial committee, composed of Chairman Morrison, of McCracken and Chairman Edwards, of Marshall, after all. It has been discovered that the law makes it compulsory on the committeemen to hear such contests, instead of making it optional with them. Preparations are accordingly being made to take up the matter again, and Mr. Lovett has filed his answer to the allegations contained in Taylor's contest papers.

CURES SCIATICA.

INTERESTING W. L. Riley, LL.D., Omaha, writes: "After fifteen days of debilitating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I to rent, $5 induced to try Ballard's Snow and thirteenth, the first application giving furnish first relief, and the second entire prove relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co."

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All. How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, various etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. Knapp Medical Co., Box 1144 Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from their daily mail show what men think of their generosity.

"Dear Sir:—Please accept my sincere thanks for your gift of recent date. I have given you treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man to have it.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS.

(St. Louis Chronicle.)

A man was driving a beautiful horse. At the roadside was a watering trough. The animal swerved from the road. Its delicate muzzle was quivering and a short whinny said as plain as a horse can talk, "Master, I am very thirsty; please can I have a drink?"

The answer was a jerk on the reins, a blow with the whip, and the rig disappeared in a cloud of dust.

That was cruelty—unthinking cruelty—and it brings up the whole question of hot weather treatment of animals.

Is your horse given water frequently? Do you give your dog and your cat water as often as they desire it, or do you simply guess they will find all the water they need?

The owner of any animal, large or small, who does not think of these things is not fit to own a dumb brute. Not to provide for the wants of domestic animals and pets is cruelty that causes torture. It is not safe to trust to an animal's finding food or drink.

In a wild state they were able to do this. Domesticated they have learned to rely on man, and in many instances they have met with base betrayal. Water is as essential as food. In the hot days of July and August it really comes before food.

Kindness to animals is more than kindness; it is justice.

The man who beats a horse can be reached by the law, although too seldom does he meet with his just deserts.

The man who does not beat his horse and who forgets to water him for long periods can seldom be reached by the law, and yet his cruelty is far greater than temporary pain that follows the feet of the lash.

Think about these things. Remember how it feels when your own throat is dry and parched, and look after the needs of your four-footed friends.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Kompe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick and threw up all food; could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world."

White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

EXPRESS COMPANIES.

LIFT RATES.

Chicago, July 4.—Announcements of a heavy advance in merchandise rates were sent out today to all the shippers by the express companies. The new schedule went into effect on July 1 by joint agreement and henceforth the shipper of packages weighing less than fifty pounds will have to bear the burden of the increase.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it is the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever-producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Advancement in Norway.

A Swedish company has purchased the Ifjungen Falls at Telemarken, in Norway, in order to apply its power to industrial purposes. This is one of the largest waterfalls in the world, and plans are being drawn up for making use of it. This company tried to obtain some of the falls in Sweden, but that Government retained them for public objects.

WILL BE ARTISTIC

Coming Production of "Faust" Arouses Great Interest.

Will be the Most Complete, Elaborate and Satisfactory Amateur Performance on Record Here.

DETAILS OF ARRANGEMENTS

The greatest interest is being taken in the forthcoming production of "Faust" for the benefit of the Paducah chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, by local talent, assisted by Mr. James A. Young of New York, a young actor of considerable age, who will be seen in the role of Mephisto, and by Miss Lillian Lancaster, Paducah's gifted little actress, who is fast gaining an enviable place in the drama. It will be remembered that Mr. Young and Miss Lancaster were seen here in "Quo Vadis," and were greeted by the largest house that ever crowded the Kentucky. Their friends are anxiously looking forward to this second appearance, and in the beautiful classic "Faust," the greatest of German masterpieces of literature, their talents will have a wider scope.

The play is a very ambitious one, the parts of Mephisto and Marguerite demanding extreme versatility. Mephisto, as is well known, is one of the strongest and most difficult characters of the drama, while the role of Marguerite ranges from the gentle, child-like innocence of the famous garden scene to supreme and tragic emotion of the death scene in the prison.

The beautiful moral of the play is one that will live through all the ages, and is one that touches the heart and soul of every Christian thinker; the eternal battle of the church and the devil, with the church and love of God triumphant.

The entire cast has been carefully selected, and Paducah will be both surprised and proud of the amount of real talent that has developed here. The whole production will be put on with every precision and as much regard to details as if a professional one. Special scenery and electrical effects for the weird Broken scene have been brought from New York and altogether it promises to be a beautiful scenic treat.

The noble cause for which it is produced should assure a packed house, and this, together with the popularity of the members of the company, leaves no room to doubt of its perfect success.

The following is the complete cast: Mephisto—Mr. James A. Young. Faust—Mr. Omar Fowler. Valentine—Mr. Edwin J. Paxton. Wagner, Brandon, Feeche, Siebel, students—Mr. Will Gilbert, Mr. Bert Gilbert, Mr. Arthur Y. Martin, Mr. Robert Caldwell.

Martha—Miss Geraldine Sanders. Elsie—Miss Mary Sykes. Liza—Miss Frances Herndon. Olga—Miss May V. Patterson. Gretchen—Miss May Hayes. Marguerite—Miss Lillian Lancaster. Peasant girls and village children—Maybelle Heyer, Floyd Swift, Mabel Smith, Dow Gilson, Claire St. John, Katherine Thomas, Della Gilson, Willie Willie, Bessie Grigsby, May Frederick, Emma Greer, Olga East, Mollie Gardner, Rosella Farley, Lena Edwards, Helen Mills.

Choir boys—James Langstaff, Walker Bowman, Randolph Bowman, Rabb Noble Kirkland, Harry Sloan, Frank Wahl, Fred Wahl, Tom Terrell, Leo McElwee, James McElwee, Lionel Levy, Dave Yelzer, Norvin Alley, Goverel Rosenthal, Las Powell, Warren Gilbert, Nelson Soule, Billie Powell, Sam Winstead, Wheeler Worten, Emmett Quick.

Demons, witches, evil spirits, etc. Harry Gilbert, musical director.

THE SUN'S PUZZLE PICTURE.

Ling Lung had not expected to celebrate the Fourth. Can you see the two boys who set off the mine?

The Week In Society.

SUMMER WANDERERS.

The warm weather will start the usual summer exodus of Paducah people to summer resorts in the next few weeks. The watering places near this city have all had their openings and will doubtless be liberally patronized by Paducahans during the warm months as they generally are. Dawson, Corleann, Crittenden, Creal and Dixon vie in popularity, and each has many Paducah visitors, during the season.

Many people from this city will go to Michigan, and a few to the mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina. The Morton family of this place, including Misses Mollie, Susie, Adine and Cherie Morton left Tuesday of last week for their summer home in Flat Rock, N. C. They will remain until October. Dr and Mrs. R. A. Hicks are spending the summer in the Tennessee mountains.

SOCIETY AND THE FOURTH.

No special entertainments of a patriotic character have been arranged to celebrate the glorious Fourth, by Paducah society. Several informal picnics are on the program for today, and a large crowd will attend the baseball game this afternoon to be played at Wallace park, between the Coca Colas and the Peppols, for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless.

PRESS CONVENTION TRIP.

Miss Mary Boswell and Miss Anne Boswell and probably others from Paducah will attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press convention in Lexington July 22-23. A trip east which will include Canada has been arranged. Niagara Falls is in the itinerary and the tour will prove a most delightful one.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foster entertained with a dance at Wallace park pavilion Friday evening. As one of the first on door dances of the season, it was much enjoyed. The guests were: Messrs. G. R. Noble, H. W. Hinkle, W. H. McPherson, L. P. Jones, Harris Rankin, Harry McElwee, Peter Poryear, Fred Rudy, James P. Smith, P. H. Stewart, R. G. Terrell, H. E. Thompson, H. L. Bradley, W. F. Thompson, Joe Sinnott, Stewart Sinnott, Wallace Weil, Dow Wilcox, and Dr. J. Q. Taylor, Dr. Allen Ashcraft and Dr. I. H. Howell.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson entertained a few of her friends with a farewell dance at the residence of her grandmother Joseph Johnson, Tuesday evening. Miss Wilson, her grandmother, her mother, Mrs. Chloe Wilson, and little brother, will leave July 15 for St. Louis to reside. The guests were: Misses Lillian Logue, Leah Johnson, Kate Holliday, Virginia Johnson, Eunice McElhaney, Claire St. John, Floyd Swift, Horace Thurman, May Belle Beyer, Nellie Henneberger, Theresa Willett, Inez Kruger, Messrs. Harry King, Mair Given, Ivo Pettit, Frank McCarney, Louis Carnes, Carol Gliven, Henry Henneberger, Jesse Thurman, Rob Leigh, W. T. McDowell, Duffot, George Holliday, Strother Smith, Will Graham, Edgar Warren, Eugene Richardson, Boone, Bolton.

Mrs. H. S. Wells entertained a few young people informally at lunch Tuesday evening at her home on Court street near Fifth in honor of Miss Florence Hutchinson on Chicago, guest of Mrs. Frank Fulton. The first prize a box of candy was won by Miss Hutchinson. The booby prize, a bottle of shoe polish went to Mr. George DuBois. The guests were: Misses Florence Hutchinson, Chicago; Frances Terrell, Marjorie Scott, Gertrude Scott, Ethel Brooks, Louise Cox, Messrs. John Brooks, George DuBois, Vaughan Scott, David Koger, George Poage, and Douglas Hagby. Light refreshments were served.

The following party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John Hall to Metropolitan Landing for a picnic Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, Mrs. Bessie Allen, Mrs. J. J. Freulich and Misses Bernice Greif, Fannie Clark, Bees Hall, Carrie Ham, Lillie Hubbard, of Hickman. Messrs. George Moore and James Coomes, Ewing Long, Herbert Epps and Edgar Warren.

A surprise dinner party was given to Mr. R. B. Phillips Monday evening by Mrs. Phillips at their home on Jefferson street near Ninth in celebration of his 40th birthday. A dainty menu was served and the table was decorated in sweet peas. The guests were: Messrs. J. A. Rudy, Richard Rudy, George Wallace, Joseph L. Friedman and Will Webb.

A lawn party was given by the Ramsey Society of the Broadway Methodist church, Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Mildred Davis on Court street, near Seventh. A large crowd was in attendance and a nice sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

The order of the Eastern Star entertained with a social session Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall on North Fourth street. A "peanut walk" formed the diversion for the evening and refreshments were served at Soule's.

Mrs. R. G. Terrell entertained Tuesday morning informally at cards in honor of Mrs. Charles Trueheart of Louisville. The first prize was won by Miss Pollie Ferriman and the guest's prize went to Mrs. Trueheart.

The Presbyterian Sunday schools of the city including that of the First Presbyterian church, Mizpah and Hebrew missions went to Almo on the N., C. and St. L. road Wednesday for a picnic.

The Retail Merchants' association celebrated its first anniversary Wednesday evening with a social session at the K. P. hall. Some bright toasts followed an elaborate banquet.

Miss Sammie Wallace entertained a few friends Tuesday evening at her home on Jackson street.

The Greeting club gave a dance Thursday evening at Wallace park pavilion.

A party of the young people of the city had a picnic on the Benton road today.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Mrs. Mattie L. Wilkerson and Mr. R. C. Benner is announced to take place Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Downes, 220 North Seventh street. Mrs. Wilkerson is a young woman of many charms. Mr. Benner is a representative of the New York Life Insurance company in this city. He came here from Pennsylvania a few years ago, and has become very popular in this city. The couple will reside here.

A surprise wedding was that of Miss Mairie Bradshaw of this city, and Mr. Frank Murray of Pine Bluff, Ark., which took place in Memphis Monday at noon at the Gayoso hotel. The bride left here Monday morning with her brother, Mr. Miller Bradshaw, and was joined there by the groom. The couple remained in Memphis until Wednesday when they went to Pine Bluff, where they will reside.

Mr. William Grigsby, formerly of this city and now of Lexington, and Miss Bessie Thomas of Louisville, were married in Louisville Tuesday at noon. Mr. E. A. Grigsby, of this city, a brother of the groom, attended the wedding.

Miss Pearl Cook of this city, and Mr. Thomas Clifford, of Marion, were married Tuesday morning at the residence of the bride's parents on South Fourth street. The couple will reside in Marion. Miss Fredonia Sible and Mr. Maurice M. Henly of Littleville were married Thursday afternoon. Rev. T. J. Owen performed the ceremony.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Happiness is a paradox, because it may co-exist with trial, sorrow and poverty. It is the gladness of the heart—rising superior to all conditions.—William George Jordan.

THE RUSSIAN AFFAIR.

There will likely not be any serious results from the Russian affair. Owing to the stir which has been raised over the petition prepared by Jewish societies of the United States to be sent to the Russian government, the petition will probably not now be sent, and the incident will end. The Russian massacre was a horrible, inexcusable outrage, but apparently it was a local act, and not a national one, and the government having removed the governor of the province, and evinced a determination to punish all those implicated in the carnage, indicates that it regrets it as much as do the humane people of this country.

But however that may be, this government decided, according to reports, that a petition prepared by certain societies would be sent through official channels to Russia. Owing to the rapidity with which news travels in this enlightened age Russia soon became aware of such intention of the United States and in a diplomatic, tactful manner authorized a statement that the Russian government would not regard kindly such a petition. Thus the Russian government knows just as well as if it had the petition itself that the Jews in the United States disapprove of the massacre of their co-religionists in Russia, sympathize with the unfortunates' families and appeal to the government for protection for other Jews in Russia. The United States knows that Russia would regard the petition as extremely indelicate, if not officious, and inasmuch as all concerned know pretty well about what each thinks the matter can well be dropped without saying or doing anything more. It is not believed the Jewish citizens of the United States would desire that this government run the risk of straining its relations with a powerful nation over a petition which could possibly benefit no one. The conclusion of the United States will probably be something similar to that of a prominent diplomat, who is quoted as saying:

"It would be construed as an interference by this government with the internal affairs of Russia. Such interference cannot be defended either by diplomatic usage or international law. It would establish a precedent that would be embarrassing in all future diplomatic relations. Other governments will find warrant in it for making representations to the United States which this country, with its complex government and the peculiar relations which the general government maintains toward the state governments, cannot answer. "In case foreigners who have espoused citizenship in this country become the victims of mob violence in any of the states foreign governments will be warranted in calling the attention of this government to such outrages, and with the proposed precedent could even go further and suggest immediate remedies, which the federal government, which has delegated the policing power to states, would be unable to enforce."

This is Independence day, the anniversary of our country's birth, and as it is not its first appearance it is presumed our readers know its meaning

and the proper way to celebrate it. At any rate, owing to the hot weather and the desire of our force to get a half holiday, no effusions on the subject of Fourth of July will adorn these columns today. The glorious Fourth comes once a year, and will doubtless be back on time next summer. The most timely admonition is to keep cool and don't fool with the gun that isn't loaded or get in front of one that shoots blank cartridges.

The young men of Maryland have adopted a new method of settling their differences which might be the vogue here in Kentucky if so many firearms were not imported. They fell out at a dance and agreed to meet the next day and fight it out. They met in a field and had 500 interested spectators present to see them pummel each other until one was insensible. The man who got licked was pretty sore at last accounts, but with all that is probably not feeling so bad as a well licked man in Maryland, as he might have felt as a corpse in Kentucky.

The discovery that Gen. Cassin M. Clay, the "sage of Whitehall," is crazy is no discovery at all to many. It has been evident to those who have been reading of his antics for several years past that he was either crazy or just a natural born imbecile. His latest diversion is to send for friends and relatives who live at a distance to come to see him and then not allow them to come near the place after they have traveled many miles at his request.

Good Marksmanship Needed.

In the days of wooden navies and brass cannonades seamanship was everything. The best captain was he who could most skillfully maneuver to bring the enemy within effective range of his guns and put his own ship in a position to rake that of his antagonist. When this had been accomplished the battle turned more on rapidity of fire and weight of metal than on accuracy of aim. Nowadays straight shooting is the sine qua non. To secure the highest possible efficiency in this respect is a matter of much greater moment than to add battleships to our navy that are not needed and which if poorly manned would be of comparatively little service.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Paducah at Jackson, two games.
Clarksville at Hopkinsville.
Henderson at Cairo, two games.

PADUCAH WON A GAME!

Jackson, Tenn., July 4—Girard won the game for Paducah here yesterday afternoon. He held the home club down to five hits and with three men on bases knocked a home run, giving the Indians a lead that the Jackson boys could not tally. Result, 7 to 4. Paducah made four scores in the third, one in the fifth and two in the sixth, while Jackson made one in each the second, third, seventh and ninth. Batteries, Accorsini and Butler.

HOPTOWN WAKES UP.

Hopkinsville, July 4—The defeat of the home team the day before was discounted yesterday by our own victory over the Clarksville boys by a score of 16 to 1. The Hoptown boys bunched their fifteen hits, while Clarksville could do nothing with the five hits credited to her. The batteries were: Hoptown, Morris and Street; Clarksville, Collins, Reid, Rayen and Holmes.

GEE, LOOK AT CAIRO!

Cairo, July 4—Henderson was shut out again yesterday by the Cairo club by a score of 10 to 0. The heavy batting of Wallace, Cairo's left fielder, was a feature. He made two home runs and a three bagger out of four times at bat. Cairo got 8 hits and 1 error and Henderson 1 hit and 3 errors.

EUREKA DOWN IN DEFEAT.

In one of the fastest games of the season Ben Boyd's crack colored club was beaten by the East St. Louis aggregation yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3. The time was one hour and twenty minutes, and it is the first out of nine games that the Paducah club has lost.

A LITTLE DOPE.

President Ben Weille has signed Best, a Memphis league pitcher with a good reputation for strike-outs. Best will arrive today or tomorrow and the battery for tomorrow will be Best and Kelly, the latter, the Vincennes catcher, arriving tonight from his home. This will be of interest to the local baseball fans and the fact that a new battery will appear will be sufficient to draw more than the usual attendance.

Perhaps some time in the season the Paducah club will be permanently arranged so the boys can get used to their positions and not be changed about every day. Other clubs in the league are not having to do it, and there is no reason Paducah should.

President Weille has tried to secure good players, and in proof of the fact this morning rendered a check to the telegraph companies to the amount of $50, total for telegrams last month. This looks like business and Paducah will have a team at any cost.

President Weille has not yet heard from Southoff relative to sending two pitchers, but states that he has three good ones in mind and will pick the best.

Potts will arrive tonight and appear in tomorrow's game. Sawyer has not agreed to come, but President Weille will hold him to his contract.

Girard is the surest thing Paducah has. He is always good for a hit, and his home run yesterday was the feature of the game.

Cairo must be playing mighty good ball or Henderson, the "top-notchers," might rotten ball.

If Edmunds goes one of the surest hitters they have will go.

Tomorrow Jackson comes to Paducah for another game.

Mr. Solon L. Palmer, of Benton, is in the city.

THE TRIUMPHS OF PE-RU-NA INCREASE.

Thousands of Chronic Ailments of Women Cured Every Month—Disguised Internal Catarrh the Enemy of Women—Pe-ru-na the Only Internal System to Catarrh Remedy Yet Devised—Prominent Cases in Illustration.

Nervous Depression.

Summer months are peculiarly the months of nervous diseases, especially nervous prostration and other depressed states of the nervous system. People who are not at all inclined to be nervous or suffer from weak nerves find this time especially trying. Sultry heat and electrical disturbances of the atmosphere are probably the cause of this.

Invalids need to be particularly careful to fortify the nervous system by the use of Peru-na.

Miss Helen Rolof, Kaukauna, Wis., writes: "Several times during the past two years or more my system has been greatly in need of a tonic, and at those times Peru-na has been of great help in building up the system, restoring my appetite and securing restful sleep. I know a great number of women who are using it for the troubles peculiar to the sex, and with the best results."

—Helen Rolof.

MISS HELEN ROLOF.

MISS LOUISE HERTSEL.

Miss Louise Hertsel, 1914 Second street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "My health was excellent until about six months ago, when I seemed to have a collapse from overdoing socially, and the doctor ordered an entire change of scene and climate. As this was an absolute impossibility at the time, I had to try and regain my health in another way and was induced by a friend, who gave Peru-na such a good recommendation, to try Peru-na. I cannot tell you the condition of my nerves when I began to use it. The least noise irritated me, and I felt that life was not worth living. But Peru-na soon changed me into a well woman, and now I do not know I have nerves."

—Louise Hertsel.

A newspaper contributor was lately admitted into the extensive suite of offices which constitute the headquarters of Dr. Hartman, who treats catarrh patients by the thousand. Among the busy array of assistant doctors, clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers, Dr. Hartman stopped long enough to say a few words.

"A large number of female patients visit me every year, but the number who are entered on my books as regular patients and are treated by correspondence is very much larger. Hundreds of letters are received and answered free every day. A yet greater number take my catarrh remedy, Peru-na, and are cured, of whom I never hear. Some of this latter class write me years after their cure."

"I never allow a name published except by the written consent of the patient. We make no charge at any time. The medicine only is obtained by each patient at her own drug store. Those desiring to become regular patients have only to send address, duration of disease and treatment previously received, and I directions for the first month's treatment, it will be sent at once."

Over half the women have a catarrh in some form or another. And yet, probably not a tenth of the women know that their disease is catarrh. To distinguish catarrh of various organs it has been named very differently.

One woman has dyspepsia, another bronchitis, another Bright's disease, another liver complaint, another consumption, another female complaint. These women would be very much surprised to hear that they are all suffering with chronic catarrh. But it is so, nevertheless.

Each one of these troubles and a great many more are simply catarrh—that is, chronic inflammation of the mucous lining, of which organ is affected. Any internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in another location. This is why Peru-na has become so justly famous in the cure of female diseases. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures remain. Peru-na does not palliate—it cures.

MISS JENNIE FINLEY.

Miss Jennie Finley, 79 Madrie's Street, Memphis, Tenn., a popular young society lady of that place, writes: "Three years ago I had very poor health, and while I was only sick occasionally, I was unable to enjoy life, and lacked vitality and strength. I was an easy subject to cold and influenza. Four bottles of Peru-na changed my entire physical condition. My head stopped aching, my strength returned, and I was able to drive out of my blood all I felt like a new and well woman once more. It is a truly great medicine and well worthy the good things its friends say about it, and it will always have my indorsement."

—Jennie Finley.

MISS LUCY M. HILEY.

Miss Lucy M. Hiley, 33 Davenport street, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I wish to add my indorsement to thousands of other women who have been cured through the use of Peru-na. I suffered for five years with severe headache, and when weary or worried in the least I had prolonged headache. This all I sought to cure, and was advised to take Peru-na for it. I imagine my astonishment and pleasure to find that after taking two bottles not only was my cough gone, but I had no more headache or headache. I am now in perfect health, enjoy life and have neither an ache or pain, thanks to Peru-na."

—Lucy M. Hiley.

"Waiting in the bank directly in front of me was a charming woman
of twenty or so who was having her
first experience in banking," said the merchant as he lighted his cigar after luncheon. "She was asked the
questions usual for one who is opening an account; her name, address,
whether married or single and her father's and mother's name. She got along all right until the clerk asked:
"Mother's maiden name, please."
"I don't quite understand, I'm afraid," she said hesitatingly.
"I mean your mother's name when
she was a girl," explained the clerk.
"How should I know? I don't like impertinence, Sir! How should I know? I didn't know her when she was a girl. The idea! Are you trying

WHEN BABY IS COMING USE Mother's Friend

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert as she foresees the joy, ambition, success and the life-long satisfaction coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl or a brave boy face beside her on the pillow as she rests to her expectancy. Mother's Friend applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced by the continued use of this great liniment, MOTHER'S FRIEND. Buy of druggists, $1.00 per bottle. Our treatise "Motherhood" mailed free. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Theatrical Notes.

Mart W. Hanley, who was the manager for Harrigan and Hart when they were at the height of their popularity in New York, and who was the manager and partner of Robert Mantell for the past seven years, has dissolved his partnership with that actor.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell will appear at Wyndham's theater, London, in "The Joy of Living," under the management of Charles Frohman. Martin Harvey, whose new play, "The Exiles," was a failure, has been engaged by Mr. Frohman to support Mrs. Campbell.

Forbes Robertson and Gertrude E. Lott will begin their American tour in Kipling's "The Light That Failed," at Buffalo, N. Y., on September 21. The dramatization which they will see was made by Constance Fletcher, whose nom de plume is George Fleming.

Grace George and her husband, William A. Brady, with their infant son, are in Europe. Owing to certain repairs and improvements that have been ordered by the department of buildings, Miss George will not be able to open at the Madison Square theater in "Pretty Peggy" as early as was at first intended.

True S. James, who has written a domestic play of Colorado entitled "The Garden of the Gods," will be started in that play during the coming season under the management of Mr. Hanley. The scenic effects will be unusually beautiful.

Mr. James was married on June 17 to Miss Grace Turner, of Evansville, Ind., so he will enter upon his career as a star and a benedict at about the same time.

The new play is said to tell a charming story, with humor and heart interest well blended.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

Huntington, Ind., by some of their young friends at the home of their uncle, Rev. B. F. Whitman on the South Side Tuesday. The young ladies left Thursday for Cincinnati.

The Merry-makers' club will be entertained Wednesday evening by Miss Louise Detzel at her home 719 Madison street at cards.

PERSONAL.

Miss Kate Hayes, of Dyersburg, Tenn., is the guest of Miss May Hayes.

Mrs. Thomas C. Leach left yesterday to spend the summer in Montreal, Canada, her former home.

Mr. T. J. Flournoy will leave next week for Tennessee to join a party and will leave July 16 for a trip abroad.

Mrs. W. D. Greer and daughters, Mrs. Charles Moeqnot and Miss Myrtle Greer, left this week for Petoskey, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Alben Barkley returned Wednesday from their wedding trip to the Tennessee mountains and are at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Coburn, 414 Washington street.

Misses Robble Loving, Lillie May Winstead, Blanch Hills and Mary Scott left Friday for Paris, Tenn., to attend a house party to be given by Miss Louise Dumas. The young ladies will go from Paris to Hinson Springs to attend another house party.

The contemplated removal of Dr. and Mrs. Warwick M. Cowgill and sons William and Allen, to Lincoln, Nebraska, to reside, will be regretted by their many friends in this city. Mrs. Cowgill is prominent in social, church and club circles and will be greatly missed. Dr. Cowgill will go to Nebraska in a few days and if he is satisfied with the location, his family will soon follow him.

The Nashville Banner of Thursday contains an interesting account of the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp, near Nashville, which Master Vaughan Dabney of this city, joined. The camp is situated on Caney Fork river, on a high bluff, surrounded by beautiful scenery and affords opportunities for bathing, boating and fishing and other diversions which appeal especially to boys. The camp opened Thursday and will last until Saturday July 11.

Champion "Square" Man. George Morrish of Holbrook comes mighty near being a square man. It is said that he measures 4 feet 10 inches from the top of his head to the point of his big toe, and 4 feet 10 inches around his body at what soldiers term the salient point.

BEAR TOOK CARE OF HER.

Little Child Carried Off by Animal and Put to Bed.

An extraordinary but apparently well-authenticated story of a bear's freak comes from a Russian village in the district of Odoff. The village lies on the fringe of a forest, whence it is of frequent occurrence for bears to make prowling excursions both by day and night into the adjacent settlements. Some two weeks ago two young girls, aged respectively 6 and 13, were surprised by a huge bear at a short distance from the village. The animal seized and carried off the younger child, while the elder, terror-stricken, fled home and gave the not unusual alarm.

An immediate pursuit was instituted and the search was continued during the evening and the next day, but without result. On the third day, with the assistance of neighboring villagers, a wide cordon was drawn around an extensive tract of the forest, and the searchers closed in. Toward sundown the bear and her booty were discovered in a dense thicket. The child was perfectly unharmed, says the London Mail, and reclining in a deep mossy couch made for her by the bear.

GRAUSTARK

...By... GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"There was one other condition," said Boleroz hastily, unable to glance at her. "The recapture of the assassin."

"I have the prisoner, your highness."

the assassin who slew my son would have meant much to Graustark. It is unfortunate that your police department is so inefficient. Dangloss writhed beneath this thrust. Yette's eyes went to him for an instant sorrowfully. Then they dropped to the fatal document which Gaspen had placed on the table before her. The lines ran to gether and were the color of blood. Unconsciously she took the pen in her nerveless fingers. A deep sigh came from the breast of her gray old uncle, and Gaspen's hand shook like a leaf as he placed the seal of Graustark on the table, ready for use.

"The assassin's life could have saved you," went on Boleroz, a vengeful glare coming to his eyes.

She looked up and her lips moved as if she would have spoken. No words came, no breath, it seemed to her. Casting a piteous, hunted glance over the faces before her, she bent forward and blindly touched the pen to the paper. The silence was that of death. Before she could make the first stroke a harsh voice, in which there was combined triumph and amazement, broke the stillness like the clanging of a bell.

"Have you no honor?"

The pen dropped from her fingers as the expected condemnation came. In sheer desperation, her eyes flashing with the intensity of defiant guilt, bitter rage welling up against her persecutor, she half arose and cried:

"Who uttered these words? Speak!"

"I, Gabriel of Dawsberg! Where is the prisoner, madam?" rang out the voice.

"The man is dead!" cried she, shivering back with a shudder.

"Mad, eh? Because I do as I did promise? Behold the queen of justice! Madam, I will be heard. Lorry is in this castle!"

"He is dead!" gasped Boleroz, the first of the stunned spectators to find his tongue.

There was a commotion near the door. Voices were heard outside.

"You have been duped!" insisted Gabriel, taking several steps toward the throne. "Your idol is a traitress, a deceiver; I say he is here! She has seen him! Let her shut that device if she dares! I command you, Yette of Graustark, to produce this criminal!"

The impulse to crush the deceiver was checked by the sudden appearance of two men inside the curtains.

"He is here!" cried a strong voice, and Lorry, breathless and haggard, pushed through the astonished crowd, followed by Captain Quinnox, upon whose ghastly face there were blood stains.

A shout went up from those assembled, a shout of joy. The faces of Dangloss and Allode were pictures of astonishment and, it must be said, relief. Harry Anguish staggered, but recovered himself instantly and turned his eyes toward Gabriel. That worthy's legs trembled and his jaw dropped.

"I have the prisoner, your highness," said Quinnox in hoarse, discordant tones. He stood before the throne with his captive, but dared not look his mistress in the face. As they stood there the story of the night just passed was told by the condition of the two men. There had been a struggle for supremacy in the dungeon, and the prisoner had won. The one had tried to hold the other to the dungeon's safety after his refusal to leave the castle, and the other had fought his way to the halls above. It was then that Quinnox had wit enough to change front and drag his prisoner to the place which, most of all, he had wished to avoid.

"The prisoner?" shouted the northern nobles, and in an instant the solemn throne-room was wild with excitement.

"Do not sign that decree!" cried some one from a far corner.

"Here is your man, Prince Boleroz!" cried a baron.

"Quinnox has saved me!" shouted another.

The princess, white as death and as motionless, sat bolt upright in her royal seat.

"Oh!" she moaned piteously, and, clenching her hands, she carried them to her eyes as if to shut out the sight.

The Countess Halfont and Dagmar ran to her side, the latter frantic with alarm. She knew more than the others.

"Are you the fugitive?" cried Boleroz.

"I am Grenfall Lorry. Are you Boleroz?"

"The father of the man you murdered. Ah, this is capture!"

"I have only to say to your highness I did not kill your son. I swear it, so help me God!"

"Your highness," cried Boleroz, stepping to the throne, "destroy that decree. This brave soldier has saved Graustark. In an hour your ministers and mine will have drawn up a ten years' extension of time, in proper form, to which my signature shall be gladly attached. I have not forgotten my promise."

Yette straightened suddenly, seized the pen and thereby began to sign the decree in spite of all and before those about her fairly realized her intention. Lorry understood and was the first to snatch the document from her hands. A half written Yette, a blot and a long, splintering scratch of the pen told how near she had come to signing away the lands of Graustark, forgetful of the fact that it could be of no benefit to the prisoner she loved.

"Yette!" gasped her uncle in horror.

"She would have signed," cried Gaspen in wonder and alarm.

"Yes, I would have signed!" she exclaimed, starting to her feet, strong and defiant. "I could not have saved his life, perhaps, but I might have saved him from the cruel injustice that that man's vengeance would have invented. He is innocent, and I would give my kingdom to stay the wrong that will be done."

"Stop!" cried the princess, the command checking the men. Quinnox leaped in front of his charge. "He is my prisoner, and he shall have justice. Keep back your soldiery, Prince Boleroz. It is a girl you have to deal with. I will say to you all, my people and yours, that I believe him to be innocent; and that I sincerely regret his capture, fortunate as it may be for us. He shall have a fair and a just trial, and I shall do all in my power, Prince Boleroz, to secure his acquittal."

"Why do you take this stand, Yette? Why have you tried to shield him?" cried the heart broken Halfont.

She drew herself to her full height, and, sweeping the threatening crowd with a challenge in her eyes, cried, the tones ringing strong and clear above the growing tumult:

"Because I love him!"

As if by magic the room became suddenly still.

"Behold an honest man. I would have saved him at the cost of my honor. Scorn me if you will, but listen to this: The man who stands here accused came voluntarily to this castle, surrendering himself to Captain Quinnox that he might, though innocent, stand between us and disaster. He was safe from our pursuit, yet returned, perhaps to his death. For me, for you and for Graustark he has done this. Is there a man among you who would have done as much for his own country? Yet he does this for a country to which he is stranger. I must commit him to prison once more. But," she cried in sudden fierceness, "I promise him now, before the trial, a royal pardon. Do I make my meaning clear to you, Prince Boleroz?"

The white lips of the old prince could frame no reply to this daring speech.

"Be careful what you say, your highness," cried the prisoner lustily. "I must refuse to accept a pardon at the cost of my honor. It is because I love you better than my life that I stand here. I cannot allow you and your people to suffer when it is in my power to prevent it. All that I can ask is fairness and justice. I am not guilty, and God will protect me. Prince Boleroz, I call upon you to keep your promise. I am not the slayer of your son, but I am the man you would send to the block, guilty or innocent."

As he spoke the princess dropped back in the chair, her rash courage gone. A stir near the doorway told of his concluding sentence, and the other American stepped forward, his face showing his excitement.

"Your highness," he said, "I should have spoken sooner. My lips were parted and ready to cry out when Prince Gabriel interposed and prevented the signing of the decree. Grenfall Lorry did not kill the young prince. I can produce the guilty man!"

CHAPTER XXVI.

THE GUESSING OF ANGUSH.

THE startling assertion created a fresh sensation. Sensations had come so thick and so fast, however, that they seemed component parts of one grand, bewildering climax. The new actor in the drama held the center of the stage undisputed.

"Harry!" cried Lorry.

"Prince Gabriel, why do you shake like a leaf? Is it because you know what I am going to say?" exclaimed Anguish, pointing his finger accusingly at the astonished Prince of Dawsberg.

Gabriel's lips parted, but nothing more than a gasp escaped them. Instinctively his eyes sought the door, then the windows, the peculiar, uncontrollable look of the seated coming to him. Boleroz allowed his gaze to leap instantly to that pallid face, and every eye in the room followed. Yette was standing again, her face glowing.

"An accomplice has confessed all. I have the word of the man who saw the crime committed. I charge Prince Gabriel with the murder of his highness Prince Lorenz."

With a groan Gabriel threw his hands to his heart and tottered forward, glaring at the merciless face of the accuser.

"Confessed! Betrayed!" he faltered. Then he whirled like a madman upon his little coterie of followers. "Vile traitor!" he shrieked. "I will drink your heart's blood!"

With a howl he leaped toward one of the men, a dark faced nobleman named Berrowag. The latter evaded him and rushed toward the door, crying:

"It is a lie, a lie! He has tricked you! I did not confess!"

The prince was seized by his friends, struggling and cursing. A peculiar smile lit up the face of Harry Anguish. "I repeat, he is the assassin!"

Gabriel broke from the detaining hands and, drawing a revolver, rushed for the door.

"Out of the way! I will not be taken alive!"

Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms, Baron Dangloss and others tearing the weapon from his hand. The utmost confusion reigned—women screaming, men shouting—and above all could be heard the howls of the accused prince. "Let me go! Curse you! Curse you! I will not surrender! Let me kill that traitor! Let me at him!" Berrowag had been seized by willing hands, and the two men glared at each other, one crazy with rage, the other shrinking with fear.

Dangloss and Allode half carried, half dragged the prince forward. As he neared Boleroz and the princess he collapsed and became a trembling, moaning suppliant for mercy. Anguish's accusation had struck home.

"Prince Boleroz, I trust you will not object if the Princess Yette substitutes the true assassin for the man named in your promise to Graustark," said Anguish dramatically. Boleroz, as if coming from a dream, turned and knelt before the throne.

"Most adorable Yette," he said, "I sue for pardon. I bow low and lay my open heart before the truest woman in the world." He kissed the black lace hem of her gown and arose. "I am your friend and ally. Asaph and Graustark will live no more with hatred in their hearts. From you I have learned a lesson in justice and constancy."

Prince Gabriel was raving like a madman as the officers hurried him and Berrowag from the room. A shout went up from those assembled. Its echo, reaching the halls, then the gardens, was finally taken up by the waiting masses beyond the gates. The news flew like wildfire. Rejoicing such as had never been known shook Edelweiss until the monks on the mountain looked down in wonder.

After the dazed and happy throng about the throne had heaped its expressions of love and devotion upon the radiant princess a single figure knelt in submission just as she was preparing to depart. It was the Duke of Mizrog.

"Your royal highness, Mizrog is ready to pay his forfeit. My life is yours," he said calmly. She did not comprehend until her uncle reminded her of the oath. Mizrog had taken the morning after the murder.

"The sworn-on his life that you killed Lorenz," she said, turning to Lorry.

"I was wrong, but I am willing to pay the penalty. My love for Lorenz was greater than my discretion. That is my only excuse, but it is one you should not accept," said Mizrog, as coolly as if announcing the time of day. Lorry looked first at him and then at the princess, bewildered and uncertain.

"I have no ill will against you, my lord duke. Release him from his bond, your highness."

"Gladly, since you refuse to hold him to his oath," she said.

"I am under an eternal obligation to you, sir, for your leniency, and I shall ever revere the princess who pardons so graciously the gravest error."

Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

Eloquent Argument of Mr. Lodge

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held another consideration of the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell of Oregon calling upon the secretary of war for complete information regarding the transport service of the United States was adopted.

THE LEGISLATURE

McCREARY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected McCreary senator again. The Pittsford county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire. Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHERS' CONTEST

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forsythe of this division of the secret service.

The Human Lottery

"Ah, if only I were beautiful how happy I would be."

Many a fortune teller has said this as he looked into the mirror. For beauty women have sacrificed home, love and friends. It is the one possession in the lottery of human life which women would not refuse.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

For young girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, fast and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, protracted periods and painful menses, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleaning. Bradfield's Female Regulator for women is particularly valuable and useful owing to its tonic properties to build up the system, and as a regulator of the menstrual flow. The mild, pleasant and agreeable menstruating permanently relieved and all diseases peculiar to the female system are cured by it. Regularity cleans the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, increases the vitality and blood conditions of the skin and cures skin blemishes to a certainty by removing the cause. It does not give a purgative effect. Perfect Health for Women is true and will be mailed on receipt of address. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns. Her gunner, however, was the first man killed. The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DEOLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

COUNTY COURT

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets.

G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $200, property on Jefferson street.

C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end.

Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,250, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today.

It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his livery stable. The safe has been in the county judges' office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

Olas Johnson, a colored barber of Columbus, Ky., and Bessie E. Caldwell of the city were licensed to wed this afternoon. It will be the first marriage of the bride and the second of the groom.

POLICE COURT

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed. El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for presenting a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Davis, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case.

Janie Noas, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

W. O. T. U. MEETING

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 with Mrs. J. D. Smith at Jefferson and Ninth streets.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. The bank was broken into about 2 this morning, and the robbers scooped some of the residents in their escape. A deputy sheriff was notified, and got out in time to fight four of the robbers, ten shots being exchanged. The robbers were routed, and bloodhounds are now on their trail. The four robbers were captured four miles from town. They only secured $1147, it seems, as this was all recovered. They would not talk. The names they gave were probably fictitious.

THE ELKS JUBILEE SCHOOL TERM ENDS

Gradually the Plans Are Becoming Defined for the Week.

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CORRESPONDENCE INCREASING DAILY

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let. The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

CENTRAL UNION

A Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Consider Caulkers Grievance.

Eight of Them Went on a Strike at the Dry Docks.

A meeting of Central Labor Union is called this evening for the purpose, it is understood, of hearing a grievance from eight ship caulkers who have been at work on the Paducah Dry Docks.

It is understood that the men claim their hours of work were cut down from ten to eight because of government work on hand, on which only eight hours' work a day is permitted. This cut them down sixty cents a day, and as it was no fault of theirs, and they want to work full time, they claim they should be paid for the full ten hours, or allowed to work that long and earn it.

Superintendent Young Taylor, however, states that the work he has contracted for on a basis of thirty-five cents an hour. If he pays them $3 a day for eight hours, he will be paying them 37 1/2 cents an hour, instead of 30, and will be losing 7 1/2 cents on every hour they work, which he alleges he cannot stand. His claim is no more to blame for the restriction to eight hours a day when they formerly worked ten, than they, and will not pay for something he hasn't getting. Superintendent Taylor says that if the men do not desire to return to work at the present rate, $2.40 for eight hours, he will get new men.

CAPTAIN ED FARLEY WILL BE A GUEST ON THE ISLAND QUEEN.

Captain Ed Farley of Mechanicsburg will leave on the Island Queen when she goes south this week for New Orleans, where he will visit and attend Mardi Gras. On the handsome steamer he will be the guest of Captain Brooks, and he expects to be absent several weeks in the Crescent City.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being. The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

Send for our special book on Rheumatism, which is free to all who desire it. Write your physicians about your case, and they will cheerfully furnish any information or advice wanted free of cost.

A REAR-END CRASH

The Cannon-Ball Struck a Freight Train Near Kuttawa Today.

Engineer Devinney Slightly Hurt By Jumping to Save Himself—No One Else Hurt.

A CABOOSE AND CAR WERE BURNED

There was a passenger wreck on the Illinois Central at Kuttawa this morning shortly after 2 o'clock, but only one man was injured and he not seriously.

Passenger train No. 104, which arrives in Paducah at 1:20 a. m., struck the rear end of freight train No. 174, third section, both east bound, and one caboose and a freight car were burned and the passenger engine No. 204, damaged badly. The pilot of the engine was knocked off, the front end stove in and the headlight crashed. Engineer McNulty was sent out this morning on the wrecker to bring the disabled engine back to the local shops.

The freight train was composed of 80 cars and was going into a siding at the above named station when the passenger struck it. The fault of the wreck has not yet been settled.

The freight train was in charge of Conductor Burkam and Engineer Skera and the passenger in charge of Conductor Wheeler and Engineer Devinney, the latter being injured about the face in jumping from his engine when he saw the train ahead. It was reported that Mr. Owen Tully, a flagman, of Paducah, was injured but the report was unfounded. Engineer Devinney lives in Louisville but is now in the local hospital.

This is the first collision to occur on the Central City district for some time. The wrecker was sent out at 7:45 this morning, following the early accommodation train. Train No. 109 from Louisville to Memphis, was the only train into Paducah delayed by the accident.

It is understood that the freight train was on the other's time, as for some reason it failed to get off the main line.

Flagman Tully went back to flag the cannon ball, but didn't get far enough. The engineer of the passenger jumped about where the flagman was standing. About eight cars were telescoped, and the fireman, strange to say, remained on the engine and was not hurt.

Flagman Tully lost a gun and a pistol, two suits of clothing and forty dollars in the burning of the caboose.

DR. JOHN BONDS DOES NOT WANT TO BE A MEMBER OF HEALTH BOARD.

Dr. John Bonds did not qualify as a member of the board of health when he was elected in December, and as a result some one will have to be elected in his place. He claims he elected in his place, and does not want it. The board of health seems to be a dead duck. It has not met in months, and it is claimed that there is no president, and no board, as it has never met for reorganization this year, as required by law.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your woes.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at

Frankfort is merely another Democratic

scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the removal and confirming the court of inquiry, and the

scholar work has been devoted to this alone. It has cost the state more than

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and Historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The

session lasted but a few minutes, and

eventually no other business was

transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they

could not get a quorum to vote on the

resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on

record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general

assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified

and much more in keeping with the

true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business to

transact.

The lockup keeper question will

come up, and the mayor has signified

his intention of making the appointment tonight. The mayor will do

little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in

Garbage Dump Keoper Joe Wagner

from $30 and $30 per month to $35

the year around will be reported and

possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

will come up for discussion, and also

the matter of condemning several buildings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the

city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be

taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

and damaged his property.

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

Today's Chicago Record-Herald says: "The Illinois Central railroad will, within the course of a short while, have all the principal stations along its lines completely equipped with telephone wires for the use of officials and employees in transmitting orders and messages of the company."

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the action will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Louisville, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Ricks and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on him. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

Don't Grouse, of Post A, Louisville, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt, from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so than that which swells the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteers, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally a couple of flames shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the exalted captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolitan Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixtieth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by lancing some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years, and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, engineer, L. E. & W. B. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted."

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details for the Two Weeks Stay.

PRINCE MAY MAKE FLYING TOUR

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the celebration of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the prince, as the special representative of the President. When the prince reaches Washington he will become the guest of the German ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be confided to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wyckelsky, the counselor and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Hingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he cannot start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the ruler.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill, Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield. The launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his representative, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capital when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will call for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

THE RIVER NEWS.

(By W. F. LAMBIN, Reporter.)

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 8.5, in last 24 hours a fall of 0.3. Wind southeast, a light breeze. Weather part cloudy and warmer. Temperature 40. Poll, Observer.

Business rather quiet down on the wharf today.

The Clyde is due this evening from Tennessee river.

The Ohio is getting low, but there will be a rise soon.

The H. W. Butterfield left at noon today for Clarksville.

The W. W. O'Neil left New Orleans Friday for this city.

The John K. Speed is on her way up from New Orleans.

There is plenty of work at the Marine Ways, and dry docks.

The coal combine is loading 10,000 tons of steel rails at Bessemer for the South.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with nice business.

John Winfrey and "Yallerdam" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and R. F. Estes, of Capito.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the extension business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Superintending Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever ran from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magenta, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charming, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natchez, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne. Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was whipsawed that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain, she was so christened. The rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouse, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

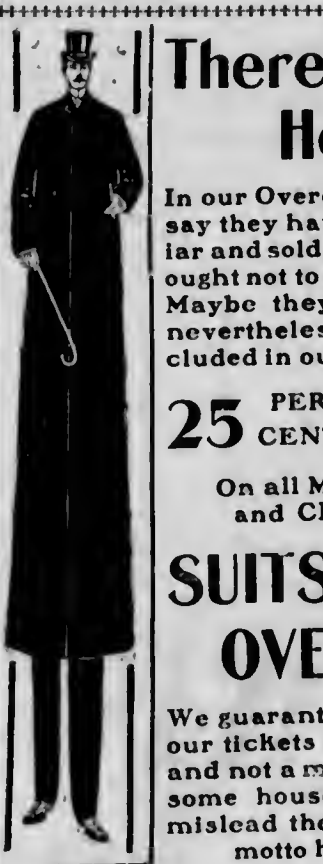

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. Kraus' office, at the city hall, and is a young lady esteemed by all who know her for her many excellent qualities, and one of charming personality. Mr. Schroeder is an employee of the Illinois Central, and is a highly respected and popular young man.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

LOVE AND THE MODERN NOVEL

Coasting stories to be connected with Modern Interests.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinated to the modern interests which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it safer prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawning century will come back to the older assumption, re-inventing the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-time greenish-gold? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive is due to the shifted place of woman in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole recreation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-supporting work. Modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonesome hearth, sadly reminiscing, kitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

A Gun Manufacturer's Enterprise.

An hour after Colonel Roosevelt took the oath of office as president, one of the most famous gun manufacturers in the world had artists at work making a picture of his excellency standing on the pinnacle of Mount Marcy with a rifle at his shoulder aiming at a bull moose on the summit of Mt. Katahdin. The gun, of course, was the product of the alert manufacturer. Beneath the picture was the weapon with which President Roosevelt killed a moose a few minutes before receiving the news that he was president of the United States, etc. There is nothing historically correct in the "work of art," but it shows the purpose for which it was intended.—New York Press.

Knowledge Are Superstitions. Like the Japanese, the Norwegians are very superstitious and, as in the forests, the mountains and gorges are peopled with fairies, so in the good fairy of the Norwegian looks after the cattle pastures, and if he is well treated they are healthy, and the cow gives lots of milk. To propitiate him it is necessary to put a dish of porridge on the threshold of the cow stable on Christmas morning. Whenever the family moves, this invisible being goes along with them, and sits on the top of the roof.

NEW CONCERN
A MILL WILL BE ESTABLISHED AT VIOLA.
There is an effort being made, with prospects of success, to organize a stock company of $10,000 to build a roller, grist, saw and planing mills and general store at Viola, a flag station between Hickory and Bona.

IT IS A GO.
CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS CENTRAL CONTRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and to Chicago today to have the contract signed up. He will purchase the land he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to work part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.
THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

GOOD ROADS LAW.
MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION JANUARY 28.

The legislative committee of the Kentucky Good Roads Association will meet in Louisville Tuesday, January 28, for the purpose of formulating a good roads measure for presentation to the legislature. Letters have been sent to county judges in the state asking that any suggestions they may have to make with regard to the contemplated measure be sent to the committee at once. In addition, it is requested that any citizens who have suggestions to make also send them in.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. TOBE ROGERS
The funeral of the late Mr. Tobo Rogers took place this afternoon from the family residence on West Broadway, services by Rev. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Thomas House, of the county. The Old Fellows were in charge and the burial was at Oak Grove. Many friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

FOR COMPULSORY VACCINATION.
Wingo, Ky., Jan. 22.—The best citizens of this community have noted a petition to their representatives to the legislature for a compulsory vaccination law. The favours of smallpox have been severely felt here, and it is hoped that other communities will prepare similar petitions.

TRUE HAPPINESS.
COLONEL LEMON TELLS OF A M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.
The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story:
"We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.
A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO AND WHISKY.
Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.
THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE TO LAND AT BROOKPORT TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week. The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.
CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

PROFILE FORWARDED.
A plat of the 20,000 acres on which Paducah wants the army site located, with a communication setting forth our claims to the post, were forwarded last night by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club, to General Miles, at Washington, for the consideration of the army board that has the matter under advisement.

BAD FALL.
New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Flanagan, the ex-champion heavy weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theatre in Brooklyn. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side, and it is feared his spine had been hurt.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.
New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. H. E. Holman of this city announced today that her daughter Josephine had asked William Maroon, the developer of wireless telegraphy, to release her from her engagement to marry him, and that Mr. Maroon had complied with her request.

HORSES AND MULES WANTED.

RECEIVED A PARDON.
Arthur Winters, a young man convicted at Mayfield recently for passing forged checks, and given three years, has been pardoned. He was a stranger in Mayfield and claimed a check on Ligon, Allen and Co., that afterwards proved to be forged, was given to him by a man named Bell.

$500 FOR HENDERSON CHURCH.
Washington, Jan. 22.—The committee on war claims this morning reported favorably a bill for the settlement of the claim of the Christian church at Henderson, Ky., for rent during the Civil War. The original claim of $1,500 was reduced in $500.

MARRIAGE IN GRAVES.
Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 22.—Mr. John Ocho and Miss Mamie Williams were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. J. H. Roberts. Both of these young people are very popular with the people who knew them.

THE TRAMP DIED.
Wm Woods, the tramp in the Illinois Central wreck near South Fork last week, died at a farm house nearby, where he had been taken for treatment. He was stealing a ride when mangled by the collision.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES.
Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"
"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT.
One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of
Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, mildly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.
Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Senator Lodge Opened the Debate Yesterday in the Senate.

A Position of Preference Has Been Given the Bill Until Finally Voted On.

ELOQUENT ARGUMENT OF MR. LODGE

Washington, Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate held another consideration of the Philippine tariff bill. The measure was made the unfinished business, and probably will hold that position of preference until it shall have been voted on finally. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on Philippines. He sketched in a free hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure, and urged strongly its enactment into law. He appealed to Congress to deal with the question relating to the Philippines as they might arise, and to keep clear of vague words and vague promises, which were likely to be misinterpreted, and to raise false hopes in the minds of the Filipinos. In an impassioned peroration he besought Congress not to give mortgages on an unknown future.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipinos as soon as a stable government could be established in the Philippines.

As a conclusion of the debate for the day, Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the secretary of war for an alleged violation of the law in issuing an order permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

In introducing a bill for the reclamation of arid lands, Mr. Blackburn of North Dakota said that it was a measure unanimously agreed upon by Senators and Representatives of thirteen states and three territories.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell of Oregon calling upon the secretary of war for complete information regarding the transport service of the United States was adopted.

THE LEGISLATURE

M'CRAERY IS ELECTED STILL SOME MORE—OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—The two houses at noon in joint session elected McCreary again. The Pittsburg county claims bill passed the senate and was the first to pass either house. The Harris bill, returning to the viva voce method of voting, was passed in the senate.

Five senate bills were introduced today. Coleman's bill to place the appointment of janitors for state buildings in the hands of the sinking fund commission was passed by a party vote.

Several house bills were introduced favorably, but the capital bill hangs fire. Allen's bill to add $21,000 to the militia appropriation passed the senate.

TELEGRAPHER'S CONTEST

FAST MEN OF THE SOUTH TO FIGHT BRASS AT ATLANTA FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CASH PRIZES.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—The telegraphers of the South will hold a fast ending tournament in Atlanta February 23. The contest will be representative of the South, and the tournament therefore is open only to those south of the Ohio river. The prizes, so far as determined, will be a gold medal and $50 in cash to the winner; $25 as second prize, and $15 to the third best man. Other classes will be announced later. The contest is open to all those engaged in telegraphy, and includes railroad operators.

EXPERT COUNTERFEITER.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT AT GAINESVILLE, TEX.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 22.—United States court officials report the arrest at Gainesville of T. H. Reagan, whom they claim as the most expert counterfeiter that ever operated in this state. Indictments on fifteen counts have been found against him by the federal grand jury now in session at Dallas. Reagan is accused of raising silver certificates and other treasury notes from small denominations to large ones, the counterfeiters being so cleverly executed that some of them passed through the Texas banks. Reagan is in jail at Gainesville tonight, but is to be taken to Dallas tomorrow by Chief Forester of this division of the secret service.

The Human Lottery

"Ah, if only I were beautiful how happy I would be."

Many a fortune teller has said this as he looked into the mirror. For beauty women have sacrificed home, love and friends. It is the one possession in the lottery of human life which women would not refuse.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

For young girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, fast and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, protracted periods and painful menses, and their systems generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleaning. Bradfield's Female Regulator for women is particularly valuable and useful owing to its tonic properties to build up the system, and as a regulator of the menstrual flow. The mild, pleasant and agreeable menstruation permanently relieved and all diseases peculiar to the female system cured by it. Regularizes the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, increases the vitality and blood conditions of the skin and cures skin blemishes to a certainty by removing the cause. It does not give a purgative effect. Perfect Health for Women is true and will be mailed on receipt of address. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

QUIET AT PANAMA

There Were Only Five Killed in the Recent Battle, It Seems.

The Foreigners Refused to Obey Orders When the Pinch Came.

THE DEATH OF GENERAL ALBAN

Panama, Colombia, Jan. 22.—All is quiet here today. Gen. Herrera, the revolutionary leader, informed Capt. Meade of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that he came here to prevent the Colombian government using the steamer Lantaro against the liberals. He had accomplished this, and, therefore, retired.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces, five men were killed and four wounded.

The exchange of prisoners was responsible for the disaster to the government. From the former revolutionists heard of the plans of the government. The Lantaro's circulating pump was out of order, and she had no steam up when she was attacked by the Padilla. The Padilla, which was recently painted so as to deceive the government officers as to her identity, advanced unopposed to a spot about 300 meters from the Lantaro. She then began firing at the Lantaro. The position of the latter prevented her from using her two big guns mounted forward, but she returned the Padilla's fire with her small after guns. Her gunner, however, was the first man killed. The foreign crew of the Lantaro refused to obey orders. General Alban, who displayed great courage, was shot on the steamer's deck.

Gen. Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district in succession to Gen. Alban. Senator Arjona is the civil governor. It is believed that the revolutionary ships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops here.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. Passengers who arrived here by the train leaving Colon this morning report having met a number of revolutionists at Jordan station. A spy sent by the revolutionary general Porras was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

AMERICA'S GOOD FRIEND

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DECLINES TO BE DRAWN INTO THE CONTROVERSY.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department will not be drawn into the controversy which has sprung up between the European powers respecting the effort made by them to prevent the United States from going to war with Spain. Lord Cranborne's statement in Parliament yesterday is recognized as absolutely correct as far as it went, but there are chapters in the story which he did not touch upon, and it is recognized here as inexpedient to develop all the facts even now, lest animosities spring up without sufficient reason.

THE CITY LOST AGAIN

The Jury Awards R. M. Allen $1500 Damages Against City of Paducah

The Verdict Brought In This Morning—Police Court Docket Quite Lengthy.

NEWS FROM THE OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in the case of R. M. Allen against the city of Paducah for $3500 damages this morning about 10:30 o'clock brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1500 damages. He sued for $3500 for the location of the city's post office adjacent to his farm about five miles from the city on the Hinkleville road, and at a former trial was awarded $3500 damages.

The city took an appeal and the appellate court reversed the lower court and sent the case back for another trial. This was concluded yesterday afternoon after a week consumed in hearing the evidence. There was considerable expert testimony introduced, and four speeches were made before the case was given to the jury about noon yesterday.

Mr. Allen is one of the best known men in the county. When the post office was first built about three or four years ago, the city lost a great deal of trouble, and several times the hospital wagon was used on some one in the vicinity, and some of the people whose homes were near even went so far as to fence up the road. The city will immediately make a motion for a new trial, and if refused will take an appeal.

In the case of the National Wall Paper company against C. O. Lee, the plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the defendant's answer, which was sustained with leave to amend.

In the case of Bertha Leisner against Earl C. Leisner, a claim of $20.97, was filed for the Capital Paper Co.

At press time the case of W. H. Robber against the I. C. railroad, for $20,000 damages, was on trial. The case will not be finished this afternoon.

COUNTY COURT

C. H. Wilson and wife of Smithland have given power of attorney to C. H. Wilson to do business in the city in their name.

A. W. Grief and others deal to Moriz J. Friedman, for $370, property near Third and Court streets.

G. M. Wilson and others deal to G. W. Goff, for $2,000, property near Fifth and Norton streets.

Ed P. Noble deals to C. B. Acree, for $220, property on Jefferson street.

C. S. Acree deals to J. B. Hall, for $800, property in the west end.

Allie B. Cowell deals to Larn S. Fowler, for $2,250, property near Ninth and Monroe streets.

Dick Keeling, colored, aged 23, of the city, and Ella Mercer, of the city age 21, were licensed to wed today. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

The liquor license of J. T. Furmer was this morning transferred to Goodman and Bonner. The saloon is located in Mechanicsburg.

The transfer company is today moving the big safe, owned by Mr. Wyan Tully, formerly the property of his father, to his livery stable. The safe has been in the county judges office.

Fred Beyers and others deal to Ulrich Beyers, for $1,200, property in the county.

Olas Johnson, a colored barber of Columbus, Ky., and Bessie E. Caldwell of the city were licensed to wed this afternoon. It will be the first marriage of the bride and the second of the groom.

POLICE COURT

In the case of John Amron and Pinkney Childers, breach of the peace, for fighting, the warrant was dismissed as to Childers and the former was fined $3 and the costs.

The warrant against Doc Davis, colored, for coal stealing, was dismissed.

El C. Price, colored, was arraigned on two separate warrants, one for procuring a pistol and the other for carrying concealed and deadly weapons. The cases were both continued.

Jack Boyd, colored, was held over to the circuit court on the charge of criminal assault. He was arrested several days ago at St. Louis.

Arch Reed, alias Wilson, and Bertie Davis, colored, were held over for false swearing in an immorality case.

Janie Noas, colored, was held over for the same charge in the same case, but was recognized to appear before the circuit court.

W. O. T. U. MEETING

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 with Mrs. J. D. Smith at Jefferson and Ninth streets.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

A Deputy Sheriff Has a Fight, Several Shots Being Exchanged.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 22.—Robbers last night blew the vault and safe at the Bank of Hartford, and secured $2000 cash, but in their haste and excitement overlooked four thousand. The bank was broken into about 2 this morning, and the robbers scooped some of the residents in their escape. A deputy sheriff was notified, and got

A Governor's Day It Favorably Talked Of—Also a Soldier's Reunion.

CORRESPONDENCE INCREASING DAILY

The executive committee of the Elks Jubilee Carnival this morning received a telegram from Mr. Gaskill of the Canton Carnival Co., stating that he would be here on the 22nd inst. to further confer with the members relative to the carnival contract. That is the date, it will be remembered, that the contract is to be let.

The committee has decided to have a "Governor's Day," when Governor Beckham and staff will be here from Frankfort. Mr. Harry G. Tandy, assistant secretary of state, and a member of Paducah lodge, will be chairman of the committee to invite him here. The other members of the committee will be County Judge Lightfoot, Mayor Yeiser and Former Mayor Laug. Elaborate preparations will be made for his entertainment, and there will doubtless be a large crowd on that day.

The committee is also considering the advisability of having a soldiers' reunion day, on which all the old soldiers could come to the city and have a good time and see the sights. It has been a good many years since a soldiers' reunion here, and perhaps an enormous crowd would attend on that day.

The executive committee in receiving hundreds of letters every day for concessions, privileges and such things, which shows that Paducah is unsurpassed as a carnival city, and that everybody knows the Elks are to have another one, and want to get in the game. Secretary Henry Nunn is giving the correspondence his entire attention, and expects the volume to greatly increase during the next few weeks.

CENTRAL UNION

A Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Consider Caulkers Grievance.

Eight of Them Went on a Strike at the Dry Docks.

A meeting of Central Labor Union is called this evening for the purpose, it is understood, of hearing a grievance from eight ship caulkers who have been at work on the Paducah Dry Docks.

It is understood that the men claim their hours of work were cut down from ten to eight because of government work on hand, on which only eight hours' work a day is permitted. This cut them down sixty cents a day, and as it was no fault of theirs, and they want to work full time, they claim they should be paid for the full ten hours, or allowed to work that long and earn it.

Superintendent Young Taylor, however, states that the work he has contracted for on a basis of thirty-five cents an hour. If he pays them $3 a day for eight hours, he will be paying them 37 1/2 cents an hour, instead of 30, and will be losing 7 1/2 cents on every hour they work, which he alleges he cannot stand. His claim is no more to blame for the restriction to eight hours a day when they formerly worked ten, than they, and will not pay for something he isn't getting. Superintendent Taylor says that if the men do not desire to return to work at the present rate, $2.40 for eight hours, he will get new men.

WILL BE REAPPOINTED.

SURVEYOR OF CUSTOMS PURVEYOR TO KEEP HIS POSITION.

Washington, Jan. 22.—It was settled today that Surveyor of Customs J. H. Parryear of Paducah, is to be reappointed.

CRUTCH-BOUND

The man with the crutch never fails to arouse the deepest sympathy and awaken the tenderest emotions of his more fortunate fellow being. The haggard countenance, swollen joints and twisted and deformed limbs tell a pathetic story of suffering such as Rheumatism alone can inflict. Only those who are painfully and slowly hobbling through life can fully realize what it means to be crutch-bound. They feel most keenly their helpless and dependent condition when it dawns upon them that they are no longer workers but unwilling drones in the busy world.

Rheumatism should not be neglected because the pains at first are wandering and slight. These are only the rumblings of an approaching storm of pains and aches that may transfer you from a life of activity to the ranks of the crutch-bound cripples.

Rheumatism is due to acid gritty particles being deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves by an impure and too-acid blood, and the strongest constitutions or muscles of iron and nerves of steel can long withstand these corroding poisons. They penetrate to every fibre of the body, and no liniment, lotion or other external application can reach and dislodge them.

Finally the natural oils are consumed when there is a creaking, grinding noise with every movement of the limbs, the joints become locked and immovable, the muscles wither or contract, the nervous system gives way and the patient becomes a physical wreck and crutch-bound cripple. Rubbing with liniments may produce counter-irritation and afford temporary ease, but they cannot reach and destroy these corrosive particles, which are daily forming in the blood.

The correct treatment—the true cure for Rheumatism—is a remedy that will dissolve and wash out this inflammatory matter and expel it from the system, and no medicine does this so promptly and thoroughly as S. S. S. It neutralizes and eliminates from the blood current all poisonous, noxious substances and makes the blood pure and strong again and, as it circulates through the body, all effete matter is gathered up and sent out through the proper channels. This rich new blood cools the feverish, throbbing muscles and joints and refreshes the tired nerves, and welcome relief comes to the throbbing sufferer.

S. S. S. contains no Potash, Opium, Anodyne or mineral of any description, but is a Guaranteed Purely Vegetable Compound. The strong minerals that are usually prescribed in Rheumatic cases act very injuriously upon the lining of the stomach, causing inflammation and a most distressing form of dyspepsia.

S. S. S. not only purifies the blood, but at the same time invigorates and tones up the whole system, increases the appetite, strengthens the digestion and restores the rheumatic sufferer to sound health again.

Send for our special book on Rheumatism, which is free to all who desire it. Write your physicians about your case, and they will cheerfully furnish any information or advice wanted free of cost.

A REAR-END CRASH

The Cannon-Ball Struck a Freight Train Near Kuttawa Today.

Engineer Devinney Slightly Hurt By Jumping to Save Himself—No One Else Hurt.

A CABOOSE AND CAR WERE BURNED

There was a passenger wreck on the Illinois Central at Kuttawa this morning shortly after 2 o'clock, but only one man was injured and he not seriously.

Passenger train No. 104, which arrives in Paducah at 1:20 a. m. struck the rear end of freight train No. 174, third section, both east bound, and one caboose and a freight car were burned and the passenger engine No. 204, damaged badly. The pilot of the engine was knocked off, the front end stove in and the headlight crashed. Engineer McNulty was sent out this morning on the wrecker to bring the disabled engine back to the local shops.

The freight train was composed of 80 cars and was going into a siding at the above named station when the passenger struck it. The fault of the wreck has not yet been settled.

The freight train was in charge of Conductor Burkam and Engineer Skera and the passenger in charge of Conductor Wheeler and Engineer Devinney, the latter being injured about the face in jumping from his engine when he saw the train ahead. It was reported that Mr. Owen Tully, a flagman, of Paducah, was injured but the report was unfounded. Engineer Devinney lies in Louisville hospital.

This is the first collision to occur on the Central City district for some time. The wrecker was sent out at 7:45 this morning, following the early accommodation train. Train No. 109 from Louisville to Memphis, was the only train into Paducah delayed by the accident.

It is understood that the freight train was on the other's time, as for some reason it failed to get off the main line.

Flagman Tully went back to flag the cannon ball, but didn't get far enough. The engineer of the passenger jumped about where the flagman was standing. About eight cars were telescoped, and the fireman, strange to say, remained on the engine and was not hurt.

Flagman Tully lost a gun and a pistol, two suits of clothing and forty dollars in the burning of the caboose.

HAS NOT QUALIFIED. WILL NOT FINISH. DR. JOHN BONDS DOES NOT WANT TO BE A MEMBER OF HEALTH BOARD.

Dr. John Bonds did not qualify as a member of the board of health when he was elected in December, and as a result some one will have to be elected in his place. He claims he elected in his place, and does not want it. The board of health seems to be a dead duck. It has not met in months, and it is claimed that there is no president, and no board, as it has never met for reorganization this year, as required by law.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Talk happiness. The world is sad

without your woes.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

It seems that the Schley resolution

introduced in the state legislature at

Frankfort is merely another Democratic

scheme. A Frankfort dispatch of

Saturday says significantly: "The

Democrats hope to place the Republicans of the general assembly on record

as opposed to the Schley resolution

concerning the removal and confirming the court of inquiry, and the

scholar work has been devoted to this alone. It has cost the state more than

$1,000 to adopt the resolution. In the house inviting Admiral Schley to visit

the legislature and condemning the

board of inquiry and Historian Macley.

This was the only matter discussed

in the senate this morning. The

session lasted but a few minutes, and

eventually no other business was

transacted. The Democrats adjourned

the session when they found that they

could not get a quorum to vote on the

resolution as it came from the house.

Several of the Republican members

refused to vote, and the quorum was broken. Hickman's sole ambition

seemed to be to make the state pay

for an extra day for the purpose of

attempting to put the Republicans on

record, in which he failed signally.

The Republicans in the general

assembly, since the beginning of the

Schley controversy, have stood for the resolution, but have fought the de-

clamatory and "harmless" language

in which it was worded. The position

of the Republican members

throughout has been more dignified

and much more in keeping with the

true legislative spirit."

THE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD

THIS EVENING.

The council will meet in regular session tonight, with much business

to transact.

The lockup keeper question will

come up, and the mayor has signified

his intention of making the appointment tonight. The mayor will do

little talking in regard to the matter.

The referred matter of the rates in

Garbage Dump Keoper Joe Wagner

from $30 and $30 per month to $35

the year around will be reported and

possibly acted on.

The telephone franchise question

will come up for discussion, and also

the matter of condemning several buildings that have been reported unsafe by

the fire committee and the chief of

the fire department.

The street committee will have several reports on the work about the

city, and also of the Tennessee street

fill, that has been damaged by the

heavy rains. City Attorney Worton,

who owns much property in that vicinity, requested that some action be

taken in the matter of making the

repairs, as the rains filled the hollows

and damaged his property.

NEW CONCERN
TO HALL WILL BE ESTABLISHED

There is an effort being made, with prospects of success, to organize a stock company of $10,000 to build a roller, grist, saw and planing mills and general store at Viola, a flag station between Hickory and Bona.

IT IS A GO.
CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN
GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS
CENTRAL CON-
TRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and to Chicago today to have the contract signed up. He will purchase, before he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to every part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

FORMER MAYOR LANG TO ADD A LABORATORY TO HIS
DRUG STORE.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed on the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up.

"I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.

THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 900 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY
ASSOCIATION JANUARY 28.

The legislative committee of the Kentucky Good Roads Association will meet in Louisville Tuesday, January 28, for the purpose of formulating a good roads measure for presentation to the legislature. Letters have been sent to county judges in the state asking that any suggestions they may have to make with regard to the contemplated measure be sent to the committee at once. In addition, it is requested that any citizens who have suggestions to make also send them in.

FUNERAL OF THE
LATE MR. TOBE ROGERS

The funeral of the late Mr. Tob Rogers took place this afternoon from the family residence on West Broadway, services by Rev. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church, and Rev. TRUE HAPPINESS
COLONEL LEMON TELL OF A
M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.

The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story: "We have in mind one that is a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharps, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were sixteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would make up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.

A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO
AND WHISKY

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canal, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.

THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE
TO LAND AT BROOKPORT
TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.

CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY
SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal R. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today.

He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

PROFILE FORWARDED

A plat of the 20,000 acres on which Paducah wants the army site located, with a communication setting forth our claims to the post, were forwarded last night by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club, to General Miles, at Washington, for the consideration of the army board that has the matter under advisement.

BAD FALL.

New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Flanagan, the ex-champion heavy weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theatre in Brooklyn. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side, and it is feared his spine had been hurt.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.

New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. H. E. Holman of this city announced today that her daughter Josephine had asked William Maroon, the developer of wireless telegraphy, to release her from her engagement to marry him, and that Mr. Maroon had complied with her request.

RECEIVED A PARDON

Arthur Winters, a young man convicted at Mayfield recently for passing forged checks, and given three years, has been pardoned. He was a stranger in Mayfield and claimed a check on Ligon, Allen and Co., that afterwards proved to be forged, was given to him by a man named Bell.

$500 FOR HENDERSON CHURCH.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The committee on war claims this morning reported favorably a bill for the settlement of the claim of the Christian church at Henderson, Ky., for rent during the Civil War. The original claim of $1,500 was reduced in $500.

MARRIAGE IN GRAVES

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 22.—Mr. John Ocho and Miss Mamie Williams were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. J. H. Roberts. Both of these young people are very popular with the people who knew them.

THE TRAMP DIED

Wm Woods, the tramp in the Illinois Central wreck near South Fork last week, died at a farm house nearby, where he had been taken for treatment. He was stealing a ride when mangled by the collision.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES

Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case. She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has enabled to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in 512 gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the table on which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the old girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, knocked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of
Henry F. Allen,
Born
1830
Died
1858

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why—began the young woman—

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, mildly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.

Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but it is hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.
